Two Million Reds Take To Field

FINNS RECAPTURE SALA IN ANOTHER SMASHING VICTORY OVER SOVIET

Stung By Severe Reverses and Facing Danger of Defeat By Its Little Enemy, Russia is Throwing Two Million More Men Into Field

HELSINGFORS, January 5: (CP)—The Finnish high command tonight reported continued successes on eastern fronts with the Finns killing four hundred Russians and taking forty prisoners in two encounters. Earlier the Finnish forces were reported to have won another smashing victory against Russian troops on the Salla front, 125 miles north of Lake Kianta where the 163rd Division was virtually destroyed. The Russians were said to be fleeing from Salla towards Kandalaska. The victory may enable the Finns not only to cut the Murmansk Railway but to destroy it.

HELSINGFORS, January 5.—Stung by the severe reverses it has been suffering on all fronts during the past few weeks and alarmed at the imminence of defeat at the hands of a nation one-fiftieth of its size, Soviet Russia has decided to throw two million more men into the field against Finland in a desperate attempt to win the war.

One million of the new forces will be sent against the strategic Karelian Isthmus and north of Lake Ladoga while the other million will be kept in reserve back of the main line. News of the heavy Russian reinforcements was received with no surprise by the Finnish authorities in Helsinki.

Meantime, after two days of fierce battle it was announced by Finnish authorities today that another smashing victory had been scored by the Finns 125 miles north of Lake Kianta. The city of Salla had been recaptured and another entire Russian division had been almost annihilated. Its remnants fleeing in disorder toward the Soviet frontier. The Russians resorted to the use of huge motor sledges in the effort to break up the Finn lines but these proved ineffectual. In the defeat of the additional Russian division, eighteen thousand Russian troops were surrounded by the Finns.

The Murmansk Railway has now been cut in five places and the Finns, by their crossings of the Russian frontier at various points, have put themselves in a position not only to attack but to destroy the railway.

WHAT KIND OF PLANES?

British Made Ships Believed Used By Finns In Raiding Arctic Ports Now Held By Russians

BERGEN, Norway, Jan. 5: (CP)—Unidentified bombing planes were said in reports from Linahamari, Finnish Arctic port occupied by the Russian invaders, to have raided the port for the second time yesterday, later vanishing over the sea.

The planes were described as being of a type, possibly British, heretofore not used by the Finnish army. Speculation over the identity of the raiders led to rumors, which are without substantiation, that they might be British operating from an aircraft carrier.

The Russian port of Murmansk and other places along the Murmansk Railway line were air raided by planes which the Russians are said to have definitely identified as being British and Italian, fifty of the former and twenty of the latter.

Mineral Production For 1939 Shows Slight Increase Over 1938; More Gold, Copper, Coal

Table with columns: Quantity, Value, 1938, 1939. Rows include Gold, Silver, Copper, Lead, Zinc, Coal, Structural materials, Miscellaneous metals and minerals, Totals.

VICTORIA, January 5.—The value of British Columbia mine production in 1939 is estimated to be $64,939,300, an increase of $453,749 over 1938 it was announced by Hon. W. J. Asselstine, Minister of Mines. The increase is due largely to greater production of lode-gold, copper and coal, which have offset estimated decreases in silver and lead.

lead. Placer-gold production appears to be somewhat lower than in 1938 but, when final returns are received, it is possible that an actual increase may materialize. Lode-gold production has increased again and the estimated value is very close to the all-time record established by lead in 1937. The gold production for the year totalled 636,000 ounces in volume and $22,712,996 in value, leading all other minerals.

Silver is estimated to have fallen off slightly in volume and more appreciably in value. Copper production is estimated to have increased both in volume and value with an average price for the year slightly better than in 1938.

Lead production appears to have decreased somewhat in volume and materially in value as the average price for the year is estimated to be nearly 2-10 of a cent lower than in 1938. Final returns may improve the situation somewhat in regard to lead.

Zinc production appears to have reached an all-time high in volume, slightly exceeding volume production for 1938, and the value, due to a slightly lower estimated price, will be about the same as 1938. Coal production is estimated to be greater than last year, with a corresponding greater value.

Small increases in the value of structural materials and miscellaneous metals and minerals are anticipated when final returns are received.

It was estimated at the beginning of 1939 that mine production for the year would show a decrease of approximately $5,000,000. This decrease was estimated on the basis of slightly curtailed production in lead and zinc, with lower current metal prices and an offsetting of certain new gold mining operations by others that had recently closed down or were expected to close down during the year. The gold mining industry, in spite of certain operations closing down, has been able to show a marked increase in production. Lead and zinc prices have depreciated somewhat during the year, and with the advent of war, capacity production has offset, to a great extent, the anticipated decrease. The mining industry has had a very prosperous year and has maintained production at a high level.

Dividends for the year are estimated to be $11,157,870. Employment and the purchase of supplies will compare favorably with 1938.

1940 OUTLOOK CLEARER

The outlook for mining in 1940 is perhaps clearer than at the beginning of 1939. A year ago world conditions were uncertain and still are, though now we are at war, one

PERSONALITY

Some people have such wonderful personalities that people are naturally drawn to them and they create a following for themselves. That is true in statecraft, in business, in the church and in labor. Public speaking is a help in developing personality and it is used extensively by statesmen and clergy.

Outstanding personalities today include such men as Mahatma Gandhi, Mussolini, Hitler, Lewis, Roosevelt, Chiang Kai Shek and Winston Churchill. These men, outside of the positions they hold, have had a great influence in their respective countries for good or ill. They have forced themselves into their present positions because of their strong personalities.

LOCAL BUS SERVICE

Now that work has started in real earnest on the air base at Seal Cove, the question of a local bus service to serve the men employed there is bound to become a live one pretty soon. Also it will be necessary before long to improve the road leading to Seal Cove, either that at present used or the one the other side of the Creek which was formerly used.

Two methods seem to offer themselves in regard to the bus service. One would be to grant a charter to some responsible concern which would guarantee a good service and the other would be for the city to purchase a couple of buses and put on a service, thus keeping the franchise in its own hands. The cost of this would be from six to eight thousand dollars, it is said. It will be a matter for the city authorities to arrange and, if a franchise is granted, we presume it will have to be voted on by the citizens.

CONDITION IN GERMANY

Edward G. Hawke, who is associated with Sir Evelyn Wrench in the publication of the magazine "Overseas," writes as follows:

"Thousands of political prisoners in the Nazi concentration camps, whether Christians or Jews, have been and are being exposed to torture and death at the hands of their ruffianly S.S. guards. The Nazi government allows the wardens to exercise the most disgusting brutalities on their victims. When a prisoner dies under torment his widow is charged 500 marks for the urn which is said to contain his ashes; in one case at least, a widow was severely punished for complaining about her bereavement to her friends. That a German government should treat Germans so barbarously is incomprehensible to ordinary civilized people, but the facts are beyond dispute. Both the rulers and their agents are afflicted with a persecution mania that puts them beyond the pale, and it is terrible to contemplate the future of the German youth that is reared under such disgusting and abnormal influences. The White paper reveals the true nature of the enemy that we have to fight and overcome, for the sake of the German people no less than for our own safety."

It's interesting to know when reading the Daily News that the people of the whole district are doing the same.

DOGGED BY BAD LUCK

Another Untoward Incident in Checkered Career of Chinese Junk Tai Ping

OCEAN FALLS, Jan. 5.—Another untoward incident has occurred in the checkered career of the Chinese junk Tai Ping in which Capt. John Anderson, his wife and crew made a hectic voyage across the Pacific Ocean from the Orient to the West Coast of Vancouver Island last year, only to be caught in a storm as they attempted the trip from the West Coast to Seattle and were carried to Princess Royal Island where they were cast up, later being rescued and taken to Ocean Falls. Since then the Tai Ping was salvaged and taken into Ocean Falls. There she was being prepared to be loaded on a scow and taken to Vancouver when she sank in 100 feet of water. ## GERMAN INFANTRY IN ACTION IN "NO MAN'S LAND"

Just somewhere—not somewhere in Germany, not somewhere in France, but in that no man's land between the German Westwall and France's Maginot Line, German infantrymen advance on patrol. They use all the caution of stalking Indian game on a scarp hunt. Death may lurk behind any rock or bush—the war so far consists mainly of skirmishes between patrols like this and similar bands of French skirmishers.

WATER LINE IN VILLAGE

Installation Costing $5000 Completed At Kitzegukla And Duly Celebrated

KITZEGUKLA, Jan. 5.—The installation of a $5,000 water system in the village of Kitzegukla was recently completed. The work was carried out under the direction of W. V. McDonald of Vancouver, construction engineer for the Department of Indian Affairs, whose local assistant was George H. Milton. A total of 4800 feet of pipe was laid and the job took an even month. Every house in the village has running water at the front door now and there is five hundred feet of hose for fire emergency.

On completion of the work, the people of the village tendered a banquet as a farewell to Mr. McDonald. Speakers during the evening referred to the changes of customs which the natives had witnessed during the past fifty years. They stressed the need for education as the natives took up the ways of the white people. Chief Alfred McDames presented Mr. McDonald with an old Indian hatchet which had been handed down through several generations as a memento of his stay here. Jeffery Johnson presented Mr. McDonald with a beautiful Indian basket for his wife in Vancouver. Bert Russell was master of ceremonies.

monies and young people of the village waited on tables. The people of Kitzegukla are now looking forward to installing an electric light plant before long.

The damage to the building was not very great although it was badly scorched upstairs and most of the furniture was damaged with smoke and water.

Smithers Ushers In 1940 With Big Athletic Dance

SMITHERS, Jan. 5.—The holiday season in Smithers ended with a big dance put on by the Smithers Athletic Association. It proved to be one of the largest and most enjoyable dances held here in a long time.

Owing to the fact that New Year's Eve happened to come on Sunday night the dance did not get under way until after midnight although a large crowd had gathered earlier.

At midnight the usual New Year's welcome was accorded to 1940 with much noise and singing of "Auld Lang Syne" and the crowd was in excellent spirit to enjoy the dance about to begin. It lasted well into Monday morning but was a lively occasion throughout.

TELLS OF INDIANS

Indian Agent Gillett Makes Plea For Better Hospitalization For T. B. Patients

Indian Agent James Gillett told the Prince Rupert Rotary Club at its regular weekly luncheon yesterday that there were many variations of Indian life in this part of the country. The people living on the Queen Charlotte Islands and in the villages in this neighborhood and on the Naas and Skeena Rivers were highly developed and progressive people with many good points although lacking in background. Their tendency to copy the white people led them to vices as well as virtues.

In the more inaccessible parts of the district some of the people were more backward. He told of a village about one hundred miles in from Bella Coola beyond Tweedsmuir Park. There the native people live under adverse conditions. They are very poorly housed and their civilization is of a very low type. They use horses for transportation.

To get to this village some wonderful scenery is passed through. A river winds through it and the whole, looking down on it from the mountains, suggests the Garden of Eden.

One of the greatest problems in connection with the natives is the prevalence of tuberculosis. The federal government has recently provided a fund of $60,000 for hospitalization for tuberculosis cases. This will be valuable but will not provide anything like sufficient accommodation for all the cases. He urged the members of the club to use their influence to get the government to make provision for all the cases.

The Department is making efforts to improve the condition of the natives. They are getting back the trap lines and are trying to provide a market for native handicrafts.

MINERAL PRODUCTION FOR 1939 SHOWS INCREASE

of the great uncertainties has been removed, and we can perhaps more clearly evaluate the prospects of the industry for the new year.

British Columbia is in a much better position to play her part, not only as a province within the Dominion but as a part of the British Commonwealth of Nations, than she was when the last Great War broke out in 1914.

In 1914 the metal markets of the world were so upset that prices could not be obtained for months. At the beginning of this war base metal prices were pegged on the London Metal Exchange within ten days after the declaration of war, and shortly afterwards an agreement was reached between the Imperial government and Empire producers of base metals with the object of controlling metal prices during the conflict. It is a high tribute to the mining industry that the large producers of base metals have agreed to prices which will give them a small but reasonable profit when the opportunity existed to capitalize on the war and so obtain high prices for their products.

It is anticipated that during the new year placer-gold will show an increase in volume and value. The Atlin and Cariboo camps are likely to maintain production, whereas the new Turnagain River area and the Manson area are expected to show substantial increases.

Lode-gold mining is expected to maintain its high rate of production throughout the year. New producers have come into operation during the year in the Zeballos area and there is still a marked activity in the search for and development of gold properties in spite of the possible influence of war.

Base metal mines are operating at capacity and with slightly better average prices now prevailing, should show increases in both volume and value for the year. Copper should show a substantial increase in value as our operations are not producing metal within the province and therefore are obtaining foreign prices.

Mercury in North
It is anticipated that early in the new year a mercury deposit in Northern British Columbia will be brought into production and while it will not be the first mercury producer in the province, the prospects are that it may be the first successful operation.

The industry is still maintaining the diversification achieved in recent years which is a healthy sign for the future and especially for the post-war years to come.

One phase of the industry which must not be overlooked in the new year is the importance of prospecting for the maintenance of the industry. Exploration and development must also continue during the war period; otherwise the post-war years will show the effect of any slackening off in prospecting, exploration and development. Prospecting, exploration and development of gold properties should receive special attention, especially

Smithers Looks For Good Year

Christmas Trade In Interior Town Best In Long Time

SMITHERS, Jan. 5.—The merchants of Smithers are agreed that the Christmas business was well ahead of any Christmas for several years and all are quite well pleased with the amount of business done. They all look forward with optimism to the coming year as the prospects are that there will be considerable mining going on in the district which will give a welcome impetus to business generally.

SWEDISH TANKS RATED AMONG THE WORLD'S BEST

Sweden may be the home of the Nobel peace prize, but it is also equipped for meeting trouble if trouble is forced upon it. Here are some of the Swedish tanks that form a part of the defence force. These tanks, rated as among the world's most efficient, are equipped with two-way radio and can travel over rough terrain at 28 m.p.h. Swedish armament factories are acknowledged to turn out the best and most modern army equipment in the world, and it is ironic that much of Germany's armaments were made either in Sweden or from Swedish steel.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5: (CP)—Continuing their sensational winning streak which has now given them sixteen straight undefeated starts, New York Rangers last night won by a score of six to two over their fellow townsmen, the New York Americans, to bound into undisputed possession of first place in the National Hockey League standing. The Toronto Maple Leafs were defeated two to one by the Black Hawks at Chicago and are in a tie with the idle Boston Bruins for second place. In the third fixture last night, the Montreal Canadiens were defeated by the Detroit Red Wings who, as a result, are now tied with the Americans for sixth place.

HOCKEY IS UNDER WAY

Weather Still Too Mild In Interior For All Winter Sports

SMITHERS, Jan. 5.—The weather still remains very mild in the Bulkley Valley and is interfering with the winter sports usually carried on here. There is sufficient snow for skiing but it has not been cold enough for curling. The hockey rink has managed to get enough ice to start the season but could do nicely with some colder weather. The first games in the local hockey league were played last Sunday afternoon when the Legion team beat the Native Sons by a score of 2-0, and the Canadian National Railways team won from the newly formed Telkwa team by a score of 3-2.

Table of Hockey Scores: National League (Americans 2, Rangers 6, Detroit 3, Canadiens 2, Toronto 1, Chicago 2), Pacific Coast League (Vancouver 1, Portland 7).

Whifflets From The Waterfront

Owing to lightness of the run in Prince Rupert Harbor, most of the herring seinboats which have been operating there have moved to the vicinity of Namu, down the coast, where a more substantial run has developed. As soon as the fish begin to school up at Prince Rupert, it is expected the seiners will return north. In the course of a patrol trip up the coast, fisheries protection cruiser Kitimaat, Capt. L. Sheppard, arrived in port last evening from Vancouver and will leave Saturday night or Sunday on her return to Vancouver. The Kitimaat left here for the south last fall and this is her first visit back here since then.

Imperial Oil Co.'s tanker Imperial arrived in port yesterday afternoon from Ioco with fuel supply for the company's local tanks and will be sailing today on her return south.

C. P. R. steamer Princess Adelaide, Capt. Henry Anderson, arrived in port at 2:30 this afternoon from the south and will sail at 10 p.m. on her return to Vancouver and waypoints.

Union steamer Gardena, Capt. John Boden, is due in port at 6 o'clock this evening from the south and will sail at 10:30 p.m. on her return to Vancouver and waypoints.

Railwaymen At Smithers On Casualty List

SMITHERS, Jan. 5.—James Porcous, veteran employee of the Canadian National Railway and one of the oldest pioneers of Smithers, had the misfortune to fall and break his leg a few days ago while carrying out his duties in the local railway yards. He was taken to the Smithers Hospital where he is doing as well as can be expected but will be laid up for some time. William Duff, also a C. N. R. brakeman, strained his back quite badly while throwing a switch in the local yards and has been a patient in the Smithers hospital for the past week.
