Royal Visit Means an Extra Red-Letter Date-Comparison With With Old Land

Presence of the King and Queen in Canada when His Majesty's birthday is celebrated May 20 will undoubtedly result in a much wider observance of the holiday, hitherto confined to government departments, banks and other financial institutions. The extra day will mean eight holidays for most Canadians this year.

AWAY TO A GOOD START

It is near the end of January and it is evident to everyone that we are now away to a good start. An important thing is that the estimates for the defence department have been tabled and that the sum of $327,000 has been placed there in for the purpose of establishing an air base at Prince Rupert with other money for Queen Charlotte Islands.
