TESTING OF DEMOCRACY UNDER WAY

XXIX., No. 33.

Dr. Hugh Dobson Gives Thought-Provoking Address at Gyro Club Luncheon

Democracy, the principles of hich as against those of totalitarnism in the opinion of many contute the issue of the present war. Il be put through a severe test nd will have to stand all manner attack from every standpoint if it to survive, declared Rev. Dr. Righ Dobson, associate secretary of Europe. Indeed, most of midprope did not yet know what deocracy was. It had had its fullest velopment in North America. th democracy had arisen a rugd individualism and now had balance between individualism and society. This problem of indidualism vs. society was one of fred. There were certain inaliene rights which man should have a person. Yet these individual mereste must be compatible with that of the community. There were to the problems of authority vs. meedom, city vs. country, east vs. est, functions vs. vocations. The eology of the family with its displine, mutuality and affection Dr. bbson saw as an important preept which might be followed in uman and economic adjustments hich might come after the presat war, making of the world tter place than it had ever been

A Modern Paradox

Speaking of the international sitation today, Dr. Dobson saw paraox in the fact of the mind of manity never being more opposed war than it was at present, yet ere was never more war.

Dr. Dobson quoted from Walter appmann, noted New York editor, the had said that "what separates from the totalitarian regimes ar belief that man does not beong to the state" but "to his creor and that, since he is, therefore, an immortal soul, he possesses alienable rights as a person which power on earth has the right to The decay of decency in e modern age, the rebellion sainst law and good faith, the eatment of human beings as wer and ambition is without a Coal Laden Nazi ower and ambition, is without a bubt the consequence of the dey of the belief in a man as some- Freighter ing more than animal animated highly conditioned reflexes and Out Of Rio Port chemical reactions. EDUCATIONAL AND PERSONAL SERVICE APPEAL

Never has there been such an opportunity to invest in the future manhood of Canada. This is not charityit is a great undertaking to develop character and citizenship, and to give our soldiers a leg up the ladder of success when the war is over. Give generously to this great new much-needed cause - the drive commences next Monday.
