The Prince Rupert Trades and Labor Council is to embark on a campaign of unionization of Prince Rupert workers in various lines, including store clerks and others, this fall. This was among the matters taken up at the regular monthly meeting of the council on Thursday

There was a communication from Olof Hanson M.P. who said that it was not necessary to be a member of the militia or fighting services in order to get employment on defence work here. The matter of employment was entirely in the hands of the contractors.

The Bookbinders' Association Toronto had a letter before the council in regard to representations to have the Bible printed in Canada. All Bibles are now imported. There was a letter from the Post-

The buildings was badly needed and the city now has an institution of which to do even better work than in the past.

ALL NOW READY

It is understood that all is now in readiness for calling for tenders for the work on the air base at Seal Cove. It is not quite certain whether tenders will be advertised for or whether competent firms will be invited to tender. The experience in the past, it is intimated, has not been happy. Firms have taken contracts and then changed their minds. Others have lost money on contracts and then gone to the government asking for concessions. The only remedy seems to be to let the contract to a firm that is certain to carry it through on time and with satisfaction to all concerned. Unfortunately if the government does not give; local contractors a chance it is blamed for it. If the contract is let locally and the contractor happens to be of the BOARD, Good home cooking, 814 Fowl, No. 1, 1b. same political faith as the government there is criticism that it is done for political purposes. EACH DO HIS BIT

Hendrik Van Loon, the well known writer, says that, if every man will take care of his particular front yard, we shall have a pleasant village in which to live and a world full of pleasant villages would be a decent one for most everybody. In other words, let each person do his bit to make the place decent, beautiful and happy. A few more people doing things and fewer talking about things would be a great thing for the world.

LOOKING FINE

Yesterday R. L. McIntosh said to a Daily News representative that Terrace was looking fine. That is the room Suite (new), Moffat Elecspirit. He might possibly have seen the other side of the picture and remarked that the spit bugs were ruining the flowers, the mosquitoes were making life miserable and the people were not just all they ought to be. Possibly he might have seen a lot more defects but he comes down to Rupert carrying a happy tale of optimism and happiness. "Terrace is fine."

Of course Terrace is fine and so is Prince Rupert fine. Let us all see that side of the picture. Our neighbors are fine and their sons and daughters and cats and dogs are fine even if they do sometimes injure the garden a little. Let us be like the Terrace people and, when we go away from home, carry the message "Prince Rupert is fine." Then when we return we can all help to make it finer, happier, more progressive and more beautiful.

COLD CURED

For the Halibut and Samon Fleets

Following the investigations of the Fisheries Research Station the Company has just completed extensive changes and improvements in ice storage and ice delivery methods.

Ice for the boats will all be old ice, thoroughly cured or aged at new low temperatures. It will be delivered into the hold, even in the hottest weather, as cold as the storage room. Fishermen are invited to inspect the new system. Better ice than ever before, at no increase in cost, means econo to the boat and improved quality in fish delivery.
