Improvements in Railway Gardens

Fountain Closed For Winter-Trees Being Planted Along Pathway

The fountain in the Canadian National Park has now been closed down for the season. It has proven quite an attraction during the past few months, the orginality of its design bringing forth much favorable comment. It was designed by G. D. Wetterstrand of the engineering department who also supervised its construction, the rock work being done by S. Butkus of the maintenance department. While nothing of an elaborate nature has been attempted the result harmonizes well with the natural surroundings and makes a valuable addition to the attractiveness of the park. A further improvement being made in the railway gardens here is seen in the planting of trees along the main path leading from while the present war makes see very many and varied demands components to continuous the citizens, yet it has been agreed that these demands should not be allowed to interfere with the even more insistent demands of those who still suffer from the effects of the last war. The Poppy Tag Day is the only appeal made during the year to the general public for funds to alleviate the conditions of many survivors of the 1914-1918 war.

The poppies themselves are all GI made by disabled ex-service men in the Vetcraft shops. The local G branch purchases all poppies and A wreaths from the Vetcraft shops. The branch also meets an ex- Ar penses incurred in connection with the tag day from its own funds. Al The profits made from the sale of A the poppies and wreaths are all expended among the families and Ar dependents of ex-service men in this immediate locality. While the response from the general public Ar has always been generous it has actually never been enough to Ar meet the requests received. Nevertheless, the response has been a tremendous help and has meant a Do great deal to many a family.

Arrangements made last night Do include the tagging on the streets, the canvassing of houses, stores and business places and the sale of poppies in the schools. Poppy wreaths are now on hand at the Legion and can be purchased at any time or orders may be left there.

Those in attendance at the meeting were Mrs. Robert Murray, president of the Canadian Legion Women's Auxiliary, Mrs. H. I. Landrey, Municipal Regent of the Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, J. S. Wilson and Jack Preece who presided.

SAVE YOUR SIGHT with BETTER LIGHT

Don't gamble with your eyes! They are the only ones you will ever have and they deserve all the help you can give them. Make sure that you have enough light in your home. Modern "Better Sight" portable lamps are scientifically designed to properly distribute the light and afford your eyes real protection. Trilites (100, 200 or 300 watts at the turn of a switch) and bridge reflector lamps are available in many lovely designs. Complete with shade and bulbs for only $1.00 down. Balance on easy terms.
