In his speech last night Mr. Manson said that the Pacific Great Eastern Railway Co., the new line from Vancouver to Fort George, was an independent line. Let us see how independent it is. The bill ratifying this scheme, which is No. 23, has been dubbed the "Hoodoo." It sets out to sanction an arrangement in addition to that with the government as regards the new line, but one between the Grand Trunk Pacific and allied lines and the contractors. This "independent" line has given first option to purchase its property to the G. T. P. No offer is to be considered for the "independent" line without its first being submitted to the Grand Trunk. All freight, express and mail on the "independent" line must be routed over the Grand Trunk. The Grand Trunk has the sole right to the interchange of business over the new line as well as the sole right to run sleeping cars over it. Construction materials and supplies used are to be routed over the Grand Trunk. The new line is compelled to use the Grand Trunk's terminals at Fort George. Section 11 of the bill continues the agreement in force for fifty years. The new line is firmly bound hand and foot to the Grand Trunk and can not, in fact, be anything more than a part of it.

DAILY EDITION.

SATURDAY, MARCH 2

SHALL WE FIGHT M'BRIDE OR LAY DOWN?

There is no question for Prince Rupert Liberals to answer Meetings held every 1st and 3rd Sunday of the in the above headline. It is simply written in an interrogative form to startle into attention. The Vancouver Sun says: Should G. VUKOVICH, the Liberal party make a contest in the election now thrust upon the province? and answers this by the statement that the opinion in authoritative circles of the Liberal party in Victoria is that there should be no contest.

This was written on Tuesday and since then a Liberal convention has been in conference for a couple of days. What this body may decide to do in the premises we are not at this writing advised, and can only express a deep conviction that the opinion | Valves & Pipes Oxford Stoves expressed by the Sun must be erroneous and misleading. If not so the Liberals of the other parts of the province must be of a different kidney to those from this city. There is a whine that the Liberals are not supported by the public; that at the last federal election they voted solid seven Conservatives for Ottawa. This must have happened because the Liberals of other parts of the province went into the battle faint-hearted, as they appear from the Sun's statement to be now, believing that Dick McBride was certain to win.

Prince Rupert Liberals were not affected by any such considerations. They fought the battle as a duty, boldly and cleanly, CIGARS :: TOBACCOS :: FRUIT: time. and succeeded in rolling up a handsome majority for their candidate, Duncan Ross, in spite of all the well-oiled machinery to control votes with which the Two-Man. government was equipped and put in use under a full head of steam. If the other 1836 Liberals of the province had fought as valiantly, this present chance for a political tussel with the forces of political corruption would have been warmly welcomed. We succeeded because the Liberals of this city are all Progressives, and as a little British North America yeast leavens the lump the better half of the Conservatives of this city are now Progressives, and not the slavish serfs of a political dictator. Eight of our members have seats in the Capital and Reserve Over $7,300,000 Liberal convention. They are all earnest, energetic, go-ahead business men and they are likely to shake up the courage of some of the mossbacks of the body into taking a more optimistic view of the situation, instilling into them some of Prince Rupert's fine fighting spirit.

(We have just learned by wire that they have succeeded in doing this, and that every seat in the province is to be contested.)

CHURCH UNION VOTED ON TOMORROW.

Every intelligent Canadian, quite irrespective of religious opinions or ecclesiastical preferences, is interested in the church union question. The interest is supreme and vital at the present time for Presbyterians, Methodists and Congregationalists. But no man who cares for the good estate of the Holy Catholic Church or for the upbuilding of the Canadian nation can be careless as to the efficiency of religious institutions and agencies of this country.

The difficult questions involved in church union are not doctrinal. The creed statements hammered out on the anvils of past controversy can be reshaped under the more genial influence of a more truly Christian religious life. The day of elaborate and detailed creeds and of cast-iron subscription is past forever. As the late Principal Caven said on one historic occasion. "It is my privilege to believe many thnigs which I am not under obligation to subscribe, and which I will not require that my brethren should subscribe."

The fact that a doctrinal basis has been framed for three Canadian denominations acceptable to the great majority of informed and thoughtful ministers and members, conservatives and progressives alike, is a great achievement. That done, no matter what happens to the present union movement, things can never fall quite back to their old condition.

The campaign is only a few days old, dating from the issuing of the call by the Progressives for a Conservative convention, and yet already "the spoils of office" are being handed out. Ed. Clark, quite a promising Progressive, has been made one of the returning officers at the coming election. But there is a hope and a belief that few of the Progressives can be bought as readily.

Is William Manson the candidate of McBride or the candidate of the people of the Skeena district? The question is pertinent for the reason that in advertising the meeting of last night the Conservatives said "all supporters of the McBride For Stewart City on arrival government are invited to a meeting," etc. This can only be interpreted in one way, that none but supporters of McBride were invited. It shut out all the Progressive Conservatives of Prince Rupert and also every other citizen of progressive ideas, whether Conservative, Liberal, Socialist or what not. Mr. Manson is not only a candidate but he was until a few days ago the representative of the whole people of this district. It was supposed that he was going to give an account of his stewardship. The way of advertising the meeting shows how stupid it is to expect such ordinary, fair and honest dealings under the Two-Man legislative monopoly.

For a week the weather has been delightful. Brilliant sunshine opens the mornings while the wide sidewalks are frosted over like the sugar coating of a bridal cake.

SENSATION OF HUMBOLT CASE

Robbery of the Ninety-six Thousand Dollars in Gold Bullion Was Effected While Boat Lay at Prince Rupert.

Seattle, Feb. 29 .- The arrest of a Seattle saloon keeper in whose place the $96,000 gold bullion robbery from the steamship Humboldt in August, 1910, was planned, is momentarily expected as the result of a confession by James Barrett, one of the five persons directly implicated.

Barrett, Orville Cavaness and woman known to the police inder various names went to Skagway, where they met the Humboldt and returned on her. The Humboldt put into Prince Rupert southbound on August 10, 1910. After leaving that port, while the woman kept the purser engaged, the two men entered his office, carrying suit cases laden with lead bars. With pincers they drew the nails from the lids of the treasure boxes. removing the $96,000 in gold bars and substituting the lead. Then they replaced the lids and the nails, took the gold to their staterooms and put it in steamer trunks, and the robbery was un detected until the boxes were opened at the assay offices.

Seattle Times' Account of the Lively Bout in Which Figured the Man Who Is to Meet Joe Bayley Here.

As everything referring to Joe Bayley and Pat Scott is of absorbing interest to local sports, the following account of his go with Pete McVeigh at the Seattle Press Club smoker, taken from the Seattle Times, is given.

Pat Scott and Pete McVeigh out up a lively bout at the Press Club smoker last night that wound up a pretty good show. These boys are both so strong and fast that they will have to go a longe route than they traveled last night before one can show his superiority over the other. Tom my Burns, the referee, called the bout a draw. The decision was good one, but if there was shade at all Scott had it.

In reply to an article in your Because Scott has been in the paper of March 1, headed "Never game only about a year and the Was Any Strike," I can inform fact that McVeigh has picked up you that there is a strike at Mile quite a lot of experience in var ious parts of the country, it was thought that Pete would show Pat up, especially at close quar-I was the only paid agitator, ters. Scott was in better shape nership after the said first day of Feb than McVeigh, for he was trained like a race horse, while Pete was day of February, 1912. a bit thick around the midriff. The extra pounds Pete carried did him no good, for he would be faster and stronger if he would buckle down to work and get t 133 pounds. The boys put up a nice bout;
