TO HAVE ATHLETIC GROUNDS RIGHT AWAY

Council and Representatives of Tennis and Athletic Association to Visit Acropolis Hill and Decide on Laying Out of Ground

REV. McLEOD'S SPEECH ENTHUSED ALDERMEN

Demonstrated Necessity of Public Park for City, Citing Chicago Which Had Spent Twenty Millions in Recreation Grounds and in Five Years Had Eliminated Forty Per Cent. of That City's Crime by Providing Healthful Recreation

The longest and most important discussion at the Council last night was in regard to the establishment of city recreation grounds on Acropolis Hill. The question came up on the reading of two petitions, one from the tennis club, represented by Mr. Fulton, and the other for grounds for athletic sports and games, for which the Rev. Warren, H. McLeod was the sponsor. The latter petition carried some three hundred signatures from people of all walks of life. Both gentlemen were called to state their views and the debate was general, all the aldermen having something to say on the subject and expressing their deep interest in it.

Tennis Club Applies.
The application of the tennis club for about an acre of land for three years was the first considered. Mr. Fulton said the club had already over a hundred members and he believed fifty more could readily be obtained. They desired a lease of the ground for three years and would erect a club house and spend about $1,000.

THE PREY OF THE MACHINE, THEY MARCH TO THE POLLS

REV. DR. CHOWN PRESENTS A PLANK TO WM. MANSON FOR THE FORTHCOMING ELECTION BUT SCATHINGLY SCORES METHODS OF THE MACHINE POLITICIAN.

"I might say to you, Mr. Chairman, that if your party wants strength in this coming contest, you cannot get it better than by appealing to the people on the lines of an advanced system of humanitarian prison legislation. You cannot get a better plank than that for your platform."

With these words Rev. Dr. Chown last night directly addressed Mr. William Manson at the opening ceremony of the Methodist Church halls after the banquet.

Dr. Chown was fervent in his appeal for the improvement of the young criminal rather than his punishment. "Fight crime," he said, "not the criminal. We say to the young criminal under your present system: 'Go and herd with those who are ten times more expert in crime than you are, so that when you come out you may be ten times worse a criminal than you are today.'"

On the education of the incoming immigrant to make him an asset to Canada no matter what his nationality, Rev. Dr. Chown was emphatic.

the club was incorporated. Mr. Fulton said incorporation would cost a good deal of money, but they had many responsible men connected with the club, which simply asked the city for some written permission from the city to use the ground temporarily.

Space for Courts Granted.
Alderman Montgomery said if the city did not want the ground for three years the tennis club might as well have it. He moved that a committee be appointed to lay out the ground with the City Engineer.

Alderman Kerr said they had already agreed to have the armory and drill grounds there and there was ample ground for baseball, football and other sports. After some further discussion the motion that the request of the petitioners be granted, moved by Alderman Montgomery, carried.

Pastor-Athlete's Appeal.
Asked to address the Council,

Their fundamental virtues are as great as those of the Canadian born. Out of the masses of people coming into B. C. we have the material for the Corinthian brass to upbuild the Canadian nation. "These people must have night schools to develop them."

"You expect these people to vote without education," Dr. Chown went on, "and thus they become the prey of the machine politician, so reacting to the harm instead of the good of the country. Hundreds of young men march up to the polls today not knowing what the ballot is, nor what it has cost. When I go up to the polling booth and take that ballot paper in my hand I regard it as next to the sacrament and Scriptures, the holiest thing on earth. The ballot is a Christian institution. We never should have had it without the principles of liberty which Jesus Christ preached."

Dr. Chown touched also on the social evil and the redemption of drunkards by the municipality deriving revenue from their fines and from the license fees.

Mr. McLeod eloquently word-pictured the park scheme. He suggested a quarter mile track with sports carried on the central field. It would include a baseball diamond, space for football and other games, and there should be a grandstand where strangers and the wives and children of the city could watch the sports.

In Prince Rupert we have a fine lot of young men, representative of every class, and for the healthy recreation of these such grounds were an absolute necessity. In Germany the municipalities had spent millions of

City Engineer Decides to Make Morse Creek the Source of Supply for City This Summer, Hays Creek Being Inadequate

The Fire, Light and Water committee of the City Council at last night's meeting brought down an important report from the City Engineer upon the city water supply for the summer and recommended its adoption.

The report says the snow lay nine feet deep at this time last year on the mountain side and provided a reserve of water that lasted until late in the summer. This year the snow is not more than five inches deep, so that the coming summer our dependence will be almost entirely on rainfall. On account of the insufficiency of storage capacity, when the rain stops, the gravity supply stops, with the exception of the half million gallons in the mountain reservoir. It is very evident that unless the rainfall should be more frequent than it has been dollars in such work. In Chicago they had spent fifty millions in public parks and in five years 40 per cent. of the crime of that city had been eliminated because of the healthy amusement afforded by these public parks.

Every Citizen Favors.
He believed the Mayor and Aldermen and every citizen in every rank was in favor of such a movement here; in favor of the city making a small grant of money that would be well supplemented by the generosity of the citizens. The grant should not be for three years, but these parks should be given to the people in perpetuity under the management of the city. It meant the building up of a sound manhood in our young men, many of whom ten years from now would be sitting in the aldermanic chairs. He hoped they would have the grounds ready for the celebration of July 1st, when he expected to see some athletic records broken, and he expected the aldermen to enjoy the sports heartily.

STRIKE WOES IN BRITAIN

Trains Have Stopped Running and One Factory After Another is Closing Down—No Hope of Strike Being Settled.

(Special to Daily News.)
London, March 5.—There is no ray of hope today that the coal strike will be settled in the very near future. There has been no violence, the men being in good humor so far, believing they are bound to win. But the national industrial life is suffering. One factory after another is closing down. Trains are running infrequently and one railroad in Yorkshire has suspended service entirely.

STRUCK THE SOLITARY NOTE AGAINST UNION OF CHURCHES

WHILE PASTORS OF DIFFERENT DENOMINATIONS VOICED ON ONE PLATFORM THE SPIRIT OF ONE GREAT CHURCH, MAYOR NEWTON ALONE SOUNDED A DISCORD.

Further celebration of the opening of the new Methodist Church last night took the form of a banquet served in the church halls in the basement at which all the visiting pastors and the members of the Ladies' Aid of the church and congregation were present with friends. Afterward in the church itself addresses were given by pastors of almost every denomination in Rupert, and the speeches were varied with organ music, choral and solo singing. The new building illuminated with electric lights looks exceedingly well and all those who spoke referred to it as a distinct credit to the city of Prince Rupert.

Rev. Dr. White contributed the first address, mentioning among congratulatory remarks that he was one of the six men who built the first humble Methodist church here. He was followed by Bishop Du Vernet, who as pioneer of religion in Rupert was able to tell the story of the early church buildings on the reserve, of which his own is now the sole survivor. It was also the pioneer church there. The Bishop struck the note of church union from the Anglican standpoint with evident sympathy, suggesting the rich contribution to religious worship which will come to the united church when the Anglicans are merged with the other denominations, all contributing to one great church of God.

Arthur Allison gave a summary of the church's position with special emphasis on the proposed "Men's Own," to be started, and Rev. G. H. Raley told of the very first recorded service on Prince Rupert townsite long ago in a snow storm when he preached while stormstaid to a few Indians around their camp fire. Rev. F. W. Kerr and Rev. W. M. McLeod added their congratulations with expressions of the growing spirit of church union, and Mrs. Ensign Hummil of the Salvation Army gave a short congratulatory address also.

Mayor Newton for the city spoke in terms of admiration for the new building, but struck the only dissentient note on the subject of church union heard during the evening. If Rupert were to be a single city, he argued, then union of the churches might work. But if it is to be a great city then he thinks numerous denominations will better serve the city's religious needs than one great united church body.

Mr. William Manson referred to the finances of the church, mentioning that some $4,000 has yet to be raised, and Rev. Charles Sing spoke in terms of high compliment to the builders, especially Contractor Emil Kauffman, whose skill in supervision, he said, had resulted not only in rushed work but also in good work. The powerful address of the Rev. Dr. Chown is reported elsewhere in this issue.

LONDON SUFFRAGETTES WERE ON WORST KIND OF RAMPAGE

ALL IMPORTANT BUSINESS PLACES INCLUDING BANKS WERE BARRICADED AND WINDOWS BOARDED—FIFTY WOMEN ARRESTED IN PARLIAMENT SQUARE LAST NIGHT.

(Special to Daily News.)
London, March 5.—All important business places, including the banks, have their windows boarded up or protected by iron shutters because of the activity of the militant suffragettes, who are again on the rampage. The women were last night parading in all directions and there were a number of clashes with the police and a number of unprotected windows broken.

The most important gathering of the suffragettes was in Parliament Square, which proved rather a fiasco as there was a large body of police on duty there and managed to put down every attempt at disturbance. That there were several such attempts is shown by the fact that fifty of the women were marched off to the jails.

As a sequel to this meeting a large body of students visited the suffragette headquarters and stormed it with rocks, smashing every window in sight. Their efforts were heartily cheered by a large throng of spectators.

La Trace's Claim Against City on Beach Place Contract.

Contractor La Trace appeared before the Council last night relative to his claim of $500 because he was not permitted to carry out the contract for the planking of Beach place. The cost was to have been $762. The Mayor reported that Mr. La Trace demanded $500 and had been offered 25 per cent. of the amount. This he had declined and it was now proposed that the Council pay the amount offered into court. The action of the Mayor was sustained.

Ald. Morrissey Claims It Is Unjust to Poor Men.

Alderman Morrissey at the council meeting last night strongly objected to the charge of $12 to be paid when application for water was made. It was explained that this was a deposit placed to the credit of the owner. The Alderman contended this was an injustice to the poor man and he wanted that part of the Water bylaw changed. He was told he would have to introduce an amending bylaw to do so.

DAILY EDITION. TUESDAY, MARCH 5

WHY SHOULD MANSON BE AGAIN RETURNED?

Mr. Manson evidently believes that he represented in the last legislature not the whole people of the Skeena district but only the McBride political party. That was why he gave the report of his stewardship to "the supporters of McBride" in Prince Rupert, no other citizens being invited.

There are two subjects that the people of this city are much interested in, one being the completion of the government dock and the other the sale of government lots in this city. In regard to the first subject The News has to be careful, or it may be charged by its morning contemporary with "butting in"; for not being a supporter of McBride what business is it of ours or yours either if you are not of that party and not a Progressive.

We did once write to Mr. Manson asking when the property owners could expect a reply to the query addressed to him as to the completion of the government wharf, and Mr. Manson sent a prompt and polite reply, for which he has our thanks and those of the property owners. In this the morning paper thought Mr. Manson had gone further than most men where intrusion of such a grossly disrespectful character to the property owners was attempted by a third party. It must have cost considerable harassment of brain matter to make of this incident a political attack, as a "butter-in."

This newspaper is not the organ of a narrow clique but endeavors to serve with news all the people, whether Liberal, Conservatives, Socialists, Trades Unionists or unorganized labor. We send out many paid telegrams soliciting or ordering the latest information upon subjects of real public interest.

Mr. Manson has been here but a few days, but he does not seem to have any more information than he had the middle of last month when the government wharf will be completed, and that is a thing all the people, including "the supporters of Mr. McBride" want very much to know about. Mr. Manson must know that there has been no construction work on the dock for several days.

When giving an account of his stewardship he did have something to say of the other subject, but in the many words there was not one that was a crumb of comfort. He said if there was anyone in the real estate business good and strong it was the provincial government. It was from a real estate point of view, he explained, that the government held to these lots, without paying any taxes on them and thus placing every other lot owner at a disadvantage, and intimated that the government would hold them until the city improvements for which all citizens are taxed, and the improvement done by citizens to adjacent property, made these public eyesores of immense value.

So what did Mr. Manson do for this city that entitles him to come forward and again ask its people for their suffrages?

FOR BALLOT BOXES ON STEAMERS.

One of the first things to be undertaken by the new British Columbia Merchant Service Guild, Vancouver, will be the petitioning of the Dominion, provincial and municipal governments for the placing of ballot boxes on the steamers which may not be in port on election days. Many seamen, owing to the nature of their employment, are unable to vote, and as they are fulfilling an important duty in the developing of the country, there appears to be no reason why this arrangement cannot be made.

On the multiplicity of commissioners appointed by the Borden government the Ottawa Free Press suggests that a royal commission be appointed to ascertain whether any member of the Borden ministry has any personal knowledge of any matter in any department of the government.

The transcontinental railway is costing a lot more money than Canadians expected, but Canadians would have endorsed the project even if the estimate of the cost had been nearer correct. If Canada gets value for the road there is no great cause for alarm.

COMPANY OF ADVENTURERS WHO BUILT MIGHTY EMPIRE

The London Gazette has often an official notice, a brief line or two, which suggests a wonderful story of history, romance, or both. The "Hudson's Bay Company"—so that corporation is spoken of in these days—find it necessary to strengthen their stakes and lengthen their ropes—to enlarge their shop system and meet the needs of a wonderfully growing business in such expanding centres of commerce as the Pacific coast towns, including the new city of Prince Rupert and the interior town of Hazelton. The company at the latter point runs steamers and a large freighting outfit. To carry out this work the company needs much capital—capital which under the guidance of such men as Lord Strathcona will be boldly but shrewdly used. So we find that "The Company of Adventurers Trading into Hudson's Bay"—such is the ancient and official name of "The Hudson's Bay Company"—gives notice, in the London Gazette, of an application for a charter which will permit them to borrow money for the purposes indicated.

The brief notice, cold and official, opens up a whole chapter of adventure and romance. It takes us back to May 16th, 1670, when Charles II, the merry monarch, granted a charter to Prince Rupert and other "gentlemen adventurers" to set out and discover a new passage into the South Seas and "find trade for furs, minerals and other considerable commodities."

Lord Rochester, the boon companion of Charles II, said of that monarch in an anticipatory and imaginary epitaph:
"Here lies our sovereign lord the king,
Whose word no man relies on,
Who never said a foolish thing,
And never did a wise one."

Rochester was wrong. Charles did an eminently wise thing when he took steps to "open up" this great northwest. Of course in the light of modern history we are appalled at the fact that the potentialities for such vast wealth should have been given to a handful of "adventurers"—but what could Charles know of North America then? What did anybody know of Canada? Shrewd, wise, witty Voltaire called Canada "only a few acres of snow!"

Very early in its history "The Hudson's Bay Company"—so it got to be called—found the need for expansion. In 1821, adopting the suggestion of Sir Alexander Mackenzie, it amalgamated with the Northwest Company and obtained a more extensive charter. In 1846 the company had a blow to its ambitions, for the boundary settlement excluded it from Oregon, Washington and Idaho. British Columbia has, however, given it ample scope and verge enough for all its enterprise, and although the company's political rights—and they were many—passed to the British government in 1869, yet it has retained privileges and opportunities for trade which will enable it, in the words of Dr. Johnson, to "grow rich beyond the dreams of avarice."

The Hudson's Bay Company! Its history has been written by Wilson, by Christy, by Bryce, but its truest and best history was to be gleaned from the lips of the old factors and servants of the company, after they had left that service, and they are, alas! a vanishing band. London was, and is, the headquarters of the Hudson's Bay Company. Here sat the governor and board of directors. Out in this rugged northwest the chief factors and the chief traders made money for the company, and "made history" at the same time. These rugged pioneers, aye, and the men under them to the hewers of wood and drawers of water, helped to build up a "greater empire than has been." "Hard her service, poor her payment," sang Kipling of the East India Company, which did in the east what the Hudson's Bay Company has done in the west. Hard was the service of the Hudson's Bay pioneers out here; but some amassed considerable wealth and achieved power and happiness.

BRITISH ARMY AVIATION PLAN

Increase in British Estimates Due Entirely to Foundation of New Branch of Service—Haldane Explains What Is Planned.

London, March 4.—The estimates of expenditures for the British army for the fiscal year of 1912-13, including both effective services, aggregate $139,300,000, or an increase of $850,000 over those of the year 1911-12.

The entire increase in the estimates is due to the proposed expenditure by the government in development of aviation in the British army, as it is planned to spend $800,000 on the acquisition of aeroplanes alone.

The Time For Action

Is the Time When The Daily News Appears each day

The Statement

If you have a legitimate, clean-cut offering of any kind to make to the intelligent public, the consistent, judicious use of the advertising columns of THE DAILY NEWS will bring you money returns much greater than your expenditure.

The Reasons

THE DAILY NEWS is read largely in the evening when the minds of people are free from business cares and therefore responsive to good selling arguments.

THE DAILY NEWS appears early enough in the afternoon of the business and shopping day to notify everyone of what you have new to offer.

THE DAILY NEWS is for this reason the best possible medium for all real estate dealers, as it immediately attracts those on the lookout for "snaps" or permanent investments.

THE DAILY NEWS is concise and to the point. It is read by practically every intelligent and prosperous person in Prince Rupert and the northern part of this province. These men and women have money to spend and buy regularly where they receive satisfaction. Their patronage is the merchant's best asset.

The Proof

THE DAILY NEWS is being used by more and more merchants and other business men as an advertising medium. They find that their advertisements in this newspaper pay them handsomely. Many instances can be cited. Results follow advertising in THE DAILY NEWS.

NOTICE

Public notice is hereby given that under the First Part of Chapter 79 of the Revised Statutes of Canada, 1906, known as "The Companies Act," letters patent have been issued under the seal of the Secretary of State of Canada, bearing date the 1st day of January, 1912, incorporating Frank Evans, of the town of Prince Rupert, in the Province of British Columbia, and John Gilbert Bealy, broker, Richmond, W. H. Hart, barrister-at-law, George Merle Miller, student-at-law, Pearl Stokell and Jessie Strachan, stenographers, and Wm. H. Moran, clerk, all six of the city of Toronto, in the Province of Ontario, for the following purposes, viz: (a) To hunt for, kill and take whales, seals and fish and other marine animals of every kind; (b) To acquire, purchase, purchase, hold, sell and rent fishing licenses for pout, herring, salmon, trout, mackinac, and other fish and other aquatic animals, fish wheels and other fixed appliances and apparatus; (c) To acquire, hold, sell, lease, rent and dispose of locations upon which to construct and maintain pound nets, traps, weirs, set nets, fish wheels and other appliances, whether fixed or movable for catching or retaining fish; (d) To acquire, purchase, catch, take, buy, hold, store, pack, preserve, sell, export, dispose of and distribute of all kinds; and to engage in the propagation of salmon and other food fishes; (e) To carry on the business of warehousing and cold storage company in all its branches; and for that purpose (1) to operate and maintain conveyances for transportation and cold storage by land or water of any and all products, goods or manufactured articles; (2) to issue certificates and warrants negotiable or otherwise to persons warehousing goods with the company; (3) to raise, purchase, sell and otherwise deal in eggs, butter, cheese and all other farm, field, orchard, garden and dairy products; (4) to conduct abattoirs or slaughter houses, to slaughter all kinds of animals and manufacture, purchase, sell and otherwise deal in meats, fertilizers, fat, fallow and other substances derived from the said animals and carry on the business of pork packing; (5) to establish and maintain wholesale and retail shops and generally to carry on any business undertaking which may be conveniently carried on with the above; (f) To take over a certain contract bearing date the 2nd January, 1912, made between Frank Evans and John G. H. C. Leggatt as trustee for the company, and to issue paid-up shares in accordance therewith; (g) To erect, maintain and operate at suitable places, such as stations, factories, warehouses, offices, buildings and works, and the necessary plant, engines, machinery and fixtures and to do all or any of these things that seem to be needful to be done to carry out the objects for which this company is formed and as herein set forth, and to pay for same in whole or in part in fully paid-up shares of the company; (h) To build, own, lease, hire, purchase, charter or otherwise acquire and operate steamships and sailing vessels for the purposes of the company, and to build, equip and operate wharves, docks, elevators and other works, buildings or appliances, and collect wharfage and storage charges for the use of its wharves and buildings and in connection therewith to carry passengers and freights and collect charges therefor; (i) To acquire by lease or otherwise the assets, property, plant, machinery, undertaking, business, goodwill and stock in trade or services of any person or company carrying on any trade or business which this company is authorized to carry on, or similar or incidental thereto or capable of being operated in conjunction therewith, to operate and to pay for the same in cash or in shares, bonds or other securities of this company; (j) To purchase, lease or otherwise acquire and to own and hold the shares, bonds or other securities of any manufacturing or other corporation carrying on any business similar to that of the company, notwithstanding the provisions of section 44 of the said Act; (k) To amalgamate with any other company having objects similar to or identical with this company and to pay for same in shares, bonds or other securities, or partly in cash and partly in shares, bonds or other securities of this company, and to operate and carry on the business of such amalgamated company; (l) To allot, issue and deliver as fully paid-up shares, or other securities of the company in payment of sites, licenses, plant, machinery, services, goods or other valuable consideration as may be arranged or agreed upon by the directors of this company; (m) To enter into any arrangement with authorities, municipal, local or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from such authority any rights, privileges and concessions which the company may think desirable to obtain and to carry out, exercise and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions; (n) To draw, make, execute, endorse, discount, accept and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants and other negotiable and transferable instruments; (o) To lend money to customers and others having dealings with the company and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any such persons; (p) To remunerate any person, firm or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place or guaranteeing the placing of any of the shares of the company's capital or any bonds or other securities of the company, or in or about the formation, production, organization or incorporation of the company or the conduct of its business; (q) To pay all or any costs, charges or expenses preliminary or incidental to any of the objects of the company, or incurred in connection with the promotion, organization, formation, establishment, registration and incorporation of the company; (r) To apply for, purchase or otherwise acquire, any patent, licenses, concessions and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive, or limited right to use, or any secret or other information of any invention which may seem desirable or being used for any of the purposes of the company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to benefit the company, and to use, exercise, develop or grant licenses in respect of, or otherwise turn to the benefit of the company, any property, rights or information so acquired; (s) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which the company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit the company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, or to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, release, with or without warranty, or otherwise deal with the same; (t) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of the company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly to benefit the company; (u) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire, any personal property and any rights or privileges which the company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and in particular any machinery, plant, stock in trade; (v) To construct, improve, maintain, work, manage, carry out or control any roads, ways, tramways, branches or sidings on lands owned or controlled by the company, bridges, reserves, wharves, courses, wharves, manufactories, warehouses, electric works, shops, stores and other works and conveniences which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to advance the company's interests, and to contribute to, subsidize or otherwise assist in, the construction, improvement or take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, working, management, carrying out or control thereof; (w) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects together or in part similar to those of the company; (x) To allot such means of making known the products of the company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, by purchase and exhibition of works of art or interest, by publication of books and periodicals, and by granting prizes, rewards and donations; (y) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, dispose of, turn to account or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the company; (z) To do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, contractors, trustees or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others; (aa) To procure the company to be registered in any foreign country and to designate persons therein according to the laws of such foreign country to represent the company and to accept service for and in behalf of the company of any process or suit; (bb) And, generally to carry on any business which may seem to the company capable of being conveniently or profitably carried on.

AS STRIPES ARE USED IN SEASON'S STYLE.

Wool is the material and black and white is the stripes of a handsome street costume. The stripes in the suit run perpendicularly and are also used horizontally. In the upper part of the coat the stripes run around the body and they are put on in the same style on the lower part of the overskirt. The petticoat is of black velvet. Black velvet is also used on the edge of the big white revers and the white cuffs while a small black velvet collar finishes the coat. One huge black velvet button fastens this garment and tiny ones are upon the revers, cuffs and the horizontal bands.

MERCHANT MARINE GUILD IS ORGANIZED IN VANCOUVER

WHENEVER A MASTER OR OFFICER IS IN DANGER OF LOSING HIS CERTIFICATE THE GUILD WILL DEFEND HIM—ALL G. T. P. OFFICERS JOIN.

After being imposed upon for many years and subjected to what they consider harsh and unjust comments and decisions, the captains and officers of British Columbia have joined hands and decided that in the future they shall insist upon fair play in every case. A few evenings ago many seamen gathered in the offices of James & Jarvis, Government street, Vancouver, at the call of Captain Jarvis, and agreed that the Merchant Service Guild of British Columbia be formed. Others who were unable to attend owing to their ships being out of port, sent letters voicing their sentiments and stating that they would abide with whatever action the meeting took.

There appears to be only one body in the province which is opposed to the organization of the Guild, and that is the Vancouver Shipmasters' Association. A pessimistic letter stating that the society in Vancouver was progressing favorably and that at a meeting held recently the members decided to have nothing whatever to do with the new organization was received by Captain Jarvis.

Every master and officer of the Grand Trunk Pacific steamers signed a letter which expressed that they were in favor of the formation of the guild. Most of those in the employ of the G. T. P. were agreed that the organization would be of the greatest benefit to the seafaring men, and the masters and officers of the other companies operating steamers and tugboats wrote to announce that they were in on the new proposition. Captain Jarvis stated that the membership of the society was 45, which shows that the guild is wanted by the mariners. The Victoria pilots, together with the Vancouver and Nanaimo pilots, are glad to see that steps have been taken to protect the seamen of British Columbia.

It was decided at the meeting that only those in active service afloat would be enrolled as members of the guild. The fee for captains was fixed at $25, for officers at $15. An office of the organization is to be opened in Vancouver, and applications are to be sent to every British captain and officer who is engaged in active service in this province. Within a very short time it is expected that the present membership will have been doubled.

"QUEEN ALICE OF ENGLAND" THE UNCROWNED MRS. KEPPEL

BEAUTIFUL LEADER OF SOCIETY IN THE DAYS OF KING EDWARD VII, BANNED FROM COURT OF ENGLAND, STILL WIELDS WOMAN'S SCEPTRE OVER PRINCES.

The recent news from St. Moritz that Mrs. George Keppel is planning an invasion of London society with a view to occupying again the position of leader as in the days of King Edward, is strengthened. It is now reported that she has attached the German crown prince to her train of admirers, and has become the absolute arbiter of fashion at the winter resort.

Mrs. Keppel, it is said, holds daily court at the Palace Hotel, where she is familiarly referred to as "Queen Alice of England." Although the crown princess is with her husband it is said that all guest lists of royal entertainments pass through the hands of Mrs. Keppel, and she is in effect the court chamberlain to the imperial heir apparent.

Assisted by Mrs. Asquith. Not only this, but Mrs. Asquith, wife of the British Premier, who has been there for some time, is said to have become Mrs. Keppel's fast friend, and to have promised to assist in furthering

MACHINERY FOR ISLANDS

Special Trip Made by S. S. Prince John with F. S. Greene and Costly Plant for Development of Mineral Prospects.

Specially chartered for the trip the Prince John last night pulled out for the Queen Charlotte Islands with a cargo of heavy drilling plant and other mine developing machinery on board, the property of the syndicate represented by Mr. F. S. Green, whose enterprise on the islands was recently noted in The News. Mr. Green himself accompanied the shipment of plant and will superintend the erection of it on the claims controlled by his company. Evidence of activity in development of the islands this spring and summer is now increasingly apparent.

Chelohsin Arrives. The Chelohsin arrived at Prince Rupert at 7:30 this morning. Among the passengers were J. Onions, Dr. Fairbairn, Mrs. Constant, Mrs. Rooney, Messrs. Knowles, Barry, Ross, Dobson, Kendall, McLeod, Blow, Ferrier, and twelve in the second class. Leaving Vancouver the vessel had nearly every berth taken, bringing up a number of cannery hands.

her ambition to become again a power in the British court. Mrs. Keppel will go to Berlin at the close of the winter season, which, taken in connection with her friendship for the crown prince and Mrs. Asquith, lends further color to the rumor that she is playing a high political game in order to further her ultimate social triumphs.

Got Back at Americans. Before the arrival of the imperial visitors, Mrs. Keppel was snubbed by several Americans, who only remembered that she was not received at the English court when King George came to the throne, but she became friends with Mrs. John Ward, daughter of the American ambassador, Whitelaw Reid, who was stopping at the same hotel. As soon as she came into power she put those who snubbed her in the background. Since then she has dictated everything, even to the style of dancing at the hotel, summarily ordering that the "turkey trot," then being introduced by several Americans, be barred.

Mrs. Keppel has been out of England eighteen months, spending half of that time at Ceylon in the residence of Sir Thomas Lipton, which he loaned to her after King Edward's death. She returned to Europe via Japan and has been much in Dresden, where her daughter is completing her education.

It was then decided that the whole Council, the City Engineer and the representatives of athletic clubs already formed should view the ground at an early date, the tennis ground to be looked into at the same time.

It Drowned on Her. (Dallas News.) The teacher had the letters c-a-t on the blackboard and was trying to teach little Pansy Peevish to pronounce the word, but Pansy couldn't come it. "Oh, I know!" exclaimed little Pansy, a great light dawning, "it's papa!"

REAL ESTATE

Mere mention of it brings to your mind the idea of Security. It is the basis of all wealth; the foundation of all values.

The man who owns real estate owns something tangible; something that cannot be cornered and its price forced down.

Real estate in Prince Rupert is particularly desirable. It grows more valuable as the years pass.

Those owning Prince Rupert property are not only earning a good rate of interest, but the principle itself is growing as the property becomes more valuable.

I have some of the best "buys" to be found in the city. See these: Lot 39, Block 5, Section 1, $2,500.
