EDITORIAL

DAILY EDITION Monday, June 27, 1939.

LEADERSHIP AND ELECTION

There seems to be little doubt that Right Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King is seriously considering retiring from active politics. Statements similar to this were once made about Right Hon. R. B. Bennett but, when Mr. Bennett discovered that it was suggested that Hon. H. H. Stevens might succeed him, he promptly withdrew his resignation and decided to carry on for a year or two. So today, if it should be decided that Hon. Mitchell Hepburn is to succeed Mr. King, it is probable that Mr. King will decide to stay with the party until after the election. It will be judged from this that Mr. King does not love Mr. Hepburn and it has been publicly stated that Mr. Hepburn is after the scalp of the Liberal leader, and, in fact, has been after it for some time past.

Mitchell Hepburn will undoubtedly be a candidate for the position of chief adviser to His Majesty in Canada and he may succeed Mr. King in that high office. Others who may be chosen by the Liberal party to lead them include Hon. J. G. Gardiner of Saskatchewan who stands well at Ottawa and also is a friend of Mr. Hepburn. Outside of Mr. Hepburn himself, he seems to have the best chance of being chosen. Others in the running may be Hon. C. D. Howe, minister of railways and Hon. Norman Rogers, minister of labor. Right Hon. Ernest Lapointe will not take the position and Hon. Charles Dunning's health is not good enough to enable him to tackle it.

One reason for choosing Mr. Hepburn or Mr. Gardiner, especially the former, is that the Ontario rebellion will be at an end and there is more likely to be support from the governing faction in the province of Quebec. Premier Duplessis has boasted that he controls thirty seats in Quebec but they are not Conservative seats, even though Duplessis was formerly a Conservative. If the statement is correct, they certainly could be secured for Hepburn. Hepburn could also carry Ontario. The west would probably divide about evenly or possibly give a slight majority to various opposition groups.

Mr. Hepburn looks like a winner if he is chosen for the position. He has a magnetic personality, is a hard fighter and splendid stump orator and has a very strong appeal to the masses of the electors in spite of his alliance with the Quebec leader. Mr. Gardiner also would have a good chance of winning with the support of the Ontario and Quebec Liberals and he might even be stronger than "Mitch."

If Mr. King announces that he is resigning immediately when he makes his anniversary speech in August it seems hardly likely that an election can be held this year but should he decide to lead the party past the election it may very well take place in October or November. We expect no election this year but we may be wrong. It is all up to Mr. King and he seems to be keeping his own counsel.

KETCHIKAN, THO OUTHIT, TAKES TWO GAMES FROM RUPERT IN BALL SERIES

Seven Inning Encounter on Saturday Ends Seven to Six—Ten Innings On Sunday to 11-8 Count

Ketchikan won second and third games of the international baseball series from Prince Rupert, the score Saturday evening being 7 to 6 and Sunday afternoon 11 to 8. The Saturday game was called at the end of the seventh inning on account of darkness. Sunday's game went ten innings, the score at the end of the ninth having been even at eight all. Ketchikan fielding play was the most effective, although errors were plenty on both sides, and the visitors were entitled to win. Jack Lindsay, for Prince Rupert, was the pitching star of the series and, in addition, made a name for himself at bat by hitting a two-bagger to account for two runs and popping out a home run in the Saturday evening game with, unfortunately for the home team, no one on board. The series resumes at Ketchikan next week.

Saturday Game Sunday Afternoon

Outhitting the Alaskans ten to five, it was tough for Rupert to lose Saturday night's game seven to six. The error count for the locals was four and for Ketchikan three. Ketchikan used three pitchers—Gay Helland for the first two and part of the third innings, Eddie Hume for part of the third and the fourth and Bill Eastham, he of the mechanical man action, for the last three. Prince Rupert used Andre Letourneau on the mound until the third inning when Frog got himself in a jam by issuing three walks, Sonny Stiles then taking up the pitching burden.

Prince Rupert opened the count in the first inning when Simonson made a two-bagger, Johnson getting first on Bauer's error at first, Mitchell grounding out to first and another error by McIsaac letting Windle on first and scoring Simonson. Still another error by Bauer gave Lindsay passage to first base but Comadina hit into a double play, pitcher to catcher to first base.

Ketchikan scored three in the second. Smith struck out, Bauer's infield hit was nearly stopped by Mitchell but it was a hard one, Helland walked, Davis was out third to first, Wilson got first base when Johnson dropped the ball, Bauer scoring, Miller's lousy two-bagger scored Helland, Wilson Spinder was out, pitcher to first base.

The third brought four more runs for Ketchikan when Letourneau lost control after Dido Gurvich retired on account of a sore finger, Alex Mitchell going behind the plate and George Howe taking over the key sack with Letourneau going to left field. McIsaac's got first on Windle's error, Jones and Smith got free passes on bases on balls, Bauer was hit with a pitched ball on the side of the head with a thud that could be heard all over the field and was knocked out cold. On reviving, however, he took first, McIsaac's being forced in. With bases loaded, Helland flew out to third. Then Davis was walked, forcing Jones. Then Stiles was sent into the box to be touched by Wilson for a safe hit to centre field which scored Smith and Bauer. Miller filed out to Johnson and Spinder fanned.

The fourth, yielding four runs was Prince Rupert's big inning. Howe hit safe into left field, Stiles was out at first after a nice stop by Davis at second. Simonson's safe hit to right field scored Howe. Johnson hit a single to right and Simonson advanced to third. Here Helland was yanked in favor of Hume while Pat Hagiwara took over from Miller in right field. Mitchell bunted and Simonson scored on a close call. Windle filed out to short, Lindsay's two-bagger scored Johnson and Mitchell. Comadina and Letourneau were walked to load the bases but Howe dropped an easy one into centre field.

From the fourth on it was a pretty tight ball game with only one more run by Prince Rupert in the sixth—Lindsay's home run with none on after Windle had filed out to centre. Following the home run Comadina fanned, Letourneau was walked and Howe singled to right but Stiles was out, Eastham to first.

Score by innings:

scored Miller. Hume filed out to Howe, Wilson, now playing for Stedman, was out, pitcher to first. Spinder filed out to Howe.

Prince Rupert's hopes were renewed in the eighth with three runs. Mitchell made an infield hit and went to third on Windle's safety to left field. Bauer was now pitching for Eastham. Lindsay got as far as second when Bauer made a wild pitch to first. Mitchell and Windle scoring. Bury was out, third to first. After Lindsay was hit by the pitcher, Howe made a safe hit to right, Comadina taking second. Simonson got first on a second baseman's fumble but Johnson, with sacks crowded, filed out to Bauer.

The ninth saw Prince Rupert score the tying run. Alex Mitchell led off with a two-bagger into left to make amends for some of his bad field work. Windle was out pitcher to first. Lindsay fanned. With Bury up, Mitchell led off from second and Bauer tried to trap him at third but McIsaac dropped it and Alex then scored. Bury filed out.

In a showery tenth inning Ketchikan won the game as a result of a bad series of errors. Jones got second on a centre field fumble. Smith hit to right field, Jones going to third. Hume sacrificed and scored Jones. Wilson was safe when Howe dropped it and Smith scored. Stiles went in to pitch for Rupert. Howe let another go through and Spinder got first with Wilson scoring. McIsaac got to first on a grounder. With Bauer up, Benny Windle tagged Spinder and the inning was over.

Stiles grounded out to first base. Comadina hit safely to right. Howe filed out to McIsaac. Comadina was finally out at the plate after a dizzy series of steals and overthrows. Thus ended the game.

Score by innings:
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10—T

Man in the Moon

Prince Rupert now has a fine Post Office and a fine hospital, a fine elevator and fine prospects. Possibly we may develop a fine public spirit.

It's a great life if we only learn to appreciate it.

I always feel pity for those people that always have to look on the worst side of everything. They cannot enjoy life much.

The beginning of Prince Rupert's return to prosperity may possibly be dated from the time the local ball team won the first game of the series from Ketchikan.

Well done Prince Rupert boys I couldn't have done much better myself.

And the weather man did his bit, too, just at the right time.

What do you think of that?

It seems to me that Prince Rupert is coming to life and sports are helping to move the dry bones into action.

Tourist: "Is it far to the next town?"

Native: "Well, it seems further than it is, but you'll find out it ain't."

A Negro signed his name "Col. George Washington Jones." When remonstrated with, on the grounds that he had never been a colonel in the army, he replied: "Dat means 'colored,' and I jes' put it first so it looks better."

The teacher had just finished telling the story of the Pilgrims to a group of small children.

"Now, Gertrude," began the teacher, "when the Pilgrims had been here a year and had gathered in their good crops, what did they do?"

"Bought a car," replied Gertrude promptly.

Co-Op is Mild-Curing in Shellfish Plant—Scouts Off to Porcher Island Camp This Week

The Prince Rupert Fishermen's Co-operative Association has taken a lease on the Prince Rupert Shellfish Co.'s building on the Prince Rupert waterfront and is using the place for the mild curing of troll caught salmon which is shipped in tierces. Charles Borch is in charge of the Association's mild curing operations. The most of the product is shipped East. Only fish fifteen pounds or over in weight are mild cured. Last year the Association carried out mild curing at the plant of the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co., turning out three hundred tierces during the season.

On Thursday of this week the Boy Scouts of this city are going to camp at Oval Bay, Porcher Island. The Anglican mission ship Northern Cross, skippered by the Rev. E. W. Slater, is to be used as a transport ship. The advance party set out at three o'clock this morning aboard the Nereis, commanded by Dr. N. M. Carter, to lay out the camp site. Those going this morning included John Davey, Harold Nerdan, John Moore and Ole Sorenson under Scoutmaster R. C. H. Durnford. The indications are that this year's camp will be very successful, there being nearly three times as many in attendance as there were last year. Owing to camp preparations the final meeting of the First Prince Rupert Troop scheduled for this evening, has been cancelled.

DRAMA IS POIGNANT

Bette Davis Star of "Dark Victory" at Capitol Theatre First of This Week

Presenting Bette Davis as the ill-starred heroine of a tender and poignant romance, "Dark Victory," a story of love and courage pitted against fate, comes as the feature offering to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here for the first half of this week opening tonight.

Bette is the gag and carefree young leader of a set of society folk. Young and likeable, love and destiny enter her life and bring about a complete metamorphosis in her suits.

character. The unusual drama is the story of thoroughbred courage in facing a love that is greater than life itself.

Playing opposite Miss Davis is George Brent who has one of the most sympathetic roles of his career. Another lover of Bette's, albeit frustrated, is Humphrey Bogart who appears as an uncouth but honest Irish horse trainer. Another interesting member of the cast is Geraldine Fitzgerald, an Irish girl, making her first appearance in an American picture. Other members of an impressive cast are Ronald Reagan, Henry Travers, Cox Witherpoon, Dorothy Peterson, Virginia Brissac, Charles Richman and Herbert Rawlinson.

Daily advertising in the Daily News is sure to bring daily its complete metamorphosis in her suits.
