TEAM "NAE SAE BAD" Touring Soccer Squad To Play 12 Matches In Canada and United States GLASGOW, May Shrewd Scottish critics have con "nae sae Bad" to the group of footballers who will play Preston Foster, Charles Birk, stwelve games in Canada and the United States in May and June. And this typical observation means it is practically an all start aggregation.

While the Scottish Football Association selectors included only three of this year's national team which has lost a close 2-1 decision to England, they restricted the'r choice to players of known ability This year's internationals on the team are John Dawson, Rangers, James Carabine, Third Lanark, and Alex McNab, West Bromwich Albion.
