FFORTS TO BE REDOUBLED TO HELP FRANCE IN ITS EXTREMITY-WILL NOT RECOGNIZE CONQUESTS

WASHINGTON, D.C., June 15: (CP) President Franklin D. Roosevelt assured France this afternoon that United States would "redouble its efforts" to send planes and munitions to the Allies as long as France continued "in defence of their liberties." The President added that the assurance carried with it "no implication of military commitments." He said that the United States would not recognize "results of conquest of territory acquired through military aggression."

The message was in response to an appeal for aid from Premier Paul Reynaud France.

LONDON, June 15: (CP)-The Admiralty announces that H.M.S. Calypso, an anti-aircraft cruiser of 4180 tons, was sunk in the Mediterranean by an Italian submarine. One officer and thirtyeight men are missing and feared lost.

Enemy mines have also sunk two armed trawlers, Myrtle and Ocean Sunlight, in home waters. The Admiralty fears there are no survivors from the Myrtle while eight men are missing from the Ocean Sunlight.

cast our minds ahead, Italy's entrance into the war, of cource, obtrudes many implications. Until the new scene of operations has begun to unfold it would be pointless to speculate. We know, however, that Il Duce's declaration has not surprised the Allies. It will go down in history as the most intensely-pressagented national policy of this age. But it creates another extensive front. In this, however, Italy may discover greater difficulties for herself than are apparent at the moment. For the time being, therefore, we must keep our chins up and our hearts stout. The brutes are having their innings. Our turn will come. Italy's conscience then will not be as "perfectly tranquil" as Mussolini says it is.
