HIS LEAD IS LARGE

With only three small polls having a total strength of but 68 to be heard from, the plurality for Olof Hanson, Liberal candidate for reelection, in Skeena riding stands at 449, that being the excess of his vote over the combined vote of all three opponents. The total vote for the four candidates to date is as follows: Hanson, Liberal, 4818. Weaver, C. C. F., 2800. Cameron, Conservative, 1419. Morris, Independent Liberal, 150. War News

WAR IN EIGHTH MONTH LONDON—The European war entered its eighth month today with the Allied and German enemies still in deadlock militarily, diplomatically and economically. There has not been a single large engagement on the Western Front to date nor has there been a naval or aerial collision of major importance. Neutral observers are inclined to believe that the prospect of one side or the other starting a major initiative is more remote than ever. They are inclined to the belief that diplomatic and economic maneuvering will continue. So far since the war began Russia is the only country which has made any gains as a result of military activity by virtue of its campaign in Finland unless the Polish aggression can be said to have gained something for Germany.

During March rainfall amounted to 8.16 inches as compared with 7.45 inches in the same month last year. However, the sunshine this March, totaling 74 hours, was slightly in excess of 69.6 hours in the same month last year. The year to date still maintains a great improvement over 1939. The sunshine thus far totals 189.9 hours in comparison with 145 hours in the first three months of 1939 while the precipitation aggregates but 16.56 inches compared with 28.99 inches in the first quarter of last year.

Back To Bacon For Breakfast

John Bull Finds Mutton Substitute Not So Good As Cured Hog

LONDON, April 1: (CP)—Macon, the cured mutton substitute for bacon, has passed out of the limelight, chased into obscurity by the British aversion to a change in diet. Not long ago the ministry of food halted macon as the answer to the bacon shortage and extolled its virtues to housewife and epicure. But neither housewife nor epicure thought much of the new-old dish (it was new to many in England but up in Scotland they have been curing it for years at home). Now the ministry of food has decided to forget about macon. "The ministry had only one cure made," said a ministry official. "Unless one has acquired a taste for it, I think most people prefer their usual breakfast dish of bacon."

WHAT WILL THEY DO?

The members of the Youth Congress would have Canada boycott the products of aggressor states, place an embargo on supplies of war materials to such states and give substantial credits to victims of aggressor states. It also is opposed to conscription and, in fact, to everything that would likely force the members of the congress to fight the battles of the country. Evidently the members of the Congress were chosen because they were talkers rather than doers.

What the Youth Congress fails to state is what they would propose to do if aggressor nations failed to agree to take the punishment they propose. Would they then defend themselves like Finland or would they simply turn over their country to the aggressor nations?

At a gathering in Vancouver, the president of the Congress used these familiar words: "Let us determine to preserve liberty of the individual, rule by Parliament, freedom of speech and association." That was what Finland determined upon but did she get it? The ravenous bear, that seems to be worshipped by many of these youths, decided to put out of business this freedom of the individuals, rule by Parliament and freedom of speech and association and, to a large extent, has done so, even though the valiant little Finns, good fighters every one and not talkers, managed to win the belly of the old bear to such an extent that she will lick her wounds for many a month to come.

We have no particular quarrel with the Youth Congress except that the members fail to realize actualities and are carried away by pretty theories propounded by their parents and instructors. We blame organizations holding other views for boycotting the Congress and their instructors for failing to train their young people to combat subversive talk and to lead the war into the enemy camp. It is said that the Youth Congress was conceived by members of the Communist Party. These boys will be in the universities soon, carrying with them their ideologies and permeating the whole field of educational activities.

WITHOUT A HITCH

Returning Officer T. W. Brown and all those taking part with him in the conduct of the recent federal election are to be congratulated on the excellent arrangements made and carried out. It is the first election for a long time that there have been no complaints of any kind. The system was one that had not been used before and many people were looking for the big initial letters showing where they belonged alphabetically but they were soon set right. The proper officials directed them to the places where they voted.

The Daily News is a member of the Canadian Daily Newspaper Association, of the Canadian Press and of the Audit Bureau of Circulations. It is the only paper north of Vancouver and west of Edmonton holding membership in these organizations.

FIGURES IN SPORT

JAMES JOSEPH TUNNEY
Ex-Heavyweight Champion

Gene Tunney, who retired in 1928 as undefeated world's heavyweight boxing champion at the height of his fighting ability and never drew on the gloves again, probably earned and stored away more money than any athlete who ever lived. The spindly youth, who came from New York's Greenwich Village to win the championship from Jack Dempsey in 1926 at the peak of the "golden decade" and then fought twice more before withdrawing to a life of ease, literature and light industry, earned $2,000,000 at a conservative estimate.

For one fight alone, the successful defence of his crown against Dempsey at Soldier Field, Chicago, in 1927, he received a record purse of $940,445 from Promoter Tex Rickard. He paid Rickard the difference and was handed a check for a million dollars. In recent years the check has hung framed on the wall of Gene's office in New York.

After his retirement, it was estimated that Tunney had been paid $1,715,683 for his last three fights.

Before he won the big title by defeating Dempsey in ten rounds at Philadelphia on September 23, 1926, Tunney had been fighting regularly for six years during which time he won, lost and regained the world's lightweight championship.

Although he lost only one decision (to Harry Greb) and never was knocked out, Tunney's name will always be linked with the famous "battle of the long count" in Chicago, his second scrap with Dempsey. There was drama. In the seventh round, Dempsey, fighting desperately to win his title back, finally cornered Tunney and smashed him to the canvas with six or eight terrific blows to the jaw. The crowd went wild as Kefauver Dave Barry began his count. But Dempsey, in his eagerness for the "kill," stood almost over Tunney instead of moving to a neutral corner. By the time he could be waved away and the count started, Tunney was coming to and he was able to get up gradually at the nine count although he had actually been down fourteen seconds. Tunney came back to punch Dempsey dizzy in the remaining three rounds and easily won the decision.

Tunney's principal fights were as follows:
September 23, 1926—Won heavyweight title by defeating Jack Dempsey at Philadelphia.
September 22, 1927—Retained title by defeating Dempsey in ten rounds at Chicago.
1928—Knocked out Tom Heeney in eleven rounds in New York City and retired undefeated.

Tunney was born May 25, 1898, in New York City. He served with the Marine Corps in the American Expeditionary Force in France and learned his boxing in the Navy.

He always was a student of Shakespeare. In recent years he has devoted himself to big business.

RANGERS IN FINAL

NEW YORK, April 1: (CP)—New York Rangers defeated Boston Bruins 4 to 1 Saturday night and advanced to the Stanley Cup finals against Toronto Maple Leafs.

SPORT CHAT

Detroit Red Wings broke a two-game deadlock with Montreal Canadiens to clinch their second successive National Hockey League championship three years ago tonight. Playing in Montreal, the Stanley Cup defenders defeated the Habitants 2-1 after 111 minutes of play.

Rookie "Pep" Kelly sniped both goals in Toronto's 2-1 overtime win over Boston Bruins, giving the Leafs the National Hockey League title, five years ago Saturday night. With Bruins leading 1-0 and less than three minutes to go, Kelly evened the count. His second tally came shortly after the overtime session started.

Beauty Parlors Thrive In War

No Let-Up in Demand of Britain's Women to Look Smart and Well

LONDON, April 1: (CP)—There's no blackout on the beauty business in wartime England. In fact, women are spending more money on their appearance.

Reporting a definite increase in her firm's revenue for the last six months, the woman in charge of one beauty establishment said "we did better business than we had ever done in our history." She thought one reason probably was hoarding in case of shortage.

Because so many women are in uniform it was found necessary to devise new shades of make-up. "Burned Sugar" is the lipstick and nail varnish vogue for girls in khaki. The girls of the Women's Auxiliary Air Force are offered a "Red Wood" to set off the blue-grey uniforms.

WOMEN IN AID WORK

New Corps in Various Cities To Assist in Emergency Duties

OTTAWA, April 1: (CP)—A corps of voluntary women workers, co-operating with the social service agencies, is making life easier in many Canadian homes this winter.

These workers are called Voluntary Aides and their purpose is to take care of additional social service work that becomes necessary when a country goes to war. They are younger women with free hours during the week.

Pioneering in this field actually began two years ago with organization of the Central Volunteer Bureau in Montreal but with the outbreak of war the work of the Volunteer Aides became more intensified. Financed by the Junior League, more than 250 women are engaged actively in this endeavor.

With the outbreak of war, experimental courses got under way in Winnipeg, Vancouver, Toronto and Hamilton, Ontario, as well as Montreal, to train those women with excess leisure for social service work. The courses consisted of four lectures explaining the work entailed as a voluntary aide. A voluntary aide may be called to take a child to the dentist when the mother is busy with housework. Another day she may spend an hour or two writing letters for the aged at the Old Peoples' Home.

On market days, it may be that she will keep a watchful eye on toddlers, allowing the mother to go shopping. One talented volunteer worker has spent hours each week playing for a blind organist so he can learn the music for his choir practice.

There are places to be filled by voluntary aides in hospital wards rolling bandages, knitting or sewing. But in all the centres the emphasis is placed on the quality of the service rather than upon the quantity.

WEAR TROUSERS LONGER

C.C.F. Bridge Parties Have Been Resumed

Following the suspension owing to the federal election campaign, the local C. C. F. Club resumed its series of bridge parties Saturday night when twelve tables were in play at the club rooms. The prize-winners were: ladies' first, Mrs. George Scott; second, Mrs. West; men's first, George Howe; second, Mr. Loken. George Lawson was master of ceremonies. After cards refreshments were served.

VARIOUS THEMES
Editor, Daily News:
Whether it is the election, or the sun spots, we seem to be having rather unusual weather—March 22 with robins, bluebirds, wild ducks, etc. Some of the trees are budding. The public works department was out with graders and the roads have been as good as they are many times in the summer. Some have started plowing and building fences. Seeding and cultivation is only prevented by excess moisture. The subsoil is the wettest it has been for years and, if we have suitable weather, we may expect a good crop. Unless there is sale for a lot of grain before harvest more storage will be required. However, we have not got any mortgage on a crop and a carryover might be a good thing. Which reminds us that we often think that it would be much better if our financial system was backed up by wheat instead of gold.

Also, just suppose the U.S.A. secures the entire gold supply and the other nations decided on some other standard—then what? They could not eat the stuff. There is surplus of 5000 tons of onions and many boxes of apples in the Okanagan, while we cannot secure as many as we would like up here. The price does not seem to be any lower than usual, although the quality is about as bad as usual. Although herring are sold in Rupert for $2 a ton, we pay $2 for 20 pounds. There must be something wrong.

To those interested in prosperity, we must repeat that, until farmers receive the same treatment from the government as the rest of the organized classes and until the farmers transact their business in the same manner, there will not be prosperity for any one. To those who know the facts, there is no need to add further details. We trust the results of the election will convey something to Hepburn—likewise to Vancouver. They have had about everything their own way in regard to our country but, when they start sending up men to run for our representatives, it is going just a bit too far. That situation offers an opportunity for several changes to those who are interested.

Just to change the remarks, slightly, I would like to bring up the matter of the Queen Mary and the Mauretania. Should they really start transporting troops from Australia we want to know just who had the bright idea of landing them at Vancouver instead of Prince Rupert. Now if the C.P.R. is so concerned about our C.N.R. deficit they should not try to hog everything. Of course, if the C.P.R. wants to show its superpatriotism and transport the troops free of charge it would be O.K. but if there is anything to be made any six year old

LOCAL NEWS NOTES

For prompt and courteous service Phone 13 Taxi.

C. R. Cocks of Port Essington, who has been on a trip south, returned on the Catala last night from Vancouver.

William Jones, school principal at Port Essington, who has been spending Easter in Victoria, arrived in the city on the Catala last night enroute back to the Skeena River.

Mrs. B. Walker, Miss Florence Wilson, T. L. Davies and J. B. Wilkinson were local school teachers returning to the city from the south on the Catala last night after having spent Easter in Vancouver.

W. E. Drake, general manager of Edward Lipsett Ltd., who has been on a brief trip to Butedale, returned to the city on the Catala Sunday night and will sail aboard the same steamer Tuesday afternoon for Vancouver where he now makes his headquarters.

could point out why the C.N.R. should have the business. In regard to that amalgamation business, if the government took over the C.P.R., and paid them the present market price for its stock, we would be quite in favor. If the C.N.R. does not watch its step in the matter of the Vancouver Hotel we are afraid they will find they are paying the bills while the C.P.R. is running off with the cream of the business.

We would like to object to another thing. It does not seem like good business or sound judgment to ship our troops to Britain before they are fully trained. While they are in Canada they would be consuming Canadian products. Possibly the cost to Canada is less, if Britain feeds them over there, but Britain could feed them here and save money. The British farmer is heavily subsidized and there is the freight on all the food which could be saved. We are surprised that some of those men from Vancouver did not point this out as a justification for thinking they could better run our business up here. Of course none of us ever saw any street cars but we do have a faint idea of what we want. One of them is our G.T.P., with what it means to the north and Rupert. (Possibly I should use the personal pronoun singular. I may be the only one who wants our G.T.P.)

I merely mention these few items, as there is so much talk about what is to be done—after the war. It seems preposterous to fight this war for democracy and not have a democracy when it is over.

Reminiscing this morning, Mrs. Cora E. Black, of the Central Hotel, observed that she was the sole remaining member of the hotel women of the early days in Prince Rupert who is still in business. Mrs. Black came first to Prince Rupert in 1908. After a rather trying illness following an accident, Mrs. Black is quite fit again to carry on actively.

Love Centre Of True Christian Spirit, He Says

Declaring that love one for another was the centre of true Christianity, Rev. H. G. Funston, in his morning service at First Presbyterian Church yesterday, deplored the lack of this spirit in the average church congregation today. He felt that the complaint sometimes heard of too much bickering within a church was but an excuse for lack of attendance. There was something deeper than this. There was not the true appreciation of the Christian spirit.

INSTRUCTOR APPRECIATED

Chief Petty Officer A. G. Bird Honored by Local Sea Cadets Corps Before Leaving City.

As a token of appreciation of his splendid services as his instructor during his two and a half years' stay here, local Sea Cadets last week, prior to his departure for Esquimalt, presented Chief Petty Officer Instructor A. G. Bird with a handsome set of scenic pictures of this city. The presentation was made on behalf of the corps with Warrant Officer Jack Davis with suitable comment. Mr. Bird replied appreciatively.

During the period of Mr. Bird's stay here, the roster of the Cadets increased from forty-five to seventy-five. His departure is genuinely regretted. Petty Officer Instructor Hughes of the Fishermen's Naval Reserve succeeds Chief Petty Officer Bird as instructor of the Cadet Corps.

Babe Menzies Given Shower

Mrs. B. J. Bacon Is Hostess In Honor Of Popular Bride-elect

Mrs. B. J. Bacon was hostess at a miscellaneous shower in honor of Babe Menzies whose marriage takes place shortly. The rooms were prettily decorated with pink and white streamers. The evening was enjoyed playing bridge, the first prize going to Mrs. Lee Dell and the second to Mrs. Fred Barber.

Carnations and pink tapers, centred with a bride's cake, decorated the table. After delicious refreshments were served the bride-elect was presented with a prettily decorated boat, laden with many beautiful gifts.

Those present were the hostess and bride-elect, Mesdames Harry Menzies, Lee Dell, R. B. Skinner, R. J. Keron, Fred Barber, V. Grimsson, W. R. Overend, A. Storrie, Peter Wingham, Joe Ratchford, M. Mrs. Thorton Of Smithers Passes

Well Known Interior Woman Succumbs to Heart Trouble in Interior Town

SMITHERS, April 1.—Smithers lost one of its well known and much respected citizens on Thursday afternoon when Mrs. Olga Thorton passed away at her home after a heart attack. Mrs. Thorton had recently suffered from pneumonia and had been in hospital for some time but had improved sufficiently and had returned to her home on Alfred Street where she passed away.

Mrs. Thorton had been the representative of a products company in the Bulkley Valley for many years and had travelled throughout the country with her car selling the products. She was known to every family from Terrace to the Francis Lake country and was welcome in every home.

Mrs. Thorton was a widow, her husband having died here about six years ago. She has no relatives in this part of the country but is supposed to have relatives in Michigan and other states.

GARDEN NOTEBOOK

Construction work at the Barrett and Frederick Point forts has had the effect of making the places look very bare and unattractive. However, at Frederick gardening operations in a small way have already started. Headed by Sergeant Major William Brown the Searchlights have already a garden with some nice bulbs in bud which will help to brighten the little community and some members of the Battery declare that Bill is not going to have it all his own way and they are preparing a garden with Howard Hibbard as the moving spirit. A plot is already laid out and good results are anticipated. At Barrett they are talking of a garden but no practical demonstration has yet been given of their interest in the project.

The morning frosts help to keep growth back just now in spite of the warm sunny days. Happily, the frost has not been severe enough to do any damage and some of the roses that were damaged by earlier frosts are recovering.

Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Honorary President of the Horticultural Society, has sent a check for five dollars as his contribution to the funds. This will prove very acceptable.

There was great demand at the sale Saturday for aubretia, ranunculus, primula and polyanthus plants but the supply was very limited. The two trolius plants were snapped up immediately. Possibly this may prove a guide to those interested in the Anglican plant sale Thursday. Violas also sold well as did also the fine chrysanthemums donated by Robert Gordon.

Primroses wintered very well this year and in most gardens are in bloom. These flowers seem to be general favorites in Prince Rupert.

There seems to be great activity in Prince Rupert generally in digging, moving, planting and sowing, all of which promises well for a successful season. The absence of some of the enlisted men will make it difficult for those at home to keep their gardens in shape but in several cases wives and children are rising to the occasion and doing their duty splendidly.—H. OLD LAND WELCOMES CANADIANS

Hospitality of Britain for Active Service Men from Overseas Recorded

By MARY GOLDIE

LONDON, April 1: (CP)—Canadian soldiers are learning that the warmth of English hospitality is a fine antidote to the raw bitterness of the island's damp winter climate.

The boys who crossed the Atlantic to help in the Empire's defence of freedom are finding the "reserved" English actually can teach them something about hospitality.

Into the office of the Victoria League Club where I work invitations pour daily from people who are eager to take these men into their homes without question and provide them with good meals, warm baths—in fact everything from tea parties, luncheon parties and sherry parties to chatty evenings by the fire, or visits to the theatre or movies after dinner.

The groups invited number anywhere from one or two, to 20 or 50. At our club the men are selected, given directions and sent to their destinations. Even the blackout doesn't seem to hinder them seriously and they early always find their way successfully.

It has been a pleasing surprise for some of the Canadian boys who didn't think the English would open their homes to strangers. They hadn't been in London long before they learned their mistake. The people like having them. They like their fresh, breezy ways. They are amused by their accents. But most important of all they admire them for having come over to fight.

Guiding in London

If a man wants to see the sights of London it can be arranged. It isn't easy for one, by himself, to get about London even in peacetime, and a soldier on leave naturally wants to see as much as he can while his spot of leisure lasts. Many Londoners have taken parties sight-seeing and one man brought his car—this in the days of petrol rationing—to the Club and took three Canadians to Windsor, Hampton Court and Ascot race track, where they sat in the King's chair on the stand. They told me about it with great excitement, and said they were given a thundering good dinner into the bargain.

The consideration of the hosts and hostesses is sometime overpowering and amusing. We are asked all sorts of questions: "What do the boys like best to do?" "What do they like to eat?" "Do they like eating at home or should I take them to a restaurant?" The last question is the easiest to answer, because the young Canadians away from home shows a great preference for private entertaining and asks us for invitations to private houses.

They feel the need of this home atmosphere. They enjoy sitting about the fire, smoking, chatting. And there is absolutely no end to the amount of trouble the English are taking to make them feel at home.

West-End Hospitality

Such a varied assortment of invitations comes into the office that it is sometimes difficult to sort them out. There are several "standing orders" for Saturdays or Sundays for luncheon or tea. One man at Richmond has two boys each Sunday for lunch and then takes them sight-seeing.

And if they have to ask what Richmond is before they go, they know it is an eye-filling Park district on the Thames when they return.

People of all types are entertaining the men. Poor people, rich people with only small flats, people with large houses. Acceptance of one invitation usually means others will follow, for the hosts have other people in to meet the men and so the ball of hospitality keeps rolling.

They haven't time to be lonely, these Canadian soldiers. If they do feel that way, they are partly to blame. One boy told me he didn't want to go to any parties because he feared he would get roped into something dull. It was his ill luck. I think now he is lonely—but he needn't be.

Some Things Free

There are free theatre tickets, free concert tickets, free zoo tickets, free dance tickets—all provided through the kindness of English people. A Canadian on leave came into the office for writing paper to refuse invitations; he had so many he couldn't cope with them all.

"It's wonderful the way the people here are doing these things for us," he told me.

The English hospitality means a great deal to the men and it means a great deal to the hosts. It is of vital importance in drawing Canada and England closer together and getting the two peoples better acquainted.

The men never miss saying how much they appreciate it. And they are doubly thankful for the fact that when they come on their next leave they have friends to see.

Yes, the "old country" English are showing the overseas Canadians something about hospitality.

Advertising is an investment.

NINETIETH BIRTHDAY

Mrs. James L. Lee Of Prince Rupert Among Those Taking Part In Her Father's Celebration

NEW WESTMINSTER, April 1.—One of the delightful social events of the week was the reception held at the home of R. H. Gray, 1016 Dublin Street, on the occasion of his ninetieth birthday. Mr. Gray was born in Brechin, Angus County, Scotland, coming to New Westminster in 1912. He was secretary of the school board for 20 years and is a noted horticulturalist, his garden being one of the beauty spots of the West End of the city.

Assisting Mr. Gray in welcoming the many guests who called to offer congratulations were his daughters, Miss J. Scott Gray, Miss E. Scott Gray, Mrs. J. L. Lee of Prince Rupert, and his sons, J. B. Gray, Nelson and G. L. Gray, Victoria. Two other sons, James Gray of Ayrshire, Scotland, and Thomas Gray of Edinburgh, greeted their father by cable.

The rooms were a profusion of plants, pots of heather and cut flowers, with cards and gifts sent to Mr. Gray by numerous friends. The lace-covered tea table was centred with a bowl of red roses and tall red tapers burned in silver holders.

Mrs. G. L. Gray of Victoria was in charge of the dining room, and presiding at the tea and coffee urns were Mrs. A. S. Bennett and Miss Dorothea McBride for the first hour, Mrs. T. H. Ireland and Mrs. H. C. Bamford for the second hour, when their places were taken by Mrs. J. Harrison and Mrs. J. Rushton for the third hour. Aides in serving were two grand-daughters, Miss Betty Gray and Miss Jean Gray, Victoria.

Miss Dorothy Newsome, Miss Audrey Chitty, North Vancouver, Miss Jean Broughton, Vancouver, Miss Mary Ireland and Miss Doris Thompson. Other grand children were Lieut. Thomas Gray, R.N., who attended the New Westminster high schools for four years, Robert Hampton Gray in Scotland, Miss Phyllis Gray, Mr. Hampton Gray, Jack Gray of Nelson, Forbes Lee of Prince Rupert.

The venerable host cut a lovely birthday cake which was illuminated by one candle to which was attached a golden key.

NEWS OF THE MINES

Molybdenum Property North of Prince George Looking Good—Work Resuming on Dardanelles Near Terrace—Cinnabar Refinery in Omineca

Pete Johnson, well known Prince George prospector, is leaving the interior town within the next few days for his molybdenum group of mineral claims north of Prince George to start a program of intensive development. Late last fall Johnson and three partners staked fifteen claims on a large showing of molybdenum ore on Munro Creek, half way between Finlay Forks and Manson Creek, about 130 miles north of Prince George. The projected Finlay Forks and Manson Creek highway will pass within seven miles of the property when completed. The four partners intend to open up the mineral showings this season so as to make a reasonable estimate of the ore possibilities and values. Assays of samples from the molybdenum outcrops have suggested commercial values and this season's development will, it is hoped, bring about a large scale operation of the property in the near future. Several large mining companies have made inquiries during the past few months and examinations are expected to be made shortly by their representatives. Besides the molybdenum, there is said to be a quartz showing on the property from which assays in gold up to $30 have been obtained. This vein will also be opened up during the next few months.

Fred M. Wells, well known prospector and mining man, arrived at Terrace at the end of last week and, with a crew of nine men, proceeded to the Dardanelles mining property in the Copper River Valley where development work is being resumed for the season.

Quite a number of men have been taken out during the past week or so to the Northern Pyrites property on the Estclair River where an active season's development is to be carried out. The company's policy is to open up the sulphur ore and get the property in such shape that there will be a minimum of delay in getting production started once market conditions for the ore are favorable.

With plans now in preparation by the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Co. for the installation of a refinery on the cinnabar mine now being opened up at Pinch Lake near Port St. James, the year 1940 is expected to see production of the finished product. The success of this operation is expected to attract other mining companies to the district, thus bringing about an intensive development of many other known mineral prospects that contain metals needed in the prosecution of war.

The Granby Consolidated Mining, Smelting & Power Co. is considering the establishment of a plant in connection with the Copper Mountain mine which would produce blister copper as the company previously did at Anyox. Granby has negotiated a new contract with Japanese interests for the sale of the company's entire production of copper concentrates to the Orient on a three year basis. The prospect of establishing a new smelter in British Columbia has not been abandoned by the company.

Union steamer Catala, Capt. James Findlay, arrived in port at 10:30 last night from the south and sailed at midnight for Stewart and other northern points whence she will return here tomorrow southbound. The vessel, brought north a fair-sized list of passengers.

Over the week-end a total of fourteen halibut vessels cleared from Vancouver on their initial trips of the season to the fishing grounds, these being Agnes C., Antler, B. C. Bird, Cape Blanco, Delman, Haida Chief, S. B. Nordhus, John F., Joan W. No. 1, Kingfisher, Clara M., Grassholm, F. G. W. and Gibson. Fifty-seven halibut boats will operate out of Vancouver this year which number is seven ahead of last year. While the tonnage of the Vancouver halibut fleet is now claimed to be larger than that of Prince Rupert, this port continues to be the centre of halibut landings owing to its being closer to the fishing grounds.

M. M. Stephens, taking a couple of men with him, will be leaving tomorrow morning with his power cruiser Vera S. Fry for Gibson Island to carry out assessment work on his mining property there. He expects to be away about ten days.

The following further local halibut boats cleared for the banks over the week-end: K. H., Helen II, Helen R., Lake Biwa, Kalen, T. Y., Kalen I, Oceanic and Ingrid H.

G. Turgeon, Liberal, 575; William Irvine, C.C.F., 551; F. H. Stephens, 156. McBride gave Turgeon 86, Irvine 106 and Stephens 22. Vanderhoof gave Turgeon 184, Irvine 91 and Stephens 71. The latest available totals for entire Cariboo riding give Turgeon a majority of 826 over Irvine.

By a vote of 130 to 16, Prince George ratepayers last week endorsed a bylaw providing for the expenditure of $30,000 on a new diesel unit to double the output of the municipal power plant.

After an absence of eight days, the Armour Salvage Co.'s service boat Daly and derrick scow returned Saturday night from Allford Bay, Queen Charlotte Islands, where the outfit had been engaged in work in connection with the Royal Canadian Air Force base construction work.

Galt freighter Salvor, Capt. Albert Georgeson, due in port tomorrow or Wednesday from Vancouver, bringing in four thousand sacks which will be delivered at the local elevator to be used in connection with the shipment of grain screenings. Already four thousand sacks of screenings are ready for shipments and the second lot of four thousand sacks will clean up all the screenings from the house. A total of some 520 tons of screenings will be consigned to Buckfield Ltd. of Vancouver. Grain screenings are used in connection with the production of stock feed, explosives and other products.

DURBIN HIT AT CAPITOL

Popular Canadian Star Featured in "First Love" Showing for First Half of This Week

Deanna Durbin's sixth picture, "First Love," presenting the young star in the most mature role she has yet attempted, comes as the feature offering to the screen of the Capitol Theatre for the first half of this week.

Deanna plays the part of an orphan girl who is forced to live with an aunt, an uncle and two cousins of her own age. They are rich and snobbish and look upon her as a poor relation. The Canadian-born star's personality, consideration and kindness, however, win over the servants and, finally, bring about an upheaval in the family.

In the picture Deanna encounters her first love affair, a boy-and-girl affair between herself and Robert Stack, a screen new-comer. Stack plays the part of a young bachelor who is the object of the affections of Deanna and one of the cousins.

The supporting cast of "First Love" includes Helen Parrish; Lewis Howard, from the New York metropolitan area; Eugene Pallette; Charles Coleman.

In the course of the picture Deanna sings such songs as "One Day" (Madame Butterfly), "Polka," "Home Sweet Home," "Spring in My Heart," a medley of Strauss waltz melodies.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pints of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If the bile is not flowing freely, your food does not digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. Hard stools go into the body, and you feel weak, and the world looks pink.

A mere bowel movement doesn't clean up at the source. You need something that works on the liver as well. It takes those good old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get those pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up". Harmless and gentle, they make the bile flow freely. They do the work of cholera but have no choleraic action. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name! Stubbornly refuse any other one. Dis.

Welsh Matron Looks Forward to Meeting Her Boys Polish Bride

CARDIFF, Wales, April 1: (CP)—Mrs. W. Thomas is all ready to "throw a big party" here to welcome her soldier son, Sergeant Marcel Amerlinck of the Welsh Guards, whenever he comes home on leave bringing his Polish refugee bride whom he married in the first British Expeditionary Force wedding in France. Meanwhile she likes to compare that marriage and her own wedding in 1916 with Amerlinck's father, a Belgian army sergeant she met when he was recuperating from wounds in hospital there. They were married in Brussels but he died two years later and she returned to Cardiff to marry Sergeant W. Thomas of Cardiff police force.

Young Amerlinck told his mother that he is waiting only for the necessary passport before bringing his bride home. The girl, who fled from Cracow, was billeted in a farm near headquarters of Amerlinck's regiment and when he saw her crossing a farm courtyard it was love at first sight.
