Liberal Government Wins New Mandate Of Electors In Prince Edward Island

CHARLOTTETOWN, Prince Edward Island, May 19: (CP)—Prince Edward Island voters went to the polls yesterday and swept the Liberal administration of 44-year-old Premier Thane Alexander Campbell back into power by a commanding majority of seats over those won by the Conservative forces headed by Former Premier Dr. William J. P. MacMillan. The Liberal representation is only slightly diminished from the last four years during which it governed without a single opposition member. Whereas the Liberals had all the thirty seats in the Legislature at dissolution, they won twenty-six yesterday while the Conservatives were conceded four.

This is the first occasion since 1917 that a government has been re-elected in Prince Edward Island, the administrations having been alternately Liberal and Conservative, changing with each election. Liberals and Conservatives each had thirty candidates in the field yesterday with no third party.

ONE YEAR IN PRISON

Such is Sentence Upon James Anderson of Atlin, Convicted of Manslaughter in Fistic Attack

James Sangster Anderson, who was convicted last week at the Supreme Court Assizes here on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the death of Knute Olsen at Spruce Creek, near Atlin, on Good Friday last, was sentenced to one year's imprisonment at Oakalla by Mr. Justice A. I. Fisher this morning. According to the evidence, Anderson had attacked Olsen with his fists on the day in question when he returned home to find him in his cabin. He then put Olsen out in the snow where he was shortly after found dead from concussion of the brain. The jury added a strong recommendation for leniency to its verdict.

W. O. Fulton, defence counsel, elaborated on the recommendation before sentence was passed today and Dr. J. T. Mandy, resident mining engineer, gave character evidence highly favorable to Anderson. Crown counsel, T. W. Brown, however, did not concur with the recommendation of defence counsel for a suspended sentence and the judge ruled that, therefore, he was unable to pass suspended sentence.

In asking for extreme leniency under the circumstances of this case, Mr. Fulton submitted that the degree of seriousness of the crime of manslaughter might range from the point of zero up to the border of murder. In this case, he felt, the circumstances were on the zero border. Just a little less and they would not have constituted manslaughter. There had been extreme provocation. A Scotchman by birth, having lived in Canada since a young age and having served throughout the war, deceased had slandered the King, had sneered at accused's patriotism and had called him a vile name. Not every jury would have convicted under the circumstances although he (Mr. Fulton) did not question this as anything but a conscientious verdict. Accused, he submitted, was but technically or legally guilty of manslaughter. He had done nothing more than any normal man would have done under the circumstances. There had been no criminal intent or lethal weapon. Only the old British weapons of fists had been used. Deceased's death had been freakish. It would not have happened one time out of a thousand under such circumstances. The court might even infer that deceased's brain was not normal physically or such a blow would not have caused death. A suspended sentence, Mr. Fulton felt, would answer the purposes of justice and mercy.

Dr. Mandy Dr. Mandy swore that he had known accused for ten years and he came as a character witness on his behalf voluntarily and entirely unsolicited. He (Dr. Mandy) had had ample opportunity through association with Anderson in various parts of the country and under intimate circumstances to observe his qualities and characteristics which entirely dissociated him from any tendency or inclination towards crime or criminal intent. Dr. Mandy testified that he had slept, travelled, ate and played badminton with Anderson. He had even received his ministrations when he had been injured. He had always found Anderson truthful, straightforward and dependable and had never seen in him any display of temper. Nor had he ever seen him under the influence of liquor. He had always been thorough law abiding. He was unable, the judge ruled, to receive a telegram from citizens of Atlin in regard to Anderson. (Continued on Page Four)

Principal Functions Of Royal Tour Will Be Staged At Ottawa

Gay Holiday Mood Prevails as Their Majesties Arrive—Warmth of Reception at Montreal Necessitated Extra Appearance

HISTORY MADE TODAY OTTAWA, May 19: (CP)—History was made at Parliament Hill this afternoon when, promptly at 2:56 p.m. Eastern Standard Time, the King and Queen arrived to give royal assent to bills. It was the first time a British sovereign had ever performed this act in any Parliament since 1854. A twenty-one gun salute boomed over the Ottawa River to greet the arrival of Their Majesties. Solid throngs of their subjects were held back by police and soldiers.

OTTAWA, May 19: (CP)—Ottawa was crowded this morning with the greatest population in its history as Canada's capital received Their Majesties, King George VI. and Queen Elizabeth, in the course of their Canadian tour. The city was colorfully bedecked and gay holiday mood prevailed. There was drizzling rain and crisp spring air. The reception which Their Majesties received as they arrived at 11 a.m. Eastern Daylight Saving Time was comparable with the great welcome they have been accorded ever since landing in the Dominion. They will remain in Ottawa until 6 o'clock Sunday night. In the meantime the principal state functions of the tour will take place here. The King and Queen are guests at Rideau Hall with their Excellencies, the Governor General and Lady Tweedsmuir as their hosts.

So great was the reception at Montreal yesterday and the demand to see Their Majesties that certain changes had to be made in the program there. The culminating feature of the Montreal visit was the civic dinner last evening in the Windsor Hotel. As the banquet proceeded, a roar of thousands of people outside demanding "We Want the King. We Want the Queen." grew into a deafening chant. Finally, Their Majesties acceded to the demand, left the banquet table and proceeded to the balcony where the teeming masses in Dominion Square nearly went wild in the spontaneity of their enthusiasm at the appearance of the monarchs. Throughout the day and even the night before many people had waited for the chance to get a fleeting glimpse of the King and Queen. At the baseball stadium during the afternoon, 85,000 Montreal school children were assembled to watch Their Majesties ride around the track. Late last night the royal train left Montreal for Ottawa.

Service Uniform For King's Wear

His Majesty Likely To Be Seen In Khaki At Some Outdoor Functions

OTTAWA, May 19: (CP)—For various outdoor functions on the Canadian tour the King may wear a service uniform—khaki jacket, shirt and tie, riding breeches or slacks. Colonel-in-chief of no less than 20 British regiments, he has a variety of service uniforms. When in Scotland on military or semi-military ceremonies he is seen generally in the uniform of a Highland regiment with trows (tartan trousers).

Lately, in London, the King has worn the Air Force uniform on many important occasions, not the least of which was one of the courts held early this season when the Canadian debutantes were presented. The horizon blue of the air force is a familiar sight now in the British Isles and the increase in the number of air men can easily be noticed in any crowded street. There are many Canadians in the Royal Air Force of which, too, the King is chief.

MOVEMENTS FOR PEACE

Theoretically, everybody wants peace. Actually, any of us would travel miles to see a fight. Even Irish people are theoretically in favor of peace while missing very few opportunities for a fight. We have had a visitor in Prince Rupert, Dean M. L. Bollert, who is the president of the Pan-Pacific Conference for Peace. She is carrying on a little war in favor of peace.

May we suggest here that it was the peace advocates who nearly precipitated war recently. They were responsible for the weak condition of the British Empire and this was primarily responsible for the warlike attitude of several European countries that sought to dislodge her from the leading world position which she had held for some years. Possibly it was the self-satisfied cocksureness of the average Englishman who felt that the British Empire could not be beaten and did not worry about ways and means of defence that almost brought about a great calamity in the defeat of the democracies.

In Canada and the United States we had an organization brought into being by the Communists favoring peace and democracy, strongly suspected of being an organization for the purpose of undermining the democracies, weakening them so that they would no longer be a power in the world. It had behind it the full force of Communism for a number of years but of late its activities seem to have waned. The British peace movement which favored setting a good example to the neighbors by disarming was largely the work of Communists and socialists who evidently meant well but came near landing the Empire in a disastrous mess. The movement was shared to a large extent by all who were sick of the idea of another war.

We note that in her addresses here, the visiting lady pointed her remarks to a large extent at Germany, Japan and Italy. She might also have pointed her finger at England and United States. For ages to come we shall have national brigands and, unless the powerful nations are ready and willing to unite to put down these brigands and control all subversive forces, it will be a long time before we can expect anything like permanent peace in the world.

There must be an international code to which all powerful nations must subscribe. The League of Nations did not have full support so defeat was invited from the beginning. It is useless to worry over its failure to function. Possibly after the next war the big democratic nations will be willing to get together and form a new organization with a more perfect constitution, sink some of their individual preferences and prejudices and will be willing to make some sacrifices for the good of the whole world. Wealth and power carry with it responsibilities, whether it be national or individual. We are learning by bitter experience and in time we may all have learned the lessons of statesmanship sufficiently to make it possible to form a United States of the world which possibly will usher in the millennial era.

TELLS OF STUDENTS

Dean Bollert of U. B. C. Says Most Of The Girls Are Keen Students And Anxious To Serve

The members of the Prince Rupert Rotary Club yesterday had the privilege of hearing an address from Dean M. L. Bollert of the University of British Columbia. She told about college women and their problems. Women had only in comparatively recent years achieved the privilege of attending university but they appreciated and made use of the privilege. It was only in 1870 that the first girl entered a high school in Canada.

Speaking of the increase in the opportunities for women of higher education, Miss Bollert said at one time there was nothing a girl could do except become a teacher or a nurse. Today girls wanted to bear their load economically and there were hundreds of opportunities. People complained of the few opportunities but she saw very many. Teaching today included not only the "school marm" of the old days but there were such subjects to be taught as household science. Twenty-five of the household science teachers had to be replaced this summer and they all had to be brought in from outside the province as there was no training school for them in British Columbia. There was physical education, teaching of the deaf and blind, and all sorts of teaching departments. Girls today also entered the realm of selling and buying and some took administrative positions.

In nursing there were, in addition to the hospital and home nursing, positions as school nurses and health centres, social service. Girls also today took up lip reading. Twenty students this year were graduating from the department of journalism and then there was medicine and law and agriculture. Telling of the manner in which girls helped to pay their tuition fees, it was explained that some girls paid for their board and room by giving services in the evening. Some reported for newspapers, some looked after children evenings and did tutoring. Various methods of easing the load were found.

The difficulty was that in doing this something had to be sacrificed and sometimes it was the health of the student. However, the girl who did this was usually the girl who would make good anyway.

In the summer girls worked in strawberry fields, packing or picking fruit. Summer hotel employment was popular and then there were those who took up gardening or playground supervision. Even dressmaking did its share in helping the student through. Some were helped by scholarships or bursaries.

One of the former University girls owned and operated one of the largest seed stores in Vancouver. One was a student in theology in the Anglican Church and led her class two years following. It had been said that a B. A. degree was of no value unless the student had the necessary qualifications for the position sought and that was right. However the university graduate had an advantage, all other things being equal, except with a few commercial firms who would not take a University graduate at any price.

There was one college graduate running a street car and doing the work well. It was said that some girls had exposed themselves to the university virus but it had not taken. However she found that most of the students were very much in earnest over their work and were not setting out trying what they could get out of life but were anxious to see what service they might render.

LIGHTS MATCH ON FLOODED STREET TO PROVE NEW NON-SKID TIRE SWEEPS WET ROAD DRY!

THIS SIMPLE TEST AMAZED ME...THE LIFE-SAVER TREAD SWEEPED THE WET ROAD SO DRY I COULD ACTUALLY LIGHT A MATCH ON ITS TRACK

No wonder you get the QUICKEST NON-SKID STOPS you've ever had!

HERE, at last, is a tire that automatically sweeps wet roads dry—so dry that you can light a match on its track! Here is a tire that turns the "skid trap" under your car into a DRY TRACK. It's the new Goodrich Silvertown with the Life-Saver Tread that once more won "hands down" in independent non-skid tests conducted by Pittsburgh Testing Laboratory—tests of the regular and premium-priced tires of the six largest tire manufacturers.

A DOUBLE LIFE-SAVER

And just as this new Goodrich Safety Silvertown gives you the greatest skid protection ever offered, it gives you still another feature that for years has been a sensational life-saver—the famous Golden Ply blow-out protection! This exclusive Golden Ply invention is a layer of special rubber and full-floating cords, scientifically treated to resist internal tire heat. By resisting this heat, the Golden Ply scientifically protects you against high-speed blow-out dangers.

NO EXTRA COST. You might expect to pay more for this double protection, but remember, both the skid protection of the Life-Saver Tread and the famous Golden Ply blow-out protection are yours in Silvertowns at no extra cost. For safety tomorrow—get Silvertowns today.

QUICKER STOPS!

Here's the Secret:

Goodrich engineers tested tread designs by the hundred. Finally they developed this Life-Saver Tread that acts like a set of windshield wipers. As the row upon row of never-ending spiral bars roll over a dangerous film of water, they sweep the water right and left—force it out through the deep drainage grooves—make a dry track for the rubber to grip. No wonder this new Goodrich Safety Silvertown will stop you quicker, safer on a wet pavement than you've ever stopped before!

UNABLE TO FLY FLAG

Halyard At Court House Grounds Broken—Attempt To Scale Pole Fails—Building Being Decorated

Some people may have wondered why the flag from the pole on the Court House grounds is not flying these days in honor of the visit of the King and Queen to Canada. The reason is that the halyard is broken and it cannot be hoisted until repairs can be made by scaling the pole. Efforts to have this done have already been made but, so far, without success. Yesterday Fred Schaeffer offered to scale the pole and nearly came to grief in doing so. He was able to ascend about half the distance up the 80-foot pole by use of the fire department extension ladders. He had just about got to the top when he weakened and had to come down. Later he made an attempt to climb up a guy wire but, nearing the top, was unable to keep his grasp and slip down, burning his hands and feet as well as tearing his trousers rather badly in doing so.

While the flag may not be raised, the buildings are being gaily draped with flags and emblems in readiness for the King's Birthday observance tomorrow. There will also be bright colored lighting at night. The building will remain decorated until after the King and Queen have completed their visit to British Columbia at the end of the month.

Nature gave us the "EDGE"

TRAVELLERS coming to British Columbia have been enthralled by our scenery and climate—and have gone home to tell the world about it. Without a doubt, Nature has blessed us abundantly in this regard.

But our pure mountain water and pleasantly moist climate are priceless for another reason. It seems almost unfair, but there it is—OUR WATER AND CLIMATE ARE THE FINEST IN THE WORLD FOR THE DISTILLING OF REALLY FINE QUALITY LIQUORS.

It is well to remember this when purchasing the UDL brands of Rye Whisky and London Dry Gin, which are, as you know, produced in Vancouver. Don't buy them simply because you want to be loyal to your own province. BUY AND ENJOY UDL LIQUORS BECAUSE, IN COMPARISON WITH ANY MADE ANYWHERE, THEY CAN MORE THAN HOLD THEIR OWN. THEY ARE DECIDEDLY A GOOD BUY IN LIQUOR.

For Social Work Salvation Army

The Salvation Army Self-Denial tag day will be held tomorrow. This will be the final event in connection with the Self-Denial Appeal for 1938. The response to this appeal thus far has been very gratifying and with the results of the tag day added to the funds already donated it is hoped that a substantial sum will be raised to carry on the Army's worldwide social service work.

Local I.O.D.E. Hears Miss Ballert Talk

Members of the Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, had an opportunity to hear Miss M. L. Bollert, Dean of Women at the University of British Columbia, at a supper in the Boston cabaret last night.

Miss Bollert is the provincial educational secretary of the I.O.D.E. and she gave a very interesting talk on the work carried on in this field.

Mrs. R. M. Winslow, the local educational secretary of the I.O.D.E., proposed a vote of thanks to the speaker.

Mrs. H. L. Landry, regent of the order, presided over the meeting.

"THERE'S NOW NE'ER A TRACE OF THAT YELLOW"

The "Blue magic" that restores whiteness to white things is a swish or two of Reckitt's Blue in the last rinsing water. No extra effort and it costs only a cent or two a month.

White is actually made up of seven colours, one of which is blue. Without Reckitt's Blue, white things, after repeated washings, turn to a faint yellow.

ONE YEAR IN PRISON

Such evidence must either be viva voce or by affidavit.

T. W. Brown, crown counsel, regretted that he could not concur with the application for suspended sentence although he would add that all the evidence crown had against Anderson had been presented at the trial. The crown also accepted the evidence of Dr. Mandy and urged that the utmost effect be given to the recommendation of mercy short of suspended sentence.

Mr. Justice Fisher stated that the case had given him considerable anxiety. It was quite clear by the law, however, that it was necessary that there should be concurrence of crown counsel if there was to be a suspended sentence. There was thus this concurrence so it was his duty to impose sentence. Taking everything into consideration, including the provocation and that no weapons had been used, His Lordship sentenced Anderson to one year's imprisonment at Oakalla with hard labor to commence from the date of arrest which was April 9 of this year.

SPORT CHAT

In addition to Frank Wooley, famous Kent international who last year announced his retirement from first-class cricket, four other well-known players will be missing from English teams this summer.

Forty-nine-year-old William E. Astill, a contemporary of Wooley, after 32 years with Leicestershire, will not be seen in the county team this season, and George Geary, 46, is retiring from the same club after 26 years' service. Not so prominent are G. A. E. Payne, and O. W. Herman leaving Warwickshire and Hampshire respectively.

For 20 years Astill and Geary were the backbone of the Leicestershire attack and few counties possessed two more consistent or useful all-round players. The former was a better batsman than Geary who excelled at bowling. Astill played in nine test matches, five against South Africa and four against the West Indies. His colleague opposed Australia nine times and figured in five tests against South Africa.

Paine, a slow left-hand bowler, played nine years for Warwickshire taking more than 100 wickets in five consecutive seasons. Thirty-one years old, he played in four tests against the West Indies. Herman is the same age as Paine and

YANKS WIN NO. EIGHT

Have Now Had That Many Consecutive Victories—Hartnett Homers With Bases Loaded

NEW YORK, May 19: (CP)—New York Yankees scored their eighth straight victory yesterday by winning 6 to 1 over the St. Louis Browns at the Yankee Stadium. As a result of the defeat, the Browns dropped into sixth place below the Washington Senators who won 3 to 2 over Detroit Tigers.

In the National League both the leading St. Louis Cardinals and the running-up Cincinnati Reds won their games over New York Giants and Boston Bees respectively. The Chicago Cubs won over the Brooklyn Dodgers, Gabby Hartnett's circuit clout with the bases loaded and two down being responsible for the 4 to 2 victory. The Cubs are now in third place ahead of the Bees. The Pittsburgh Pirates won over the lowly Phillies and are now in sixth place ahead of the Giants.

HOME FOR OLD MEN

Preparation of quarters in the Dyer Apartments which should prove quite comfortable for indigent men, not requiring active hospitalization, who are to be removed from the Prince Rupert General Hospital, has about been completed and it is planned to move the men out of the hospital about June 1.

To receive the elderly men, a portion of the apartment house has been entirely remodelled and re-decorated. Adequate heating and plumbing arrangements have been provided.

Several rooms have been joined to provide a ward which will accommodate nine men, off this being a bathroom. There will be a kitchen and dining room and private bedroom and bathroom for the caretakers.

Salvation Army officers will be in charge of the home for the time being at least in the persons of Capt. and Mrs. Victor Suddoby from Canyon City on the Naas River.

NEW AND BETTER

COLD CURED ICE

For the Halibut and Salmon Fleets

Following the investigations of the Fisheries Research Station, the Company has just completed extensive changes and improvements in ice storage and ice delivery methods.

Ice for the boats will all be old ice, thoroughly cured or aged at new low temperatures. It will be delivered into the hold, even in the hottest weather, as cold as the storage room.

Fishermen are invited to inspect the new system. Better ice than ever before, at no increase in cost, means economy to the boat and improved quality in fish delivery.

Peace Depends Upon Germany Says Premier

LONDON, May 19: (CP)—Great Britain stands ready to lay down a definite long range policy for European peace when Germany clearly demonstrates willingness to renounce aggression or use of force in relations with other countries.

Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain made it plain in the House of Commons during a foreign affairs debate today.

UNITED IN MARRIAGE

Miss Kathryn Evans Becomes Bride of Percy McIntosh at Evening Ceremony

With about fifty invited friends present at the ceremony, the marriage of Miss Kathryn Ann Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Evans of Smithers, and William Percy McIntosh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adam McIntosh of Prince Rupert, took place last evening at the home of the groom's parents, Atlin Avenue, Westview. Rev. H. G. Funtston, pastor of First Presbyterian Church officiated. The ceremony was performed under a pretty floral arch and the rooms were tastefully decorated.

The bride wore a three-piece champagne colored suit with which, for travelling later, she donned orchid tunic with matching accessories. She had a beautiful corsage bouquet of yellow roses and carnations.

Miss Nellie Lawrence was bridesmaid and Harry Ward groomsmen.

Following the ceremony, a toast to the bride was proposed by George Mitchell and responded to by the groom. The bride cut her cake in traditional manner, assisted by T. W. Brown. Serviteurs were Mrs. William Trotter, Miss Bessie Thompson and Mrs. George Mitchell.

Later in the evening, the couple sailed for a honeymoon trip to Long Beach. Returning in a few weeks, they will reside at Louise Apartments.

They are well known and popular among many friends and will have general congratulations and best wishes.

Activities For Summer Start

Three Young Rangers' Bands Unite To Observe Mothers' Day

BURNS LAKE, May 19:—The summer activities of the Young Rangers of this district opened with a Mothers' Day service on their island on Burns Lake. The service was held jointly by the Palling, Burns Lake and Decker Lake bands.

Five boatloads of people, about 60 in all, were transported to the island where an advance party had cleaned up the cabin and made preparations for the service. H. Eckland loaned his boat and services to assist in transportation.

When all were assembled, Chief Ranger Leonard Radley of the Burns Lake band, called for the Young Rangers' salute during the raising of the flag. After singing "O Canada," all retired to the cabin where the service was continued. Recitations were given by several of the Young Rangers, a scripture reading by Past Chief Ranger Gordon Rush and the address to the mothers was made by Past Chief Ranger Clarence Saunders. Several hymns and a prayer for "Our Homes" were interspersed and the service closed with a general thanksgiving in which all joined.

Miss Eva Neville, Honorary Chief Ranger of the Palling band, concluded with a short talk. The program was arranged by Ranger Marie Roumieu.

Tea was served by the youngsters and a happy time followed boats returning at 8:20. The weather was perfect and those who gathered for the occasion greatly enjoyed the day.

Man in the Moon

Isn't it a good thing that we have a King and Queen to take our minds off Hitler and Mussolini? It's time we forgot them.

Now that summer is really in the offing let us get summer into our souls and forget the biting winds of winter.

Another thing we might all forget is to speak in of Prince Rupert. Think up all the good points about Prince Rupert and repeat them over at least once every day.

Things we do not have: snakes, mosquitoes, drought, dust storms, earthquakes, floods, rebellions, and hoboes.

Mary, aged four, paying a visit to a friend with her mother, who is of a talkative nature, got tired and began to inquire about going home.

Her mother rebuked her and said: "It's very rude to interrupt, while I am speaking; you should wait until I finish."

"But," said Mary, sadly, "you don't finish."

Negro Woman (applying for a position as cook): "I see you advertisement in de newspaper, lady."

Lady (interrupting): "But, I advertised for a Scandinavian."

Negro Woman: "I knows dat, lady. But jess so a pusson can cook what difference does religion make?"

In the dressing room of the train the Scot had been boring everyone with tales of the great
