FASCISM OR SOCIALISM

Local Member Takes Part in Unemployment Discussion at Ottawa With Social Credit Member

OTTAWA, April 27.—Increase in the purchasing power of the people is the solution of the unemployment problem, J. C. Landeryou, Social Credit member for Calgary East, declared during a debate in the House of Commons.

Olof Hanson, M.P. for Skeena, asked Mr. Landeryou how this increased purchasing power was to be brought about.

The Social Credit member then proceeded to dilate on his solution, referring to the proposal of giving the people purchasing money so they might buy the goods.

"Is this socialism or fascism?" asked Mr. Hanson who referred to the dangers of inflation as illustrated in Russia, Germany and France after the war. He himself still had a million kopeks for which he had paid fifteen cents but with which he doubted he could buy a meal today.

Later in the same debate, Denton Messy, Conservative for Toronto, referred to the inability of unemployed to obtain necessary medical service, stating that 19,595 persons had died in Canada in 1936 without medical attendance of any kind.

Mr. Hanson doubted if those in need of a doctor could not call one in without being asked if they could pay for the service.

King And Queen Are Coming On C.P.R. Steamer

Women Enrolling In South Africa

Hundreds Offer For Service Legion In Southern British Union

JOHANNESBURG, April 27: (CP)—The keenness with which women are enrolling for national service here in time of emergency continues unabated.

The committee of the South African Women's National Service Legion reports hundreds have offered themselves for service.

A register of householders, especially in the less crowded districts, who are willing to accommodate child "refugees" in time of emergency, is being considered. This, in itself, would be a valuable form of national service, Legion officials said. Women would also be required to look after the children.

Fish landings at the Boston Fish Pier for the month of March totaled no less than 25,164,000 pounds, according to information received here.

The Cleveland Indians, losing 5 to 1 to the Chicago White Sox at Cleveland, dropped into third place.

In the National League the Chicago Cubs continued their strong early season start by downing the Pittsburgh Pirates again three to one. The Cincinnati Reds dropped out of second place by dropping a keenly contested one to nothing verdict to the St. Louis Cardinals. The Phillies were left in second place to the Cubs.

Prime Minister Tells House Why New Policy Essential; Appeals For United Front

BIG FIGHT BY LABOR

Objects to Men and Not Wealth Being Conscribed—Such is Key-note of Fight

LONDON, April 27.—Labor bases its vigorous opposition to the government's conscription plan primarily on the ground that it is the poor man's son and not the wealthy manufacturer's wealth that is being conscripted. Labor insists that not men alone but also wealth shall be conscripted under any compulsory service plan.

Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain will be asked to reconcile his announcement of a conscription plan with his recent promise that there would be no conscription in peacetime. The Prime Minister is expected to answer that the country is virtually at war.

The move to limit profits from the manufacture of armaments is seen as a move to appease labor. Assurance of prevention of profiteering during war will also be made, it is expected.

Must Spike Jibe That Great Britain is Willing to Fight to "The Last Frenchman"—Necessary to Give Reassurance to Allies

PARLIAMENT APPROVES LONDON, April 27: (CP)—The House of Commons approved the government's conscription proposal tonight by defeating a Labor amendment 286 to 143.

LONDON, April 27: (CP)—The House of Lords today agreed to the government resolution approving conscription without recorded vote and then adjourned. Meantime, Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain told the House of Commons that introduction of conscription had become necessary to safeguard Great Britain and to reassure her European allies that she meant business in taking the lead against aggression.

In view of Great Britain's liabilities to France, Roumania, Poland and Greece and the decidedly tense general European situation, it was imperative to kill the jibe being circulated throughout the world that "Great Britain will fight to the last Frenchman." Mr. Chamberlain appealed to the Labor party to show a united front on the radical change of British policy.

PARIS, April 27: (CP)—Roumania is reported to have told Great Britain and France of her opposition to entering a mutual assistance pact with them for the present at least. Great Britain and France are already pledged to aid Roumania in the event of her independence being attacked but it is a one-way pledge they would like to make reciprocal. French sources believe that Roumania will ultimately enter the pact.

TOKYO, April 27: (CP)—Japanese government's decisions as to foreign policy are reported to have been communicated to Japanese ambassadors to Germany, Italy, the Soviet Union and Great Britain for transmission to the governments of those countries.

The newspaper Miyako Shimbun said it believed the policy was for reinforcement of the anti-comintern pact, maintenance of an independent line of conduct in the Far East and resistance to pressure of third powers. The paper said that Japan would not allow herself to be drawn into a European war.

GOOD FURS BROUGHT IN

Skins In This District This Spring of Excellent Quality—Not Overly Proliferous As Yet

As is the case elsewhere in the north, furs of excellent quality are being brought into Prince Rupert this spring by trappers of this district. It will be a month yet, however, it is expected, before furs start coming in any very large volume. The trapping season by then will be about over. There appears to be a good supply of all species of fur this season. Due to generally unsettled business conditions, prices being offered for skins have fallen off somewhat recently.

Weather Forecast

General Synopsis—The disturbance off the Queen Charlotte Islands appears to be dispersing. Rain has occurred on the coast but it has been fair and warm in the southern interior.

Prince Rupert and Queen Charlotte Islands—Fresh south to southwest winds, part cloudy and cool with few scattered showers.

West Coast of Vancouver Island—Fresh south winds, quite cloudy and mild with a few scattered showers.

De Valera Has Cancelled Trip

DUBLIN, April 27: (CP)—Prime Minister Eamonn de Valera of Eire has cancelled a proposed trip to the United States, apparently due to the British conscription move.

Strong Opposition To Reorganization Plans Commencing

WASHINGTON, D.C., April 27.—Opposition forces have already launched a vigorous attack against President Franklin D. Roosevelt's administration reorganization proposals including the establishment of twenty-one agencies more directly answerable to the chief executive. Some important changes in high administrative places are anticipated.

Men Organizing For Protection

Women Getting Upper Hand, They Fear, In Civil Service And Teaching

LONDON, April 27: (CP)—Panicked by the advances of the feminine contingent of the Civil Service who now have the right to work for—and get—higher paid positions, Horace I. Summers, a civil servant has founded a national Men's Defence League with the expressed purpose of "opposing the complete domination of males by females in this country."

R. C. Pinkerton—who is taking on the task of organizing the League in Bristol—lists the organization is not anti-feminist. "It is really pro-feminist," he said, "for it seeks to give women what the majority of them really want—a husband, a home and family." Mr. Pinkerton did not explain exactly how this was being done.

DEFENCE OF COUNTRY

Under the present law of the jungle, as it obtains in almost every part of the world today, it seems to be the duty of every young man to prepare himself to defend his country if it should become necessary. So we believe it is the duty of every young man to work for peace and to try to keep the peace.

In Britain the wonder is that they have not had conscription many years ago as a general policy just as they have in France, Russia and Sweden and many other countries. In Canada we do not need a law of that kind although it would smarten up many of our young men to have a year or two under strict discipline with plenty of physical exercise. To see some of them slouch around the streets does not speak well for our free and easy system. Happily many take advantage of the voluntary system under which they receive the training without any feeling of compulsion accompanying it.

OIL DRILLING

The British Columbia government decided some time ago that it would commence exploratory drilling in the Peace River country. Now comes word from Pouce Cou that drilling is likely to recommence at Guardian Oil Well Number 1. The question of piping oil to the coast is also discussed, it being suggested that Bella Coola would be the nearest tidewater point, a distance of 400 miles. We have no authoritative information in regard to this but we would like to see the oil come to Prince Rupert or Stewart.

PROTESTING OVER MUCH

At every critical point in their history the dictators of Germany and Italy find it desirable to state that they will be together to the end, that the axis is still unbroken and that nothing can shake their faith in each other. It is curious that such renewals of faith should be necessary. Usually people who trust each other do not have to say so every few days. The reiteration always implies a doubt. If they were sure, it would not be necessary to renew their pledges every time there is a crisis at a time when crises come every few days.

What seems evident to the outsider is that they distrust each other so much that it is necessary to remind each other often that they are still friends and allies else they might forget.

HIGH COST OF LIVING STATISTICS

Survey Compares Facts From Twelve Centres In Canada

By W. H. WARD
Canadian Press Staff Writer
OTTAWA, April 27. (CP)—

government survey of the average family budget in a dozen Canadian cities would indicate there is no escape from that Public Enemy No. 1, the High Cost of Living, and no part of the Dominion has a decided advantage over others.

Trade Minister Euler sent Bureau of Statistics experts to investigate representative family budgets of incomes in the $450 to $2,500 a year class in Halifax, Saint John, Charlottetown, Quebec, Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto, London, Ontario, Winnipeg, Saskatoon, Edmonton and Vancouver.

From what family heads told investigators in each centre the average percentage of income for each standard and familiar expenditure was arrived at for that particular city.

Montreal had the highest expenditure for food and clothing but the statisticians did not say whether food costs more in Montreal or whether appetites are more robust.

Ottawa spent most on housing and savings. Quebec most on household furnishings and health. Toronto, spent most on automobiles. Vancouver most on other forms of transportation. Saskatoon most on recreation. Charlottetown most on fuel and Saint John most on education.

At the other end of the scale, Charlottetown allotted least to housing and transportation. Quebec least to automobiles and fuel. Vancouver least to savings and clothing. Saint John least to recreation and household furnishings. Toronto least to health and London least to education.

In Maritime Cities
Condensed results of the survey for individual cities follow:

Halifax, like all the other cities, spent most on food, a percentage of 25.9 of the family income going into the jar. Housing accounted for 19.8 percent, fuel and light seven percent and clothing 9.7. Household furnishings took 7.6 percent, health and personal care 6.4 per cent and savings 9.6. Education, community welfare and gifts, grouped together, accounted for four percent, recreation 5.9, automobile operation three percent, and other forms of transportation 1.1 percent.

Food and housing were a little lower in Charlottetown at 25.3 and 15.1 percent respectively, the latter the lowest in the country. Fuel allotment was 7.7 percent, clothing 11.1, household furnishings 9.1 and health 6.5. Recreation expenditure was the same as Halifax at 5.9c percent. Savings allotment was 10.2, education, welfare and gifts, 4.2, automobiles 4.5 and other forms of transportation 4.1 of one percent, another low figure for the entire survey.

Food allotment in Saint John was second only to Montreal at 30.1 percent, with the housing percentage at 17.7 per cent, level with Winnipeg. Fuel and light cost Saint John householders 7.3 percent of their income, clothing 10 percent, household furnishings the lowest in Canada at six, health 5.9, savings nine, education 5.6, recreation 4.3, lowest in the Dominion, automobiles 3.7 and other transportation 1.1 percent.

Quebec spent 29.3 percent on food, 17.7 per cent on housing and had the lowest fuel and light expenditure in the country at 4.5 percent. Clothing was 10.7 percent of the income and household furnishings hit the peak of all cities at 11.3 percent, with only eight families of the 70 surveyed owning automobiles.

Other percentages were 1.2 for transportation, 8.8 for savings, 4.8 for recreation, 3.7 for education, welfare and gifts and 6.7 for health and personal care.

Central Provinces

Percentages in Montreal were divided into French-speaking, English-speaking families and those of other racial origin. The food allotment was highest in the land at 30.7 per cent for the French group, 31.8 for the English and 32.4 for those of other racial origin. Clothing allowances for all three groups were also highest at 12.4, 11.9 and 12.5 for French, English and foreign families respectively. Housing allotments were 16.3, 16 and 18.6; Fuel and light 5.5, 5.7 and 4.8; household furnishings 8.8, 6.5, 8.2; health and personal care 5.4,

The local Sons of England honored St. George, the patron saint of England, with a fine banquet in the Central Hotel. Thomas W. Silversides, the president, was in the chair. Canon G. A. Rix gave the address to St. George.

It is reported that the city of Prince Rupert is to dispose of ten and twenty-five year bonds at 85. There is considerable criticism.

President Woodrow Wilson has signed a bill authorizing the expenditure of $35,000,000 for the building of a railroad in Alaska.

WINNERS LOSE

cost 26.2 per cent, housing 17.5, fuel and light 7.1, clothing 10.2 and household furnishings 8.4 per cent. Health and care was budgeted at 7.2, education, welfare and gifts 6.9 per cent, recreation 7.2, savings 8.8, same as Winnipeg, automobiles 1.9 and other transportation 1.4 per cent.

The lowest clothing expenditure was in Vancouver, where the figure was 9.6 per cent, slightly beneath that of Ottawa and Halifax, the winners-up. Allotment for savings, including life insurance, was also lowest in Vancouver at 8.6 per cent. Expenditure for health was 5.5 per cent, for education, welfare and gifts 4.2, for automobiles 3.9 and other transportation 2.7 per cent.

Largest Single Cost to City is For Education, Analysis of Tax Figures Shows

The net cost of schools in Prince Rupert, exclusive of government grants, is estimated at $50,955.41 this year, it is stated at the City Hall. In other words, this is the net cost to the city of education. To raise this amount 17.9 of the mill rate of 47.5 is required.

Out of the city's tax dollar, it is stated, 37.7 goes for schools, 30 per cent for money debts and 32.3 per cent for general expenditure.

Twelve Children of Pre-School Age Presented Tuesday Afternoon

Following the Easter vacation, well babies clinics being conducted by Miss E. D. Next week the clinic will be at Borden Street School.

Five thousand out of town people read the Daily News. These people are worth cultivating.

It is a race now to get the garden cultivated and in good shape in time for planting everything that is needed. Where perennials have not yet been planted they should be in the ground soon or they will not give good results this year. I am asked what perennials succeed well in Prince Rupert. I have found shasta daisies, painted daisies or pyrethrum, leopardsbane, sweet rocket, phlox, day lilies, regal lilies, orange lilies, forget-me-not, thrift, honesty, delphiniums, monkshood, auriculas and sometimes primroses and polyanthus, columbines, michelmas daisies, lupins all give good results. More difficult are peonies and irises which sometimes bloom heavily and then again not at all or very slightly. There is also a perennial linaria that blooms freely, dies down in winter and comes up late in spring and cannot be controlled. The tall golden-glow blooms freely but needs careful tying up. That is true of most perennials. They must be securely tied or disappointment is likely to follow.

It is too early yet to plant out annuals. Some people do it about the middle of May and others about the end of May or first week in June. Much depends upon the season. Be sure you have strong plants or you may be disappointed if the weather is bad. I have had lobelia perish in May in the cold rains.

Polyanthus came through the winter well this year and the result is that many people will have a good showing of flowers soon. Some of them are already in bloom. Two weeks from now they should be at their best. A polyanthus is a primrose with several flowers on a stalk. The new ones have large flowers

Those who sow seeds out of doors should watch carefully for the birds. They are stopping off here a few days on their way north and they sure do make a mess of the garden if they take a fancy to it. They like a garden that is freshly dug, preferably where it has been manured. If the grass or other seeds are sown, so much the better for the birds. The soil is usually fine in those patches and the birds like the seeds just as they are coming through the ground. In some gardens they invade the greenhouse and cold frames and do considerable damage. All should be away north after the first week in May. —H.F.P.

HONORED BY LODGE

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Stegavig, who are being much feted in connection with the observance of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary, were honored by the Moose Lodge and the Women of the Moose last night with a banquet and dance in the Moose Hall, about 150 persons being present at the affair.

The tables had been attractively prepared for the festivities, the feature being a beautiful floral arch at the head table. As Mr. and Mrs. Stegavig and family entered the hall, there was community singing of "Pack Up Your Troubles." After the birds and groom of a quarter of a century ago with their two sons—Paul and Arnold—and two daughters—Clara and Frances—had taken their places at the head table, Rev. R. C. Durnford pronounced the blessing. Full justice having been done to a splendid repast, a toast to the guests of honor was proposed by W. B. MacCallum. Then Mrs. Hugh Smith, regent of the Moose Ladies, and A. D. Vance, dictator of the Moose Lodge, participated in the presentation to Mr. and Mrs. Stegavig of a handsome silver cocktail set. A lovely bouquet was also presented to Mrs. Stegavig. Mr. Stegavig responded suitably and others who spoke appropriately to the occasion were Rev. Roy Durnford and Robert McKay. The balance of the evening was spent in dancing until 1:30 a.m. with W. B. MacCallum as master of ceremonies and music by the Moose Orchestra. William Lamb was in charge of catering.

Another event in connection with Mr. and Mrs. Stegavig's silver anniversary celebration was a banquet Monday night in the Boston Hall with sixty friends present. Mr. and Mrs. Stegavig entered to the strains of the Wedding March played by Mrs. Carr. A toast was proposed by George Copeland who, on behalf of those in attendance, made the presentation of a handsome silver tea service. Mr. and Mrs. Stegavig both responded. A musical program included vocal solos by Mrs. Jary's McLeod and Casey Vink, guitar solo by Terry Johansen, violin solo by David Hadland and piano solo by Miss Wick. Dancing until the early hours of the morning, with Robert McKay as master of ceremonies, brought the party to a close.

HEAD MAN OF FRANCE ESTEEMED

Republic Took Unusual Course In Electing Albert Lebrun To Second Term

By GLADYS M. ARNOLD
Canadian Press Correspondent

PARIS, April 27: (CP)—Election of Albert Lebrun to a second seven-year term as President of France reflected his almost unprecedented popularity in a country where the citizens for more than 50 years have mocked, criticized or abused their chief executives. He will start his new term May 11.

Actually the election recently created little excitement in Paris although four independent candidates were detained by police for creating a disturbance. While the people do not directly elect their President any man who pays his taxes and "obeys his wife" may submit his name as a candidate. The citizen is obliged to buy a newspaper to see who has been chosen for the post by the Chamber of Deputies and the Senate in the Palace of Versailles.

With no serious rivals, M. Lebrun received 506 of the 910 votes cast. The only other President of France ever re-elected was Jules Grevy. He resigned in 1887 in the second year of his new term.

Other Presidents

How little the ordinary French citizen has to do with the choosing of his president is indicated by the story told about one of the first presidents of France, Felix Faure. At the time there lived in Paris an anarchist leader named Sebastian Faure and his people were heard to ask: "Who is this man Faure who has been made president? Is it the anarchist?"

The tradition which M. Lebrun has effectually broken is that the French presidents have been unsatisfactory. One is too simple, for instance Jules Grevy, whom the cartoonists delighted in caricaturing his shirt sleeves and bedroom slippers; another too lavish Sadi Carnot spent his personal fortune to dispel the impression Grevy had created and was suspected of monarchist ambitions for his pains. This one wanted too much power, that one was a rubber stamp and still another was referred to disrespectfully as an "imbecile."

But M. Lebrun has won a public which even two years ago, provoked the remark by a French writer: "They would deny themselves a dinner to see a crown-head but wouldn't send the 20th of a cent to see the president." The most critical content themselves by saying he is "sentimental and a family man."

The President, however, is much more than that. Tact, diplomacy and courtesy have marked his term. He has an easy and gracious manner in receiving distinguished visitors, especially marked when

PAGEANTRY FOR KING AND QUEEN: WINNIPEG PLANS 'HISTORY PARADE'

Winnipeg Plans "Parade of History" Telling Story of Manitoba

WINNIPEG, April 27: (CP)—A highlight in Winnipeg's royal welcome week, May 20 to 27, will be the historical parade, illustrative of pioneer life and the development of Manitoba and its capital city. In a week of pageantry, climaxed by the visit of King George and Queen Elizabeth here May 24, the parade will be held the evening of May 23. Scores of floats will drive through downtown streets, telling the story from 1612 when Sir Thomas Button, first white man to set foot in Manitoba, claimed the country about the Nelson River, in the north, for England.

Colorful floats will show the Indian days of old Fort Garry, of historical events leading to the Red River rebellion of 1885 and the establishment of police and government. The historic part of the North West Mounted Police, now the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, will be shown.

Transportation development will have its part from the days of dog team and Red River ox-carts to historic aviation flights which opened the north country for mining.

The younger generation will learn the first steamboat arrived from the United States, from St. Paul, Minn., on the Red River in 1859 and the first train from the south in 1878 and the first through train from Eastern Canada May 20, 1885.

Other floats will illustrate development of the plains wheat areas from the time of the first shipment of wheat east, October 21, 1876, to the present methods of power farming.

Part played by immigrants in settling the Western Prairies, arrival of the first Mennonite settlers in 1874, will be depicted.

Seeks New Triumphs

And is Muzzy May getting tired of working? Thinking of retiring? "I've said it before and I still say it. I only hope my health lasts until the final curtain falls. And by the way—what do you think of this television?"

That's Muzzy May—74, and looking for new theatrical worlds to conquer. This is her 56th year in the profession, her 11th straight year in motion pictures—and she has never been idle through a complete season.

She lives with Lillian Harmer, many years her junior and her closest friend. Miss Harmer, 26 years ago, was a schoolmarm in Philadelphia when Miss Robson met her and induced her to join her stage company. So Lillian Harmer became an actress—and has been with May Robson ever since.

Muzzy May and Lillian are always "into" something. One of the things they've been "into" is real estate. They buy, build or remodel little homes with one purpose in view—renting to families with small children. The rental signs, if they put them up, would read: "Children welcome."

Miss Robson recently signed a new studio contract.

British-Born Miss Robson, Mother of Films, Looks For New Successes

HOLLYWOOD, April 27: (CP)—May Robson, grand old lady of the films, was too busy working to plan for her seventy-fourth birthday a few days ago.

It was a long way in time and success from the day she was born in Melbourne, Australia, the fourth child in the family of Capt. Henry Robson of the Royal Navy.

Miss Robson—she dropped the "r" in 1883 when her name first appeared on a theatre program minus that letter—looks up from her knitting and twinkles characteristically: "Can't make plans. I don't know when I've got to rehearse for this broadcast I'm on. And then I want to get off for a few days at the fair in San Francisco—and I don't want to miss any good previews—and if I can, I want to go out to Canoga Park to take part in a tree-planting ceremony..."

Miss Robson—"Muzzy May" to practically everybody in Hollywood—is resting "between pictures" in her home in Beverly Hills. FOOTBALL RESUMED At Kitwanga Ready

Second Half of High School League Opened Last Night

Both Memorial High School inter-house football play was resumed last evening on the Acropolis Hill ground when teams representing Beta and Gamma houses met in the opening of the second half of the league. The junior Beta team, which went through the first half of the league without losing a single game, maintained its record by defeating the junior Gamma team by a score of five to nil.

The first half of the game was featured by clever combination on the part of Holkestad, Pierce and Simundson. Pierce opened the score for Beta and Holkestad soon followed with a second goal. Clever play by Gomez and Mah almost resulted in Gamma scoring but O'Neill was safe in goal and cleared. The Gamma forwards found it difficult to pass the defence of Bird and Perkins. A fine run by Gomez was dangerous but the Beta goalie was again able to save. Half-time found the Beta team winning by two to nil.

The second half was marred by rain, sleet and heavy wind. Pierce added a third tally for Beta. Beta pressed and McAfee brought off several clever saves. The Gamma forwards missed some fine centres put across by Gomez. Mah placed well and Knutson got possession but shot high. Beta now got away and Simundson scored again. Hougan cleared strongly when Simundson tried again. Beta forced several corners which were well placed by Pierce. Grimmon and Haugan were defending well. McLachlan and Hingston stopped a dangerous run by Gurchich and Jarvis. McLeod, Gamma was now pressing and Jones and Castick tried hard to score. Weir, playing goal for Beta in the second half, proved himself to be a good goalkeeper saving several hard drives from Mah and Gomez. Before the final whistle blew, Simundson scored Beta's fifth goal.

Teams: Beta—O'Neill, Weir, Perkins, Bird, Gurchich, McRae, McKeown, McLeod, Pierce, Simundson, Holkestad, Rov. Gamma—McAfee, Grimmon, Haugan, McLachlan, Burnip, Gomez, Castick, Hingston, Mah, Jones, Knutson. Referee—J. B. Wilkinson. Linesmen—J. Clark and W. W. C. O'Neill.

Advertising Regularly---

THE merchant who says he doesn't need to advertise, and advertise regularly, is confessing that he has nothing to offer customers. Consistent advertising has been proven time and time again to be the best protection against a slump in sales. It attracts people to your place of business. You did not learn your multiplication tables in a day. They were learned by repetition and constant practice. This is a peculiarity of the human mind. Details are only remembered by repetition. The success of advertising lies in consistency and regularity. Remember that newspaper advertising is the indelible kind of advertising. BE WISE AND ADVERTISE.

NEW AND BETTER COLD CURED ICE

For the Halibut and Salmon Fleets Following the investigations of the Fisheries Research Station, the Company has just completed extensive changes and improvements in ice storage and ice delivery methods. Ice for the boats will all be old ice, thoroughly cured or aged at new low temperatures. It will be delivered into the hold, even in the hottest weather, as cold as the storage room. Fishermen are invited to inspect the new system. Better ice than ever before, at no increase in cost, means economy to the boat and improved quality in fish delivery.

THE STABILIZING INFLUENCE

In a world of chaos—of wars and rumors of impending events—the daily newspaper stands out as a permanent and stabilizing influence in every community in Canada. When rumor has spread throughout the country, fed upon the flame of mass curiosity, and always curving farther and farther from facts, it becomes a reassuring experience to read the true facts in your daily newspaper. Here, through vast newsgathering organizations directed by trained observers, you are able to read and digest ALL THE FACTS as they ACTUALLY HAPPENED! Rumor plays no part in the life of a good daily newspaper. Its far-flung sources of authentic information enable it to turn the spotlight of truth upon every important event, sifting rumor and fact and flashing the complete story to every daily newspaper reader. Your home will be enriched by a good daily newspaper—its stabilizing influence will reflect itself in a more tolerant outlook upon the world in which we live.

VANDERHOOF OFFICERS ELECTED

Alex Nicholson has been drilling artesian wells at Fort St. James with marked success. For H. M. Perison Mr. Nicholson drilled a 294 foot well which has a flow of 400 gallons per minute which is sufficient to more than supply the requirements of the whole community. The well is cased and the water gushes out for several feet. Wells about 200 feet deep at the premises of Mrs. L. R. Dickinson and Edward Forfar each give approximately fifty gallons of water per minute.

Mrs. John Kemp of Fort Fraser was a visitor in Vanderhoof last week on business in connection with the fall fair to be held at Fort Fraser on Labor Day.

The annual meeting of the Vanderhoof Tennis Club was held on Monday night of this week at the Bank of Commerce. Officers were elected and arrangements made for an active season.

Miss Isabella Goodwin of the staff of the provincial department of public works at Vanderhoof has left Vanderhoof for her home at Fort Fraser where she is to be married early next month.

The Fort St. James Board of Trade has been organized with officers as follows: President, David H. Hoy; vice-president, W. D. Fraser; secretary-treasurer, J. H. Blackley; executive, L. R. Dickinson, H. M. Perison, Frank Cooke and Norman Henry.

Freezing temperatures continue at Vanderhoof with the thermometer continuing to show eight or nine degrees of frost each night.

The Vanderhoof Ladies' Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. G. P. Punter on Wednesday afternoon of this week.

Ernest Lamb has returned to his home at Vanderhoof after spending the winter in Vancouver and will spend the summer months in Vanderhoof.

John Kemp, who operates the ferry at Fort Fraser, left last week for medical treatment at Edmonton. During his absence his son will operate the ferry.

Regular services were held last Sunday at the Holy Trinity Church, Anglican, with Rev. C. J. Brown in charge. The pastor's subject in the evening was "Standards and Compromises."

J. D. Moore, government agent at Fort Fraser, and J. Travis, district agriculturalist at Prince George, were in Vanderhoof last week superintending the disposal of a carload of seed grain.

Excavation for the basement of the new hotel to be erected at the corner of Burrard Avenue and Columbia Street here by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reid has been completed and preparations are now being made by S. W. Cocker and W. J. Bowman for the concrete foundation.

PRESENTS BIG BILL

With Dance Revue and Feature Picture, Capitol Will Have But One Complete Show Tonight

With Mrs. Hodgson's dance revue and the picture "Young Dr. Kildare" being presented, there will be only one complete show each night—tonight and Friday—at the Capitol Theatre.

"Young Dr. Kildare" is the story of a young medical student who sacrifices love and a place of comparative security beside his country doctor father to achieve something great for humanity. As an interne in the general hospital of a big city, his independent thinking gets him discharged from the staff but wins him the admiration of a great diagnostician through whom he finds that love and a career are not incompatible. Lew Ayres, Lionel Barrymore and Lynne Carver are the leading members of the cast which also includes Nat Pendleton, Jo Ann Sayres and Samuel S. Hinds.

The Hodgson dance revue, as already indicated, is to be a colorful and spectacular show, one of the most spectacular and ambitious of its kind, ever undertaken here. Doubtless, it will be appreciated by local entertainment lovers.

Advertising is an investment.

Special recognition of the splendid work of the Women's Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion was expressed by a hearty vote of thanks endorsed enthusiastically. The members also went on record expressing their appreciation of the fine work of the executive.

The extensive work among ex-service men is an important factor and their general interest in civic activities indicates that the veterans serve their country as well in peace as they did in war. The registration of ex-service men in the National Veterans' Survey continues steadily and is strong evidence of the anxiety to assist the maintenance of established government for the country.

Jack Preece was in the chair and there was a splendid attendance.
