BRITAIN MAKING GOOD

DON-Prime Minister Winston Churchill told a cheermmons today that it would not be surprising Italian divisions, trapped in the Western sisted or Blagg Cilessly attacked by land, sea losed. Capture of Sidi Barrani, Mr. Churchill said, had re ed anxiety in regard to the detence of Egypt and had made good the British guarantee of protection for that country.

HEAVY RAIDS RESUMED

LONDON-Birmingham was subjected to another heavy raid by Nazi bombing planes last night. Anti-aircraft fire kept the German planes so high that they had to drop their bombs indiscriminate of targets. Six churches, eleven schools and two moving picture theatres were among the buildings struck. While there was considerable damage, casualties were not regarded as heavy considering the intensity of the attack. London was kept under alarm for fourteen hours during the night, the most intense part of the attack being the first hour, the bombing later becoming of desultory character. The German raids were widespread over northwest and southwest England, the Midlands, East Anglia and Wales.

CONTINUE ALBANIAN RETREAT

ATHENS-The Italian retreat in Albania continues general with the Greeks advancing northward along the Adriatic coast and over the snowladen mountains in the interior.

RHEIN IS CAPTURED

NEW YORK-It is reported here that the German freighter Rhein has been captured by a Dutch cruiser southwest of Cuba.

GERMANY IS BOMBED

LONDON-High explosives and incendiaries were dropped by the Royal Air Force on a power station at Mannheim, Germany, the main objective of last night's raids on Germany. Fire broke out and was still raging when the last planes turned homeward. The Royal Air Force also bombed Parazzo and Tirana in Albania last night.

BADOGLIO BLAMED

ROME-A prominent Italian editor places the blame for the failure of the Italian campaign against Greece squarely on the shoulders of Marshal Badoglio who was asked for his resignation as Italian chief of staff. There is serious discord in high Italian circles over the Albanian situation and the defeat in Egypt is not helping the situation.

CANNON PLANE USED

LONDON-A cannon-bearing fighting plane has been used for the first time in the war against German aircraft, it is officially announced. Scientists are still working on an effective means of dealing with night bombers and are hopeful of eventual success.

The Salvation Army Christmas Cheer campaign opened yesterday when Mrs. Windle of Dodge Cove sent in a donation of three dollars. Salvation Army officers say that while there are not as many in need this year as usual, there are a number elderly people and families where the earning head is ill. In these cases Christmas will be a cheerless season without the help of those who have money to spare. Already the officials of the organization are in touch with several families that are badly in need of help and many others will be found before the season is over.

FINAL BULLETINS

LORD LOTHIAN DIES

WASHINGTON-The Marquis of Lothian, British ambassador to United States, died unexpectedly at 3 o'clock this morning after an illness of three days. Uremic poisoning was the cause of death. His death occurred at the embassy. Lord Lothian was 58 years of age and had been ambassador since August 1939 when he succeeded Sir Ronald Lindsay. He was secretary to David Lloyd-George when he was wartime Prime Minister of Great Britain and wrote many sections of Versailles Treaty.

> MAYOR TELFORD DEFEATED VANCOUVER-Vancouver has a new mayor. . He is J. W.

Cornett, former reeve of South Vancouver and alderman, who defeated Mayor Lyle Telford by a majority of 3961 in a total vote of 35,761, the smallest in some time, at the civic election yesterday. Non-Partizan candidates made almost a clean sweep of civic offices in the election, carrying all of the fourteen posts in contest but one. The only successful C.C.F. candidate was Arnold Webster who was elected to the Parks Board. Mayor Telford announces that he will ask for the appointment of an acting mayor at the next meeting of the city council so he may take a brief vacation before resuming the practice of medicine.

DUCHESS DOING WELL

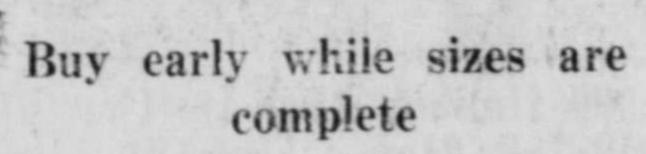

MIAMI-The Duchess of Windsor, following her dental operation, is doing splendidly although it will be a couple of days before all danger of complications is removed. She had an excellent night, her doctor reported today, and was feeling most cheerful this morning following a sound sleep under light sedatives. Edward was up in good time and spent a large part of the morning chatting with Wallis. Later the former King visited Axel Wennergren aboard the yacht Southern Cross.

Mental Readjustments - - -

The war is forcing many people to make mental readjustments. The London Times is the latest to indulge in heart-searching on the subject of economic changes. In a recent article it draws attention to the fact that Nazi Germany succeeded in putting millions of men to work and in huilding up the most formidable fighting machine in history by following policies which led all financial authorities in Britain to predict that Hitler would be bankrupt years ago. This expectation, says The Times, "obstinately, refused to be realized."

It then goes on to point out various developments that have occurred in the economic system during recent years enating new conditions, and says: "These changes may well call for readjustments in our established conventions as drastic as those which are demanded in the conduct of war by the invention of tanks and airplanes. In military matters up to a few months; ago, the French General Staff enjoyed a prestige similar to that of our own authorities in finance and business. Interesting Address Before Prince Rupert Little Theatre Last

The Prince Rupert Little Theatre at its general meeting in the Japanese Mission Hall last evening heard an interesting talk by Lieut--Colonel J. J. Burton-Willison, D.D. S. & T.O., a member of the executive of the Dominion Drama Festival for eight years and well known in Little Theatre movements in the south.

In his remarks to the members Lieut.-Colonel Burton-Willison stated that the local organization had stared on the right track and should carry on as anyone who was interested in dramatics not only helped the organization but also helped himself. The test of he real actor was his aiblity to play before an unsympathetic audience. The speaker stressed the high standard of talent displayed at the drama festivals. In most cases the quality of production was high above the average stock company. His remarks ended with the statement that not always was the actor the most important person in a play but the people behind the scenes, although not observed, often were responsible for success.

led even though the board and the clubs might not always see eye to Speaking of the local bird season, Mr. Cunningham said that the board was not satisfied that a flater season, as urged by the local club, would provide better hunting The board, however, was not greatly concerned which two and a half months of the year was used for bird hunting.

Stating that there were 40,000 licensed hunters in British Columbia, Mr. Cunningham stated that 1939 had been the greatest game revenue year on record. Due to better times revenues had increased over 50,000. Even this year was $20,000 ahead of last in licences. There had also been a decided increase this year in all kinds of game. As a result of an advertising campaign, the tourist traffic was increasing and there had been over 4900 inquiries. Due to new restrictions which had been imposed on firearms in the hands of tourists, there had been cancellations in tourist bookings out this had been rectified to some extent by later revisions.
