NANIMOUS PARTY ACTION EXCITES WIDESPREAD ENTHUSIASTIC APPROVAL

Public feeling against the tyranny of the Two-Man Government and its supine local representative has been growing stronger day by day ever since date of the Election was announced. During the past few days it crystallized into a general demand for a people's candidate and strong representans were made to the Liberal party to place a man in the field. Independent Conservatives were foremost in this movement, which embraces the leadmen of the constituency irrespective of party. Labor unionism was also prominent in the appeal. The executive of the Liberal party has had the tter under careful advisement and consideration for several days and at length called a meeting to which they could report and obtain the decision of full membership. This meeting took place last night with the result stated above. First there was a motion to decide whether it were wise to ce a candidate in the fleld. This was settled with instantaneous unanimity. Then came the matter of nominating a candidate and the suggestion Alex. M. Manson as an able and energetic young man bound to make a good campaign met with startling applause. Mr. Manson was not present. tantly a demand was made on the president, Dr. Kergin, to appoint a committee to wait upon Mr. Manson and tender to him the nomination. F. G. wson, Fred. Stork, W. E. Williams and C. V. Bennett were selected and started in a hurry for Mr. Manson's residence. Then there was a lull and a g wait, during which the chances of success were canvassed and the enthusiasm waxed warm. The committee entered and signified the success of ir mission by waving their hats, a signal that started rousing cheers. Back to work went the committee with renewed energy. Committees were pointed to report today. Volunteers for the platform jumped up and offered their services. Fred Stork goes to Bella Coola where he is well known appreciated; Duncan Ross will canvass the Hazelton district, and the whole field will be covered by enthusiastic volunteers by the time this goes press. In the city there is no need of campaign work. The vote polled for Duncan Ross is solid and has grown some since last fall. Then the berals have new forces to draw on, for this is a fight for right and political liberty in which all are forced to join. Not the Liberals alone but the ole manhood of the city will join the joyful clamor for MANSON THE MAN.

"In an effort to keep the party together the Liberals of the city last night.named a candidate."-The Trombone.

It would have been news to citizens generally to state when, how and why the Liberal party of this city got broken up and scattered. It is only a few months since there was a federal election, and the party then made a fight against the Both-Feetin-the-Trough party that will be remembered for some time. will be regretfully recalled by them fourteen days from date. roads, schools and other neces-

There are no protesting Progressives in its ranks, condemning 2. Transportation. the rule or ruin element an dclaiming a right to freedom of opinion. All the Liberals are progressives, united for progress and the best interests of the city and not for the spoils of party. They are as united now as they were at the last election. They have added to their numbers because of the general disaffection in the Conservative ranks and the disgust of citizens generally at the abuses worked by the Two-Man government and the supineness of the local member.

The Liberals are confident of making even a better showing this time than last. They are stronger and they have more to fight for. Then it was a fight for the general principles of between the Similkameen and reciprocity; now it is a specific fight for home; for our city so other interior points and the scandalously robbed and jobbed by McBride and the horde of coast. hirelings paid to support him.

"Prince Rupert and the Skeena has much to expect from the government in the next few years. It needs a friend at court."-The Trombone.

The policy of the government we are asked to support is not to be wasted in paralleling to keep us expecting for "the next few years" and then some. existing lines. We need no friend at court. We have tried that and found it absolutely worthless. The "friend at court" we are asked to support is not a free and independent citizen, but a servile flunky of the court, one to whom his master's wink or nod is a command. We need a champion at court to fight for the people's rights; a man of youthful enthusiasm and virile force; a man of trained logical mentality ever ready with intellectual expedients to wage honest battle for his city and his home, and in Alex. M. Manson, the candidate selected for the whole people by the Liberal party of the city, such a well-armored champion is presented.

Reports from different parts of the province indicate that a large crop of independent Conservative candidates is springing up. This promises well for the election of Liberals in what have hitherto been regarded as Conservative strongholds.—Vancouver aided roads to be open for public fusal to re-enact its own remedy World.

Announcement is made of a general election in British Columbia in March. As the Liberals are represented in the legislature by one lone member they have not much to lose and should welcome the chance to increase their representation in the house. The Liberals in British Columbia, on the showing made in both the local and Dominion elections, constitute some 40 per cent. of the voting population, yet they have only one representative in the legislature and none at all at Ottawa.-Halifax Chronicle.

The News Way is a Good Way "Not what we wish but what we want." --- Merrick.

To the Electors of Prince Rupert:

I had intended at first to retire in the event of a Liberal being nominated, but the dissatisfaction against the ring rule within the Conservative party is so widespread that I think it only right that those Conservatives who cannot conscientiously endorse the candidature of William Manson should still have the privilege of voting Conservative, and I will therefore remain in the field. I have no quarrel with the McBride government and will loyally support it, but I have a strong objection to the great Conservative party being made the tool of a petty clique who use it merely for their own selfish ends.

Do not allow the ring to persuade you that Mr. Manson is the only man whom the government will recognize. We saw how Mr., Manson stood with the government when a deputation was sent to Victoria to press his claims for a cabinet portfolio. They would have none of him and they had tried him before. If elected I have no fear of not receiving full recognition from the premier, especially as I will have no personal axe to grind, but will work solely in the interests of my constituents.

I ask every loyal Conservative who has the real interest of his party at heart to stamp out utterly on the 28th the ring rule which has cursed the party for the last few years. Remember, if Mr. Manson is elected the ring will claim a victory and it will be useless to attempt to dislodge it. Yours faithfully,

WILLIAM BARRETT CLAYTON.
