ACTION OF FRANCE

Discussing the rightness or unrightness of the action of France in signing a treaty which gives a great, deal of its country to Germany, at a time when they had! made a solemn pledge not to make a separate peace, is of little interest. It is satisfactory to know that a great many French people do not think it correct and are not complying with the order of the government. The terms, have been accepted by the government and will go into force. Now we have to fight alone with such remnants of! the French forces as remain true to their pledge. Time will tell how large this remnant is.

The painful part of the whole business is the apparquor Control Board or by the Government of British Columbia ent treachery of Premier Petain in giving the British a solemn promise that the French navy would never fall into German hands and then turning the fleet over deliberately to the enemy. It makes one wonder if it is possible to put faith in anyone.

Piano Pupils Of Miss Margaret McCaffery And Miss Jean Mc-Lean Acquit Themselves To Good Advantage

Before a large gathering of admiring parents and friends, some forty of the piano students of Miss Margaret McCaffery and Miss Jean McLean were heard to excellent advantage in a splendid term closing recital at Annunciation Hall last night. That the pupils, had been making excellent progress in their musical studies was amply demonstrated. Some twenty of the students who took part had just completed their first year.

Speaking briefly at the close of the program, Miss McCaffery announced that she was leaving Prince Rupert before next term but had made arrangements for Columbia presents the new Miss Ruth Nelson to return here from Victoria to take over her, classes with which Miss Jean Mc-Lean would continue to be identi-

Mickey Rooney Portrays Famous Inventor as Boy in Interesting Picture

Portraying his first real life char acter, Mickey Rooney plays th title role in "Young Tom Edison" which is the feature picture on the Boston screen of the Capitol Theatre for Detroit the first half of this week. Teamed New York with him is another popular juven- St. Louis ile star, Virginia Weidler, who plays Chicago the part of his sister. Also in stel- Philadelphia lar roles are Fay Bainter as Mrs. Washington Edison and George Bencroft as the father. Other well known members of the cast are Eugene Pallette, Victor Kilian, Bobbie Jordan, J. M. Kerrigan and Lloyd Corrigan.

The story, with intense humaninterest value, covers only the boyhood of the famous inventor's life. It is replete with comedy, drama, tears, thrills and adventure, delineating the triumph of a typical boy who had to show his home folks that he was not the numbskull they thought him to be.

Many of the bona fide incidents of young Edison's early life are said to be accurately depicted.
