German Warships Take To Flight

Destroyer Flotilla Runs For Port Upon Encountering British

Attack Took Place Near Land's End—Nazi Claim of Damage to British Vessel is Refuted

LONDON, October 18: (CP)—The Admiralty announced today that a flotilla of German destroyers "retreated precipitately" without damaging any British vessel. British ships attempted to engage them one hundred miles south of Land's End yesterday. This refuted the German claim that the Nazis had scored a torpedo hit on the British warships. The Admiralty said: "No damage was done by any of our ships" and the German force, consisting of five destroyers, escaped into Brest.

GOODS FOR CHINA ARE MOVING IN

Thousands of Trucks Passing Unhindered So Far Over Burma Following Reopening

Reports Attack On Southern Terminus Of Highway

Thousands of trucks laden with war materials and supplies for China are on their way tonight along the Burma Road following its reopening last month by the British authorities. A hundred of the trucks have already reached 700 miles inland. It was stated tonight, their having been without incident since Chungking, provisional headquarters of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, is the ultimate destination.

Following threats which had been made in advance, headquarters of the Japanese South Sea fleet announced that Japanese naval aircraft today attacked Kuming, southwestern terminus of the reopened road. It was the first Japanese attack connected with the reopening of the road. The communiqué stated that bombs were dropped on Chinese munitions factories and military establishments.

It is estimated that 100,000 tons of supplies, much of which had accumulated during the months' shutdown of the road, are awaiting delivery to China. A great deal of these supplies have come from the United States. There are at present four Japanese advance guard units at Kuming, laden with textiles, starting first. Then followed one hundred laden with arms, ammunition, airplane parts and other equipment. The number of trucks increased until 2,000 were under way tonight.

Traffic along the Burma road, following the reopening to arms shipments to China, rose steadily today as fleets of munitions trucks continued to move into Chinese territory.

Chinese labor squads have been ordered along the Burma Road under orders to reconstruct the highway as fast as Japanese bombs can bomb craters in it following its reopening to traffic by the British government.

Hong Kong Closed

HONG KONG, Oct. 18:—Reversing an announcement made yesterday, it was officially stated here tonight that the reopening of the Hong Kong-Chungking Railway to delivery of Chinese war materials had been postponed indefinitely. It had been previously announced that this railway would be reopened at the same time as the Burma Road. Japan had contended that the reopening of the Hong Kong Railway was a separate issue from the Burma Road and had threatened direct action against Hong Kong if it was reopened.

Judge Fisher and Mr. Fulton got in a little time at hunting grouse and Mr. Fulton also took time out to visit the Duthie mine on Hudson Bay Mountain.

Review Of British Bombing Attacks Show Berlin Badly Hit, Also Many Other Points

LONDON, October 18: (CP)—The Royal Air Force master scheme of bombing Germany has partially wrecked several Berlin war factories, has almost gutted the Berlin general post office and has seriously affected rail and water transport as well as damaging great industrial plants over a wide area, the Air Ministry news service announced today. The statement was issued after a night during which the offensive against Germany was suspended owing to unfavorable weather. It told of travellers spending three days instead of a few hours on rail journeys, of great fires set by Royal Air Force bombs and of damage to canals and railroads.

Tremendous explosions were heard along the Channel invasion coast as British bombers today resumed the attack on invasion bases. Squadrons of Royal Air Force planes took off during the day.

UNITED STATES ELECTION

The present trend in the United States seems to be toward the re-election of President Roosevelt next month. This trend is shown by the Gallup polls and in other ways. It seems to be accepted in many quarters that Roosevelt will get another term.

And yet we have known elections before where what seemed to be the general trend was upset. This has been true in Canada as well as in the United States. Much will depend on what happens between now and election day. President Roosevelt seems to be lying low. He talks as little as possible and is not likely to be heard from much in the next two or three weeks. Being on the defensive, the less he says the better.

One of the main ideas sweeping through the States is that Roosevelt is the better man to handle the affairs of the country during the war into which it is surely being drawn. He has been quite satisfactory in that respect so far and will continue to maintain the honor of the country without rushing into a conflict for which it may be but poorly prepared.

It is pleasant for Canadians to reflect that, whichever party wins, both are pledged to support the British in the present struggle and to prevent the Germans or Japanese getting any foothold on this continent.

THE BURMA ROAD

Yesterday China commenced the shipment of materials over the Burma Road bound for the United States and Great Britain. Some of this is mineral for the manufacture of munitions in payment of the Chinese debt to those countries, particularly the United States.

Food supplies and munitions are being shipped into China, a continuous procession of trucks using the highway and passing at suitable points on this narrow route as it travels along mountain ridges and dips here and there into valleys and up again. Thousands of coolies always at work improving this highway can be assembled at any point in a very brief time to repair damage caused by Japanese or other enemy bombers. Those who have watched ants instantly set to work to repair ant hills will realize how the Chinese coolies will instantly set to work on that Burma Road to replace any portion of it that may be damaged either by wash-outs or bombs. Night and day they will work and the Japanese have not enough bombing planes to spare for the job of trying to keep the highway out of commission.

Road To Hunter Basin Mine Now Almost Finished

SMITHERS, Oct. 18.—The eight miles of road that has been under construction from the Dockrill coal mine to the Hunter Basin mine has been going forward with satisfactory speed and it is now possible to drive a car right to the mine although the road is not yet completed. Another two weeks will be required to finish the work. Favored by exceptionally fine weather for this time of the year the contractors have taken advantage of their opportunity and have made great progress with their undertaking.

It is expected that machinery will soon be taken to the property and that work will be carried on with a much increased staff during the coming winter.

SEVEN SET HAT PLOTS

NEW YORK Oct. 18. (CP)—Who says women's hats are crazy? Eve Tartar analytical hat designer, has figured out that just as there are only seven basic story plots, so there are only seven basic plots for hats. The most talented designer in the world can do no more than play variations on the seven themes, she contends. The seven are corn, toque, turban, beret, pillbox, brim and calot.

One New York designer shows a true tricorn in a black diamond velour. It depends for variety on grosgrain banding and a new-looking masque veil attached to the hat.

A variation of the toque is a sheared beaver. It has characteristic toque dip over the forehead, but takes on calot traits with a jersey back-of-the-head cap. A towering toque effect is achieved with a feather.

On one turban the designer piles the drapery high, toque fashion, and, as a revolutionary touch, he makes it cover one ear, reveal the other. It is in absinth green jersey.

Whimsical? Well Now—A beret is shown pulled into every sort of shape by whimsical hat designers. The model is a black felt beret, pulled sidewise with a velvet band and fastened with a gold clip.

The pillbox often appears adorned, in classic form, but it takes on new glamor with a braided-trimmed brim, a cluster of tink tails swooping down from the crown.

Then there's the hat with a brim but what a brim! One designer rings a change on this fundamental hat form by encircling the brim with a band of mink. The crown towers toque-fashion with two clasps in one.

One design shown here might be either calot or toque. The designer says it's both and typical of the season's pompadour hats. It features a baby cap calot with the traditional black Persim band and sack hat (a version of the top)

AS NATURALLY as you use THE PHONE

WHEN you wish to talk to a person, you can walk or travel miles to do it. But, with exceptions, you don't. When you wish to pay bills or make purchases, you can carry around with you a bundle of cash or a sack of coins. But, with exceptions, you don't. In the one case you use a telephone. In the other, you use a cheque on your bank. In either case you save time and effort by using a convenient modern device. And you use the one as naturally as the other. Canadians do make extensive use of the services of the chartered banks. Deposits in chartered banks at the time the last return was made to Parliament, totalled $2,530,000,000; cheques issued and debited to individual accounts in August, 1940, the most recent month for which returns are available, totalled $2,457,706,218. These figures show that most Canadian business is done by cheque and illustrate the extent to which the people make use of the banking system. The banks take pride in the modern services they provide for your convenience.

In war, as in peace, Canada's Chartered Banks maintain, uninterrupted, their useful services — safeguarding depositors' funds; facilitating the nation's business — looking forward to peace with freedom as the only sure basis of enduring prosperity.

Anti-Aircraft Gunners in Northern Areas Profit by Experience in South

LONDON, Oct. 17: (CP)—The fast-mounting score of Britain's anti-aircraft gunners is putting fresh heart and enthusiasm into the men of the A.A. batteries who have not had a chance to prove their mettle—or metal.

There are still large tracts of country which the German bombers have not yet penetrated in force. To the anti-aircraft batteries in those areas the war until recently was much of a bore.

At one Fighter Command air station in Scotland, for instance, the gunners have been standing by for nearly a year without even being offered a target. They spent their time rebuilding and reinforcing their gunpits, and waiting. Now they study the tactics and the accumulating experience of A.A. batteries in the much-raided south.

Proof that much of the experience of gunners who have been firing so effectively in the aerial front line can usefully be passed on to those who still stand by is provided by an incident at a Scottish air station in Fighter Command. Opening up on a single enemy aircraft which flew high over the airport, the gunners found themselves in action for the first times since the start of the war. Their aim could scarcely have been better. The fourth round burst just beneath the raider as it vanished into a cloud. A few minutes later an obstruction was discovered on the airfield. It was the raider's bomb-rack, torn off by another example of "accuracy" fire.

I like my beer—
I like this brand—
And when you try it,
You'll understand
Why "LUCKY" heads
The list for me,
In flavour, age,
And purity.

I've bought it now
For many years,
They call it the
"Champagne of Beers".
It's rightly named,
In my opinion,
As the tastiest beer
In the Dominion.
Handy to serve
And sure to please—
Just serve it 'round
Forty-two degrees.

Whifflets From The Waterfront

Armour Salvage Co.'s power tug Daly, Capt. Barney Kinnie, left yesterday for Butedale and is due back tomorrow afternoon with the company's pile driver outfit which has been at Butedale for the past month engaged in the building of an addition to the Canadian Fishing Co.'s cannery dock to accommodate an oil storage tank. The Butedale work has been in charge of Oscar Sather.

The majority of 205 passengers who were here aboard the Princess Louise yesterday afternoon southbound from Skagway to Vancouver consisted of members of the crews of river boats of the White Pass & Yukon Co. and other employees of the company. Among the river boat officers going south were Captains Norman Marion, Malcolm Campbell, Donald McKay and Joseph A. Gardiner; Chief Engineers John Elliott and William J. Vey; Purser Gilbert D. Bissell and Cuthbert A. Gardiner and Chief Stewart William Garrett. Sixteen passengers disembarked from the Princess Louise here while five took passage at this port for Vancouver.

C.P.R. steamer Princess Adelaide, Capt. William Hughes, is due in port at 3:15 this afternoon from the south and will sail at 10 p.m. on her return to Vancouver and waypoints.
