Nazis Tank Fleet Being Destroyed

Germans Are Being Driven Into Real Resistance From French; Planes Starting to Drop Out of Action

AIR RAIDS IN FRANCE

German Planes Over Paris Again, But Pass On Towards Mantes
PARIS, June 7.—A large number of German bombers and pursuit planes were over Paris again today. While they were still twenty miles off to the north, air raid alarms were sounded and sent Parisians scurrying to their shelters. Anti-aircraft and pursuit planes went into action and the sounds of aerial combat could be heard in the streets of the capital. Soon the enemy aircraft swung off to the westward in the direction of Mantes but it was immediately known whether they had attacked that city.

COMING IN FOR SURE

Final Orders Italian Ships Off the Seas—British and French Embassies Going Home?
ROME, June 7.—Making it even more certain that Italy's entry into the war is imminent, Premier Benito Mussolini today ordered Italian vessels off the high seas. Practically all the nation's tank liners are now in their home ports. Vessels now in neutral ports are ordered to remain there and those at sea are instructed to proceed at once to the nearest neutral port. At Balboa in the Panama Canal zone one Italian liner received instructions to remain in port. In New York Hulo Verrando, manager there for the Italian Line, said an order had come direct from Rome for all Italian ships on the high seas to proceed into neutral ports. It is reported that British and French embassy staffs in Rome have received their passports to return home.

REAL NAZI WAR AIMS

Which Is Out To Annihilate France And Great Britain, It Is Admitted
BERLIN, June 7: (CP)—Germany's real war aims were revealed today by a Nazi spokesman in a two-fold — "annihilation of France and annihilation of England. All else is beside the point." "Nazi Germany would now reject all peace offers until the military might of France and Great Britain has been destroyed. To smash England and France was the object and the war would be pursued until they were knocked out. Germany would not accept peace until the war had been fought to the bitter end. The spokesman boasted that the hunger blockade had already been turned from Germany to England and that England would be hungry like Germany was in 1918. The British Broadcasting Corporation had reported last night that Germany was making a new attempt for a separate peace with France, declaring that France had been deserted by Britain after the Battle of Flanders.

Whole Country South of Somme-Aisne Front Being Sown With Anti-Tank Nests—Premier Reynaud Sees Good Reason for Confidence

GERMANS CHECKED EVERYWHERE
PARIS, June 7: (CP)—A War Office spokesman said that the Germans had been checked everywhere along the Somme front today although a French High Command announcement said tonight that Allied advance guards had fallen back all along that front. The spokesman said that a terrific German attempt to cross the Aisne River had been repulsed and scores of additional Nazi tanks destroyed.

PARIS, June 7: (CP)—One-fifth of the 2,000-tank armada that Germany has thrust into the Weygand Line has been blasted into inactivity, a French military spokesman reported today as General Weygand called upon his armies to "hold tight to the soil of France." In an order of the day, Weygand told the troops: "The future of France depends upon your tenacity." Cannonading from the ground and air is credited with destruction of about four hundred tanks in the first two days' offensive. Cannon - carrying French planes are reported to have weak spots on the tops of Nazi tanks. German dive bombers are reported dropping out of action. The Germans are estimated to be using 480,000 men in an effort to turn the flanks of the line.

It is reported unofficially that Weygand has sown the entire area between the Somme-Aisne battle-front and the Seine River above Paris with anti-tank defence nests. Roads have been barricaded and strong support posts set up. Premier Paul Reynaud told the Senate army commission that there is "reason to have confidence in the development of operations now under way."

Il Duce Not Coming Into War Unless He Can Sneak Up From Behind, Berlin Suggests

Reassuring Message Sent to London—Would Help in Defending Suez Canal

CARLO, June 7.—The government of Egypt has forwarded a message to Great Britain assuring its unwavering support in any war developments in the Mediterranean arena. This would be of particular importance in the event of an Italian stroke towards the Suez Canal. "Egypt must sink or swim with Great Britain," said the message.

ORDERS FOR TANKS HERE

Expenditure of Another $13,000,000 is to be Made in Canada, It is Announced

OTTAWA, June 7: (CP)—Work has begun on a new military motor vehicle order involving expenditure of $13,000,000, a government announcement today said. The new order is in addition to one for $13,600,000 which was placed March 20.

OLD LAND AIR FORCE INCREASED

Some Interesting Information Is Given By Lord Beaverbrook Today

LONDON, June 7: (CP)—Minister of Aircraft Production Lord Beaverbrook said today that Great Britain had more than made good its air losses in Flanders and had started building a new bomber which was the "largest in the world." Tests of this great fighting machine had already been successful but it would be a time before there could be any considerable production. Details of this machine, for obvious reasons, were not revealed.

Beaverbrook disclosed official estimates which had been obtained as to Germany's air strength. The Nazis, he revealed, had 11,675 fighting planes, two-fifths of which could be classed as first line. The Reich had 16,000 pilots, 12,000 of whom had had experience under war time conditions. These figures took into account Nazi plane losses in Flanders.

Five hundred of these planes, Beaverbrook said, were capable of setting down abroad at any time an expeditionary force which, with "fifth columnists," would number 25,000 men. The minister, for military reasons, did not disclose exact figures of the Allied air strength although stating that just recently there had been a 62 percent increase in Great Britain for aircraft production and a 30 percent increase of engine production. There was also a large increase in the number of planes being obtained from the Dominion and from the United States. Lord Beaverbrook singled out for praise the Hudson - Lockheed bomber made in the United States.

TO WATCH MIGRATION

Canadians, After July 1, Must Have Passports and Visas Upon Visiting United States

OTTAWA, June 7: (CP)—Officials of the Department of External Affairs are preparing for an increased demand for passports in view of the United States ruling that all Canadians visiting that country after July 1, even temporarily, would require passports from Canada and visas from the United States before entering the country. Newfoundland, Mexico and other North American countries are also included in the same tightening up of American immigration regulations which have been imposed as a further precaution against "fifth column" activities.

ENGLAND VISITED

Nazi Bombers Ranged Over Wide Area Yesterday But Did Little Damage

LONDON, June 7.—Nazi bombing planes soared over eastern England all the way from Durham County on the north to Hampshire on the south through Yorkshire and Dover late yesterday. There was anti-aircraft fire at all points but few casualties or damage were reported. Air raid alarms at some points lasted for an hour and a half.

The German raids on England during the night resulted in the death of one airman when bombs dropped on an airdrome flare path. Bombs also fell on the outskirts of a small town in north Yorkshire but caused no damage.

BIG BATTLE PROCEEDING IN FRANCE

Stubbornly Fighting French Forces Launch Vigorous Counter-Attacks—Emulate Nazi Tactics

Weygand Pleased

French Commander-in-Chief Congratulates Forces—Royal Air Force Doing Effective Work

PARIS, June 7: (CP)—Stubbornly fighting French troops, thrown back on the right and left, flanks of the 120-mile fighting front from the mouth of the Somme River to the Aisne by the savage German offensive, last night launched vigorous counter-attacks. The Nazis were reported to have fallen back towards Abbeville but held their newly taken positions around Amiens and Soissons. The gigantic German assault was renewed today from the coast to Soissons and was especially heavy in Peronne area where it was estimated 1000 tanks were used.

During yesterday the Germans had evidently advanced as much as seventeen miles south of Abbeville in the drive along the Channel coast but later had to yield back somewhat. British troops were in the thick of the fight south of Abbeville which was being waged in the almost tropical heat of a blazing sun. Following the example of the Germans, the French are now using dive bombing tactics, swooping down with some effectiveness on German positions. French 75's and aircraft pounded the Nazi tanks without mercy and took heavy toll of enemy mechanized equipment.

Weygand Pleased

General Maxime Weygand, commander-in-chief of the French army, sent a message of congratulations to the forces last night on the tenacity with which they had carried out his instructions in an order of the day earlier in the week wherein he had commanded them to "cling to their ground and look only forward." Weygand, declaring that there was no intention of withdrawing, told the forces that courage and determination would always win out. "The high command has taken up its position behind to support you," declared Weygand.

Military circles in London declared that "the situation along the Somme-Aisne line is not too bad—in fact, it's pretty good." He added, however, "we are not yet certain there may not be a main attack to come."

Nazis Find Difficulties

Although claiming advances all along the line, the German High Command for the first time last night told of difficulties which were being encountered on the Somme-Aisne front.

The British Royal Air Force is continuing constant heavy and effective raids with its bombing planes behind the German lines and well into Germany. During the night Abbeville was concentrated upon, destroying main roads and railway lines and virtually wrecking the city. Important unit movements were disrupted. Further afield in Germany direct hits on railways and highways were reported and at Hamburg oil tanks were set afire. At sea transports were attacked and, during yesterday, it was estimated that 36 Nazi planes had been shot down and seventy damaged.

DOING USEFUL WORK

The other day we quoted from an article by Dorothy Thompson and we had a number of comments on what she wrote. She is the wife of Sinclair Lewis, the novelist, and is well known in the United States and Canada as a clear thinker and incisive writer. She is keeping up the good work in the United States and here is another quotation from one of her most recent syndicated articles:

"We should send aid to the Allies, now, today. Every airplane that can be shipped, every gun that can be crated, in every ship that can be floated and convoyed, while there is a toehold in Europe where they can be landed and while there are still men alive offering their bodies to be broken. We should send aid regardless of all the mistakes which all the Allied governments have made; for their mistakes are our own mistakes—the errors of incredulity and complacency. They—and we—have been giving away our world, inch by inch and position by position, retreating to the last stand, in the last trench.

"This war is not lost for a world where men can still live, free and unafraid. It is not going to be lost. But 1,000 airplanes today will be worth 20,000 tomorrow.

"Armaments are useless unless one uses them on the right side. Czech armaments equipped 40 Nazi divisions and revealed the secrets of the Maginot Line. They are being used all right—to kill a Czech legion in France and to keep down the Czechs at home.

"The fleet that fights in our interests today will, if captured, be used against us tomorrow."

FORGET DEFEATS

Hitler and his mechanized forces have won several victories but that does not mean that they will continue to win. They have used new tactics and new fighting apparatus which have sprung surprises on the British and French. They cannot keep on doing that sort of thing. The Allies are learning in a rather bitter school but they are learning. They have to adapt themselves to new conditions and, meantime, in all the engagements they have killed more Germans than they have lost of their own men. These have been lessons in modern warfare. As long as the British and French profit from their losses and keep a tight grip on themselves they will eventually win out. Every day that passes is a day nearer the day of victory. We must forget those defeats. As long as we do not feel beaten, look beaten and talk of being beaten we are on the road to that goal which we all seek.

VELVET IS VICTORIOUS

Had Easy Five To One Victory Over Dry Dock In City Football League Last Night

In the fourth game of the City League football, played last night, Velvet defeated Dry Dock by a score of five to one. Velvet, as a result is now tied with Navy for league leadership.

The game was not very spectacular and the winner was never in doubt. Velvet scored twice in the first half, both goals by Henry Dickens, while Dry Dock was content to boot the ball around the field.

In the second half Dry Dock showed a little more spirit, Campbell, Bury and Howe doing most of the work. With about one minute of play left in the game, Howe drove one past Gus Krause, Velvet's goalie. Velvet increased its lead to four goals in the second half with Baker scoring two and Cameron, one.

Norman Campbell was referee. Linesmen—Fred Hardy and Sid Woodside.

TWO TEAMS EVENED UP

In the King Edward School Football League another very hard-fought game between the leading teams—the Wanderers and the Beavers—resulted in a three-all draw and the teams are now tied again. To decide the winners a sudden death game will be played next Tuesday.

The Beavers had the better of the exchanges but Davies scored first for the Wanderers. McGreish equalized and then put his team ahead. From a penalty kick Davies equalized and then scored again to put the Wanderers in the lead but McGreish scored again to put the teams level.

Teams:
Wanderers—Leland; Hebb, MacIntosh; Skog, Davies, Scherk; Dixon, Jerstad, Matsumoto, Bud Pierce, Hemmons, Elliott, Owens.
Beavers—Ormiston; Holkestad, Bond; C. Piffold, B. Prince, Menzies; Murray, E. Pierce, McGreish, Husoy, Johansen.

For Wanderers Hebb was the best back with Davies, Skog and Scherk playing well at halfback. Matsumoto and Hemmons were the best forwards.

Ormiston kept a good goal for the Beavers and Holkestad and Bond were reliable at back. Prince and Piffold were good half backs and McGreish the best forward.

League standing:

	W	L	D	Pts
Wanderers	10	6	4	24
Beavers	11	7	2	24
Maple Leafs	5	13	2	12

Lead of Cincinnati Reds in National League is Reduced to one game

ST. LOUIS, June 7. (CP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers, runners-up in the National League, closed up the gap separating them from the first place Cincinnati Reds to one game by winning over the St. Louis Cardinals yesterday while the Reds were idle with the third place New York Giants. The Chicago Cubs defeated the Phillies in a free-hitting game at the Windy City and Pittsburgh Pirates won a close 7 to 6 victory over the Boston Bees as a result of which these two teams are now tied for seventh place.

Jimmy Fox's fourteenth home run and Lefty Grove's pitching enabled the leading Boston Red Sox to win over the St. Louis Browns who fell back into exclusive possession of the cellar spot through the Philadelphia Athletics, who had been tied with them, winning over the Detroit Tigers. The second place Cleveland Indians kept pace with the league leaders by downing the Washington Senators in eleven innings. The New York Yankees, due mainly to two errors by Babe Dahlgren, were beaten by the Chicago White Sox who thereby replaced the Washington Senators at the top of the second division.

Len Evans Winner of Event for Men Members of Club Sunday

SMITHERS, June 7.—A tournament for the men members of the Smithers Golf Club was staged on Sunday when Len Evans won the prize for the lowest score. H. F. Noel also figured in the prize-winners.

The golf course is in excellent shape except that the members found difficulty in locating lost balls among all the dandelion heads that cover it at the present time. These so much resemble a golf ball that it took considerable hunting to locate the genuine article.

The weather was perfect for the tournament and it was greatly enjoyed by the players.

JAPANESE CANADIAN INTERESTS

Nipponese Consul Suggests Improved Relations Between Two Countries and Extended Trade

The relations between Canada and Japan were the subject of an address yesterday afternoon before the Prince Rupert Rotary club at its regular weekly luncheon by Kenji Nakauchi, Japanese consul at Vancouver. He spoke of the way in which Prince Rupert was connected with Japan in having a number of his countrymen residing here as peaceful and happy citizens. It was in 1867 that the Dominion of Canada came into being. Two years later Japan turned her eyes westward. Both nations conceived similar ambitions—development mainly in the form of economic, political and social security through industrial expansion. How the two countries have developed is a matter of history.

Mr. Nakauchi said that on the manner the mutual problems and interests of Canada and Japan are to be settled rests considerably on the cultivation of a firm friendship between them in the near future. Canada and Japan have many problems in common and from them two fundamental forms of economy emerge—trade and industry. The rise of Japan must be regarded tolerantly if Canada wished to promote friendship. The sudden rise of Japan did not mean that she would swallow world trade entirely but it should be recognized that she was a late comer and her adaptability to modern environment had made her particularly conspicuous in competition for trade.

The visitor said it was his opinion that Canada should provide Japan with the raw materials she needed. Japan had invested private capital in British Columbia, particularly in such industries as fishing, agriculture and lumbering. This provided work for Canadians. Japan could sell to Canada highly finished goods while Canada sold to Japan her surplus products, such as wheat, flour, copper, lead, salt herring, and soft timber. He quoted Sir Herbert Marler to show that this country might purchase greater quantities of manufactured goods of far greater variety than at present. At present Japan imported four times as much Canadian goods as she sold in return.

The consul referred to the fact that relations between Canada and Japan had been rather strained mainly because of the China affair. Fortunately the situation in the Orient was improving and peace and order was being established. It was the sincere desire of the Japanese people and government that security and peace should be maintained in the East where Japan had vital interests. She wished to cultivate friendships with western people. Canada, as one of the Allied powers striving to win the war, he felt sure, was desirous of improving relations with Japan, a country that was maintaining strict neutrality. The two countries had a common purpose, that of maintaining peace in the Pacific and of promoting mutual interests. It was his sincere hope that the troubles on the European and Asian continents would never extend to this part of the world.

Another Carload Goes Forward To Smelter

SMITHERS, June 7.—Another carload of thirty tons of ore and concentrates was this week loaded from the Duthie mine to go forward to the smelter. This is high-grade silver-lead ore which is paying very well despite the very low prices prevailing for these minerals at the present time.

The operators, Messrs. Kelly and Herman, entertained a large number of friends at the mine on Saturday night at a party and dance. About 25 carloads of young people visited the camp for the occasion.

Hon. W. J. Asseltine Tours Skeena And Omineca Districts

SMITHERS, June 7.—Hon. W. J. Asseltine, Minister of Mines, accompanied by E. T. Kenney, M. L. A. for Skeena, arrived in Smithers on Saturday morning to look over the country and make acquaintance with the people, this being the first visit of the minister to this district. During his stay here he visited the Glacier Gulch mine, the Duthie mine, the Aveling coal mine and Dockrill coal mine at Telkwa and was very well impressed with what he saw.

Mr. Asseltine was met at Smithers by Mark Connelly, M.L.A. for Omineca, and they left for a tour of the Omineca district on Monday morning.

While in Smithers Mr. Asseltine met members of the Omineca Branch of the British Columbia Chamber of Mines who congratulated him upon the establishment of the sampling plant at Prince Rupert which has proved to be of so much benefit to the prospectors and small mining people of the north but he was asked to try and establish an assayer at the plant at the earliest possible date.

SMITHERS

Smithers people had the choice of three dances in the district to attend last Saturday night—one at the Duthie mine, another in Hazelton and still another at Burns Lake, the latter being a farewell for Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Deneen. The town was well represented at each of the three functions.

Woman's Auxiliary And White Cross Organizations Become One

KITWANGA, June 7.—Last Friday afternoon the members of the Kitwanga branches of the Woman's Auxiliary and the former White Cross decided to become one.

At a meeting in the Mission House all differences were cleared away and the former President of the Woman's Auxiliary, Mrs. M. Bright, having retired from office because of ill-health, the missionary's wife, Mrs. N. Hayhurst, was elected president by acclamation. Mrs. Semideeks, formerly active leader of the pioneer White Cross movement, was made honorary president, also by acclamation.

Former members of the White Cross were invited to a party in the Community Hall Friday evening. A picnic supper was served. During the evening a sacred trio was sung by Mrs. Alice Derrick, Miss Mary Bryant and Miss Esther Johnson, and a solo was also rendered by Mrs. Fred Johnson.

A short speech was made by Mrs. H. Wiltsqu, followed by a few words of welcome to all former White Cross members by the president, Mrs. Hayhurst.

Replies, expressing earnest appreciation and thanksgiving, were given by Matthias Bright, Charles Derrick, Solomon Bryant, Edward Tait, Mrs. F. Johnson and J. Hayhurst, resident missionary. The meeting was brought to a close with prayer by Mr. Hayhurst.

GAY MUSIC FILM HERE

Kay Kyser and His Orchestra in "That's Right—You're Wrong" At Capitol Theatre

Kay Kyser and his popular radio orchestra make their initial film appearance in "That's Right—You're Wrong," which is the feature offering on the screen of the Capitol Theatre here at present.

The theme is that of many hilarious troubles that encounter Kyser and his musicians when they abandon a weekly radio program to accept a handsome Hollywood offer. Side-splitting complications arise when the group reach the film capital and proceed to proceed to make a picture.

Blended into the story are five song hits—"The Answer is Love," "Happy Birthday to Love," "Fit to be Tied," "Chatterbox" and "The Little Red Fox." Well known vocalists present the songs.

Adolphe Menjou has the co-starring role in the picture with Kay Kyser, others in the cast including such favorites as May Robson, Lucille Ball, Edward Everett Horton, Roscoe Karns and Moroni Olsen.
