JUDGE BY RESULTS

Some people are fearful of what would happen if Great Britain and France should be attacked by Germany and Italy. No one can tell what would happen but we can be quite sure that the British war department has not been idle and is not telling what it is able to do. On the other hand, we have seen General Franco aided by these two countries and taking years to subdue poor decrepit : Spain. That does not seem to indicate that we have anything to fear in that direction.

Evidently, our duty in Canada is to be prepared for any emergency so that if at any time we should be attacked we shall be prepared to give a good account of our- E Canadian Fish & Cold Storage ed we shall be prepared to give a good account of ourmany, Italy, Japan and Russia and there is no indication just now that either of these countries has any immediate intention of attacking us. The chief cause for uneasiness is that all these countries are increasing their armaments and their fighting strength so we must be ready.
