He also declared that Great Britain was maintaining a close watch on the Albanian situation. Albanian authorities assured Great Britain that they would not accept conditions incompatible with their sovereignty.

HAZELTON ROUTE IS UNQUESTIONABLY BEST FOR ALASKA HIGHWAY

Any Other Than That Would Be Disastrous, Declares Frank Dockrill in Speaking Before Gyro Club

"Those who took routes other than Hazelton for the Yukon in the Gold Rush days usually met with disaster and I predict that there will also be disaster if any other route than that north of Hazelton is taken for the Alaska Highway" was the flat and unqualified declaration made by F. M. Dockrill, prominent pioneer frontiersman, rancher and industrialist of Telkwa, in addressing the Prince Rupert Gyro Club at luncheon yesterday. "No one who knows and is honest can advocate any other route."

Mr. Dockrill referred to the difficulties of the Omineca route, one of the principal of which was the fact that watersheds had to be continuously crossed one to the other, some of the watercourses being half a mile deep. The problems of the Omineca route would be "terrible," he asserted.

Mr. Dockrill was inclined to think that snow conditions on the Hazelton route about which one heard were over-estimated. In any case, it was not necessary to follow the telegraph line but certain points could be gone around. The difficulties on the Hazelton route would be much less than any other and the advantages were easy to appreciate. There were two ways of attacking both the Stikine and Atlin areas.

Mr. Dockrill was speaking on the

AROUND EUROPE TODAY

LONDON—Interest in the unsettled condition of international affairs still centred today on Italy and Albania with the general expectation that the Italian occupation might commence at any moment despite the statement on behalf of Albania that it would fight for its independence at all costs. Italian troops are reported concentrated at Brindisi ready to cross the Adriatic Sea and enter Albania. The Albanian foreign minister made an airplane flight to Rome yesterday to confer with the Italian government. The Albanian legation here said today that "there is no truth in reports of an impending Italian protectorate over Albania."

LONDON—Polish quarters here took the view last night that the British-Polish mutual defence alliance against aggression went into effect as a result of the third British-Polish conference. It amounts to a virtual military alliance. Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain is expected to make an announcement in the House of Commons today. Foreign Secretary Col. Joseph Beck of Poland is conferring in London on behalf of his country. Yesterday Col. Beck had luncheon at Windsor Castle as the guest of the King and Queen. Princess Elizabeth was present.

BERLIN—The "Man the Gun" speech of Lord Stanhope, First Lord of the British Admiralty, is described as propaganda against the Reich, designed also to impress Poland.

LONDON—Lord Stanhope, First Lord of the Admiralty, expressed regret yesterday that his "Man the Guns" speech should have caused general alarm. In the House of Commons, Rt. Hon. Arthur Greenwood, Labor leader, demanded the resignation of Stanhope but Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain refused to call for it.

Some Sources Say That Formula May Be Found To Make Occupation Acceptable—May Be Just Gesture to Other Balkan Nations

TIRANA, April 6: (CP)—An Italian cruiser and two destroyers arrived at Durazzo, Albania, today as the country feverishly discussed reports of imminent Italian occupation. Many reservists have been mobilized. Some sources expect that Albania will resist any Italian aggression but there is a possibility a formula may be found to make the Italian occupation acceptable to the country. Jugoslav sources interpret the rumors as a warning to Jugoslavia and Greece to stay out of the "Halt Hitler" bloc.

Stimson Non-Isolationist

WASHINGTON, D.C., April 6: (CP)—Henry L. Stimson, one-time Republican Secretary of State, yesterday urged Congress to throw isolation of the United States overboard and give President Franklin D. Roosevelt greater power to discriminate between aggressors and victims in war by amending the United States neutrality act which, as it now stands, prohibits shipment of war materials to all warring nations. Stimson declared that Germany, Italy and Japan had broken promises and torn up treaties.

PULP INDUSTRY

The era of pulped products is now beginning, according to R. J. Filberg, timber operator, who addressed the Canadian Society of Forest Engineers recently in Vancouver. That means that the pulp wood stand around Prince Rupert will be valuable and that mills will be necessary in handling this product. Prince Rupert is bound to become a centre for this industry.

THE REAL CAUSE

According to some minor authorities everybody is wrong on the matter of unemployment. The improvements in machinery have very little to do with it and the depression also is not the cause. The real cause is seen in the replacement of men by women. Whereas formerly there were enough jobs to keep the men working while the women folk stayed at home and learned the gentle art of housekeeping, today the girls all try to get positions which replace the men and thus have upset all the old calculations. The change has resulted in a tremendous falling off in families and will probably mean the end of the race in a few years unless something is done about it.

POSSIBLY AN ELECTION

Correspondents at Ottawa who a few weeks ago were saying there was little likelihood of an election this year are now changing their minds and suggesting that a Dominion election is likely to be held this year. They base their opinions not on any statement or announcement that has been made by the government but on the fact that the government is bringing down legislation which they think will be popular.

WILL BE DISAPPOINTED

"If any dictator in the world has made up his mind that the British Commonwealth is going to be disrupted, he is basing his future project on an absolute fallacy," declared Right Hon. Ernest Lapointe, leader of the Quebec section of the Liberal representation in the House of Commons, in a recent speech in the House. He opposes conscription but he believes in the Empire and its future. He made a strong plea for national unity and for adequate defences. He suggested that if the Empire were attacked there would be immediately such a wave of public sentiment that would force any government to intervene.

KRIEGER IS BEST

Won Ten Round Decision In Seattle Last Night Over Allan Matthews

SEATTLE, April 6:—Solly Kreiger, world's middleweight boxing champion, won an unpopular but unquestioned decision in a ten round non-title bout here last night with Allan Matthews.

It was a hard fight and Matthews made a good showing until the seventh when Kreiger sent him to his knees for the count of four with a hard right to the stomach and rights and lefts to the chin.

By the same process Kreiger sent Matthews down in the ninth round for a nine-count.

Matthews came back and made a whirlwind finish in the tenth but Kreiger's lead on points was too great to be overcome.

NEW CHAMP BORN HERE

Prince Rupert Native Son Wins Provincial Lightweight Boxing Title

Paddy Binns of North Vancouver, who won the lightweight boxing crown of British Columbia in Vancouver recently, was born at Prince Rupert General Hospital in May 1921, being the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. (Paddy) Binns for many years residents of the Skeena district where Paddy senior was chief accountant at the Balmoral Cannery.

Young Binns had a very successful season, also reaching the semi-finals of the Northwest Golden Gloves Championship in Seattle last November, defeating opponents from Seattle, Everett, and Pottlatch, Washington, before losing a close decision to the eventual winner, Tom Moyer of Portland, in the semi-finals. He also had numerous victories over Fort Lewis and British Columbia boxers.

Paddy is one of the most popular boys in the game, being noted for his clean tactics, and good sportsmanship in the ring.

In addition to winning the championship cup, he was also awarded a special trophy for being the winner of the best bout of the evening.

TAKE THE "LEAD" FEELING OUT OF YOUR LEGS

Get More Oxygen In Your Blood and Get the Pep that Sends You Bounding Up the Stairs. People who smother to death die because oxygen has been completely cut off from them. Just as surely you are slowly smothering if your blood lacks red corpuscles. Red corpuscles are your oxygen-carriers. They carry the oxygen you breathe in to every part of your system. Without enough oxygen-carrying corpuscles, your kidneys, liver, stomach and bowels slow down. Your skin gets pale, flabby, often itchy. Your nerves may become jittery—you tire quickly—feel depressed.

What you need is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These world-famous pills help make more and better red corpuscles and thus increase the oxygen-carrying power of your blood. Get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills today at your druggist. See for yourself how quickly this time-proven blood-builder will help give you back your pep.

What's Wrong With Rupert People?

Are they lazy or careless? Or have they an inferiority complex? We don't believe they are dull.

Yet some time ago we advertised a $1000 contest for the best letter about Bluebird Diamonds and had only a few entrants.

Would it be because people are suspicious that there might be something more to do or something to buy?

Anyhow an agricultural student won the prize with a letter no better than many Prince Rupert people could have written.

Well we now have another $1000 prize contest which only needs the best letter of 50 words about Parker Pens. No pen to buy, nothing else to do later.

Why not try? We'll tell you all about it, or see our window and ask for an entry blank.

We'd very much like the prize to come to Prince Rupert.

COLD CURED ICE

For the Halibut and Salmon Fleets

Following the investigations of the Fisheries Research Station, the Company has just completed extensive changes and improvements in ice storage and ice delivery methods.

Ice for the boats will all be old ice, thoroughly cured or aged at new low temperatures. It will be delivered into the hold, even in the hottest weather, as cold as the storage room.

Fishermen are invited to inspect the new system. Better ice than ever before, at no increase in cost, means economy to the boat and improved quality in fish delivery.

Teachers Talk Of Convention

Local Pedagogues, In Session Last Night, Prepare For Vancouver Meetings

The principal business at the monthly meeting of the Prince Rupert Teachers' Association, last evening in the Booth Memorial High School concerned itself with matters to be discussed at the annual provincial convention to be held in Vancouver next week.

Various professional matters were taken up and the delegates to the convention will present the viewpoints of the local teachers when the occasion arises.

Increased government grants for teachers' salaries are advised from Victoria. To teachers whose salaries were cut by as much as forty percent several years ago and to whom no restoration of the cut or increment has since been made, the advice of an increased grant for teachers' salaries was welcome news.

Other matters taken up included the consideration of the proposed new constitution, the proposed B. C. Teachers' Sick Benefit Fund and matters to be discussed with the Minister of Education Hon. Dr. G. M. Weir, and the superintendent of education at special interviews.

In spite of the unfavorable weather there was a good attendance at the meeting. J. S. Wilson was in the chair.

This spring has been rather disappointing to local gardeners who have been unable to do much work except possibly to tidy up a little. In most gardens it has not been dry enough to sow seeds. However, so many people now have either little greenhouses or cold frames that it is not so very important to have their seeds in the ground early. I sowed sweet peas this week.

In spite of the snow and night frosts, perennials have been growing. Lilies have been pushing their way through the ground and nothing seems to have suffered to any appreciable extent. It seems quite safe to plant rose trees and other shrubs now and also to transplant perennials.

Most gardeners who have a good many perennials will be digging up a box of roots for the plant sale on Saturday for the benefit of the Horticultural Society. When a plant has been in the ground a couple of years it usually can be divided with advantage.

It is very satisfactory to see the local florists importing quantities of roses at low prices. Already many people have made purchases and second shipments will be quite in order. The sooner they are planted the better now. They should be pruned either at the time of planting or very soon after, leaving about three or four eyes on each stem with the upper one pointing outward.

Many people prefer to leave their perennial bed untouched for a time in order to be sure not to injure plants which have not yet shown signs of growth above ground. Also many people like to get seedlings from this bed. Many people never sow some varieties of plants but depend upon self-seeding for their stock. I find that foxgloves perpetuate themselves quite easily if the young seedlings are not destroyed in mistake for weeds.

Someone asks what plants are likely to be offered at the sale Saturday. I should say that the list will include phlox, foxgloves, sweet rocket, lupins, leopardsbane, delphiniums, michaelmas daisies and possibly orange lilies, bleeding heart, poppies, saxifrage, sedums, cerastiums and other rock plants and dahlias. Canterbury bells are scarce and difficult to secure. H.F.P.

Twenty-Five Years Ago

April 6, 1914

H. C. Brewster and John Oliver, liberal leaders, were heard by an audience which packed the West-End Theatre to the doors. The chairman of the meeting was T. A. Pattullo, president of the Prince Rupert Liberal Association. Mr. Oliver described the McBride government as a "gang of political adventurers."

W. P. Hinton, general traffic manager of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, and G. A. McNicholl, industrial commissioner, arrived in the city from Vancouver on the Prince George. Mr. Hinton said that an announcement might be expected in about a month's time concerning the projected hotel at Prince Rupert.

The city finance committee has decided to accept an offer of a Toledo firm for $50,000 worth of four year debentures bearing five percent interest at 95.

The Prince Rupert Rotary Club was in business session at its regular weekly luncheon today with President W. M. Coates in the chair and a good attendance of members.

CO-OPERATION WITH INTERIOR

Editor, Daily News:

In your editorial Wednesday regarding co-operation with the interior of British Columbia following an address by Frank Dockrill of Telkwa before the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, we consider that the remarks in your editorial are not quite in harmony with the facts. Sometimes, even progressive newspapers, not being in a position to comprehend all things at all times, convey misleading information to the general public.

In your second paragraph of the editorial referred to there appears to be a misunderstanding regarding the sale of Prince George butter in this city. May we refresh your memory by drawing your attention to a good-sized advertisement that appeared last summer in the Daily News of this city advertising Prince George butter and pointing out to the business men of this city that they could obtain Prince George butter from the Prince Rupert Fishermen's Co-operative Association any time they so desired and at prices comparing favorably with that paid for any other butter of similar grade. May we point out also that this association has purchased Prince George butter continuously for the past two years and is bringing that butter into the city nearly every week over our railway, generally known as the Canadian National. It would not be necessary for any grocer in this city to store any quantity of Prince George butter for they can obtain 50 pound boxes of this butter almost any day by applying to us.

We might also point out to Mr. Dockrill that the Prince Rupert Fishermen's Association is about the only business in this city that regularly purchases eggs from Telkwa and has done so continuously for the past year. In fact, sometimes we have not been able to obtain sufficient to meet our needs from that district.

It is rather curious that the only institution that was endeavoring to patronize interior products was not even mentioned in the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce.

Trusting that the above information may be of service to you we are.

COMMENDATION

Editor, Daily News:

I would appreciate being allowed to send this commendatory word to D. T. Greene (Quick) whose colorful letter was run in the News of March 10. The point which most appealed to this reader at the other side of Canada runs thus: "The manufacturer has also received protection from high tariffs whereas the farmer has had to purchase in a highly protected market and to compete with the world in his sales."

How true that is, Mr. Editor, shines through the following assertion in a submission presented to the Turgeon Grain Commission by the Manitoba Co-operative Conference dealing with this same theme:

"For more than thirty years the organized farmers of Western Canada have maintained that they were placed under a heavy handicap by having to produce within a protective system and to market in a world competitive system. Professor Norman Rogers, in a memorandum prepared for the Royal Commission Economic Inquiry of Nova Scotia, estimated the enhancement of prices in the three prairie provinces owing to the tariff in 1931, as follows: Manitoba, $29,185,740; Saskatchewan, $29,228,285; Alberta, $27,909,396; a total of $86,323,421, of which the major part must have fallen upon the farm population. The cost of the tariff to Western Canada in the last thirty years is certainly not less than $1,000,000,000."

In the light of the foregoing, I agree with Mr. Greene's desire for enlightenment as "to the sudden case of shivers, creeps and horrors just as soon as the most down-trodden section of the nation start to get a small break." Offhand it looks as though our prairie brethren have paid in advance for any assistance the rest of the Canadian people may feel inclined to render now.

Toronto.

ASKING REGISTRATION

Editor, Daily News:

The whole English-speaking world was shocked by the audacity of the recent Nazi demonstration in New York. Of course, New York is not in Canada but lesser Nazi outbursts have happened in Canada (for instance, the recent German Consul versus Catholic Archbishop incident in Winnipeg) and these is no reason to believe Nazi-inclined residents in Canada are lacking in boldness or in plain everyday "cheek."

Recent press dispatches contained the boast that minorities in our Dominion were being brought together. By whom? For what purpose? The German dictator has declared to the world that German minorities in all lands are under the protection of the German forces. Two and two still make four.

Reduce Varicose or Swollen Veins

This Easy Way—At Home
Swollen veins may become dangerous and sometimes break. Sufferers should get an original bottle of Moore's Emerald Oil at any pharmacist and start to reduce the veins and bunches at once with this healing oil. A small bottle will last a long time because it is very concentrated and a little goes a very long way. Apply night and morning with a soft brush or finger tips as directed until the swelling is reduced. So effective and safe is Emerald Oil that failure is rare indeed—at druggists everywhere.

false "isms" and forces which seek to destroy our democratic system demands that immediate steps be taken to nip the sprouting Nazi buds and stop their development into blossoms of hate and intolerance.

Aliens can wander throughout Canada at will. They can possess the freehold and leasehold of industrial, mineral, agricultural and urban lands. They can establish and carry on any undertaking and enjoy the rights of naturalized and British-born citizens without assuming any of the responsibilities of Canadian citizenship.

Needless to say, those behind the foreign doctrines are not Anglo-Saxons and, in the main, they are of foreign birth. It is the opinion of this Defence of Canada League that the Canadian government should take immediate steps to ascertain who they are and keep them under a watchful eye. To do this the League believes that our government should immediately begin a national registration of all those of foreign birth who reside in Canada. We realize that all foreign-born are not disloyal but loyal foreign-born citizens should not resent being registered. They should look upon it as an endeavour to preserve their liberty with ours and a necessity in the control of aliens who might be dangerous.

In times of national danger it is pertinent to know more of your neighbor than just his name.

This Defence of Canada League is requesting the Canadian government to begin the suggested registration without loss of time.

At this Pacific Coast Canadian frontier the District Council of the Canadian Legion has endorsed our suggestion and passed it to its Provincial Command for consideration.

The Native Sons of Canada (Victoria Assembly No. 1) have also endorsed the idea and passed it to their National Council for consideration.

Patriotic organizations and private citizens in your locality are requested to get behind this movement and roll it along to Ottawa.

HAZELTON ROUTE IS UNQUESTIONABLY BEST

subject of "The Romance of Transportation of Central British Columbia," a subject which through experience since the turn of the century, he was well qualified to discuss. He illustrated his talk with many colorful descriptions and anecdotes of the early days. Since 1870 the Skeena Valley had been the main artery of travel into the interior, having first been employed as the shortest route into the Omineca mining district. First it had been navigated with large native canoes from Port Essington to Hazelton when the trip took from two weeks to a month. Then had come the river steamers which took anywhere from two or three days to ten to make the trip up river.

However, the real romance of transportation in the central interior Mr. Dockrill associated with the pack train and of this he regaled his interested listeners with a number of tales from his own personal experience. Then had come the wagon roads and the trucks and cars and, finally, with the airplane, the pack train had practically disappeared.

Urges Immigration

Speaking of the railway problem in this district, Mr. Dockrill reiterated a previous declaration that the only way to get traffic for the railway was to increase the population. Therein, he felt, lay the solution of the whole railway problem, one to which justice had not been done. Immigration, the speaker declared, would not aggravate unemployment but, properly directed, would have the opposite effect. There had always been prosperity in Canada when there was a westward movement of immigration. It was all very well to talk about getting industries and roads but the whole thing hinged first on population. Agriculture was the basic industry. Having that, the other things would follow. "It behooves us all to get behind any movement which will bring a healthy flow of people to the land," Mr. Dockrill declared in conclusion.

President W. M. Watts was in the chair and guests were B. A. Latta of Edmonton and C. H. Orme of Victoria.
