ANOTHER OUTBREAK FEARED AMONGST THE NAAS INDIANS

Two Business Men Alex. Wallace and Fred Renworth Compelled to Return From Mill Bay in Lauch Unable to Proceed Any Farther Owing to Hostile Attitude of Natives--Fifteen Other White Men Are Also Forced Back

That there may be another difficulty with the Naas River Indians brewing at present if not actually on the point of outbreak is strongly suspected this morning. From the Naas River there returned early today in a gasoline boat, Mr. Alex. Wallace and Mr. Fred Renworth, businessmen from a trip to the Naas river district. They bring news of a disturbed condition of the Indians antagonistic to the incoming of white men.

Boat Forced Back
They state that after making their way without incident into the Naas River estuary as far as Mill Bay, they were proceeding farther inland from there when met by such hostile demeanour on the part of the Indians of that district and beyond, that they were forced to take to their boat and return the way they had come. It was impossible to make any farther progress into the district without positive risk of hurt from the Indians.

Fifteen Others Turned
Not only the business men

mentioned with their launch crew, but fifteen other white men endeavoring to make their way into the Naas district were also turned back by Indian antagonism so hostile as to make the men apprehensive of personal injury. The trouble seems to be a re-opening of the old racial resentment against the incoming of the white strangers, though details are meagre regarding it.

Provincial Police Alert
Asked whether he was aware of the difficulty with the Indians up the Naas this morning, Chief Owen, of the Provincial Police, was not prepared to say that there was any serious trouble. He is, however, in communication with those who brought the information, and prepared for another expedition if necessary into the troubled district.

Rifles Ready
It may have been only a coincidence, or it may have been extra preparedness on the part of the provincial police, but Constable Godson was this morning engaged in the ominous task of cleaning and seeing to the efficiency of the rifles used in the last up-rising of the Naas River Indians, when the provincial police, under Chief Owen, did good pacifying work without bloodshed. The constable even chanced to remark casually that it was always well to be prepared for trouble with the Naas Indians in their present state, though at the moment news of the uprising had not reached headquarters. Indian Agent Perry is in the city at present.

NO APOLOGY YET

"No," said Alderman Clayton this morning, "I have not been approached as yet by the mayor in regard to my request that he should apologize for the expression used on the political platform regarding myself. I am aware of the attitude taken by the council last night in reference to my letter, and I think it very well taken indeed. Of course I had never any intention of implying by my letter that the council should interfere in the matter, but merely to let the letter read before all the council, account in public manner for my absence from my place at the board. I feel that the mayor most certainly owes me an apology for the expression used and I am assured that I have the support of the citizens at large in this.

The Mayor's Statement
"I have nothing whatever to say on that score."—The Mayor.

CITY COUNCIL AND APOLOGY FROM MAYOR TO ALD. CLAYTON

Recalling Their Pledges to the Electorate to Eschew Politics in Municipal Affairs the City Fathers Decide to Leave Matter to be Settled Man to Man--Mayor Does Not Commit Himself on the Subject

Although last night's City Council meeting was called for a particular purpose, viz., to open tenders for steel pipe for the Woodworth Water scheme, still Alderman Clayton's letter requesting an apology from the mayor as published in the Daily News yesterday, was read and discussed. As the letter was addressed to the mayor and council, it was up to the council to deal with it. After some discussion they decided by motion duly carried that the matter was not for the council to meddle in at all, but that it should be settled privately between the mayor and Alderman Clayton. Very distinct reference was made by most of the aldermen to the fact that it was a pledge of this council's to the people that politics would not be allowed to interfere with the council's business for the city, and this fact impelled the action taken decisively by the council.

Ald. Bullock-Webster had heard the phrase and to him it was but a figure of speech, a hyperbole, not intended in any way to refer to Ald. Clayton personally. The mayor had said "Ald. Clayton would stab his own mother to gratify his ambition," but the mayor had most certainly never meant his words to apply literally to Ald. Clayton and his mother. The phrase might have been taken too seriously by Ald. Clayton, but it really hardly became Ald. Clayton of all men to take it so, when he was so prone himself to the use of strong personalities in his political and other public speeches.

Only Words, No More

After Ald. Montgomery had expressed himself to the effect that he thought the mayor might well apologize to Ald. Clayton, and Ald. Morrissey had suggested that the whole matter be left over to the next regular meeting of the council, Ald. Bullock-Webster enunciated a fuller expression of opinion on the subject calculated to smooth matters over if possible. He said that he fancied Ald. Clayton, in the first place had misunderstood the intent of the mayor's unfortunate phrase used in the heat of the election struggle.

A Broken Pledge

It was Ald. Morrissey who brought out the idea that there had already been too much political tendency in the council which had really practically pledged itself to avoid politics. He pointed out that not only had there been two aldermen actually candidates, but the mayor himself had taken a strong stand

COAL STRIKE STARTS IN UNITED STATES

Hundred and Seventy Thousand Miners Quit Work Tomorrow---Entails Loss of Seven Million Tons of Anthracite Daily

(Special to Daily News.)
Cleveland, Ohio, March 30—One hundred and seventy thousand miners in the anthracite region of Pennsylvania have been ordered by the union to quit work tomorrow night, because of the failure of the owners to grant an increase of pay of 20 per cent and an eight hour day. The shutting down of the mines will cause a loss of coal production of 7,013,000 tons of anthracite, and will entail a loss in pay to the miners of not less than $350,000 per day.

THE BRITISH STRIKE

Welch Miners to Return to Work—Others Deliberating

the miners to date amounts to over five million dollars. As a provision against the occurrence of a shortage of coal through strikes the Admiralty has decided to erect great storage docks.

SEARCHING INVESTIGATION INTO MINING DISASTER

Jury Held Coal Company at Merritt to Blame for Neglect of Proper Precaution and Mining Inspector Also at Fault

(Special to Daily News.)
Victoria, March 30—Despite the specially heavy demands upon his time the past forty-eight hours, Premier McBride found time to take cognizance of the verdict returned at Merritt into the circumstances attending the recent deplorable disaster at the mines of the Diamond Vale Coal Co., near Nicola City.

The jury in its finding held that the accident was occasioned by neglect of prescribed precautions on the part of the company and further held the local inspector blameable in not having posted or having seen to the posting of certain notices called for by the provisions of the Coal Mines Regulations Act. On Monday next the question of these serious charges will be taken up by the Minister, the Department being determined upon having a most searching investigation.

VANCOUVER FIRM TO SUPPLY PIPE

Messrs. Evans, Coleman & Evans Successful Tenderers Subject to Scrutiny of Terms by City Engineer.

In all probability the additional pipe necessary for the completion of the water pipe scheme as far as Shawatlans Lake will be supplied by Messrs. Last night after considering the tenders, the council instructed the city engineer to go over them and accept the above firm's tender if everything were satisfactory about it. Following were the tenders received:

Munderlah & Co. (E. & H. Clarke, local representatives), $2.27 per foot; Drummond, McGill & Co. (Montreal), $2.55 or according to telegram, $2.50; Balfour, Guthrie & Co., $2.46; Evans, Coleman & Evans (Vancouver), $1.93; W. C. Winterburn (Victoria), $2.65; Robertson, Godson & Co. Belated Returns Do Not Change General Result

(Special to Daily News.)
Victoria, March 30—Congratulatory messages from far and near poured in upon Premier McBride yesterday. One from Premier Borden and several of the other federal ministers was received. The belated returns do not offset the general result, although they leave it as doubtful whether Messrs. Holt and Henderson, in Lilloet, save their deposits.

The Building Committee of the Anglican Church have let the contract for excavating and also the concrete foundation to Anderson & McKinnon, their tender being the lowest, $2,872.25. Work is to be begun at once. The present church hall was built by P. Anderson in the pioneer days.

On Good Friday service will be held in the church hall at 11 a.m. Preacher, Rev. W. F. Rushbrook. On Easter Day, April 7th, the Holy Communion will be administered at 8 a.m., and also after the 11 o'clock service.

The Bishop has appointed as his Commissary in England, the Rev. H. E. Fox, Probandary of St. Paul's cathedral, London. ### ANOTHER AVALANCHE ON DOOMED TOWN OF FRANK

Crashed Through Roofs of Miners' Cottages Which Were Fortunately Uninhabited—Fissures on Peak of Turtle Mountain Widening

(Special to Daily News.)
Frank, Alta., March 30—Huge rocks came rolling down the side of Turtle mountain today, crashing through the roofs of miners cottages. Fortunately they were uninhabited at the time. The avalanche today came from the west danger zone, and indicates that the fissures at the top of the mountain are widening. Many of the families and miners have moved to another district.

A short time ago the Federal Government notified the Alberta government that the district was unsafe but the latter was loath to order the abandonment of the mining machinery, workings, etc. valued at three million dollars.

Montreal's Many Bars.

Toronto and Montreal are still sparring. Here's the latest from the Toronto Star: "Why need the Montreal Herald talk at length about the greater joy of living in Montreal than Toronto, when it could sum it all up by saying that while Toronto has but 140 bars, Montreal has 1,061 licenses?"

GRUMBLING AT THE REFEREE

Dan Salt, Manager for Paddy Scott, Claims Scott Ought to Have Had Decision in His Bout With Bayley.

Dan Salt, of the Ballard Athletic Club, who has been managing Scott, the Seattle lightweight who met Joe Bayley in Prince Rupert on Thursday night, was in town with his protegee on Saturday, thoroughly disgusted with the decision of the referee, which made the 20-round go between the two boys a draw. Salt declares the audience roundly heckled the decision; he gives Bayley a lot of credit for his gameness in going the last sixteen rounds with a broken hand, but cannot see wherein that should have influenced the decision of the third man in the ring when Scott's mastery was so apparent.—Vancouver World.

BARRENNESS OF BORDEN'S FIRST SESSION

In our news dispatches yesterday was the item that Premier and Mrs. Borden were about to leave Ottawa, and there are indications that parliament will be prorogued in the course of the next few days. It is time, therefore, for those interested in national politics to take a glimpse into what this premier and party of many promises has accomplished so far, and also what the Right Hon. R. L. Borden and his interesting manager of statesmen have neglected or not been able to do during this session. Mr. Borden has promised that he will go to the people on the navy question, so that it will not be long before another election is forced upon us. Here is a little list to begin with:

No tariff reductions on agricultural implements to meet the demands of the west.

Renewal of the bounties for the iron and steel interests shouldered off on Tariff Commission.

All questions of adequate protection of industries side-tracked in the same way.

Extension of civil service organization to outside service postponed indefinitely.

Ne Temere tangle worked off on the courts.

Navy question postponed sine die.

When a naval policy is decided upon responsibility is to be shirked by a referendum.

Better Terms for British Columbia relegated to the dim and distant future to be dealt with by a commission, which can be arranged to suit the views of the administration at Ottawa.

No organic changes with regard to fisheries or protection of deep sea fisheries.

Not one acre in the railway belt for British Columbia.

The cost of administration of water rights in the railway belt saddled on the province.

Not an acre in Point Grey quit claimed to the province as yet for university or any other purposes.

Etc., etc., etc.

The Right Hon. R. L. Borden is a fierce looking equestrian, but his charger appears to be a rocking horse.

SUPREMACY OF THE EVENING NEWSPAPER

The principal reason for the supremacy of the evening newspaper is that the evening newspaper is the home paper. It is published every evening and taken home or else delivered at the home by carrier boys. The evening newspaper is read by the busy businessman at his fireside at the close of each day. It is in the home that the housewife, after the day's duties are performed, picks up the evening paper to scan the advertising next day.

REJECTION OF RECIPROCITY

Special Committee of Senate to Take Evidence of Prairie Provinces on Heavy Loss by the Defeat of Reciprocity.

Ottawa, March 28.—The special committee of the senate appointed to investigate the trade conditions in the west as bearing on the defeat of the reciprocity agreement, heard some decidedly illuminating evidence this morning.

Roderick McKenzie, secretary of the Manitoba Grain Growers' Association, declared that conditions in the prairie provinces were extremely bad owing to the inability of farmers to market their grain. He believed conditions would be still worse next year, since there will be more wheat while the outlet would be just as restricted. Western farmers, he said, must have American markets or stop growing more wheat.

George Lane, of the Alberta Horse and Cattle Breeders' Association, one of the largest stock raisers in the west, said his industry, under present conditions, was headed for extinction. Five years ago there were 900,000 head of cattle in Alberta; today there are 500,000. The removal of the British embargo and free access to American markets were, in his opinion, the only remedy.

Gusselin, a prominent woman lawyer. As judge she acquitted herself well.

LIQUOR LICENSES

Number in Quebec to be Largely Reduced

Quebec, March 27.—At the sitting of the House this afternoon the government resolutions were brought down by Premier Gouin, by which the number of liquor licenses in city of Quebec are reduced from 100 to 60. The resolutions are in accordance with the demands of temperance bodies for less liquor selling in the ancient capital. The resolutions provide that an indemnity of $3000 shall be paid to every person who loses his license under the said act. The new regulations are to go into force in May, 1913. It is provided that the revenue to be derived from the 60 licenses shall be equal to that derived from the existing number.

ENGAGEMENT RING TRIAL

Judge Decides That Engagement Rings are the Property of the Girl Whether She Marries Donor or Not.

Blairsville, Pa., March 26.—A girl owes her engagement rings, whether or not they lead to her marrying the donor. So rules Justice Geib of this place.

Miss Josephine Graham and Charles Vachal, both of Saltsburg, became engaged to be married two years ago. Vachal presented a diamond ring to his fiancée, following it with another ring later.

Vachal some time ago told her of a circumstance that temporarily prevent their marriage, and asked for the rings, promising to return them at her request, as she did not consider the engagement broken. Miss Graham later requested the return of the rings, but Vachal is said to have refused them.

Suit for their recovery was brought by the girl. At the hearing before Justice Geib the rings were returned to the young woman, and Vachal paid the costs of the suit.

You Are on the Bench

YOU—the Public—are the judge. On your good opinion and your good word depends the success of the advertised article. For no amount of advertising will induce you to buy a second time what you do not like. No advertising will offset the bad effect of a dissatisfied buyer.

That is why advertisers must and do maintain the quality of their goods.

Advertisers realize that to turn their outlay for advertising into profit they must give good value.

They are not looking for one-time sales. First sales, in most cases, would not pay for the advertising.

To be successful, they must make steady customers. So, quality is being put in to hold the trade that advertising produces.

Thus, to be sure of quality, one naturally turns to goods that are advertised. And isn't it only reasonable?

No manufacturer can afford to advertise for long an inferior article. From the moment the advertising begins, the quality must either be kept uniform or improved—to go back means ruin.

The day is passing when you ask for a pint of pickles. You name the brand.

You don't ask for Rolled Oats. You name the brand you prefer.

The unknown article may be good, but you are not so sure of it as you are of the advertised article, which bears the seal of quality, —a well known maker's trade name.

TO MANUFACTURERS
You who make good goods and do not advertise—show your confidence in your product. Advertise it. Let the public know that you stand back of your goods to maintain their high quality. Make your trade name the recognized standard in your line.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any good advertising agency, or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503 Lumsden Building. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write, if interested.

She will leave at 9 a.m. every Saturday for Port Simpson and Granby Bay, formerly called Goose Bay, returning from there to Prince Rupert at 8 a.m. Sunday, and sailing for Vancouver at 10 p.m., arriving there at 9 a.m. Tuesday. The Princess Royal has been on the Vancouver-Victoria run and Agent McNab says she underwent a thoroughly overhauling and repainting before coming on this run again.

W. H. Gollin, formerly vice-president Alaska Commercial Co., whose home is now in Pacific Grove, California, is in the city. Mr. Gollin is largely interested in Prince Rupert real estate.

CITY COUNCIL AND APOLOGY

in favor of another of the candidates. This he thought was coming in rather strong in the political sense for a council which had almost sworn to eschew politics entirely in favor of the untrammeled conduct of the city's business. Ald. Morrissey thought the dispute might very well be settled between the mayor and Ald. Clayton outside of the council in the way all gentlemen settled their differences.

Ald. Montgomery felt that if a slip had been made as Ald. Bullock-Webster suggested, then it more became the mayor or any other member guilty of such slip to apologize for it than to allow the matter to breed a breach in the council board.

Dybhavn Disappointed

Ald. Dybhavn, who seldom speaks much in council, expressed himself very much disappointed at the stand the mayor had taken in this campaign after the council had practically promised the citizens as regards their attitude to politics. He supported Ald. Morrissey in the feeling that grievances between members of the council might well be settled out of council. Alderman Maitland was of the same opinion strongly, and Ald. Douglas added his voice to the general strain.

On a motion being put to leave the matter to be settled between the mayor and Ald. Clayton personally without council interference, the measure carried unanimously.

CONAN DOYLE AND IRELAND

Famous Author Makes Graphic Speech at Liberal Colonial Club in Favor of Passing Home Rule Bill Unanimously.

London, March 26.—Speaking at the dinner of the Liberal Colonial Club, at which he presided last night, Sir Arthur Conan Doyle made an appeal for justice to Ireland. If England, he said, in a good cause drew her sword then they knew the swords of fifty allied colonies and dependencies would spring from their sheaths. Only one would be wanting and that not the least sharp or heavy. The sword of Ireland would remain sullenly by its side.

"We cannot allow that," he continued. "We want the gallant race upon our side. It would be a great thing if the gift of national self government could have come from England to Ireland, not from an English party to Ireland. It is a pity the measure could not be unanimous, but that is not to be, and we must gird up our loins for a long fight. But if we fight patiently with the weapons of logic and charity we surely will win."
