Further particulars of the agreement with Turkey will be announced by :smashed and fire hoses were turned Foreign Secretary Lord Halifax. Premier Chamberlain said that police.

he expected within a few days to be able to announce an agreement with Russia whereby its air NEW HEAD force would provide for protection of any nations on its borders threatened by aggression and would also give at least material assistance to Great Britain and France in the event of war.

Mr. Chamberlain told the House that Great Britain was continuing conversations with Russia to widen the peace front but added that there was nothing new to definitely disclose on the situation at this time. It was expected that the Prime Minister would announce the new commitment to Turkey but, after his speech, it was understood that the agreement was held up until results of the Russian conversations were made known.
