MINERS VOTING AGAINST RESUMPTION OF WORK

VOTE OF BRITISH STRIKERS IS AGAINST RESUMING WORK

OUT OF TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND BALLOTS CAST BY THE UNION MEN TWO THOUSAND ARE AGAINST THE RESUMPTION OF OPERATIONS.

(Special to Daily News.)
London, April 2.—That there still exists among the striking miners themselves a strong opposition to certain clauses of the minimum wage bill is shown by the voting. At an early hour this morning only 200,000 had voted, and of these there was a majority of 2,000 against the resumption of work. It is feared that this majority will be largely increased, as in the early part of the hallooting it was largely confined to those who were in favor of resuming.

Labor leaders are using every possible effort to combat the opposition and are looking with leniency upon the men who have taken upon themselves to go back to work without waiting for the decision. It is estimated these number 23,500.

WANTS BETTER ACCESS

Northern Produce Manager Petitions—Nothing Doing.

The manager of the Northern Produce Co. wrote the City Council last night asking that access to this company's premises through the lane between First and Second avenues and Sixth and Seventh streets. Contractors are at present working at the Sixth street end of the lane, the other end being ungraded. It was the opinion of the Council that nothing can be done meantime, and the City Clerk will instruct the applicant to this effect.

COST OF THE NEW CITY HALL DETAILED INVESTIGATION

ABOUT $1,200 OF EXPENDITURE BEYOND CONTRACTORS' COMPETITIVE ESTIMATES HAVE NOT BEEN ACCOUNTED FOR TO THE SATISFACTION OF BOARD OF WORKS.

A report by the Board of Works on the financial position affecting the new city hall under construction was read in council last night. It set forth that the architects have gone carefully over every detail of the expenditures up to February 15th and that all but some $1,200 of expenditure in excess of the estimates seems to have been accounted for satisfactorily. The odd $1,200 is apparently swamped in details of overtime and extras, for the committee failed to find it. Between February 15th and March 15th there was incurred an excess over contractors' competitive prices of $357, accounted for in various reasonable ways. The only sum in that period apparently untraceable was $41.64. For the rest beyond that the City Council of 1912 finds itself chargeable with $15,000 instead of $5,000 as calculated by last year's council, the accounts so far for the erection of the city hall seem to be in order.

Alderman Montgomery took occasion during the discussion of this matter before adoption of the Board of Works' report to secure roundly the position of the police cells, which he described as regular dungeons and a disgrace to the city and the architects designing the new city hall. They are unfit for human beings, whether criminal or otherwise, he considers. They are in the very heart of the basement without so much as a glimmer of daylight reaching them. They are of cold concrete reinforced with chilled steel. On three sides of them is the living rock faced with concrete and plaster. "All hope abandon ye who enter here" might well be graven on the steel doors of them, it seemed from Alderman Montgomery's view.

The Council, however, took no action on this aspect of the new city hall. What they did do was to condemn the previous council and board of works for embarking on the enterprise of erecting this hall without any sort of complete estimates, the only estimate at all apparently traceable being a rough one by late Superintendent McNeill.

well-known favorite hymns, frequently sung in private and in churches, though set to other music. They are so arranged as to bring before the mind two distinct but yet kindred subjects: First, the life of Christ; secondly, the lives of His soldiers and servants.

The composer has set the hymns to music in both solo and chorus form, which will appeal to all by their beautiful melodies.

Soloists—Mrs. Jarvis McLeod, Mrs. Neher, Mr. J. E. Davey, Mr. H. Mellor, Mr. Windell, Mr. Clapperton. Conductor, J. E. Davey.

The choir have been fortunate in securing the services of Miss Froud, A.L.C.M., as accompanist. Choir of twenty-six voices. General admission 50c., reserved seats 75c., now on sale at Orme's drug store.

GRAND SACRED CONCERT FRIDAY

Leading Soloists of the City With Choir of Twenty-Six Voices Will Render Cantata on Good Friday.

A grand sacred concert will be given by the Baptist church choir, kindly assisted by local vocalists and instrumentalists, in the McIntyre hall on Good Friday, April 5th, when the fine sacred cantata "Christ and His Soldiers," composed by John Farmer (Balliol College, Oxford) late organist and music master to Harrow school, England, will be given.

The cantata is composed of

(Special to Daily News.)
Louisville, April 2.—Along the banks of the Ohio tremendous damage is being done by the spring floods, in Kentucky and Illinois principally. The town of Hickman, Ky., is submerged, but there was no loss of time, the people having had ample warning to get out their effects before the waters rose to a dangerous height.

RAISES AND PRAISES FOR THE SUPT. AND LIGHT PLANT STAFF

INSTALLATION OF NEW UNITS SUCCESS—SUPT. MATTHEWS, A. M. I. MECH. E., AND STAFF ACHIEVE A RECORD IN SETTING UP SWITCH BOARD—THEIR REWARD.

In a series of full reports to the City Council last night Superintendent James Matthews, A. M. I. Mech. E., of the city electric light plant, gave the details of the present efficient condition of the light plant and his work in order to attain this efficiency. The new units, generators and switch board are now complete, running and satisfactory. There is a coal saving so far of at least 30 per cent, working out to about $6,000 per annum. Current can be produced at a cost of 4 cents per k. w. hour for coal. Mr. Matthews has not doubt whatever that at the end of the year under his management the department will show a profit.

The superintendent and staff achieved a record in electrical installation work when they took delivery of, unpacked, set up, wired, tested and completely installed the new switch board between 5 p. m. on March 8th and Thursday, March 21st. Mr. Matthews expresses perfect satisfaction with the workmanship of the switch board, which is all Canadian.

In consideration of much arduous overtime put in by the staff in installing this machinery the Council last night passed recommendations for a $50 consideration for J. Black, $35 for H. Hudson, $25 for J. Little and a pro rata amount for the superintendent himself. A recommendation that Mr. J. Black receive a $25 increase of salary, which has been promised him for over a year, was also passed.

STEAMER CHELOHSIN WRECKED ON REEF NEAR SKEENA SLOUGH

All the Passengers Saved and Coming in by Train---Run on Reef Owing to Heavy Snowstorm and Punched Big Hole Amidships ---Vadso Will Take Off Cargo---Salvor Steamer Wired for---Boat's Pumps May Keep Her From Sinking

The new steamer Chelohsin is meeting with very hard luck on the opening of her service to this port. On her last trip she struck on a reef and last night she again struck on the same identical reef, but with more dire effect. The reef is between the North Pacific and Dominion canneries on the Skeena slough, and the new vessel arrived at the point during a snow storm so heavy that nothing could be seen.

She had a full load of passengers and everyone of them was roused out of their berths by the shock of the impact. There was some confusion at first, which was increased when the pumps were set to work and the boats began to be launched. There was a slight full in the storm which permitted the near shore line to be seen, and this served to allay the horrible fears of the passengers who were faint hearted.

Without any mishap the boats were launched and the passengers safely landed. They will come in by train. The pumps were kept going at their full capacity, but still the water rose in the hold. It was found that the reef had punctured a big hole in the ship right under the stoke hole, amidships, and this hole seemed too big a proposition for the captain to handle. The passengers' baggage was got off and the steamer Vadso will stand by and take off the freight. Seeing that this was all that could be done, the captain wired to Vancouver for a salvor boat to be dispatched.

Meantime the pumps are kept working but with small hopes of keeping her from going down until the salvage boat arrives. Exactly the amount of the damage to the ship cannot be ascertained because of the peculiar location of the hole, which is right under the coal bunkers.

THE HYDRO-ELECTRIC POSITION AT PRESENT

Mayor Says "The Limit is Reached" But Maintains His Attitude of Mystery on Financial Aspect of Matter

How do matters stand with the hydro-electric scheme? Is there anything in the way of its progress at present? Is there any reason for the attitude of mystery maintained about this question? Cannot the public be taken into the confidence of the mayor and finance committee on the subject now?

Questions of this pregnant nature started off by Ald. Morrissey and followed up by Ald. Montgomery. In reply the mayor said the time was not ripe for full disclosure of the state of affairs, but added that the matter was in the hands of the finance committee, which had been putting overtime upon this business. They were now in communication with the authorities on the position.

Finance Minister Douglas assured the enquirers that in the hands of the finance committee all was safe.

Ald. Montgomery did not seem reassured by this and asked point blank if there was any limit set to the progress of this work, and why it could not be told the public so that they might see where they were getting in the scheme.

"There is a limit," said the mayor, "and we reached it on Saturday. We are proceeding now to communicate with the authorities so as to proceed with the work without further delay."

Ald. Morrissey mentioned the fact that Mr. Collins, of the Cold Storage Co., had said that he was going to make a very strong claim for a water supply for his works and if it were not forthcoming to arrange for a private supply.

The mayor declared that Mr. Collins had been entirely satisfied on this very matter by his personal assurance that the pipe would be laid from Shawatlans, along Sixth Avenue, whenever it arrived, and that a water supply would be guaranteed the Cold Storage.

The mayor, however, maintained his attitude of silence on the critical issues of the question until sometime in the future.

Addressing the council himself the city solicitor explained that he had never yet sought assistance in his work for the city; he

CARNIVAL FOR APRIL FIRST

Brilliant Gathering in Masquerade at the Auditorium Last Night—Pretty "Mexican Girl" Won First Prize for Costume.

In the Auditorium last night in spite of the inclemency of the unexpectedly wintry weather the First of April masquerade on roller skates was a great success. The rink was brightly lighted and with activity and merriment the evening was passed. Costumes in all the colors of the rainbow were there in throngs to enliven the gay scene, and the contests arranged for went off with excellent success. As a Mexican girl, in a most becoming costume that suited her to perfection, Miss Irene Leadbetter won the first prize for the most original costume. She looked exceedingly pretty and rinked gracefully. Miss Stella Walley won the prize in the ladies' orange race, skating fast and prettily. The boys' wheelbarrow race was most amusing. The prize was won by Imer Olsen and Charlie Embleton, who made a great pace between them to the delight of the crowd.

SUCCESSFUL SALVAGE WORK

Captain Babington with the Rover and Derrick Scow Despoils old Ocean of Much Machinery from the Grant.

After some weeks of toilsome salvage work at the scene of the wreck of the fishing steamer Grant on Banks Island, Captain Babington, with Captain Norman Broadhurst returned in the Rover the other day, bringing with them a good deal of machinery saved from the wreck. Pumps and winches form the most valuable part of the salvage, but the steamer's boilers were also saved, and a second trip is necessary to Banks Island to bring them across to Rupert. The services of a diver have been necessary to save the machinery, and fortunately most of the more arduous part of the work was accomplished in excellent weather conditions.

The Princess Beatrice got in this morning at 11:15 with a large number of passengers and a full load of freight. This will be her last trip to Queen Charlotte Islands, as the Canadian Pacific Navigation Company has decided to drop that part of its regular service.

DAILY EDITION.

TUESDAY, APRIL 2

"NOBLESSE OBLIGE," MR. MAYOR.

The petty squabble between Alderman Clayton and Mayor Newton, beginning in politics and ending in "bar room" personalities, may be said to have added "to the gaiety of nations" for the moment, but it is high time in the public interest that the whole matter should be dropped, whether apologies are tendered and accepted or not. Both gentlemen when their personal heat cools down must realize that they are representative men, chosen by the city and pledged to give their best interests to the city, and if they or one of them should have the idea that such an unseemly quarrel is a good advertisement of the morality of Prince Rupert, they should, if solely as a matter of public duty, immediately purge their minds of such an erroneous idea.

There may be divided opinion as to the demerits of the matter, as there naturally is regarding every public fuss. Upon this point The Daily News ventures no opinion. It would appear remiss, however, did it refrain from a friendly criticism of the course taken by its contemporary, the Empire.

The editor of that leader of public opinion made in the heat of the last night of the campaign certain brutal personal references to Alderman Clayton. In his official standing as mayor the editor was called upon for an apology after the election was over. This he declined to give—whether properly or improperly is not the question.

But as editor he publishes an editorial which certainly must fail, in the eyes of an unprejudiced observer, to add to the dignity of the office of the mayor of a city soon to be one of the greatest on the Pacific coast. In a vulgar "You're Another" editorial he writes: "as soon as we realized we were being played for suckers." "The Empire man touched him in the Empress Theatre the following night." "He was stung." Just a few specimens of the vulgar phrases used in this editorial.

Prince Rupert is to have the honor of receiving royalty this fall. The Mayor is the representative of all the people on such occasions. He should be a man in keeping with the honors the city offers to the head of the Dominion government and the representative and member of the reigning house of the Empire. His dignity should be impressive. Many mayors in the old country, some in this new one, have for their conduct on such occasions and as a royal recognition of their high office been accorded titles. It may so happen here because the eyes of the world are upon this great transcontinental terminus.

Therefore, Mr. Mayor, as you return to your official duty take as your motto from henceforth "Noblesse Oblige." Your quarrel with Alderman Clayton may be accepted as a personal one; on that you are not called upon to recognize in your official character. Be that as it may, your own personal character, reputation and standing in the community, however, is a matter that deeply reflects upon the city, and it is in that connection we make the friendly suggestion that the Mayor should apologize to the citizens for the editor of the Empire.

You Are on the Bench

YOU—the Public—are the judge. On your good opinion and your good word depends the success of the advertised article. For no amount of advertising will induce you to buy a second time what you do not like. No advertising will offset the bad effect of a dissatisfied buyer.

That is why advertisers must and do maintain the quality of their goods.

Advertisers realize that to turn their outlay for advertising into profit they must give good value.

They are not looking for one-time sales. First sales, in most cases, would not pay for the advertising.

To be successful, they must make steady customers. So, quality is being put in to hold the trade that advertising produces.

Thus, to be sure of quality, one naturally turns to goods that are advertised. And isn't it only reasonable?

No manufacturer can afford to advertise for long an inferior article. From the moment the advertising begins, the quality must either be kept uniform or improved—to go back means ruin.

The day is passing when you ask for a pint of pickles. You name the brand.

You don't ask for Rolled Oats. You name the brand you prefer.

The unknown article may be good, but you are not so sure of it as you are of the advertised article, which bears the seal of quality, —a well known maker's trade name.

TO MANUFACTURERS

You who make good goods and do not advertise—show your confidence in your product.

Advertise it. Let the public know that you stand back of your goods to maintain their high quality.

Make your trade name the recognized standard in your line.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any good advertising agency, or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 303 Lumsden Building. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write, if interested.

THE FAMOUS TYRUS COBB AS BATTER AND BASE RUNNER

WRITTEN BY A PLAYER FROM A PLAYER'S VIEWPOINT—CLUB LOYALTY HAS NO PLACE IN FAIR APPRECIATION OF GREAT BATTER.

Loyalty to his own club and his own league should be a leading characteristic of every ball player, and I think I have always been loyal to mine. I would like to be able to say that a National League player, particularly a Chicago club player, was the greatest in the game. I have said, and I still say, that Manager Frank Chance is one of the most phenomenal players America has ever known. In fact, I would go still further and say that he has never had but one superior. But that one superior I am forced to admit in fairness is not a Chicago National player, nor in fact merits have aroused the attention of his fellow players, and now demand that recognition which they so richly deserve.

The day of the .400 hitter was supposed to have disappeared a decade ago. The introduction of the foul strike rule was designed as the death blow of this remarkable average. The tremendous slump in batting during the years that followed as compared with those which preceded was evidence of this new factor in baseball. But Cobb, ever since he started the baseball world by his meteoric rise to prominence, has steadily advanced toward that seemingly impossible goal of the batter, until during the season that has just passed, he finally attained his ambition and reached the grand batting average of .420.

The new cork centre ball has been held responsible for much of the good batting in the American League, but it should have had the same influence on batting in the National League, for the ball used by both organizations was practically the same. I cannot say the new ball was not livelier, or that it did not favor the batter, because competent judges everywhere admit that it did, and it was in fact designed for that purpose.

However, it did not account for Cobb's remarkable average, nor do I believe it aided him materially in gaining that average. Cobb has always been a star at the batting game. He has beat out many a bunt every season by sheer speed, and in fact depends upon his skill in this direction for much of his effectiveness as a batsman. The new ball prevented him from shining in this department of the game, so that he bunted safely only two or three times during the entire season. He was compelled to resort to straight batting and depend on nothing but driving the ball beyond the reach of the fielders. The hits, which made up that remarkable average of .420, were safe hits in every sense of the word, so it will readily appear that the new ball, while it favored Cobb in some ways, handicapped him in others, and was far from being so conspicuous a factor in his wonderful GAL TWO—COBB record as has been commonly believed.

Cobb's marvelous showing as a batter is alone enough to insure his reputation for all time. Add to this, however, his uncanny ability as a base runner—an ability in which he stands unequalled—his all around brilliancy as a fielder, his quickness, dash and execution of daring feats almost instantaneously, and they place him a little above and beyond the rank of any other player in the game today.

Cobb is still a young man. He has but reached the age when the average big league player is beginning to get a reputation. In the nature of things he should have several years of his best work still before him. What he will do in the future no one knows, but he should certainly not go back for several years to come. It seems hardly possible that he can better his last year's record, but for that matter it seemed hardly possible that he could better the record of the year before. Cobb's career has been a constant succession of shattered records and seemingly impossible achievements.

SHOOTING
STRENGTH
SIMPLICITY

The essentials of a perfect gun, are outstanding features of the GREEN-ER GUN.
Its shooting capabilities are a household word wherever sportsmen congregate, and Greeners guns have won the world's highest honors.
The strength of the Greener action is phenomenal. The Greener Tumble Wedge Fast Bolt is the strongest breech fastening extant, imitated by gunmakers all over the world.
The "Pacific Princess" action is simplicity itself, works easily, smoothly and the striker is a fraction of a second quicker than any other.
You get all these advantages if your gun is a Greener.

GOOD NEWS FOR BOAT TRIPPERS

Six Fine New Row boats Arrive at the Waterfront for the Use of Picnic Parties—Safe, Clean Comfortable Craft.

Every fine day during last summer, and even already this season has seen a shortage of row boats to take the many would be trippers across harbor.
The situation will be much improved this season by the advent to the F. M. Davis float of six fine new row-boats. The boats are specially suitable for picnic parties. They are roomy, safe and in beautiful condition. Two are twelve foot craft, two fourteen foot, and two sixteen foot. They are white painted with dark gunwale strip, and a new supply of beautifully balanced spoon oars arrived with them. F. M.
Davis is arranging to remodel his boat house for the coming season so as to supply the public demand more readily.

Prompt settlements the strong feature of the Mack Realty &

dent. See the Insurance People.

Mrs. Abe Attell Draws Line at Midnight Poker Games

Los Angeles, March 30.—Abe Attell will never fight again if his pretty young wife can possibly prevent it.
The day after Abe lost to Kil-bane she came down town to

ABE ATTELL

fight headquarters. She was weeping bitterly and said she was broken hearted.

"I can't stand it," she said, "to have Abe beaten up this way. If he loses the fight to Tommy Murphy he shall never step into the ring again."

Mrs. Attell ascribed his defeat at the hands of Kilbane to poker.
"Abe didn't want me to live at the fight camp, but I knew that I ought to be there. Just what I anticipated has happened. They had him up until 1 and 2 o'clock every morning playing poker."

GOTCH KNOWS FEW

WRESTLING HOLDS

Can Name Only About Six and Bothers His Head Little with Others.

Although there are many winning holds in wrestling, Frank Gotch, world's heavyweight champion, knows the names of only six of them. The champion knows how to apply the locks, but does not know the technical terms of one-fifth the holds which have resulted in the defeat of so many challengers.
Gotch is known to wrestling as the originator of the toe hold, but the big champion says he

FRANK GOTCH

seldom uses it to throw an opponent. He asserts the hold is more of a footlock than a toe hold, and uses it to trick opponents into positions where he can clamp on other deadly holds. His favorite grip is a half-nelson and crotch hold. He claims he beat Mahmoud in their last meeting by use of this grip, and by the same means beat Byszko in 1910 at the Coliseum in the second fall of their match.

"I don't believe half the professional wrestlers know the technical terms of half of the holds," Gotch said. "I think I can name about six of the locks, but there is such a difference of opinion as to the names of the holds that I never have tried to be an authority on the holds employed by myself or other wrestlers."

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor of the Daily News:
Dear Sir,—Kindly allow me a short space in your columns for a few remarks.

I noticed in Saturday night's paper that the council had decided to pay the assistant city engineer a month's salary, during which time he was indisposed. Very well!

Now, I would just like to ask the city council, which is supposed to be looking after the city's money, if one of the employees of the city working for 45c an hour should happen to get hurt or taken sick and indisposed for a month, would the city council be good enough to grant them the same?

I can't see why people who work in the city hall are any better than those who work outside, when they are only working for a salary. I fail to see why our money should be spent in this way, when necessary work is postponed indefinitely for lack of funds.

This council has been asked to put a sidewalk between 4th Avenue and 5th Avenue, at Young Street, so that people can get across to the Presbyterian Hall, but there is nothing doing. Yet when a hotel wants a crossing they get busy and have it done right away.

Thanking you in advance for space in your valuable paper, I remain, yours etc.,
FAIR PLAY

"HOUN' DOG" CASE

Fisher and Peters Quit Kickin' Around der Remains.

In the police court this morning argument in the case of George Turnbull, charged with the killing of a dog belonging to Mrs. Carl, was completed, but so many points having been raised bearing on the legality and illegality of dog slaying Magistrate Carss reserved his decision until tomorrow, to give him time to look up the authorities quoted and precedents.

Mr. Fisher's strong contention was that the dog wore a tag and was therefore entitled to the freedom of the city, yet the pet was shot and killed dead as a door mat without cause.

DIED IN HOSPITAL

M. Dangel Passed Away Yesterday—Interment at Kincollith.

Matthew Dangel, aged about 45 years, died in the hospital yesterday afternoon after a short illness. His remains will be shipped to Kincollith on the Naas river by the steamer Prince John, leaving at 1 o'clock tomorrow. Mr. E. L. Fisher has charge of the funeral arrangements.

MARRIED SATURDAY

On Saturday Rev. Warren H. McLeod united in marriage Mr. Erick Bergloff and Mrs. Christina Anderson. Mr. Bergloff is a well known building contractor. Mr. and Mrs. Bergloff will reside in their new home on Seventh avenue.

VANISHED LADY IN VANCOUVER

Circumstantial Rumor That the Famous Miss Christabel Pankhurst Was Seen on Hastings Street by Man from Winnipeg.

That Miss Pankhurst, the fugitive suffragette leader, may be now on the Pacific coast is the latest rumor regarding the daring young lady whose disappearance from all ken in England after the recent suffragist trouble is the most remarkable feature of the affair. Lionel Danes, newly arrived from Winnipeg, stated the other day that he saw the famous Christabel walking along on Hastings street, Vancouver, with another lady whom he did not recognize.

He was about to go up to her and address her when she, evidently suspecting trouble, hailed a taxicab and drove in the direction of South Vancouver.

Mr. Danes is well acquainted with the great suffragette leader and has met her on several occasions during her political campaign in London.

Following the arrest of her mother, Miss Pankhurst mysteriously disappeared and the police at New York were advised of her probable escape to the United States by the Scotland Yard authorities.

Miss Pankhurst is known to have friends in Vancouver to whom she may have gone while the affair in England has blown over.
