STAGE OF CARNIVAL ALL SET

Willing Workers Transformed Exhibition Hall Last Night

A great transformation took place at the big exhibition hall last night as each department worked until midnight or after changing the whole appearance of the place in readiness for the opening this evening. Today the various exhibits are being put in place and by tonight it will be a place well worth visiting.

W. M. Watts and T. J. Williams have had charge of the decorations of the hall, particularly of the platform and it is really a work of art.

Last night everybody was working. It was by far the busiest place in Prince Rupert and there was seen a fine spirit of co-operation, the young men of the city showing just what can be done when all work with a will to a desired end.

A good program of attractions has been arranged for this evening and each night there will be a different program. The following are the committee chairmen who are assisted by a fine body of willing workers:

Chairman—Norton Youngs.
Secretary—George L. Rorie.
Treasurer—Trevor Williams.
Program—C. G. Ham.
Exhibits—Dr. R. G. Large.
Concessions—Max Asemussen.
Publicity—Robert Parker.
Carnival Queen—W. M. Watts.
Public Wedding—William Stone.
Flower Show—Charles Balagno.
Photographic Contest—Jack Wrathall.
Tea Room—Rebekahs.

There are a number of interesting exhibits representing the firms of Edward Lipsett Ltd., Northern B. C. Power Co. Ltd., McRae Brothers Ltd., W. H. Malkin and S. E. Parker Ltd. The last mentioned firm has a skeleton chassis showing the inner workings of the Ford cars which is quite an attraction to those mechanically inclined.

The body of the hall is just covered with various amusement features, some of which are quite new and unique and will provide plenty of fun for those who like them.

BABE MUCH TRAVELLED

Twenty-One Month Old Mary Jane Morrell Has Seen Much of World

TORONTO, August 21—Baby Jane Morrell, aged exactly 21 months, holds the distinction of probably being the most widely travelled youngster in the world and last night she added further to her mileage laurels by starting out on the trans-Canada lines for Victoria when she will add another 2,250 miles to her airways log. The young daughter of Mrs. S. W. Morrell, of Oakville, Ont., wife of the Balkan correspondent of the London Daily Express, Baby Morrell has had her own passport ever since she was a month old and her log holds such interesting air trips as Budapest and Milan and return, Budapest to Belgrade, Rome, Marseilles and London—to say nothing of four returns by Imperial Airways from London to Paris.

As wife of a well known English journalist, Mrs. Morrell trained Mary Jane naturally into being air minded. Her honeymoon commenced by airplane nearly six years ago with a flight to Paris and a subsequent flight to Marseilles where the honeymoon couple landed exactly twenty minutes after the assassination of the King of Yugoslavia. In the intervening years Mrs. Morrell did practically all her travelling by air, visiting all capitals which figured for their brief tragic moment in the news of the hour, such as Prague, Vienna, Brussels and Geneva before the outbreak of war.

Baby Morrell, then aged nine months, was shipped from Budapest to London in the care of her grandmother and the baby's individual passport caused great interest and speculation wherever it was displayed.

"Mary Jane is the youngest passport holder in the world, I believe," said Mrs. Morrell. "It was issued when she was exactly a month old and has been much used. She went from Paris to Budapest in the luggage rack of the Orient express. At the age of one month, from Budapest to London at the age of nine months, by plane, and from London to Montreal by boat as a guest of Canada" at the age of 19 months. I prefer air travel to that of any other type."

SHOW OF FLOWERS

Fine Display by Prince Rupert Horticultural Society at Carnival Hall

In spite of the weather last week and the week before the show of flowers arranged by the Prince Rupert Horticultural Society at the Fall Carnival is a most creditable one. Charles Balagno and his helpers, Frank Warner and C. G. Ham, have worked indefatigably putting up a bank of greenery and preparing tables. Many exhibits came in last evening and today large quantities of flowers arrived and were artistically arranged by the ladies.

In the centre of the flower exhibit is a very fine collection of shells of the district gathered and arranged by Mrs. Thomas Priest of Graham Avenue. This will be one of the big attractions of that part of the Carnival Hall.

Part Of Highway Within City Is Being Improved

Some good work is being done by the city engineering department in improving the part of the highway between Conrad Street and the city limits. Bad humps and dips are being levelled out and the surface of the highway very greatly improved. Evidently when this work is finished the part of the highway within the city will be as easy to travel over as that kept up by the Provincial government.

COLUMNISTS ARE ACTIVE

Dangerous Gang Believed Implicated in Escape of German Prisoner of War

SOMEWHERE IN ONTARIO, Aug. 21: (CP)—A high military authority says that an extremely dangerous gang of fifth columnists planned and aided the escape of W. Koche, German naval officer, from a closely guarded prison camp in Northern Ontario. The search has widened for the escaped German prisoner of war who tunneled his way to freedom from the closely guarded prison camp. Meanwhile military authorities are investigating how a radio receiving set was smuggled into the camp, being discovered a few hours after Koche escaped through a 100-foot tunnel.

The escape of a German civilian from a northwestern Ontario internment camp is also announced by Hon. J. L. Ralston, minister of national defence. The man who could speak English is believed to be hiding in wild country surrounding the camp.

NASSAU TO SET STYLE

Duke and Duchess of Windsor in Bahamas Will Be Watched

NEW YORK, Aug. 21: (AP)—Several million Americans—style-wise and otherwise—are watching to see whether the Duke and Duchess of Windsor will spring any surprises in styles since reaching the western hemisphere.

As two of the world's most famous fashion plates they have started many a mode on its way. So style scouts in New York and smart set in Nassau, where the Duke has been installed as Governor of the Bahamas, are going to keep both eyes wide open—particularly for tips on evening and sports clothes that can go places in American resorts.

They wonder a lot of things: Will the Duke appear at dinner parties in one of the new colored dinner suits that caused a stir in Palm Beach last winter? Will he dash around in the new knee-length khaki shorts, British army officer style? Is he going to wear a fishnet shirt? Or will he content himself with the nondescript things he's been wearing lately?

And what about the Duchess' sports clothes? She didn't wear shorts or slacks in Europe—didn't think then good taste. Mainbocher made her sports frocks which buttoned down front, with detachable shorts to match. Will she wear those again in Bahamas and, if she does, will that make the trousered mode for women sag? What will she choose for hot-night evening new jewel gadget on her suits?

Since her marriage, the Duchess' wardrobes have made fashion news around the world. Her simple, almost stark, chic; her slim, suave dinner suits with their baroque scroll trims, her love of glittering sequins (which lifted the face eyebrows) and her off-the-face hats were all noted—and copied.

Her wardrobe went into temporary eclipse when she donned a uniform for war work but it's back in the limelight now. How are her new suits cut? What will she wear for formal official luncheons? How will she settle the hot-weather hat problem, since she doesn't like big hats? The fashion world has no idea but it's going to take a good hard look.

Small Individual Plane Method Of Attack Is New Order of Day

Roaming Over Many Parts of Old Land—Eight Are Downed—Meantime Royal Air Force Continues Increasing Offensive in Germany

LONDON, August 21: (CP)—Operating singly or in very small numbers, Nazi bombing planes, seemingly changing tactics from that of great mass raids, roamed over many parts of Great Britain today. Some casualties and damage resulted. Meantime, the Royal Air Force assumed an increasing offensive by carrying the attack to numerous important bases in Germany, German-occupied territory and as far as Italy.

The heaviest blows of the scattered solo raids staged by the German air force over England today were struck on the southeast where a coast resort was bombed twice in the early afternoon.

Eight Nazi bombers were shot down and another is believed to have fallen in the channel.

Almost constant patrols of British fighters were kept in the air to head off the "sneak-in" attacks by individual bombers.

The Royal Air Force, continuing the offensive as German attacks on Britain diffused, attacked the German naval base at Kiel and thirty airdromes in Germany and German-occupied territory.

Other activity by the British air arm, as announced by the Admiralty, included the bombing by British warplanes of two German transports in Haugesund, Norway. The British penetrated into a widespread area of Germany, German occupied territory and Italy.

MORE MEN FOR CORPS

First Route March Last Evening Followed by Lecture On Gas

While the turnout at the local defence corps last evening was below average there was an attendance of over sixty and an interesting program was carried out. Norman Watt explained that new arrangements might be needed as the Army would not be available much longer. Plans for other accommodation were definitely under way and particulars would be announced.

After roll call and preliminary organization the units proceeded on their first route march. The action to be taken if air attacks were made on a column of troops was explained and the practice of the movements duly carried out afforded an interesting variety to the march. On the return to the Army a lecture on gas was given and the construction of the latest respirator was explained by Sergeant-Major Dey.

It is planned that the next lecture will be on signalling and, if duties allow him to be free, Regimental Sergeant-Major Parsonage will give the talk. If the Army is not available the lecture will be given in the Canadian Legion Hall.

An appeal was made to those already in the unit to bring their friends with them. This civil organization should number several hundreds as it affords all men of any age from eighteen to sixty an opportunity to learn how to defend his city and his country in an emergency. Isolated individual action is useless. Organized effort is a guarantee of success. Enrollment is still open to all men and to get full advantage of the training men should enrol at once.

Regimental Sergt.-Major Simpkins was in general charge of the parade last night, assisted by unit commanders Alex. Mitchell, D. G. Borland, G. W. Abbott and Peter Lakin.

Brodeur is second senior officer of the Royal Canadian Navy."

CHURCHILL'S OPTIMISM

The optimism of Prime Minister Winston Churchill is an optimism based on realism. He is not afraid to face facts. He tells the British people that Germany still has more airplanes than have the British and yet he sees the British winning and carrying the fight right into the heart of Germany. He also says that British defences are much stronger than ever they have been before. An interesting phase of the speech of the Prime Minister was that in which he mentioned the after the war problems which are being discussed by a great many people. Mr. Churchill said that the British had not yet reached the summit of the hill. They were still in the midst of a tremendous struggle. It would not be until they had reached the summit of the hill and were able to survey the whole landscape that they could lay plans for the future. Just now they were bending all their energies to defending their country and carrying the war into Germany and Italy.

There was never a suggestion or a doubt as to the eventual victory of the British but there was an appeal to those who were able to do so to fill in some of the gaps which might occur in the defences. He also visualized the future independence and prosperity of France when, with the help of General De Gaulle and his army, the country will have been freed from the present thralldom.

SPORT CHAT

Velvet has made a clean sweep of all the football honors in Prince Rupert for the 1940 season. The fourth silverware of the season to be captured by the Vink men is the Gilhuly Cup. They were ahead two points in the standing as an appointment with the Dry Dock came up. The shipyard men failed to keep the date so the Dairy was awarded the trophy by default. Previously they had captured the Stuart Benefit Shield, Dominion Day Cup and Mobley Cup, emblematic of league championship, in competition play. Negotiations are now off with Ocean Falls to send a challenge team from here to the paper town to compete for the Northern British Columbia championship.

Jack Dempsey, dethroned as world's heavyweight boxing champion by Gene Tunney in 1926 and again beaten in 1927, started a comeback nine years ago last night. His barnstorming ended August 13, 1932, when King Levinsky of Chicago gained a 10-round decision over him.

Lou Ambers proved an exception to the "they-never-come-back" rule by becoming the first man ever to regain the world's lightweight box-

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—
And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Harmful poisons go into the body, and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks puny.

A mere bowel movement doesn't always get at the cause. You need something that works on the liver as well. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up". Harmless and gentle, they make the bile flow freely. They do the work of calomel but have no calomel or mercury in them. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name! Stubbornly refuse anything else, 25c.

From The Waterfront

Union steamer Catala, Capt. James Findlay, returned to port at 5:45 yesterday afternoon from Stewart and other northern points and sailed at 6:30 p.m. for Vancouver and waypoints.

P. Fotheringham and members of the crew of Arrandale Cannery on the Naas River, which has concluded salmon packing operations for the season, were passengers on board the Catala last evening going through to Vancouver.

The United Church Mission ship Thomas Crosby arrived from Ocean Falls and Bella Bella last evening. In addition to the captain, Rev. P. R. Kelly, are the Rev. W. R. Welch of Bella Bella and Rev. E. S. Heming of Ocean Falls, who have come to attend the meetings of the Prince Rupert Presbytery to be held in the United Church on Wednesday and Thursday.
