Steamer Alaska Refloated Today

American Passenger Liner, Off Rocks, Is Expected In Rupert

Was Freed From Elliott Island This Morning With Assistance of Salvage Vessels—Believed to be Not Badly Damaged

With the assistance of the logging tugs J. R. Morgan and St. Faith and local salvage vessels, the Alaska Steamship Co.'s Alaska, which went ashore shortly after midnight Saturday on Elliott Island, some twenty miles down the coast from Prince Rupert, was successfully refloated at 11:14 this morning. The Alaska, apparently not leaking badly, then proceeded to Kennedy Island to pick up lifeboats and other equipment which had been removed from her after the stranding. It is expected by J. H. McLeod, collector of customs and receiver of wrecks, that the Alaska will come into Prince Rupert probably this afternoon, for survey.

The tug St. Faith is due in port this afternoon at 3 o'clock from Elliott Island to take on fuel.

Officials of the Alaska Steamship Co. and the underwriters are expected to arrive here tomorrow morning from Seattle.

RESISTING STUBBORNLY

Greeks Are, However, Forced to Fall Back in Face of Superior Italian Forces

Underestimated?

It is suggested that Italy May Be Due For Surprise In Invasion

ATHENS, Oct. 29.—Greece and the continued war today following the rejection by Greece of an ultimatum from Italy demanding territorial concessions and permission to move troops through Greece. Greece continues a military invasion of Greece from Albania and is carrying up aerial bombing of Greek cities.

On the first day of fighting yesterday Greek forces put up stubborn resistance on the Albanian frontier. It is admitted today that they had been forced to fall back in the face of superior numbers and fighting equipment.

Attack Greek troops have been directed into action against the attacking Italians.

Reports of the first phase of the battle brought mounting anxiety among some neutral observers that Rome had underestimated the Greek resistance.

The Greek government circles at first stated that the Italians had been unable to drive back the Greeks from passes along mountain borders.

There had been a quiet night except for the rumble of troops moving and the populace seemed calm.

The Greek government has declared Athens an open city and has placed restrictions in regard to movements have been lifted.

ADVISED OF SON'S FATE

Mrs. Harold Ponder Officially Notified of Casualty in H.M.C.S. Margaree

SMITHERS, Oct. 29: (Special to Daily News)—Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ponder of Smithers have been officially advised that their son, Russell Ponder, is included in the official casualty list of H. M. C. S. Margaree, lost in a convoy collision in the North Sea, as missing and believed dead. His name has been listed in the same way as all other casualties from the Margaree.

"Bud" Ponder was born in Victoria March 1919 and was brought to the Bulkley Valley at the age of three months. The family later moved to Prince Rupert where they resided for years, "Bud" belonging to the Sea Cadets and later the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve.

The address of the parents is P.O. Box 103, Smithers. They are well known throughout the north and have been extended the deep sympathy of their numerous friends.

The only word received by the Ponders from Ottawa announced simply with regret that their son was missing and believed killed. Mrs. Ponder advised the Daily News representative here today.

Young Farmers Are Called Up

Their Exemption From Military Training Is Now Ended

MINISTER IS DEAD

Hon. D. B. Mullen of Edmonton Passes Away Suddenly in Edmonton

EDMONTON, Oct. 29: (CP)—Hon. D. B. Mullen, minister of agriculture for Alberta and one of the Edmonton members of the Legislature, died suddenly yesterday. He would have been fifty-five years of age next month.

Resignation Is Not Accepted

C. C. F. Delegates Decline To Permit Their Leader To Quit

WINNIPEG, Oct. 29: (CP)—J. S. Woodworth yesterday offered his resignation as national president and Parliamentary leader of the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation because of ill-health and difference of opinion with other members of the party over war policy. The resignation was referred to the national council of the party which opened its sixth annual convention in Winnipeg today. The delegates later voted not to accept the resignation.

The government circles at first stated that the Italians had been unable to drive back the Greeks from passes along mountain borders.

There had been a quiet night except for the rumble of troops moving and the populace seemed calm.

The Greek government has declared Athens an open city and has placed restrictions in regard to movements have been lifted.

INDIANS OF AIYANSH ON NAAS RIVER ENGAGED IN LARGE TASK OF PRINTING BIBLE IN NISHGA

James Coleman, inspector of Indian Agencies, now on a tour of Northern British Columbia villages on official duties, was surprised to find at Aiyansh, one of the villages on the upper Naas River, a full-fledged and well equipped printing plant and the natives there engaged in the gigantic undertaking of translating the Bible and printing it in the Nishga language. They have been at the job for some fifteen years now and have produced two or three books of the New Testament. Mr. Coleman is doubtful if they will ever complete the whole Bible.

Printing was introduced years ago at Aiyansh by the veteran and colorful missionary, Rev. J. B. McCullagh, who died in 1921 but the imprint of whose ecclesiastical ministrations will long remain in the village where he labored so long and so assiduously. The older natives still carry on the printing, maintaining a standard quite as high as that which was developed by Mr. McCullagh.

At one time, the natives of Aiyansh used to get out a periodical publication regularly but they are not doing that now. However, they engage in a miscellany of printing work on occasion. Their work on the Bible is rather spasmodic but is being carried on.

War News

DODOCANESE BOMBED
LONDON—British naval planes bombed the Dodecanese island of Stampalia, nearest Italian base to Athens, the Admiralty announced today, hitting a hangar and seaplane slipway.

JAP SOLDIERS ILLNESS
SHANGHAI—Due to widespread illness among the troops, Japanese military authorities are reported to be abandoning a considerable portion of their campaign in central China.

TROUBLE IN ALBANIA
TIRANA—Anti-Italian revolt in Albania is reported to be assuming serious proportions and it may require 50,000 Italian troops to keep order. There are also anti-Italian demonstrations in Jugoslavia.

Nazi Raider Fitting Out In Jap Port

SHANGHAI, Oct. 29: (CP)—The press today quoted travelers from Kobe, Japan, as saying that the German liner Scharnhorst was being fitted out as an armed raider to prey on Pacific shipping. British naval officials were, however, non-committal.

Rents In Victoria Suburbs Pegged

Saanich and Oak Bay Are Now Included in Federal Order

OTTAWA, Oct. 29: (CP)—The War Time Prices and Trade Board has announced that rents have been pegged at January 2 levels in Saanich and Oak Bay, suburbs of Victoria. Rents were pegged earlier in Victoria city proper.

TURKEY TO KEEP OUT

Considered Doubtful if She Will Go to Assistance of Greece

ATHENS, Oct. 29: (CP)—In spite of statements in authoritative neutral sources yesterday that they had information of Turkish troops moving into Thrace and eastern Greece, it is indicated from Ankara, the capital of Turkey, that that country has no immediate intention of joining with Greece in the war against Italy. There was no confirmation from the Turkish legation here of any such move by Turkey. Indeed, it is said that Greece has made no appeal to Turkey for aid.

The Turkish newspaper Ulus, published in Ankara, warned today that war may spread to Turkey but the question of whether the Turks would join Great Britain in aiding Greece remained unanswered.

MANITOBA COALITION

Conservatives and C.C.F. Join With Premier Bracken

WINNIPEG, Oct. 29: (CP)—Premier John Bracken announces that a coalition government will be formed shortly in Manitoba. He said that Conservative and Co-operative Commonwealth Federation members of the legislature have agreed to the idea while the Social Credit party is considering it.

BRITAIN IN GREEK AID

Positions Taken Up On Crete and Corfu—Troops Landing at Salonika

LONDON, Oct. 29.—Informed quarters say that the British Mediterranean fleet has occupied the strategic island of Crete and a small island with an airdrome off Corfu which will be used as naval and air bases to assist Turkey in its defence and possible counter-offensive. British troops are reported to be landing at Salonika.

The British navy's help for Greece has "already begun," Rt. Hon. A. V. Alexander, First Lord of the Admiralty, said today.

At the same time military circles said that Great Britain was giving Greece "military assistance in the widest sense of the terms" although they denied that British forces had been landed on the island of Crete.

Today British troops were reported to have landed on the island of Corfu off the Greek-Albanian border.

London newspapers today demand from the Churchill government speedy and decisive action in the southeastern Europe area. Danger of enemy success at Greece or Salonika was warned against. "This must not be another Norway," said one newspaper.

Bulletins

LEGISLATURE OPENS
VICTORIA—With a lack of usual formality, the session of the legislature was opened today by Lieutenant Governor E. W. Hamber. It is expected in some quarters that it will be the last session before an election in late spring or early summer. Frank Putnam, M. L. A. for Nelson-Creston, will move and Manfred McGreer, new member for Mackenzie, will move and second the address in reply to the Speech from the Throne.

TRANSPORT SHIP BOMB
SAN FRANCISCO—Shortly after her departure yesterday from San Francisco for Panama with 2000 troops and passengers on board, a nitro-glycerine bomb was found aboard the transport ship Republic. It was safely thrown overboard.

ALASKA ROAD
SAN FRANCISCO—A. J. Diamond, delegate from Alaska, "regretfully prophesied" here yesterday that there was little prospect of work proceeding on the Alaska Highway unless the joint defence board recommended and the American section of the board, he believed, did not consider necessary as a defence measure at this time.

DRAFT DRAWING
WASHINGTON—Secretary of War Stimson today drew the first number in the conscription draft lottery. He was blindfolded and drew the number from a goldfish bowl. President Roosevelt made a speech in opening the lottery. The drawing is expected to take eleven to fifteen hours.

AIR WAR FIERCER

Intensity of Attack on Both Sides is Renewed

NAZIS DOWNED
LONDON, Oct. 29: (CP)—Twenty-two German fighters or fighter bombers, which attacked London and Portsmouth today in a vicious renewal of the air offensive, were shot down today, it is announced. The Press Association said that about 160 raiders, mostly fighter bombers, tried to reach London today but the Royal Air Force intercepted most of them.

Three brief alarms signalled the Nazis' return to the attack on Great Britain today. Numerous bombs fell in the London area and several persons were known to have been killed. The first daylight alarm followed an interval of several hours after the "all clear" of the fifty-second straight night of air attack.

LONDON, Oct. 29: (CP)—Air war was resumed today with full intensity. Royal Air Force hit many military objectives in Reich territory while German bombers ranged over London and other parts of British Isles, dropping their explosives.

Heavy and successful night air attacks on Germany's largest ports were reported today by the Air Ministry. Shipyards were the main objectives of the British fliers but bombs were also dropped on oil plants, railroad and industrial centres, air bases and anti-aircraft batteries.

LAVAL FOR ROME SOON

French Foreign Minister to Sign New Peace Agreement With Italy

VICHY, Oct. 29.—Vice-Premier Pierre Laval is expected to visit Rome very soon to sign modified Franco-Italian peace terms which may permit Germany and Italy the use of French warships and bases in prosecution of the war against Great Britain. This would be a sequel to the conference at Florence yesterday between Chancellor Adolf Hitler and Premier Benito Mussolini.

Laval will make an announcement soon, it is expected, regarding Franco-German negotiations which there is every reason to believe have brought France further under axis domination.

HONORED TO AID GREECE

Premier King Comments on Latest Development in European War

OTTAWA, Oct. 29: (CP)—Prime Minister William Lyon Mackenzie King, in a statement yesterday, declared "the cause of Canada and her Allies is honored by the addition of restoration of Greek freedom to the objects we shall fight for until victory is achieved."

Free French Government

General DeGaulle Proclaims Administration for Free France

LEOPOLDVILLE, French Congo, Oct. 29.—General Charles DeGaulle, speaking here, proclaimed the Free French defence council would function as a new government for Free France, ruling by laws which prevailed in France on June 23. He charged infamous French leaders with endeavouring to hand over the French Empire to its enemies.

RUSSIAN ENIGMA?

What Will Soviet Do Now in Southeast Europe—Nazis and Reds Watching Each Other

LONDON, Oct. 29: (CP)—Germany has concentrated about seventy army divisions, or about one million men, in southeastern Europe, a British military expert declares. He said that, ever since the collapse of France, Germany has been moving troops towards the Balkan area, indicating that Germany does not want Russia to interfere in southeastern plans.

Meantime it was reported today that Soviet Russia had offered Turkey a firm and unconditional guarantee of armed assistance in the event of a Nazi-Fascist attack upon the Dardanelles. Under certain circumstances, there is said to be a possibility that Russia might assume "protective custody" of the Dardanelles.

SEA LOSS IS HEAVY

German Submarine Concentrations Given As Reason For Many Marine Casualties For Week Ending October 21

LONDON, Oct. 29: (CP)—The Admiralty announced today that forty-five merchant ships, totalling 198,030 tons, were lost as a result of enemy action during the week ending October 21. The losses were the heaviest for any single week except that ending June 23 when 209,984 tons were lost including the losses in the Dunkerque withdrawal.

Last week's losses are authoritatively blamed on large German submarine concentrations in a particular North Atlantic area and was not without loss to the Nazis themselves.

The week's losses included thirty-two British ships with total tonnage of 146,000.

The weekly average of shipping losses since the war began has been 57,000 tons.

The week now reported on does not include the Empress of Britain which will be in last week's losses since the ship was taken to prevent such heavy losses in future.

War Extension - - -

The extension of the war to include Greece and possibly Turkey may or may not have an effect on the final outcome of the conflict. It will undoubtedly increase the local interest in the war because there are large Italian and Greek colonies in Prince Rupert, members of which will be keenly interested in the outcome.

The Graeco-Italian war seems to have started without any good reason except that Italy, egged on by Germany in Axis ambitions against Great Britain, is anxious to grab more territory. It is the outcome of the recent conferences between Mussolini and Hitler. Italy seems to have the advantage of numbers but numbers do not always count. The British navy is likely to take an important part in the operations and it is probable that news will come thick and fast during the next few days.

Only A Transport - - -

The steamer Empress of Britain, that was sunk by the Germans, was only a transport, not a war ship. She was a valuable vessel but had no armament to withstand the attacks of high powered bombs. While it is not wise to minimize any loss, it must be seen in its proper proportion. This loss is not very important from a naval point of view. Most of those aboard were picked up and are now safe ashore. More important was the loss of the Canadian destroyer Margaree which sank as the result of a collision with a merchant ship. She is a definite loss to the navy and particularly a loss to Canada in valuable men. We regret the loss of young men from British Columbia including several well known to people in Prince Rupert.

Navy Getting It - - -

At the beginning of the war it seemed as if the navy might be the safer place for a young man who wished to be a war participant. However, the senior service is just as enthusiastic as the rest and is nobly upholding its traditions. Today the navy is getting much of the fighting. It seems to be one of the most dangerous of the forces and there is prospect of even more active participation in the near future. Canadians are proud of their navy and of the work it is doing.

Empire Trade - - -

Blue books are often very interesting if a person is really seeking information. Some of this information is most striking. For instance, it is indicated in a blue book that Canada does a large trade with Empire countries. One rather unexpected example of this is found in South Africa. That Dominion imports most of its electric stoves from Canada. Last year it took over ten thousand valued at over half a million dollars. In fact, seventy per cent of the electric stoves imported into that union came from Canada. Evidently, this country has made a name for its electric stoves.

TERRACE CLASSES

Successful Two Week Dominion-Provincial Training School Concludes

TERRACE, Oct. 29.—The classes of the Dominion-Provincial Youth Training School came to an end Saturday after a successful session of two weeks. A goodly number of young people availed themselves of the opportunity of gaining an inkling into subjects which they would not otherwise have had.

By way of winding up the classes in the pleasantest fashion, a banquet was held in the Orange Hall on Thursday to which the students and some of the local citizens had been invited. Mrs. Dudley G. Little was chairman of the students' committee and, in that capacity, announced each of the speakers. Miss Muriel Duncan, of U.S.K. secretary of the same committee, made a neat speech welcoming the guests to which P. E. Crocker made suitable reply. Miss Barbara Sherwood spoke on behalf of the students and, in doing so, stressed the advantage which the local youth felt and appreciated in the fact that these classes had been brought to Terrace.

Rev. C. A. Hinchliffe, the guest speaker, went into things somewhat more fully. He thought the students should not fail to make good use of the instruction which they had gained and that the proposed continuation classes should not be neglected.

Douglas Taylor, principal of the youth training school, concluded the speechmaking with a suitable address.

The evening was brought to a conclusion with a very fine display of movie pictures among which were some exceedingly beautiful photos in color of flowering trees and garden effects.

PRODUCING TUNGSTEN

Riverside Property On Salmon River Starts To Mine And Mill Precious Ore On Commercial Basis

With a fully equipped ball crusher, mill of 125 tons daily maximum capacity in operation and a crew of twenty-three men in two shifts employed, the Riverside mine on the Alaskan side of the Salmon River road to the Premier mine last week started production in the mining of tungsten ore. J. H. Scott of San Francisco, head of the San Francisco interests operating the property, stated in Prince Rupert on Sunday. Mr. Scott was one of the rescued passengers from the steamer Alaska who was here aboard the North Coast following the wreck down the coast.

Between now and December 4 it is planned to put one thousand tons of ore through the mill experimentally to ascertain if a commercial separation of tungsten from gold, lead, silver, sulphur and iron can be effected. It is necessary that tungsten concentrates be not less than sixty-five percent pure.

Results of the Riverside operation will indicate, Mr. Scott pointed out, what might be done in the way of tungsten production on the British Columbia side of the road. To assist in ascertaining the possibilities, equipment has been loaned by Riverside. If the Riverside operation is successful, it may mean that there may be similar success in British Columbia.

It is the first time that tungsten has been found in apparently commercial quantities so far north.

The Riverside mine is six miles distant from Hyder on the side of the Premier road. For the past five months a campaign of rehabilitation of the property has been under way.

W. E. Kareher is superintendent in charge with Arthur Moe as assistant superintendent.

SMITHERS

Ed. Burhoe, who has been conducting a photography and picture business in the Kenney Building on Main Street for the past two years, has closed out his business and returned to Vancouver with his family. Mr. and Mrs. Burhoe came to Smithers about five years ago and have made a large circle of friends who are sorry to see them leave the district. Mr. Burhoe expects to establish himself in business somewhere in the south.

John Carpenter of Nelson, son of the late J. C. Carpenter, who was engineer on the ill-fated Canadian National Railways train which met with an accident at Lorne Creek last week, arrived home in Smithers a few days ago. John made quite a name for himself as a baseball pitcher in some of the southern United States baseball teams but was forced to give up what promised to be a successful pitching career on account of an illness and has now become a member of the police force at Nelson.

Tom Collison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Collison of Smithers and a member of the 102nd Coast Artillery at Prince Rupert, is at home in Smithers for a short holiday.

A group of 45 young men, members of Canadian Air Force, passed through Smithers a few days ago enroute to Prince Rupert. During their half hour's stay in Smithers they took a short route march through the town and created a fine impression with their smart and military bearing.

Repair work on the drug store and post office building in Smithers is just about finished and the building has had a renovation from roof to mud sills. Contractor E. Hann had the work in hand and, with quite a staff of helpers, the job was rushed to completion in a race with the weather which might have turned bad enough to delay completion.

Smithers high school boys are now having regular military drill at certain periods each week, under instruction of K. G. Houghton.

Bulkley Valley branch of the Canadian Legion will carry out its regular annual observances in connection with Remembrance Day. There will be a church service in the United Church under the joint participation of both the United and the Anglican Churches on the Sunday morning to which the veterans will march in a body. Special music and an orchestra of seven pieces under J. S. Gray will be provided and special choir music. Poppies will be sold throughout the district and the regular dance in the town hall at Smithers Monday night will finish the activities.

BIG TIME THURSDAY

Hallowe'en Hoedown Dance

All roads will lead to the Moose Hall Thursday night for the Gyro Hallowe'en Hoedown. Any old clothes will do. Farming duds will be featured.

Committees are working hard including the refreshment vendors specializing in the "kick-a-poo joy juice."

The vaudeville acts are rehearsing every night and rounding into perfection.

Novel window displays uptown advertising the hoedown are attracting much comment.

You know about the hoedown. Don't allow yourself to be disappointed when you hear your friends talking about it. It's going to be a "wow."

Thursday night—Moose Hall!

Andrew Peterson pleaded not guilty in city police court yesterday afternoon to a charge of supplying and was remanded until today. Stephen Shepard, Indian, was fined $25, with option of one month's imprisonment, for being in possession of liquor, the fine being paid. Albert Landstrom, for drunkenness, is serving seven days in preference to paying a $25 fine. John Johnson was fined $5 for wilful damage.

Posses Courage And Independence

Viscount Cranborne Exhibits Same Traits as Celebrated Uncle

LONDON, Oct. 29: (CP)—Viscount Cranborne, new Secretary of State for the Dominions, in the Churchill government possesses the same courage and independence which his uncle, Lord Hugh Cecil, showed so often in the House. Lord Cranborne showed this when he resigned from the under-secretaryship of foreign affairs in February, 1938, and followed his chief, Anthony Eden, into retirement.

Four Local Firms Take up Wage
Deduction Plan in Order to Encourage Purchase of Certificates and Stamps

The Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co. Ltd., Georgetown Lumber and Box Co. Ltd., Mitchell & Currie and Northern British Columbia Power Co. Ltd. of Prince Rupert have enrolled in a new campaign to enlist more British Columbia industries in a payroll deduction plan in connection with a campaign to increase employee participation in the purchase of war savings stamps and certificates. More than 800 firms in British Columbia are already participating in the plan and it is hoped to increase this number to 1200 in the next few weeks.

The local committee, of which Thomas McClymont is chairman and T. J. Williams, secretary, is also active in this connection.

Loss of Margaree Cuts Down Canada's Strength of this Type of
Warship to That Number

OTTAWA, Oct. 29.—The loss of H.M.C.S. Margaree in collision with a large merchant vessel while engaged in convoy service on the North Atlantic leaves Canada with twelve destroyers. At the start of the war Canada had only six destroyers. Since the war started, the Dominion has lost two—the other having been the Fraser at Dunkerque.

Loss of the Canadian destroyer Margaree in the Atlantic is announced by the naval department. Of the personnel of 171 only thirty-one have been saved. Many British Columbia victims include seaman Harold Ponder of Smithers, formerly of Prince Rupert and Acting Petty Officer William H. Corbin, native of Prince Rupert.

British Plane Caught Up With Nazi
Raider and Dropped it Into Sea

LONDON, Oct. 29: (CP)—This is the story of a night chase over Britain that ended in victory for the Royal Air Force pilot of a Blenheim fighter.

The night being clear, the pilot saw bombs drop near a town in the northwest and a few minutes later, among the stars, he saw one which seemed to be moving. It was a light showing from a Heinkel.

Whether the Nazi pilot knew he was being followed will never be known but he led his pursuer first into the heart of the Midlands and then back up towards the Yorkshire Coast before heading home.

Forty miles out to sea, the Blenheim pilot, who had been going "full bat" and at the same time keeping the Heinkel in sight for at least an hour, told his station he thought he would have to give up the chase. He was told that as he had gone so far he might as well let off his ammunition with a long shot.

He fired his front guns from about a quarter of a mile and to his great surprise found himself gaining on the Heinkel. He continued to fire, finished his ammunition and was then able to come up alongside to let his gunner pour in a broadside that sent the Heinkel crashing into the sea.

Tour

Salmon fishing and canning in Prince Rupert district are all finished for the 1940 season. The last fishing area—Masset Inlet and the north Queen Charlottes—was closed at the end of last week. Nelson Bros. cannery at Prince Rupert has finished salmon packing and is now being put in shape to can herring this winter.

Indian Department's cruiser Naskeena, with Indian Agent James Gillett and Inspector of Agencies James Colman of Vancouver on board, is on a trip to Port Simpson and Port Essington. Departure was made yesterday afternoon and the Naskeena is expected back tomorrow morning.

Union steamer Catala, Capt. James Findlay, returned to port at 1:45 this afternoon from Stewart and other northern points and sailed at 2:30 p.m. for Vancouver and waypoints.

Calling here yesterday afternoon southbound from Skagway to Vancouver, C.P.R. steamer Princess Louise, Capt. S. K. Gray, was completing her final voyage of the season on the Alaska route. With the next sailing, the Princess Norah will be going on the run for the winter. There were 185 passengers aboard the Princess Louise including 12 who disembarked here, 11 taking passage from this port for the south. The passengers going through included Capt. Lake McDonald and members of the crew of the well known Atlin Lake steamer Tutschli.

Passengers From Wrecked Alaska
On Their Way Again From
Ketchikan to Seattle

KETCHIKAN, Oct. 29.—Most of the 278 passengers of the Alaska Steamship Co.'s steamer Alaska, which wrecked on Elliott Island, twenty miles south of Prince Rupert, Saturday night, sailed from here today aboard the steamer Alutian in continuation of their interrupted southbound voyage to Seattle. They had arrived in Ketchikan yesterday, aboard the steamer Yukon from Prince Rupert where they had been taken on Sunday morning by the rescue ship North Coast which responded to the Alaska's S.O.S. calls. Their baggage and effects, which had been left behind aboard the Alaska when they tumbled in night attire and such clothes as they wore into lifeboats in the dead of night following the stranding, had been restored to them and all were well and in good spirits, none, apparently, suffering any serious ill effects as a result of temporary discomfort and inconvenience. Many of the passengers, indeed, seemed to have enjoyed their experiences including their wait at Prince Rupert for the Yukon to pick them up.

Meanwhile, according to reports reaching here, the Alaska, which ran ashore on the half way mark of an ebb tide, was still lying on Elliott Island, fast aground by the bow and with a twenty degree list to port as salvage operators endeavoured to prepare her for refloating on the high tides this week.

FILM HERE

"All This and Heaven Too," Picturization Novel, Showing at Capitol

"All This and Heaven Too," dramatic picturization of a much-discussed biographical novel of the same name, co-starring Bette Davis and Charles Boyer, is the feature for the first of this week at the Capitol Theatre.

The story is the highly dramatic one of a little French governess, seemingly destined for a life of spinsterhood, who became the storm centre of a Parisian murder scandal which shook Europe nearly a century ago but who survived the ordeal to find peace and happiness in America.

The picture covers only the nine most tensely dramatic years, omitting the more peaceful aspects of the remarkable story of Henriette Desportes.

In the featured cast of the film supporting the two stars are Jeffrey Lynn, Barbara O'Neill, Virginia
