ELECTORS DO YOUR DUTY:---The issue is now plainly before you. You must certainly understand the difference between the Liberal and Conservative Policies. A vote for ALEX. M. MANSON spells: End of Ring Rule, Bossism and Intimidation. Magnificent. There is only one word to describe the stirring meeting held in the Empress Theatre last night for Alex. Manson. MAN TO VOTE FOR

One candidate amongst the four in the present campaign has battled straight, fearless and firm, absolutely immune from the sort of criticism which has been directed against others. That candidate is Alex. M. Manson. Alex.

Manson's reputation is clear cut and clean, the reputation in business and in the political arena of an honest, fearless fighter, a real champion of the rights of the people of sanship of the most hide-bound type, Alex. Manson stands out himself as singularly free from any kind of clogging slavish partisanship of that kind. He is a Liberal in the of the most strenuous and remarkable campaigns ever fought in Skeena Riding. Coming with all the fire of youth, with undoubted ability and with indefatigable energy into the battle almost at the last moment, Alex.

Manson has waged a splendid, stirring fight—a fight which that of the crafty politician of the old school, of which

William Manson, his opponent, is a member, Alex. Man-time and again in the contest. He has waged the battle theory put out by small-spirited and meanly-poised minds that Prince Rupert dares not assert herself and her needs through an opposition member, however abler he be than the servile William Manson. Only the meanest meet miserably self-interested of ring clingers could enunciate so through a member in opposition t othe McBride Two-Man Rule. The fight for Prince Rupert's rights through a strong member opposed to a government which is defrauding the rising city of those rights, will redound to the credit of Prince Rupert as a city of the free, not a city of slavish

That he won their votes, too, as well as their hearts is a certainty. When he said so quietly:

"I think I have a fair, even a good, chance of election tomorrow," there went up from that crowded house such a burst of enthusiasm as the Empress Theatre has never before experienced. It was magnificent. There is no other word for it. Alexander Manson's reception by a Prince Rupert audience differs from that of William Manson, the spineless, as broad daylight from darkest night. Alex. Manson the people want to hear. William Manson they have clearly done with.

CLEAR CUT, CLEAN POLITICS THE INDICTMENT FINEST VAUDEVILLE SHOW

OF WM. MANSON AND McBRIDE GOVERNMENT

Facts for Every Intelligent Voter to Take With Him to the Poll Today---Every One of Them a Nail in the Political Coffin of William Manson

The national life of the -egislature has been cut short by almost one half without a reason. Strong suspic on is raised that a snap verdict is desired to conceal something the public should know or to entrench the Government for a longer term in order that some new unpopular and repulsive deal may be forced through with greater safety, viz: a new Canadian Northern deal.

The appeal is not an appeal. Neither Mr. McBride nor the candidate can poss bly within 30 days of the dissolution place the facts and issues before all the people. Some will know nothing of the campaign or the candidates until they see the ballot box. The Government is making a farce of the poll such as has been made in no other province. There is something to conceal. The Government hastened dissolution without redistribution though the population has doubled in the last ten years. Adequate representation, particularly of the north, has been thus prevented. All British precedents have been reversed in this. Haste was uncalled for. Suspicion grows into conviction that haste was not in the public interest but against it. The appropriations for the year have not been distributed. Open threats are made that fair treatment in the matter will only be given to the localities supporting the government candidate. Freedom and democracy are at stake. The applications of twenty or thirty for licenses throughout the riding are held pending until the election is decided. The applicants must bow to the club or lose all chance of successpolitical inquisition is upon us with a vengeance.

WILLIAM MANSON.

An accountant, fairly educated, a man who well knows good from evil and right from wrong. But alas, a man who has been tried and found sadly wanting in the constituency of Alberni, where he was defeated as provincial secretary. In Rupert in 1910 when he failed as our member to procure consideration for our charter. In Rupert when he bribed a portion of the electorate with the promise of a higher wage on the eve of an election. In Rupert when he dallied with both sides in a strike and when, as was said by the Judge of the Supreme Court, he "was woefully dilatory and negligent in his duty as the civil magistrate of the city" in not adequately co-operating with those who sought to maintain order and peace when matters reached a climax. And in one short month he lost the entire respect of the citizens (laborers and contractors alike) by not playing the man.

In Rupert in his unfair anpartisan stand as a License Commissioner-for example, in the case of his conduct as to the Savoy-conduct so roundly condemned by the present Mayor and his paper, the Empire.

In Rupert in his unmanly stand or lack of stand in the Scott Act campaign—a public man yet without an avowed opinion. In the Legislature in not dividing the House as to the conduct of the Government in entering the field of the real estate speculator in the city of Prince Rupert-despite the fact that the Conservative Association of this city urged strong action. In the Legislature in his failure to procure or demand the return of a fair share of the revenue derived from Rupert and the north—a lamentable and a woeful failure and one that could in the north. In the Legislature, in his failure to protest against the paralelling of the Canadian Northern from Fort George to Vancouver by a branch line of the G. T. P. and in his failure to protest against the use of northern credit in guaranteeing the bonds of the Pacific & Great Eastern (G. T. P.) and other railway lines, all for the south.

not be excused unless an earnest protest had been made and a division of the House compelled.

In the Legislature, in his failure to procure assistance for railways, to open the new valleys

In Victoria, in his utter failure to prevail upon the government to give a criminal assize for the north at the City of Prince Rupert.

In his conception of a party man as one who stands ready to answer at all times and upon all occasions regardless of right, the beck and call of his party leader and the party whip.

In his failure to show strength sufficient to warrant his being called to the Cabinet Council, and in his failure to show at any time the qualities of courageous manhood which his constituents had a right to expect of him, and which all men admire.

THE LAND POLICY.

The McBride Government has alienated the lands of the province to speculative purchasers to the exclusion of the settlers. The McBride Government has handicapped the pre-emptor with a charge of a dollar an acre for his land, a ten dollar fee for his Crown grant, a charge for his survey , with a failure to provide means of communication and a gross mis-spending of the pre-emptor's money and the people's money in building useless trails. The McBride Government and William Manson not only failed to remove these handicaps, but they failed to grant assistance by way of loan from an overflowing public treasury to the

LIQUOR AND POLICE CONTROL.

The McBride Government brought the license holders and police of the province and of the municipalities to a condition of political slavery, disgusting in the extreme to men of honor and independence.

William Manson, who realizes the existence of this slavery, has done nothing in the House to free these departments from the sickening enslavement or to remove the liquor and police from political control.

CIVIL SERVICE.

The McBride Government hsubverted the whole of the civil service to the patronage basis at the expense of its efficiency and independence.

The McEride Government and onr ex-member have done nothing, while all other British and Colonial Governments were taking strides toward the removal of the civil service from party control, to remedy the unfortunate condition within our province.

PUBLIC ACCOUNTS.

The McBride Government has absolutely prevented an independent audit of the public accounts since taking office, and it has prevented the investigation of the public accounts by the Public Accounts Committee of the House—a practice which prevails in every other province in the Dominion, in the Dominion, in the Imperial House, and in the Parliament of every British Colony.

The Premier trifled with his word so far as to make a farce of the Public Acocunts Committee during the last sitting of the Legislature by committing the public accounts to the Public Accounts Committee the day before the Legislature was dissolved, and when it was absolutely impossible for the Committee to sit.

Our late member, an accountant, has countenanced this gross violation of constitutional practice, and has condoned it upon the platform on the ground that nothing is wrong when there are glaring evidences all over the province that things are wrong and very wrong indeed.

LABOR.

The McBride Government has done nothing for labor since taking office—has not granted the minimum wage or an eight hour day even on its own and its aided work. The Government has not insisted upon six days a week and six days only.

DE suspicious of that of which nobody is proud. Be suspicious of the mere lowprice argument offered in favor of an article with no reputation, no backer, no guarantor.

Better buy the thing you know and can trust, than an article unbranded and unvouched for.

The branded shoe, made by a maker with a reputation, is a safer shoe to buy than the one made in an unknown factory by an unknown maker.

The underwear made by a firm whose name is as familiar to you as your own, is worth more to you than underwear nameless or labelled by a maker of whom you have never heard.

Tea sealed in a packet bearing the name of a reputable firm is to be preferred to tea of which the packer is not sufficiently proud to advertise its quality.

That in which much money has been invested to make or keep it good is worth more than that on which nothing or but little has been spent.

THE INDICTMENT OF WILLIAM MANSON AND THE McBRIDE GOVERNMENT

The Government has not extended the Workmen's Compensation Act to conform to modern legislation, and to remove the absurd anomalies in the same.

The Government has taken no step to adopt a system of state insurance for the workmen. Our late member, the representative of a constituency of laborers and pioneers, has said not a single word on the floor of the House in their behalf.

THE AUTOCRACY.

We are ruled by two Caesars—democracy is receiving a bod/ blow—the principles that our fathers bled for are being transgressed at every step—the true voice of the electorate is being most violently suppressed. William Manson, who knows better, has countenanced, condoned and weakly defended it all. A change is due-a change is necessary to preserve our democray and our political independence. Skeena Riding needs a man with moral fibre and qualities of independence such as it has sought and failed to find within the make-up of the man who now has represented it during the two years and a half that have passed.

"I am sorry," said the chairman, "if Mr. Manson has not in person or by a representative seen fit to accept the invitation extended him." The audience cheered as Mr. Stork then announced himself as the next speaker, but the chairma nwas brief, and contented himself with announcing Dr. Clayton, who was received also with cheers.

Wm. Manson's Gall. Speaking as a Conservative

but with the bitterest condemnation of William Manson, Alderman Clayton got his audience warmed up from the start. He referred to the insufferable gall of William Manson in his campaign travels when he barefacedly made use of every government conveyance to get about the constituency in the face of the law, and the disapproving mutterings of rightly resentful settlers.

With bitter sarcasm Dr. Clayton pictured the saintly supporters of William Manson-specifying "the saintly faced editor of the Trombone"-amidst a shout of amused applause.

Speedily the meeting warmed up to the occasion, and speaker after speaker was introduced and given the fairest hearings with lively applause. Some of the dens, road bosses and so forth, hottest shots from the speeches and while Mr. White cheerfully snapped up by The Daily News complied, the audience "folded its burning from the speaker's lips tents like Arabs and as silently are given, each one of them a keynote to the trend of the silent symphony of the polls tomorrow.
