Italian Forces Are Now Massing

Norway To Negotiate For Peace

Allied Forces Have Withdrawn Entirely From Trondheim

Embarkation From Namsos Follows That From Andalsnes, Leaving Narvik Only Point Now Where British Still Have Troops

STOCKHOLM, May 3: (CP)— Dispatches from Grong, Norway, said that the Norwegian command had announced conclusion of hostilities in the Grong area east of Namsos and the Norwegians' intention of negotiating peace with the Germans. Dispatches said that a Norwegian order of the day told the troops that "further fighting would lead to destruction without serving military purpose." This announcement followed a report earlier in the day that Norway would continue to resist the Germans to the fullest extent of its ability in spite of the withdrawal of the Allies from the Trondheim area. It had reportedly been made clear that the government of King Haakon would not alter its decision on action in defence of Norway against the Germans. The Norwegian authorities had expressed some disappointment at the withdrawal of the Allies. It was denied that King Haakon and the government had left the country, reports to this effect being refuted.

Novel Plan Of Storage

KELOWNA, May 3: (CP)— A novel cold storage plant is planned for this district. A packing concern is asking the city council for permission to bore a tunnel into a mountain in which twenty-nine carloads of fruit could be stored at one time. In return the company would supply the city with rock.

Yugoslavia Indicates What It Thinks Of Assurances Of Hitler And Mussolini

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, May 3:—Despite the assurances of Germany and Italy that the Balkans have no need to fear aggression against them, Yugoslavia yesterday called up 100,000 reservists of the 1919 class for immediate service. This brings a total of 500,000 men under arms in Yugoslavia.

Indian Department Takes Over Effects Of Georgia River Gold For Rental

Goods and chattels of the Helena Gold Mines Ltd. (formerly Georgia River Gold Mines Ltd.) on the Georgia River Indian reservation on Portland Canal have been seized by the Department of Indian Affairs for rentals. They will be sold by the Department. There was once an extensive mining operation at Georgia River and the goods and chattels are considerable. Some are already here.

GAS WAR BRITAIN IS OVER IS SAFE

Settlement Reached Between Government And Companies On Basis Of 1c Reduction Allies Are Not On Run Despite Withdrawal From Norway, Says Hamilton—Sees Danube Next

VICTORIA, May 3: (CP)— A compromise settlement was reached last night between the government and the oil companies in the dispute regarding the price of gasoline in British Columbia. A reduction of 3c instead of 4c per gallon was agreed upon and supplies started moving at once from the oil companies to the retailers on a basic price of 25c retail for white gas in Vancouver, the wholesale price being 21c instead of 24c as formerly.

Premier T. D. Pattullo stated that, despite the settlement, the special session of the Legislature called for next week would be proceeded with.

The gasoline price in Prince Rupert today is 27c and 29c as compared with 30c and 32c before the fuel board's original order. Oil companies are again supplying local retailers.

WITHDREW IN ORDER

Evacuation Of Andalsnes By Allied Forces Successfully Concluded

LONDON, May 3: (CP)— A War Office communique tonight said that "Allied forces which have been carrying out delaying operations south of Trondheim during the past few days have, after repulsing many enemy attacks, been withdrawn in the face of ever-increasing enemy strength." The troops embarked at Andalsnes and other ports in the area without losing a man in spite of German air attacks.

Allied operations are continuing in the Narvik area.

There is nothing to report from Namsos, north of Trondheim, the communique said.

ORDERED TO QUIT ITALY

British Ships Told To Proceed Home—Dutch Destroyer Also Leaves

LONDON, May 3: (CP)—In line with one move to keep decks clear for action in the Mediterranean if necessary, all British ships anchored in Genoa Harbor were ordered last night to sail immediately for Great Britain via the Suez Canal. A Dutch destroyer at Genoa also received orders from Netherlands authorities to proceed immediately to Dutch territorial waters, sailing tonight. A complete black-out in Malta commenced tonight and will continue indefinitely.

Artillery Fire On West Front

Otherwise Situation Is Quiet In That Area Of War

PARIS, May 3:—There was some artillery fire on the western front during the night but otherwise it was quiet.

The war would not be won or lost in Norway, Sir Ian said. This was but one phase of a many-sided issue.

Hitler's next drive would probably be along the Danube but that would compel him to reduce his strength on the western front. Although it might be bloody and costly, this would give the Allies a good chance to break through the Siegfried Line into Germany.

Allied armies already in the Near East were capable of taking care of the situation there, Sir Ian believed.

'CANADA' IN PARIS CLUB

Lady Guggisberg's Place in Paris Again Open to Soldiers

PARIS, May 3: (CP)—The swing doors of the "Leave Club" pushed open and three Englishmen in aviation blue stepped out.

The old paperwoman gossiping at the corner with a seller of lemons and chestnuts stopped and stared a moment before saying confidentially, "Heavens, but they're well-dressed, those English."

For a Frenchwoman, even if she is poor, shapeless and 70, retains a critical eye for a good line—and the flying officers who passed were unconscious of the thrill they had given a couple of grey-headed women.

The moving spirit of the club, as during the First Great War, is Lady Guggisberg—wife of Sir Gordon Guggisberg, who was governor and commander-in-chief of the Gold Coast. Lady Guggisberg, formerly a well known actress, founder of innumerable women's services during the last war, will be remembered among the Canadian returned men as Miss Decima Moore. She is still Miss Moore to the troops and today she welcomes to the Leave Club the son of many a soldier who stayed there 23 years ago.

Dodecanese Islands Are Scene Of Massing Of Il Duce's Might; British Fleet Is At Alexandria

Situation in Mediterranean is Extremely Tense and Important Developments There Are Being Awaited Hourly

ATHENS, May 3: (CP)—Information reaching diplomatic quarters here said that Italian troops, warships and planes were being concentrated in large numbers in the Dodecanese Islands in the eastern Mediterranean, 400 miles northwest of Alexandria. British naval forces have arrived at Alexandria.

The situation in the Mediterranean is extremely tense and the general feeling is that there may be fast-moving developments.

GUARDING DEBTORS

Ontario Legislature Committee To Consider Proposal

TORONTO, May 3: (CP)—Machinery for voluntary application to division courts by debtors who want to get rid of financial burdens without pressure is among proposals to be considered by the Ontario Legislature committee considering administration of justice when sittings are resumed September 9.

The committee's activities were suspended this month for completion of evidence after several sittings. Early resumption was blocked by the fact that C. R. Magone of the provincial attorney-general's department, solicitor to the committee, must appear before the Privy Council in London soon.

Before the recess, however, the committee heard a fund of submissions on the proposal by Fred Barlow, master of the Supreme Court, that grand juries be abolished. Also under discussion were the workings of division courts and the expenses of judicial officials.

Most of the evidence sprang from Mr. Barlow's report last year to Attorney-General Gordon Conant on administration of justice. But others brought new angles to the attention of the committee empowered to deal with the report and with the entire set-up of justice administration.

Debtors' Protection

Among the new recommendations were those of F. A. Matatall, manager of the Ottawa Credit Exchange and president of the Associated Credit Bureaux of Canada, who suggested some procedure whereby debtors might apply to the division court for relief, turning over to the court the excess of earnings over living expenses and arranging with the court for distribution of this excess to creditors. The debtor automatically would be protected from further action by his creditors.

Mr. Matatall further recommended, for the relief of creditors, consistently unable to collect debts, that court orders under a judgment summons carry automatic committal to jail for three days if not obeyed. The legislation would be aimed, he said, at those who know and deliberately evade the provisions of the Division Court Act.

He pointed out that committal orders for as much as seven of 10 days already are given in division courts. He said he sought only "uniformity of practice among the judges under the authority already conferred on them by the existing law."

Apparently Ready To Wait For Government's Explanation In Regard To Norway

LONDON, May 3:—The general attitude in Great Britain in regard to the Norwegian situation now appears to be to wait and hear what the government has to say next week. That there will be frank talk in Parliament goes without saying and it appears to be conceded that Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain will have to put up a convincing argument if he is to survive politically.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer today stated that, when all the circumstances were known, the British people would realize that in the withdrawal from Norway the British had taken the proper course.

In France and United States the reaction appears to be that the withdrawal from Norway was the only thing that could be sensibly done in view of the strength of the enemy and that great courage was required to make the decision.

President Roosevelt Trying To Prevent Spread Of War To Southern Europe

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 3:—President Franklin D. Roosevelt today officially confirmed the fact that United States was striving by diplomatic means to prevent the spread of the European war to the Mediterranean. There had been conversations with representatives of various nations concerned but the President, apart from declaring that he was "doing everything he could," declined to discuss details of his efforts.

Meantime it is reported that Italy and the United States have agreed to maintain close and constant contact in regard to the European situation and the political and economic implications involved.

It was stated today that there was no basis for reports of earlier in the week that either Premier Benito Mussolini or Foreign Secretary Count Ciano of Italy had given any undertaking to United States Ambassador William Phillips as to Italy's foreign policy in the immediate future.

Meantime dispatches from Italy said that authoritative quarters there declared that there was no intention on the part of Italy to change in the immediate future her policy as a non-belligerent ally of Germany.

BAR GOLD

LONDON, (CP)—The Montreal price of bar gold on the London market was unchanged today at $37.54 per fine ounce.

MINIMUM OF DISPUTES

R. G. Casey, Australian minister to the United States, addressing the Economic Club of New York recently, is reported to have said:

"We have evolved certain government instrumentalities in Australia that I find are of some little interest to people in this country. I speak in particular of our methods of avoiding disputes between employers and employees by our Federal Court of Arbitration for the fixation of the hours, conditions and wages of labor in various industries. Practically all workers in Australia, outside of rural workers, are subject to the awards of the Federal Arbitration Court or of State Industrial Tribunals. We have had this system in actual operation for over a generation and it is now an essential part of our national life. By reason of its operation, we have a minimum of industrial disputes and the social disturbance that inevitably accompanies such disputes.

"Out of a total population of seven millions, over 3 millions carry life insurance of an average value of about $500. Two-thirds of the whole population, men, women and children, have savings bank accounts, each of an average of about $1,000. In addition, one-third of the families in Australia own their own homes or are in process of paying for them.

"Although we are a 'new' country, we have a degree of stability, political, financial and industrial, that is not common in the world. The facts and the figures that I have just given you no doubt have some bearing on this."

BRITISH COLUMBIA STABILITY

The instability of the province of Alberta is becoming a by-word in the financial world. Hitherto British Columbia has been considered fairly stable but the recent disappearance of the Conservative party as a political factor of importance and its replacement as the opposition by a group that openly declares it will, if it gets the chance, upset our present system and replace it with something that has never been tried elsewhere, makes people with money nervous of investing in the province. It indicates a lack of stability which must be reckoned with in the future.

WARTIME ECONOMY

Most sections of the British Empire are changing over from a peace time economy to a wartime economy. Canada has been a little slow in moving in this direction, but it is being done gradually so as to make as little disturbance as possible to the body politic. We find today that we cannot send any large sums of money out of the country, that our taxes are increasing, that it is increasingly difficult to communicate with foreign countries, that while prices of some articles are advancing prices of others are down. On the whole there is a slight increase in the cost of living. Possibly, within the next six months there will be many other evidences of the fact that we are at war. As it is, very few people are suffering any inconvenience. Some are profiting, among these being hundreds who have found profitable employment. However, we must expect to find more government control and less freedom of speech and action as the war proceeds and the conflict becomes more intense.

Barratt that "We will fly wing-tip to wing-tip with our French Ally," R.A.F. pilots are shown here cordially greeting French pilots, dressed in flying kit, when they recently paid a courtesy visit to an English air base in France. Air Marshal Barratt was recently appointed O.C. of the British Air Force in France.

KEEPING HEALTHY

Surgeon Warning of Streptococci During Wartime

LONDON, May 3: (CP)—A grim warning of the dangers of streptococcal germs in wartime is sounded by J. D. Hindley-Smith, noted London surgeon.

He contends there is ample evidence to show the severity of the streptococcal complications in an influenza epidemic is proportionately related to the general vitality of the community at the time.

As to the effects of a war of attrition on infective disease, Hindley-Smith warns: "Unless events in Europe take a surprising turn for the better, which at present they show no sign of doing, we stand to lose incalculable value in man-power and material through the agency of the streptococcus, unless precautionary measures are undertaken to restrict the activities of this organization while it lies comparatively dormant within its potential victim."

Urging immunotherapy for the streptococcal subject, he claims "not only may we hope by such measures, adopted on a sufficient scale, to rob influenza and similar epidemic infections of their dangerous complications, but we may expect to reduce enormously the incidence of such streptococcal conditions as septic sore throat, bronchitis, broncho-pneumonia, streptococcal fever, streptococcal infection of wounds and not the least among them, certain forms of rheumatism."

The Germans are grossly exaggerating war victories. The Russians are resisting strongly and scoring successes at various points. The Allies are sweeping up Gallipoli, it is reported today.

Newton; President, S. A. Corley; Vice-President, Fred Stork; Secretary Treasurer, W. D. Vanee; Manager, James McAlenan.

Canadians' Romances Makes Brisk Marriage Business Brisk in Old Land

LONDON, May 3: (CP)—Many Canadians here with the C.A.S.F., the R.A.F. and R.C.A.F. took a trip straight to Romance when they crossed the Atlantic to serve the Empire.

Scores of them have become engaged to English girls they met when on leave; others were followed here by their sweethearts and several marriages have already taken place in various parts of the Island.

One marriage that has been arranged for some time in April will be between Private Walter D. MacDougall, Royal Canadian Regiment, and Marjorie Rose, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Stag, of the Feathers Hotel, Basingstoke, which is just a few miles from the C.A.S.F. camp at Aldershot.

The engagement is also announced of Captain Donald MacLeod, R.C.A.M.C., eldest son of the Rev. Duncan MacLeod, of Toronto (late of Formosa) and Alison Stuart, third daughter of Dr. Alex Wood, of Emmanuel College, Cambridge and Mrs. Wood.

Marriage Business Brisk in Old Scotland Since War Started

EDINBURGH, May 3: (CP)—Outbreak of war, sent Scottish lads and their lassies marching "through the Rye" to the marrying ministers, according to preliminary vital statistics issued by the registrar-general for Scotland. The third quarter of 1939, which included September, showed a marriage rate of 124 per thousand—a figure higher than the post-war boom of 1919-20. Number of marriages was double that of the first quarter. Altogether there were 46,257 marriages during the year.

Birth rate for the year slumped to 17.4 per thousand, lowest in Scottish registration history. There were 86,899 births. The death rate of 12.9 per thousand was lowest of any year but 1938. Deaths recorded totalled 64,413.

HAVE LONELY JOBS ON THE WESTERN FRONT

Perhaps the most lonely job on the Western Front, is that of the Royal Artillery Battery telephonist, right, who sits alone with his improvised instrument stand and advises the battery, in technical parlance, on how near or far it is coming to its target. The French poilu, left, is another of the front's lonely men. He is stationed high in a tree and cautiously scans the countryside for signs of enemy activity.

German Women Stripped Home

Women in South Africa They Tried Sabotage and Became "Nazi Nuisances"

CAPE TOWN, May 3: (CP)—South Africa is sending Hitler 20 mouths to feed—the women saboteurs and stewardesses that ashore from the German liner Waitussi, scuttled by her crew off Cape Point in December.

The men brought off the ship were interned but the women were allowed to live with friends in Cape Town under the supervision of the control authorities. They repaid this privilege by subversive acts which aroused widespread indignation. The culmination act of one of the women was an attempt to set fire to the collection box for the Lord Mayor's National Fund. The authorities ordered the women to be expelled as "Nazi Nuisances."

An opportunity was found to ship them in a Dutch liner, the Union government paying their fares. They will be taken to the frontier of Holland and handed over to the German authorities.

Parasols Mark Of Royal Trip

Or Perhaps Just General Trend of Fashion Ideas For This Year

NEW YORK, May 3: (CP)—Parasols are coming back with summer fashions in the greatest numbers since the 90's, style scouts in the fashion mart report.

In Manhattan's largest shops they are hailed as "tremendous news" and are being shown in gayer designs and fabrics than the 90's ever knew.

What's behind the parasol parade nobody seems to know. Some lay it to the influence of Queen Elizabeth's visit to Canada and the United States last summer. Others say it's just part of the general trend.

THEY'RE THE TALK OF THE TOWN
The New CONGOLEUM Patterns!

NAN: "What's the attraction down there?"

ANN: "It's that Congoleum dealer's window—he has a display of the newest Congoleum patterns, and believe me, they're the talk of the town!"

NAN: "My apartment looks positively shabby this spring... wonder if I could spare enough from the budget to get one..."

ANN: "My dear! You could probably manage two or three at Congoleum's low prices. I have them in every room, you know!"

NAN: "Your floors always look lovely!"

ANN: "Well, they're absolutely no trouble to keep clean. Regular mopping and occasional waxing are all that's necessary, and they wear for ages and ages. They don't have to be tacked down and they won't curl at the edges. But you do want to be sure to get genuine Congoleum—there's a Gold Seal of Satisfaction on every rug. And by the way, there are scatter rugs and by-the-ways that are just as lovely as the big rugs. Do run down and see all the grand new colourings and smart, modern patterns!"

The Gold Seal on all genuine Congoleum is your guarantee of satisfaction and long wear. Ask your dealer for the new Congoleum booklet on housefurnishings (it's free) or write to:

WAR HITS HOUSEHOLD

French Edicts Boosts Good Old English Custom Of Cold Baths; Furnaces On Strict Summer Blackout.

By GLADYS M. ARNOLD Canadian Press Correspondent PARIS, May 3: (CP)—For many a year now the French, especially the cartoonists—have poked a bit of sly fun at the cold bath weakness—or strength—of the English. Now it's the Englishman's turn to smile and his French friend is no doubt wishing he had cultivated the taste in his own youth, it would make things easier today. According to the latest French government restriction for four days a week we are to have no more hot water.

"All distribution of hot water for domestic use, whatever the source of energy used for its heating, coal, gas, oil or electricity, must be interrupted four consecutive days each week in winter as well as summer," it reads pitilessly. "All establishments, public baths, Turkish; other vapor baths, all public or private swimming pools must be closed three days a week summer and winter."

Special regulations have been set up for hospitals, restaurants, cafes and hotels, but in these cases again it is allowed only for kitchen use in the preparation of meals. It is expected that this law will result in a great national economy of fuel, especially coal, not to mention the saving in soap and water by those who refuse in spite of everything to adopt the cold bath habit.

Heat Off Till October 15 Since April 1 there has been no more heat in the houses, hotels, apartments, theatres, or indeed any public buildings. Fires were allowed to go out and it is forbidden to light furnaces before October 15. Coal rationing is being organized and though not yet distributed, the cards are prepared. It has been decided that the amount allowed each family or collective will not depend on the number of rooms to heat, but the persons occupying the rooms. For three persons the allowance is 800 kilograms (about 1,700 lbs.) of coal a year for heating purposes.

Two Members Of Rotary Club Tell Something Of Past

Sergeant C. F. Jacklin gave the members of the Prince Rupert Rotary Club yesterday afternoon a brief sketch of his life, commencing at Hamilton, Ontario, where he was born, and including a short period of farming on the prairies, several years in Europe where he was a machine gunner in the war and finally a period of fifteen years in the provincial police, first at Victoria and until he came here, at Nanaimo.

George Eckerman, another new member of the club, moved into Oregon State when quite young in a vehicle drawn by an ox team. He remained on the homestead long enough to get webbed feet which was a good preparation for life in Prince Rupert. There he learned to ride for cattle and at 14, after his father died, went to school and worked at home evenings. A good many years ago he came to Prince Rupert and took a position in Lynch Bros. store. Since then he had moved away three times, once to Smithers, and each time had returned. Now he hoped to remain in Prince Rupert.

R. G. Honkins presided over yesterday's luncheon in the absence of the president, Peter Laskie.

WASHINGTON, May 3: (CP)—Frances Nash, the concert pianist who plays with nearly all the important symphony orchestras in the United States, "hates opera."

In her opinion, what grand opera needs is a shot in the arm, something like "Porgy and Bess," the late George Gershwin's portrayal of American folk lore.

Miss Nash, however, thinks her critical attitude, "from the popular viewpoint" must be wrong.

Queen Charlotte Girls In Play

C.G.I.T. Stages Delightful Entertainment Recently

QUEEN CHARLOTTE CITY, May 3.— Friends and relatives of members of the Canadian Girls in Training group here spent a very enjoyable evening at the United Church hall recently when they were the guests of the girls.

The chairman, Reverend Basil Hartley, opened the program with a few words of welcome to the audience and a short devotional period followed. Mrs. Hartley, who organized the group last fall, gave a short talk on the aims and achievements of the C.G.I.T. The speaker emphasized the fact that, in these days of unrest and worldly strife, it was necessary to give young people the right start and to teach them brotherly love and to follow in Christ's footsteps. She also stressed the more practical though none the less important side of the work that of teaching handicrafts and arts to the group and ended by thanking friends for past help and appealing to them for advice on how to better this service to the young girls. A play, based on life in India and entitled "The Courage of Protima," was then presented by the girls, assisted by Mr. Hartley. In the cast were the Misses Beth Rudge, Jean Carmichael, Margaret Bruce, Lily Kirby, Margaret Mathers, Georgia Neubauer, Linta Bruce, Elsie Bruce, Lou Bruce and Mr. Hartley. This play was in four scenes and was much enjoyed by the audience which particularly admired the colorful and cleverly contrived costumes.

Two songs by members of the group followed. The first, "Ten Little Nigger Boys," was done in blackface and was quite a novelty. The second was "Three Little Pigs" and greatly amused the junior members of the audience.

A solemn and beautiful candle lighting ceremony followed this part of the program. The girls and their leader, natty in spotless white middie blouses and navy pleated skirts lit the symbolic candles and standing at attention repeated the "purpose" of the C.G.I.T.

It being the twenty-fifth anniversary of the movement, a large birthday cake, lighted by twenty-five pink candles, was in a place of honor. With the serving of refreshments all present received a piece of it.

Farewell Party Given At Massett

MASSETT, May 3.— A farewell party was given on Monday night by the New Massett Community Club in their hall to bid goodbye to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carpenter of the Rose Spit Ranch who are leaving to take up farming near Vanderhoof.

Dancing from nine until one o'clock with cards for non-dancers and ample refreshments for all, made a most enjoyable evening.

During the supper hour Rev. A. Abraham made a happy speech, expressing the sincere good wishes of neighbors and friends also referring to the hospitality of the Carpenter ranch, especially to ship wrecked mariners. Charlie Carpenter has been on the Queen Charlottes since early boyhood and has for years run quite a herd of cattle near the "Spit." Mrs. Carpenter (Nee Kathleen Dunn) came to Massett from England some seventeen years ago with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Dunn. She is well known in Prince Rupert, having been in the office of Rose, Cowan and Latta for some time and prior to that with the Daily News.

Now that the Carpenters are raising a family as well as other things, they find the school problem compell them to seek some district where schools are nearer than twenty-five miles as at present so

Norman McKenzie, of the Extension Department of the University of British Columbia is visiting the Islands supervising the organization of the various Credit Unions being formed here. He visited Massett, Port Clements and Lawn Hill during the week of April 22-27, arriving at Queen Charlotte City on Sunday, April 28. At a joint meeting of the board of directors and the credit and supervisory committees of the Skidegate Inlet Credit Union held at the home of Oscar Hill, Mr. McKenzie heard reports, answered questions of the executives and introduced those concerned to the book-keeping system to be used. He hoped that a general meeting could be arranged while he was in town but it depended on the arrival of the northbound steamer, due here Monday, and which Mr. McKenzie intended to catch enroute to Prince Rupert.
