BRITISH STRIKE ENDS--AMERICAN STRIKE BEGINS

COAL SITUATION AS GRAVE IN AMERICA AS IN ENGLAND

Two Hundred Thousand More Miners Quit Work Last Night When Agreement Ended---Hopes That the General Strike Will be of Short Duration---Another Conference to be Held in Philadelphia on April 10th

(Special to Daily News.)
Cleveland, April 1—Operators and miners both admit this morning that the coal situation throughout the country is indeed grave. The strike is now practically general, or it is expected to be today, and operators and miners are both engaged in a struggle to make the stoppage of coal production as brief as possible.

As a final effort to prevent a prolonged shutdown of the mines after this date, and possibly a general strike, in the second week of last month, the whole dispute was referred to a sub-committee, composed of eight miners' delegates and eight representatives of the operators. These have been in almost continuous session ever since.

John W. White, president of the United Mine Workers of America, said at the close of last Wednesday's heated conference of the two delegations: "If we reach no agreement by April 1st strikes must automatically follow, for we cannot work without an agreement. If we do not reach an agreement it will simply be a question as to how long the suspension of operations will last."

Of the 200,000 miners in the bituminous fields of Western Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, nearly the whole of them quit work at midnight, and in addition to this there are 475,000 anthracite miners who quit at noon yesterday. The latter quit for an indefinite period, or until they are conceded an advance of ten per cent. in pay and shorter working hours. Besides these two bodies there are 150,000 bituminous coal miners in other states that are equally affected by the struggle. Thus the wages of 500,000 union miners are in dispute and the coal output of the country, other than that mined by a comparatively few non-union men, is involved.

INDIANA MEN OUT

(Special to Daily News.)

Indianapolis, Ind., April 1—All the bituminous and anthracite coal miners are idle today as a result of the walking out of 400,000 miners upon expiration of their agreement at midnight on Sunday. A walk-out differs from a strike because the unions allowed pump men and others to remain and protect the mines. Negotiations will be resumed April 10th, when an early settlement of the suspension is expected.

Arrangements were completed yesterday afternoon for a reopening of the negotiations to settle the wage dispute and Thos. L. Lewis, a former president of the union, says he thinks settlement can be reached in a few days, but others are of the opinion that nothing can be definitely accomplished until the conference, which is to be held in Philadelphia on April 10th, though it is just possible a temporary working agreement might mean time be arrived at.

BRIGHTER IN BRITAIN

Coal Crisis There Believed to be Practically Over

(Special to Daily News.)

London, April 1—The result of the ballot in the miners strike is causing little interest as a favorable decision is a foregone conclusion. Where the vote is against only the reconcilables are taking the trouble to vote.

A sign that the crisis is practically over is that the King has decided to spend Easter at Sandringham, instead of remaining at Windsor.

UNCIVIL WAR IS DECLARED IN RUPERT'S CITY COUNCIL

Manifesto of the Injured Party Again Hurling Defiance in the Face of His Defamer---Dr. Clayton Boldly Demanding That the Supporter of William Manson Immediately Apologize Publicly or Resign His High Office as Mayor

To the Editor of the Daily News: Sir, Within the last few days there has appeared in the press both my letter to the city council and Mayor Newton's reply, in the shape of an editorial or that which fills the space in the mayor's paper as editorial matter. The mayor is to be congratulated on the improvement he is showing in his writing, for while this editorial lacks the dignity of such expressions as "The Mayor a Liar," (which he once applied to ex-Mayor Stork), and other similar terms which he from time to time adorns his columns when speaking of citizens who happen to cross his path. Yet it is typical of his strength as a writer and the strong character behind the editorial pen of the Empire.

For reasons best known to themselves, and with the idea of not caring to have their characters besmirched by an irresponsible mud slinging editor they have refrained from replying. If his same editor thinks for a moment that he will silence the writer of this article, or that any fears are entertained here as to the result of his attack why I will inform him that I will neither subscribe to a fund to buy him off, nor be frightened into keeping quiet, although I am informed that down in the town of Whitby, Ont., they sometimes adopt the former method.

Well, this little article of the Mayor's is headed "It's Up to Him!" True, not very imposing for the title of a leading article, but consider the literary gems which it contains. Here are a few of them. "Vicious mouth attack," "bar-room stunts," "We . . . played for suckers," "The Empire man TOUCHED him in the Westholme theatre," (perhaps more laudable than in a back alley).

Now, sir, here is a sample of the styles of writing of Mayor Newton and of myself. These are before the public and for the public to read, and from them, perhaps, might be gathered some idea of the method the mayor adopts in his criticisms in comparison with the method adopted by myself.

The mayor asks me to apologize, and if he can show me where I have ever used any such personality as I charge him with I will certainly do so. A like expression, though, it is safe to say, has never been heard in Prince Rupert, nor anywhere else where common decency obtains even from Mr. S. M. Newton. It remained for him to be honored by the title of mayor of this city before even he felt equal to the task, showing that as he has grown in official importance, he has shrivelled in moral decency.

I submit, Mr. Editor, that in all decency, Mayor Newton should either apologize or resign his office as mayor, for citizens generally, men as well as women, are heartily sick of his brutal references, and expect him to at least respect the office of mayor, though he cannot dignify it.

Thanking you, sir, for the space allowed,
W. BARRATT CLAYTON,
Prince Rupert, March 30, 1912

POLICE COURT THIS MORNING

Messrs. Peters and Fisher Figure in a "Houn' Dog" Case With Amusing Word Bandying.

Routine doings in the police court this morning were enlivened by a little word bandying between City Solicitor Peters and W. E. Fisher, over the case of dog slaying in which Mrs. Carl accuses George Turnbull of unnecessarily destroying a valuable dog of hers. The dog was valued at $500. It was shot as it was suspected of stealing chickens. Mrs. Carl was present in court, and W. T. Robinson gave evidence on behalf of accused. The case was adjourned at one o'clock today, and will proceed tomorrow.

Amongst other police court doings today were the dismissal of the wire purchasing case with admonition to the purchaser to be careful in buying from irresponsible youngsters, and the fining of Henry Petersen, with the usual penalty for D. and D.

Be sure not to miss taking in the Carnival at the Skating Rink tonight.

MISSING ORGANIST

Young Lady Wandered in Bush and Died of Exposure.

Winnipeg, April 1—Late yesterday afternoon the police discovered the body of a Miss Grace Brite, organist of the Maryland Avenue Methodist church, who had been missing for twenty-four hours. She had wandered away in the bush south of Crescentwood, got lost and died from exposure. She was twenty-four years of age.

S.S. MAY BROKE HER TAILSHAFT

With One Wheel Only Working the Favorite C. P. R. Steamer Limped in at Three a. m. and Held on Her Way North.

On her north trip this time the C.P.R. ss. Princess May snapped a tailshaft when within a day's voyage of Prince Rupert. With one propeller working the steamer, which has weathered safely more marine adventures than most others, continued her way gamely, and reached Rupert at 3 this morning, instead of 5 yesterday afternoon, as had been expected. Although the loss of one propeller's services makes progress slow, and the steamer less easy to handle, the May continued her trip northwards to Skagway, and will not lose more than twenty-four hours or so on the whole trip.

BAPTIZED BY FIRE ENGINE

Pastor Being Unable to Cross Stream Blesses Water and Tosses It Over, Drenching Baby and Crowd.

Berlin, April 1—The village of Ratzdorf, in this province, has only half a pastor, the other half belonging to the village of Schidlow, lying directly opposite, across the Oder river. The Oder is now a raging whirlpool, going with ice, yet there was a Ratzdorf new born baby sadly in need of christening, as the little one was deathly sick. Since the pastor could not come across, and the next pastor was hours and hours away, the Schidlow divine hit upon a novel plan. He brought the fire engine to the river bank, blessed the water and made the baby and assistants line up on the other embankment. Then he performed the rites on his side of the Oder and finally shot a stream of blessed water across, drenching the baby and culminating the rites.

All the bystanders were baptized as well as the baby, but though it was bitterly cold no ill effects are reported.

SHORT CIRCUIT RAISED SPARKS

Fire Brigade Had a Run Sunday Morning, but "Bud" Corley Alone Was in Peril of Immediate Electrocution.

At three a.m. on Sunday there was a fire alarm on Sixth St., and the business section of the city seemed threatened by a great sparking of electric power lines overhead. The brigade turned out in fine style, but their services were not required. The sparking was due to a short circuit somewhere centrally which caused general fireworks on the wire system. One result of the display was to disorganize some telephone instruments. "Bud" Corley of the Royal Hotel was the first to discover the trouble, and when he rushed to his phone to ring in an alarm he discovered the phone trouble, too, for he got about ten thousand, six hundred volts through the left ear. He jumped forty-two feet on the level and is now in favor of the abolition of capital punishment by electrocution.

BIG FUNERAL GIVEN TO BRAVE CONSTABLE

Ten Thousand Silent People Witness the Sad Cortege Pass--- Three Thousand Police, Soldiers and Representatives of Fraternal Societies March in Parade

(Special to Daily News.)
Vancouver, April 1—Upwards of ten thousand silent people yesterday witnessed the funeral of Constable Byers, who was shot by a drink-crazed madman named Larson last week. Probably there were three thousand policemen, soldiers, and members of friendly societies in the procession, which marched to the music of Chopin's funeral march. Byers had gone to arrest Oscar Emil Larson on the information that a drunken man was firing a gun from his shack at unsuspecting passers by. The constable had no sooner reached the place than a bullet whistled through the air and struck him in the breast. Other police were sent and Byers was dispatched to the hospital where he lived but for a short time. Soon after a rush was made for the shack. The firing was renewed but during a lull the shack was entered and the body of Oscar Emil Larson was found stretched on the floor. It was seen that he had turned the weapons on himself at the approach of the police and had emptied it. Five bullets had entered his chest, one had struck him on the temple, and there were other bullet wounds in the body. There is talk of a public subscription to the widow of the dead constable, as a testimonial to his bravery.

MONDAY, APRIL 1

THE OLIGARCHY STRONGER THAN EVER

The McBride-Bowser government is again returned to power and even to greater power than before. The Legislature is now composed entirely of McBride-Bowser supporters with the exception of two Socialists. Which in other words means that every constituency is represented by a rubber stamp member who can attend to his own affairs, and might just as well send a written proxy pledging his vote when the legislature meets, meantime drawing pay out of the public revenues. One can imagine the orgy of triumph in which Messrs. McBride and Bowser indulged on the people of this province by the throat with no one to say them nay. They can rob the public right and left and never again, while in power, be compelled to show their accounts. Under cover of the law they can do anything and everything that tends to their own personal aggrandizement, and even should a revision of public sentiment throw them out of office, they will still be a menace because of their personal wealth to the free expression of the popular will and the exercise of individual rights.

The government of British Columbia is now in exactly the same position as was this province and all the great Northwest when the "Company of Gentlemen Adventurers" known as the Hudson's Bay Co., ruled it. Throughout its long history that company prevented as far as possible anything becoming known of the discovery of minerals, of the richness of the soil and so on, selfishly using its oligarchical powers just as the adventurers now at the head of the British Columbia government may do. This is the saddest thought of all.

the world, without a representative in the Legislature of the province. For William Manson has never pretended to represent the people of his constituency, but only the McBride-Bowser government—the government that is now a complete oligarchy. What are we going to do about it? and when that question is put you can imagine the ghastly glee of the opponents of constitutional government, and the sneer with which they reply—What CAN you do about it?

In one of his "the public-benefit" speeches Mr. McBride said that Liberalism was dead, and he may now believe it. But in this district to which he is a stranger, he will have read that Liberalism made a good fight. It put into the field a brave young fighter whom McBride will certainly hear from later on in his monopolistic political career. The Liberals of Skeena have cause to congratulate themselves upon the showing they made for Liberalism. Here, as elsewhere, they had the hordes of voters in the direct pay of the government to contend with, and they could not hope that the little rancher whose battle they were fighting could afford to lose the few dollars coming from road work and boldly buck against the oligarchy. In the city the independent voter, counting the votes of the Liberals and the Socialists, had a majority, a result which is good enough to be encouraging that Liberalism is not dead. On the contrary, its patriotic feeling is deeply aroused and intensified, and it is impatient to again take the field to route the enemies of industrial progress. This time must come soon, because the scandal of this Two-Man government will become so stinking a scandal in every country wherever constitutional government is known and understood.

FOUR RAILWAYS TO PEACE RIVER COUNTRY

Work on All of Them Expected to be in Full Swing This Summer ---Fears of a Labor Shortage

That work on the Edmonton-Dunvegan line into the Peace River country would begin at once was the information given out by the J. D. McArthur Construction Company.

"We already have a staff of engineers in the field surveying the route and expect to commence active work this summer," said Mr. McArthur.

"This will be the fourth road westerly direction from Edmonton, crossing the Pembina, Athabasca and Smoky rivers and entering the Grand Prairie country about Beaver Lodge, and is intended to serve the settlers who are pouring into the belt of the fertile country known as Grand Prairie, and also the Pouce Gope valley in British Columbia, east of the Rocky Mountains.

Peace River and from this point will follow the course of the river toward the mountains, traversing a stretch of good country that will eventually fill up with settlers when they once become assured of railway facilities. This road will also give an outlet to the vast mineral resources of the country which will rapidly develop in the future. The Canadian Pacific is completing a $3,-

to penetrate the rich farming district on the Peace River. In all probability work on all four roads will be in full swing this summer. The Canadian Northern reports the progress on the branch line from Onaway, on the main line, to Grande Prairie, progressing steadily and already 16 miles of grading has been done. This line runs in a north-

"According to statistics of the Alberta Government 500 settlers have already filed on homesteads in this locality and millions of acres of fertile land still remain to be taken up, much of it being situated in British Columbia.

McArthur Road More Northerly "The McArthur road will take a more northerly route and will run direct to Dunvegan on the 000,000 bridge across the Saskatchewan river at Edmonton for the express purpose of extending its lines farther west.

G.T.P. Reaches Divide "The fourth road into this new region will be the Grand Trunk Pacific, which has already completed its lines to the divide and is now laying steel to the Pacific ocean. This line is almost direct Shortage of Steel and Labor "The chief difficulty with which we are confronted," said Mr. McArthur, "is in obtaining steel. The steel-makers of Canada say they will not be able to let us have any this year. Under the circumstances we are asking the Dominion Government to allow steel to come from across the border free of duty."

With this extensive program of railway building in the country, contractors fear a severe shortage of labor and already agents have been despatched to different points to secure men for the railways.

You Are on the Bench

YOU—the Public—are the judge. On your good opinion and your good word depends the success of the advertised article. For no amount of advertising will induce you to buy a second time what you do not like. No advertising will offset the bad effect of a dissatisfied buyer. That is why advertisers must and do maintain the quality of their goods.

Advertisers realize that to turn their outlay for advertising into profit they must give good value. They are not looking for one-time sales. First sales, in most cases, would not pay for the advertising. To be successful, they must make steady customers. So, quality is being put in to hold the trade that advertising produces. Thus, to be sure of quality, one naturally turns to goods that are advertised. And isn't it only reasonable? No manufacturer can afford to advertise for long an inferior article. From the moment the advertising begins, the quality must either be kept uniform or improved—to go back means ruin. The day is passing when you ask for a pint of pickles. You name the brand. You don't ask for Rolled Oats. You name the brand you prefer. The unknown article may be good, but you are not so sure of it as you are of the advertised article, which bears the seal of quality, —a well known maker's trade name.

TO MANUFACTURERS
You who make good goods and do not advertise—show your confidence in your product. Advertise it. Let the public know that you stand back of your goods to maintain their high quality. Make your trade name the recognized standard in your line.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any good advertising agency, or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503 Lumsden Building. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write, if interested.

SHOOTING STRENGTH SIMPLICITY
The essentials of a perfect gun, are outstanding features of the GREEN-ER GUN.
Its shooting capabilities are a household word wherever sportsmen congregate, and Greener guns have won the world's highest honors.
The strength of the Greener action is phenomenal. The Greener Treble Wedge Fast Bolt is the strongest breech fastening extant, imitated by gunmakers all over the world.
The "Facile Principes" action is simplicity itself, works easily, smoothly and the striker is a fraction of a second quicker than any other.
You get all these advantages if your gun is a Greener.

THE MAN BEHIND PREMIER BORDEN

Facts About Henri Bourassa, the Leader of the Nationalists—Grandson of Man Prominent in French-Canadian History.

The Nationalist leader, and editor of Le Devoir, was born at Montreal, September 4, 1868. He is the son of Napoleon Bourassa, author and painter, and Azelle, daughter of the late Louis Joseph Papineau, distinguished in French Canadian history.

Mr. Bourassa was educated privately in Montreal. He was mayor of Montebello, 1890-1894 and mayor of Papineauville in 1897.

First elected in the House of Commons 1896.

Resigned his seat in 1899 to vindicate his position on constitutional aspect of participation of Canada in the South African war.

Re-elected by acclamation January, 1900, and again in 1900 at the general election, and in 1904.

Elected to the Quebec Legislature in 1908.

Took prominent part in election campaign of 1911 as leader of the Nationalist movement.

Best meal in town at Savoy.

Scots Whatever

Two travellers—an Englishman and a Scotsman—were promenading the deck of an ocean liner, when their talk came to be about the ubiquity of Scotsmen as ship engineers.

"I really don't know," remarked the Scot, "who the chief engineer on board this vessel is, but I'll bet a bottle of whiskey he's a countryman of mine."

With that he went to the engine room and sang down by way of a random shot—

"I say, MacDonald!"

To which a resentful voice replied from the torrid depths—

"There's nae MacDonalds here—we're a Mackenzies!"

AFTER BIG MONEY

Wolgast States Why He Turned Down Rivers Match

The Seattle Press Club's reception to Ad Wolgast and Tom Jones, his manager, was a successful affair, a large number of the club members turning out to meet the lightweight champion. Jones made a short talk, explaining his attitude in regard to Tom McCarey's offer of $12,500 for the Rivers-Wolgast match, stating why he thought the amount inadequate, and Wolgast also spoke in the same vein, stating that he only got $3,750 out of a $38,000 house for winning the lightweight title from Battling Nelson, but since then he had made more money than any fighter in the business.

NEW PORT GRANBY

Goose Bay is Re-named by the Geographical Board of Canada

The name of Goose Bay, on Observatory Inlet, where the Granby Company is erecting a smelter, and which has been made a port of call for the northern steamers, has been changed to Granby, official notice of the change by the geographical board of Canada having just been received by the agency of the marine and fisheries department.

LABOR PROBLEM IN GREAT BRITAIN

Revolt of the Workers and Re-ment of the "Poor Rich" Against the Struggle of the "Starvation Margin."

The "lower orders" in Britain are mutinous. The railway men were in revolt last year. This year it is the colliers who are dislocating business, and forcing millions of people to endure privation that the workers in mines may secure for themselves a living minimum wage. On this side of the Atlantic, while labor conflicts are waged determinedly, and often with far more violence than in Great Britain or continental Europe, there is not the element of class distinction to add to their bitterness. The labor question in America is one of economics. Caste has little to do with it. In Britain there are hundreds of thousands of people who still regard the workman as a sort of necessary evil, to be tolerated merely because there are still some things that automatic machinery cannot accomplish. That the first charge upon an industry ought to be a rate of wages to the workmen engaged in it such as will enable them to live decently seems a monstrous doctrine.

If anyone imagines this to be an exaggerated statement of the case let him ponder over the following letter received by the chairman of the London and Northwestern railway the other day from one of the stockholders to whom he had made an appeal on behalf of the Railway Benevolent Institution:

"I think it is simply disgusting for you to send round this appeal to your wretched shareholders, who are receiving less dividend this year than they ought to, owing to the abominable way the men have behaved and their grasping avarice, to which you and other directors have so weakly yielded, and which have thereby so seriously reduced our incomes.

"That outspoken representation of Mammon is typical of a large class in Great Britain. The shareholders of the London and Northwestern railway have been getting seven and three-quarters per cent. At the very meeting at which the brutal letter was read the usual dividend was declared. What have the workmen been getting? Thousands of them $5.50 and $6.00 per week. Out of that pittance they have to pay oftentimes a third for house rent and keep wife and children on the $1 or so per week remaining after providing for shelter. In such homes meat is still a luxury, and butter is too costly for use. The men with "grasping avarice" have been insisting for milk for their babies and on shoes and stockings for their older children. They have been demanding such unheard of luxuries as accident insurance and a benevolent fund, so that when a foot slips on the rail and the bearers lay down their ghastly burden some day in the presence of a newly made widow she shall have enough to feed her children for a few weeks till she can get washing to do that will suffice to keep the little home from being broken up.

It is "simply disgusting" that the lower orders should so yearn and so strive, and far more disgusting that the directors and even the angust chairman of the great London and Northwestern railway should so weakly yield to the "grasping avarice" of their employees. How are the poor rich going to find means for hunting and yachting, and tobogganing in Switzerland, and spending the winter in Egypt, or backing their fancy at the tables of Monte Carlo if the men who provide their seven and three-quarters per cent. are to get it into their heads that they should have bathroom in their houses and a week's holiday every year?

The revolt of the "lower orders" is dangerous. And it will remain dangerous so long as there are stock-holders like the cold-blooded, graspingly selfish seven and three-quarters per cent. Mammon-worshipper who cursed the man who gave him a chance to do good.—Toronto Globe.

THE SECRET OF MONEY MAKING The Time to Buy Real Estate in Prince Rupert is Right Now as Prices Will Begin to Soar This Summer.

It is probably safe to say that 90 per cent. of the wealth of the world has been accumulated by a comparative few—not by mere savings or the fruits of actual labor, and not by the pursuit of any manufacturing or mercantile business, but by investments and trading, principally in real estate.

Fortunes have been made by early investors in Western Canada townships. Lots that were originally bought in Winnipeg, Calgary, Edmonton, Moose Jaw, Regina, Saskatoon and Prince Rupert at $100 to $500 have been turned over in but a short space of time at $10,000 to $60,000. For instance, Robert Ross bought lots 15 and 16, block 9, section 1, in Prince Rupert, on May 29th, 1909, at $600 the two, and sold them October 17th, 1911, for $6000. Phil L. Serwe bought in 1903, lots 4, 5, and 36, block 2, Davis addition, Seattle, Wash., at $140 each, which were sold in 1909, only six years later, at $2,900 each.

Then, again, A. G. Ferguson bought of the C.P.R. in Vancouver twenty years ago lots on Hastings street at $700 each which were worth $20,000 ten years later, and today cannot be bought for less than $155,000.
