HUMAN INTEREST

Financial papers are not noted for publishing matters of human interest. However they sometimes forget themselves and become interesting. In the latest number of the Financial Post is an article by "Atticus" under the heading "London Calling" that is particularly bright and interesting. Telling of a dinner which the writer of the article attended he said Beverley Nicholls made an eloquent and beautifully phrased speech, so full of wisdom that nobody bothered to report it. A speech by the Chinese ambassador, dealing with the action of Great Britain in extending credits to China, said it was an act of chivalry and enlightened self-interest. Later the ambassador had to single out Lord Chatfield for special mention and, in doing so, said: "I have broken my solemn pledge but in doing so I am at least in the fashion of these days." Lord Chatfield, in replying to a toast, said of China he hoped that country would soon be a land flowing with "silk and money."

The same speaker, according to the account, remarked: "In fact I am forced to confess that, what with loving the Chinese, the Poles, the French, the Turks, the Greeks, the Russians and the Americans, a conscientious Briton has a busy time these days."

LIKE THE PREACHERS

Atticus also tells of a speech he heard Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett deliver and, as most local people have also heard Mr. Bennett speak and they have also heard many preachers who seem to have come to an end and then carry on to an anti-climax, they will be interested in the remarks about the former Prime Minister of Canada:

"Mr. Bennett does not employ the usual artifices of public speaking. He deals with one thought at a time. His oratory has no voluptuous curves. He does not plan a climax or flirt with the effect of a sudden silence. Like Beethoven he frequently comes to an end and then goes on again. When it is all over one is conscious of having listened to a man of grand spirit and great Imperial vision."

A GREAT AUSTRALIAN

The same writer has something to say of Hon. R. G. Menzies, attorney general and minister of industries in the new Australian government and leader of the United Australian party. He asks readers to note his name. He speaks very highly of him and suggests that he will be Prime Minister of Australia before long. One striking sentence in his eulogy is: "His irony is a glorious thing if aimed at someone else." Concluding Atticus says: "Now he is in the maelstrom of events and there will be no further peace for him. But that is the curse which falls on men whose gifts force them to outstrip their fellows."

Miss Marguerite Manson Heard at Meeting in Booth Memorial School

There was a large attendance in the auditorium of Booth Memorial High School yesterday afternoon when Miss Marguerite Manson, provincial organizer of Junior Red Cross, spoke on the subject of Junior Red Cross work. The meeting was held under the auspices of the Prince Rupert Teachers' Association with the Women's Canadian Club and the Prince Rupert Parent-Teachers' Association co-operating.

In introducing the speaker, J. E. Wilson, who credited, stressed the need for the co-operation of parents, teachers and pupils in all matters of education. Health was the most important subject and the home and school should be complementary agents in making the attainment and maintenance of health an every day habit. Strong public opinion would require school buildings to be sanitary so that pupils' health would not be imperiled.

Miss Manson gave striking figures illustrating the world-wide interest in the work of the Junior Red Cross. Its three principal features were health, service and international relationships. Branches were found in fifty different nations. In British Columbia there were 25,000 members and the number was increasing. One value of the movement was the training of the members to become self-reliant and responsible members of the community.

Grade five pupils of the Borden Street School under Miss Margaret Shiel then gave an interesting demonstration of how a Junior Red Cross branch would work. With duly appointed chairman, secretary and treasurer a meeting was held. Other committee chairmen gave reports. A health play was given.

Altogether a most interesting program was presented. While this is a part of the activities program it was evident that it came as a surprise to many of the parents.

Garfield McKinley moved a formal vote of thanks to Miss Manson for her interesting talk and to the pupils and teachers for the demonstration. Dr. Hugh Morrison, inspector of schools, referred to the provision made in the new curriculum for such activities. In this way pupils learned by doing.

An interesting exhibit was a booklet compiled by Junior Red Cross members of Norway. The booklet contained pictures of the Royal Family, the country, the cities, buildings, samples of pressed flowers and handwork. Many remained behind to see the booklet.

WEDDING IS BEAUTIFUL

Miss Edith Wilkinson Becomes Bride of Clifford Madill at Church Ceremony

First United Church was the setting for a beautiful and interesting marriage last evening when Miss Edith Madill, Wilkinson, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Wilkinson, became the bride of Clifford Lewis Madill, son of Mrs. M. C. Madill. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. C. Jackson and the church had been attractively decorated for the occasion with spring flowers and other adornments in pink and blue shades. The church was filled the crowd overflowing to the outside steps.

In the strains of the Wedding March played by Miss Susanna O'Brien at the pipe organ, the bride entered the church upon the arm of her father by whom she was given in marriage. She wore a lovely wedding gown of white net with delicate covered lace insertions passed over with lace jacket and full skirt. A short veil of bridal net was held in place by an off-the-face hat and she carried a shower bouquet of pink Hollywood roses, maidenhair fern and lilies-of-the-valley.

The charming bridesmaids were Miss Vivian Wrathall, in turquoise blue sheer, and Miss Ruth Wilkinson, the bride's sister, in shell pink net. Both bridesmaids wore contrasting Queen Anne hats and carried colonial bouquets.

George Madill, brother of the groom, was groomsmen.

During the signing of the register, the United Church Junior Choir sang "When Song is Sweet" with an additional verse composed especially for the bride by H. T. Lock.

Following the church ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 429 Dunsmuir Street, where the bride and groom received the hearty congratulations and best wishes of many friends. Removing the guests were Mrs. G. V. Wilkinson, the mother of the bride, wearing maroon velvet with navy accessories and a corsage of Hollywood roses, and Mrs. M. C. Madill, mother of the groom, whose costume was of black and silver tulle with a black picture hat and black accessories.

A toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. J. C. Jackson with the groom responding. A toast to the bridesmaids was proposed by E. J. Smith with George Madill responding.

The bride's table was covered by a lace cloth centred with a beautiful three-tier wedding cake which was duly cut by the bride. There were pink tapers in silver holders. Mrs. J. S. Irvine and Mrs. F. N. Peero presided at the urns and the waitresses were Mrs. R. G. Vander

Shays, Miss Audrey Wrathall, Miss Venetia Peero, Miss Elsie Davis, Miss Molly Elliott, Miss Jean MacLean, Miss Lorraine Brockway and Miss Eileen Hamblin.

During the serving of refreshments Mrs. H. T. Lock and Miss Betty Wilkinson sang as a duet "Love's Old Sweet Song."

Later in the evening, with a large crowd at the dock to give them an enthusiastic send-off, Mr. and Mrs. Madill sailed on the Prince George for a honeymoon trip to Vancouver, Victoria and other southern points. The bride wore a gray tailored ensemble with opal blouse and navy accessories.

The bride and the groom will return to the city to take up residence at the Angus Apartments.

On the civic holiday on Monday in connection with the visit of the King to British Columbia the Post Office wickets will be open from 8 a.m. until 12 noon. The public lobby will be open from 8 a.m. until 6 p.m.

ANOTHER TAG DAY

Editor, Daily News:

This committee decided to put on a celebration for children who could not go to Victoria to see Their Majesties. Unfortunately these events cannot be put on without funds so we had to decide the best and fairest way to raise money. We know that the city is rather tired of tag days but it was either that or a canvass of the business men. We felt that the business men are called on too often so a tag day was decided on as being the fairest to all concerned. We do hope and trust that the public response will be generous so the children may remember this day with pleasure and pay due honor to Their Maj-

Fishermen are invited to inspect the new system. Better ice than ever before, at no increase in cost, means economy to the boat and improved quality in fish delivery.

NAVY WINS ONCE MORE

R. C. N. V. R. Make It Two Straight In Football By Defeating Pioneer Laundry

In the second game of the Stuart Benefit Shield football competition last evening Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve recorded its second straight victory by winning from the recently organized Pioneer Laundry team five goals to two.

The Laundry team got off to a good start and was two goals up both scored by Cross. Play was definitely in favor of the Laundrymen but the Navy, through Ralph Smith, got a goal before half time.

In the second half the Navy slowly gained the upper hand. Goals were added by Christison and Smith each of whom got two-counters while the Laundry failed to add to its score. It was badly handicapped by an injury to Smith who had been playing a fine game in goal.

The Laundrymen were well served by their half back line, Busanich and Scherk being outstanding while Sunberg did well too. Cross was the best forward with Simundsen and Campbell backing him up well.

The Navy had Husoy in goal and he did well. McKay was the better back. The half-back line was strong and the forward line was well supplied with the ball so that they had every chance to make good. Ted Smith, Laundry goalie, suffered an ankle injury and spent the night in hospital.

Teams: Pioneer Laundry - T. Smith, Adams, Brown, Scherk, Bussanich, Sunberg; Vance, Simundsen, Cross, Campbell, W. Gomez. R. C. N. V. R.—Husoy; Eby, McKay; Eastman, Davies, Armstrong, Kenya, Smith, Christison, Hunter, McMeekin.

George Dawes was referee.

Whifflets From The Waterfront

Diesel Fuel Burning Gasboat is Visiting Port—Seattle Getting Good Quantities of Halibut These Days.

In the course of a cruise along the coast in connection with the promotion of a new device for using diesel oil in gasoline engines, the Vancouver power yacht June Lavern is in port moored at the floats of the Home Oil Distributors Ltd. The June Lavern arrived here Monday night from Vancouver via the Skeena River, having covered the distance in fifty-five hours running time with the use of 201 gallons of diesel fuel at a total cost of $19.09. The diesel oil is sprayed into a tank, heated and converted into dry gas.

The June Lavern is a neat 64-foot vessel equipped with a 99 h.p. six-cylinder Hall Scott engine, her average speed being nine knots per hour. Aboard are Dr. A. E. Lauder of Vancouver, inventor of the new oil burning system, Capt. H. Powys-Herbert and Roy Buck. After spending a week here in connection with the installation of the new device in local boats, the June Lavern will proceed to Alaska. Later a cruise to California is planned.

Halibut landings are inclined to be running rather light at Prince Rupert this week. On Wednesday the total was but 114,500 pounds consisting 81,000 pounds from American vessels and 33,500 pounds from Canadian. Yesterday only one Canadian boat was in with 16,000 pounds.

Ten halibut vessels sold catches totalling 255,000 pounds at Seattle Tuesday as follows: Liberty, 40,000 pounds, San Juan, 7½¢ and 7¢; Chelsea, 40,000, New England, 7½¢ and 7¢; Electra, 40,000, Whiz, 7½¢ straight; Omaney, 39,500, San Juan, 7¢ straight; Addington, 18,000, Washington, 7½¢ and 7¼¢; Tillicum, 16,000, San Juan, 7¢ straight; F. C. Hergert, 15,000, Whiz, 7½¢ and 7¢; Ionic, 17,500, Booth, 7½¢ and 7¢; Lincoln, 14,000, Booth, 7½¢ and 7¢; Agar, 15,000, McCallum, 7½¢ and 7¼¢. Catches of mixed cod were sold for 3¢. The Lincoln is a new boat, it having been her initial catch. The vessel is equipped with a 48 h.p. Atlas diesel four-cylinder engine.

C.P.R. steamer Princess Adelaide, Capt. William Palmer, arrived in port at 2:30 this afternoon from the south and will sail at 10 p.m. on her return to Vancouver and waypoints.

Indian Department's power cruiser Naskaena left yesterday for Hartley Bay, having on board Capt. Gerald H. Barry, inspector of Indian schools, and W. E. Collison, Indian Agent. They are due back tomorrow afternoon. Building of a new Indian school at Hartley Bay is contemplated.

SIMPSON HOLIDAY

With numerous visitors crowding the village from various district points including Prince Rupert, Port Simpson had a good celebration of Victoria Day on Wednesday, even if heavy rain coming up toward evening did mar the sports program and prevent the playing of softball and football finals.

Prince Rupert advanced to the finals in both the softball and baseball and, owing to the weather, forfeited the finals after two innings of play—the softball to Kitkatla Excelsiors and the baseball to Port Simpson. In the softball semi-final Prince Rupert beat New Metlakatla 11 to 1 and, in the baseball, won 6 to 4 from Port Simpson Young People's Educational Association.

The Prince Rupert players were Herb Morgan, Earl Batt, Sonny Beynon, Albert Mah, Charles Postuk, H. Prevost, D. Leighton and Bill Roma.

Miss Mary McLeod is sailing tonight on the Princess Adelaide for a trip to Vancouver.

At Seal Cove...

The boys of the Legion Boy Scout Troop are engaged in working for their uniforms these days. After the King's Visit celebrations are over the whole troop will assemble during the evenings at the meeting place in the hall at Seal Cove. They will be given special work lasting over a week and each boy will be called upon to perform in a required number of hours before he can claim half the cost of his uniform. The other half will be met by the boys' parents or in some other way.

The members of St. Peter's Anglican Young People's Association are holding a tea at St. Peter's Parish Hall. It will be the last event in the year's program for them.

The Boy Scouts were very active last week in assisting in the loading and unloading of wood for the local Seal Cove bonfire for Monday night next. They require no prompting in such an undertaking and for such a purpose.

At the monthly service of the young people of this area, Rt. Rev. G. A. Rix D. D., Bishop of Caledonia, gave an inspiring address on the purpose of mind, body and soul in the life and work of men and women. The bishop urged his youthful listeners to dedicate all these God-given gifts to the service of country, Empire and to the King of Kings and Lord of Lords.

The children of Seal Cove will be fully occupied on Monday next, the occasion of the civic holiday in honor of Their Majesties' visit to British Columbia. They will be taken to town for the morning parade and in the afternoon for the procession to Acropolis Hill. After the afternoon of sports they will return home and join in the local evening festivities.

The May Queen candidates of the Seal Cove contest will reach the dead-line of their activities on Monday night, Mrs. Hodgson and her dainty little dancers will

Mrs. Riley, mother of Mrs. Viereck of Seal Cove, celebrated her eighty-ninth birthday yesterday. Mrs. Riley is as alert today as many who are much younger is years.

An exhibition of missionary work and arts and crafts will take place in the parish hall early in June when the work of a class of boys and girls during the winter will be assembled for the interest of all who are concerned with this phase of church activity among the young people.

Rev. R. C. H. Durnford was one of a party of four which paid a visit to Porcher Island last week in search of a possible Scout camp site. The possibilities appear particularly fine for hiking there and a beach of broad sands some seven miles in length, is especially attractive. While nothing of a definite nature has been decided upon in this connection, the local association of the Boy Scout movement will be better informed when it comes to a discussion on the matter of such a camp, now that the two Scout Masters have made a personal visit to this island.

There is one thing Seal Cove needs of Monday if it is going to be allowed to enter into the patriotic celebrations in the town and in their own area and that is fine weather. Seal Cove is hoping for this as it hopes for many other things this summer.
