MAYOR ORDERED OUT OF COURT

The police magistrate had evidently determined this morning that no such scandalous scene as that of yesterday should again occur. When the case of Stella Palmer, charged with being an inmate of a disorderly house, was called, the magistrate ordered the court room to be cleared. The Mayor, who was in attendance, meekly went out with the rest.

In camera evidence was taken in the case and judgment reserved until Monday.

OVERSEAS CLUB CONCERT-DANCE

Large Gathering of Enthusiasts Rallied Under the Flag at the Call of a World Known Newspaper—Held Enjoyable Time.

That the Overseas Club is by no means a dead one was evidenced last night in McIntyre Hall when a first rate concert and dance were given under the club's auspices. A large gathering attended and enjoyed the concert. Following the conclusion of the program the hall was cleared for dancing, and most of those who attended the first part of the evening's entertainment remained to the second part. A most pleasurable dance was held until the small hours to music from a full and efficient orchestra. Membership of the Overseas Club is growing in Rupert. The club is an imperial union of all who own allegiance to the Union Jack of Great Britain and the whole empire. It owes its origin to the Daily Mail.

ONE HUNDRED DOLLAR FINE

Charge of Supplying Against Harry Dudoward Sticks on Strength of Accused's Own Admission.

In the police court this morning Harry Dudoward, an Indian, was found guilty of supplying whisky to Joshua Sebastian and Jacob Shaw, two other Indians, on a launch at the wharf. The evidence was complicated, and there was no possibility apparently of tracing the origin of a case of whisky with three bottles missing from it, found on Dudoward's launch. Dudoward's own story was that he had got liquor from a white man and had passed it on to the Indians. This white man could not be traced. On the strength directly of accused's admission that he gave whisky to his Indian companions the magistrate imposed the fine. Mayor Newton closely watched the proceedings as usual.

The match was from first to last a fast one and was followed with interest by a crowd of enthusiasts. With the opening of the outdoor ball game everywhere now, and the prevalence of the magnificent clear sunny weather Rupert now continuously enjoys, strong effort ought to be made to get the Athletic grounds in shape soon.

EXPECT BIG MINING BOOM

Robert Lowe Has Arranged Options for Number of Copper Properties Near Whitehorse—Active Work to Begin in June.

Whitehorse, April 11.—That Robert Lowe has not been idle since leaving here in November is attested by the fact that both the mails and the wires between this place and Vancouver have been busy lately transmitting messages regarding several copper properties on which Mr. Lowe arranged for option being taken. The properties involved are the Grafter, War Eagle, and Le Roi. Documents giving option on the former have been already signed by Messrs. Whitney, Pedlar, Armstrong, Ed. Dixon and other owners of the War Eagle and Le Roi. Mr. Lowe wires that the parties taking the options are to begin work by June 1st; beginning at an early date, Mr. Lowe says there will be from 75 to 200 miners at work in this locality within a few months.

BRITAIN ON VERGE OF WAR WITH GERMANY A MONTH AGO

Anger of German War Party Now Intense---Call Emperor a Weakling for Trying to Maintain Peace With Britain, an Expert in Indecision, an Effeminate Degenerate---Feeling May Blaze up Again at Any Moment

Berlin, April 10.—From all accounts there came very near being a war with England a month ago. The question of a declaration of war turned out to postpone the Emperor's departure for Orfu, and was the cause of a crisis which resulted in the resignation of Herr Werrmuth, secretary of state for finance. There were many hurried consultations between the Emperor and his chief advisers. Those urging war declared that the moment when England was impotent because of the coal strike was the opportunity of ages for wresting the supremacy of the seas from Britannia.

The war party was headed by Admiral Tirpitz, secretary of state for the navy, and with him in the militant group were General von Harringen, chief of the general staff; General von Moltke, whose deliberate plans conquered France forty years ago, and most of the leading commanders of the army and navy; all were clamoring for war immediately.

On the side of peace were ranged Chancellor Bethman-Hollweg, Foreign Secretary Kiderlin-Waechter and the banking and business element in the government. The Kaiser, assailed with equal ardor by both sides, was torn by conflicting doubts. He listened to both and admitted that the arguments of both seemed indisputable. For several days peace hung in the balance.

Of course, such vital secrets cannot be kept. Something of it leaked out and reached the ears of the British government. The cold response from London was that King George, because of the coal strike, could not pay his projected visit to the Emperor here, a politeness for those extended the King at his coronation.

This information was conveyed to Berlin in very curt terms, in language far from that usually employed in diplomacy. It revealed to Germany that England was forewarned of Germany's militant purpose, and consequently forearmed, coal strike or no coal strike. It was then that the Emperor decided for peace and sailed for his peaceful summer residence.

The anger of the German war party is intense. With unprecedented recklessness the leading members of the war party are abusing the Emperor almost publicly. They are denouncing him as "a weak ruler who gets cold feet at every critical moment," and as "an expert in indecision," and as "an effeminate degenerate," which is the height or depth of their abuse. In a word, the members of the war party, infuriated by the failure of their designs, have become iconoclasts and are trying to smash the Emperor idol.

WILL COST $30,000 TO REPAIR CHELOHSIN

New Steamship Said to Have Struck Same Rock Three Times in Six Weeks---Is Now in the Drydock

Since the steamer Chelohsin, which ran on a rock in a slough at the mouth of the Skeena, has been hauled out on the ways at the Wallace shipyards, an examination by Captain W. H. Logan and Major C. G. Johnson of the London Salvage Association and Lloyds, respectively, develops the information that she is much more seriously injured than was supposed.

The underwriter officials who visited the boat the other day were astonished at the extent of the damage to the craft, which is a new boat in these waters and one of the strongest in the coast service. It is estimated that complete repairs will cost between $25,000 and $30,000.

It was learned, says the Vancouver Sun, that the vessel struck the same submerged rock three times during the six weeks she has been in operation. The first time the craft hit the rock several plates were bent inward.

The next time two propeller blades were knocked off. The third time she passed over the rock it is said that her plates were scraped on the bottom from bow to stern, causing the plates to take an uneven outline almost her full length. Besides the bad scraping she received, plates under the bunker were punctured and allowed the water in. Rivets were started and several frames require replacing and it is believed the steamer must have been driven over the rock with considerable force.

Captain Cowper of the Chelohsin was not aboard the steamer the second time she struck, it is said, but was in charge the first and last times she struck. The submerged rock lies in the narrow channel between the north shore of the Skeena and the small islands at the entrance near the North Pacific cannery. The steamer used this passage as a short cut on the way from Prince Rupert to the river, instead of going outside the islands to the deeper passage, it is reported, and as a result the submerged rock was struck.

SUPERINTENDENT KILLED IN DISASTER AT NANAIMO

EXPLOSION OF POWDER WORKS AT DEPARTURE BAY, IN WHICH A LARGE FORCE OF WORKERS HAVE A CLOSE CALL FROM DEATH.

Nanaimo, B. C., April 10.—In an explosion at the powder works at Departure Bay late this morning Superintendent Wilson was killed and the plant badly wrecked. But one man was injured, although the regular force was at work, and it is considered almost miraculous that many others were not added to the death list.

Later news received here says that the superintendent knew that an explosion could not be avoided and gave warning by firing a blast a few minutes before the explosion occurred. Wm. Woods, a laborer, who also could not get away in time, was seriously injured.

Employees found that the nitrate mixers had become overheated and immediately gave the alarm. It is stated that Wilson was over one hundred feet from the scene of the explosion and was caught by a flying timber.

Superintendent Wilson was 40 years of age and married.

WINNIPEG'S NEW POWER PLANT IS GOBBLED BY A SYNDICATE

Prince Rupert With Her Present Hydro-Electric Proposition in Front Has a Particular Interest in the Manitoba Capital's Woeful Experience

Prince Rupert people who are interested in the hydro electric propositions ahead of the city will find food for thought in the experience of the City of Winnipeg the other day when at one swift swoop in the legislature a measure was introduced and carried which places the city's new five million dollar power plant practically at the mercy of the new corporation that is to succeed the Winnipeg Electric in the distribution of gas, electric light and power.

Well Worked Plan.

The complete victory won by the city at first, when by the casting vote of the chairman it obtained the right to restrain the Manitoba Power Company, holding the franchises of the old gas and lighting company, from using the public thoroughfares without the consent of the city, was swept aside and completely reversed. The members of the syndicate had evidently been working over time and secured the privilege of considering the Reese bills, as they are called. The government members were rounded up to be on hand and carry a clause reversing the city's victory, and was passed by the narrow vote of 10 to 9.

Sweeping Powers.

By the new arrangement the Manitoba Power Company is given the right to amalgamate with the old gas and light companies which have been in existence for thirty years. It also has the right to assume all the powers of these old companies which have the right to occupy the public thoroughfares at will without the consent of the people in any way. As the Manitoba Power Company will be the big competitor against the civic plant the effect of this may be imagined. Under right to use these old charters the Manitoba Power Company will be enabled to use any streets, highways or thoroughfares in Winnipeg without the consent of the people.

Fight for City's Rights.

Not since the Reese bills have been taken up for consideration have the city members and their legal representatives made such impassioned appeals to the committee to protect the rights of the people. Mr. Johnson, Mr. McMeans, Mr. Andrews and Mr. Hunt all asked the committee in the name of all that was right and common sense not to convey to the promoters such wide powers. They talked to deaf ears. The country members of the government, who could not possibly have understood clearly the involved legal verbiage of the resolutions and the subsequent discussion of the legal representatives, took their cue from the Hon. G. R. Coldwell, who replaced the Hon. Colin H. Campbell at the wheel, and with the exception of Mr. McMeans voted to a man in favor of his amendment.

City Cannot Lay Track.

The action of the committee came with all the more striking force when but a few minutes before in the law amendments committee the city was denied the right of building street railway lines within the city limits subject to all the conditions which at present obtain. The members of the Reese syndicate left the room jubilantly.

BIG SMOKE BATTLE

Chicago, April 10.—That the proposed fight between Jack Johnson, heavyweight champion, and Jim Flynn will take place July 4 in Las Vegas, N. M., was announced here by the negro pugilist following a conference with Jack Curley, who, besides managing Flynn, is promoting the contest.

Up to Carnegie

Not that we are going out of our way to lasso notoriety, but we should like to hear from Andrew Carnegie on the handsomest newspaperman in the world. Or, perhaps it would be better to limit it to the handsomest column conductor. — Springfield Union.

ROOSEVELT AND PEOPLE

Said to Be Shifting in Allegiance to Columbus Sentiment.

"We, the people," said the colonel in Carnegie Hall, "cannot turn back."

"We, the people of England," said the three tailors of Tooley street in their address to the House of Commons.

"The deputies of Vaugirard desire an audience, Your Majesty," said the usher at the court of Charles VIII of France.

"How many are there?" asked the King.

"Only one, and please Your Majesty."

The colonel retreats from his Columbus speech and declares in the same breath that he "stands by it." He would recall court decisions and yet would limit decisions to those dealing with conditions of workers. He would permit the supreme court of the United States to remain a little longer. One thing is certain, the colonel will not turn back until he meets another wall.

In arguing, too, the parson ow'd his skill,

For e'en though vanquished he could argue still;

While words of learned length and thundering sound Amazed the gazing rustics ranged around;

And still they gazed, and still the wonder grew That one small head could carry all he knew.

But Oliver Goldsmith's school-master was a good natured person. He didn't hate the parson merely because he happened to be filling the position of parson. He didn't want the parson's job. —Editorial in New York Herald.

Hospitality is an expression of Divine worship.

A myrtle even in the desert remains a myrtle.

He who walks each day over his estate finds a coin daily.

When a liar speaks the truth he finds his punishment in the general disbelief.

THE POOR MAN, GOD BLESS HIM

Man's life is full of trouble and temptation. He comes into this world without his consent, and goes out of it against his will. His journey through life is rocky and beset with strange and contradictory experiences. When he is little the big girls kiss him, when he is big the little girls kiss him. When he is a child he wants candy but can't get it; when he is a man he can get candy but doesn't want it. When he is a boy he wishes he was a man, nad when he is a man he wishes he were a boy again. If h eraises a large family he is a chump; if he raises a cheque he is a thief. If he is poor he is a bad manager; if he is rich he is dishonest. If he is in politics it is for graft, and if out of politics, you can't place him, and he is no good to his country. If he gives to charity it is for show, and if he does not he is a stingy cuss. If he dies young there was a great future for him, and if he lives to an old age he has missed his calling. If he is active in religion he is a hypocrite, and if he takes no interest in religious matters he is a hardened sinner. If he shows affection he is a soft specimen; if he has none he is a cold blooded proposition. In order to be entirely healthy he must eat nothing, drink nothing, smoke nothing and see that the air is properly sterilized before using.

"Man's First Disobedience."

"Where," asked the female suffrage orator, "would man be today were it not for woman?"

She paused a moment and looked around the hall.

"I repeat," she said, "where would man be today if not for woman?"

"He'd be in the Garden of Eden eating strawberries," answered a voice from the gallery.

Without law civilization perishes.

Silence is the fence around wisdom.

NEWFOUNDLAND MURDERS GIRL

Child Went to Play With Dog While It Was Eating a Bone—Bitten in Throat and Bled to Death.

Anna De Calvo, three years old, was killed by a large Newfoundland dog the other day while visiting the home of a neighbor in West Eleventh St., Chicago.

The child attempted to play with the animal while it was eating a bone, when it suddenly made a vicious attack on the girl. The dog tore open the girl's throat and the victim bled to death.

The girl and dog had been left alone in the kitchen for a few minutes, and when members of the family returned they found the dead body of the child.

To be patient is sometimes better than to have wealth.

FACTORY FOR SOCIALISTS

Generous Offer of Yorkshire Factory for Experiment.

A well known Yorkshire manufacturer wants to see whether Socialism is a "business proposition." To test the matter he has made what at sight appears a very generous offer. He promises to give the Yorkshire Socialists, free of rent for six years, a woollen mill at Otley, on condition that they run it on Socialistic lines. The local Socialists have apparently seriously considered the offer and come to the conclusion that its acceptance would involve the provision of £2,300 working capital, which they have not got.

A proposal has, therefore, been made that Mr. George Bernard Shaw, who is generally regarded as a wealthy Socialist, should take up the offer. Interviewed on the subject by a Daily News representative, Mr. Shaw stated that the offer had not yet reached him, but that he would be perfectly ready to entertain it provided there was obtained at the same time a charter establishing Socialism in Yorkshire.

"It is perfectly obvious," he said, "that a factory cannot run on Socialistic lines unless the whole country is governed on the principles of Socialism."

This, presumably, is the reason why wealthy Socialists still invest their spare money in capitalistic undertakings.

HOW EVE GOT EVEN.

When Eve appeared to Adam's ken,

His words were timorously sage;

"Why buy your gowns from Paris when

The woods are full of foliage? Go to the fig, my dearest wife,

Select the goods and pick your dress;

Ah, Eden of the Simple Life, This is the Eve of Blissfulness!"

The years rolled by. A snake one day

Hissed: "China silk—real Irish lace!"

And Mrs. Adam did straightway

In patterns hide her lovely face. Then Adam's heart grew adamant

As Eve's new passion he could see.

"Buy clothes for her? I won't—I can't—

This is the Eve of Bankruptcy!"

So e'en today with girded loin

Poor Adam treads the busy mills;

He patiently runs down the coin

While Eve, at home, runs up the bills.

Yes 'tis not all a cheerless plight,

This job of keeping women fair—

And Adam finds a huge delight

In this, the Eve of his Despair!"

—Wallace Irwin.

FOR PANAMA CANAL

Washington, April 10.—That Japan is planning to establish a steamship line between Yokohama and New York through the Panama Canal is announced here following advices to that effect from United States Consul Anderson at Kongkong. The service is to consist of four steamers of 8,000 to 10,000 tons each.

NO PICTURES OF POPE'S EASTER

Vatican Turned Down an Offer of $400,000 for the Privilege of Taking Moving Pictures of the Procession.

Vatican officials refused an offer of two million lire (approximately $400,000) made by moving picture men for the privilege of taking "movies" of the Pope receiving the Easter pilgrimage. This is the most stupendous offer ever made by a series of pictures, but it was admitted such a set of films, if perfect, would be the greatest money makers ever taken. On the chance that they might be successful, the promoters had received enormous financial bids from every country for the privilege of showing the pictures.

Regina, Sask., April 10.—Sam Moore, formerly a prominent Conservative, announces his change of heart. FRED. LAKE, CHAMPION TRAVELER OF MAJORS

Manager Fred Lake of the Providence Club of the International League for Frank J. Navine and company, is baseball's greatest tourist, says the Detroit News. He has done more hot footing during his 22 years actual service than any other man in the game. Briefly his record is as follows:— Starting his career on the diamond at Moncton, N.B. in 1890, Fred moved up to the Boston Nationals in 1891. After quitting Boston he was with Milwaukee and Providence in 1892; Wilkesbarre, 1893; Toronto, 1895; Kansas City, 1904; Nashua and Lynn, 1905; Little Rock, 1906; Boston Americans, 1908; Boston Nationals, 1910; St. Louis Americans, 1911; and Providence, 1912.

BEST RACE COURSES

Located in the Neighborhood of the Capital of France W. H. Snider, who has been training the Hitchcock steeplechasers in France, is full of praise for the French racecourses. He says: "Auteuil is a pretty little place right in the park in the suburbs of Paris. They close off a part of the park while the racing is in progress. On the other side of the park's Longchamps, where racing is under the same conditions, and you talk about a race track and grounds, why Belmont Park or Sheepshead Bay is a huckster's garden in comparison, and the racing is conducted far more liberally than in the United States. Jockeys can stroll around the grounds with their colors on. They are presumed to be honest until proved to the contrary. But if they do get you—well, it's goodby."

"You don't hear of a purse of less than $1000, and thirty-two different tracks within a radius of twenty miles of Paris racing on one Sunday. Any kind of a horse can win, if you only pick the right place to start him. "All the training in the winter is in the South of France, and don't you think it's like our winter racing. Plenty of stakes worth from $5000 to $22,000 to the winner. They start around Paris again on Feb. 15. It's all trotting now in this part of the country. I am anxious to see the rollers perform over here. They trot on the turf, the same as they run, and they go rain or shine; no postponements on account of weather in France. The trotting races are most all dashes or handicaps, and catch-weights."

HAWAIIAN FOR SWEDEN

Expert Confirms Reports of Marvellous Swimming by Kahanamoku Jamison Handy, of the Chicago Athletic Association, former one-mile swimming champion and record holder of America, who recently returned from a trip around the world, confirmed the cabled news of the sensational sprinting performances of Duke Kahanamoku of Honolulu, and expressed the opinion that the times credited to the Hawaiian are in no way exaggerated. Handy describes Kahanamoku as a giant, ebony-skinned native about twenty years old, standing over six feet in stockings, weighing about 190 pounds, and a magnificent specimen of manhood, straight, well-muscled, and perfectly formed. He swims a smooth, rhythmic crawl stroke very much resembling that of Harry Heber of the Illinois Athletic Club, the National 50-yard champion and record holder, and goes through the water with shoulders high above the surface, moving at fast speed. In last year's championship, Kahanamoku won both the 50 and 100 yards titles, covering the shorter distance in 24 1-5 seconds and the longer in 55 2-5 seconds, over a straightaway open-water course. The century mark established now world's figures which are likely to be recognized as a standard, for four watches agreed on the time, and the local authorities intend to apply for the record. Enthusiastic supporters of aquatic sports in the Hawaiian Islands are so anxious to see the new prodigy pitted against the world's best sprinters that they have subscribed to a purse in order to send him to the Olympic Games next summer in Sweden, where he would represent Uncle Sam in the 100-meter swim, and unless the cold water of the north breaks his to him completely, they expect to see him win the event easily.

ATHLETICS SPOIL WOMEN'S FIGURES

A Declaration of Artists Who Have Excited Hot Discussion in England

The deterioration in the beauty of woman's figure, consequent upon the present craze for athletics, is exciting a hot controversy in England, while medical men are condemning in strong terms the modern girl's over-indulgence in hockey.

The discussion has arisen out of the declaration of Louis Potier, the well-known American sculptor, that the changes in the female form have been so great that woman does not now in any way resemble the Greek type. Consequently English artists are finding it more and more difficult to find suitable models. "The new figure," says a well-known associate of the Royal Academy, "is full of knotty bunches of muscles instead of soft, fleshy curves, and though this muscular development is beautiful in man it is not so in woman. To the artist the over-developed woman is an atrocity in the aesthetic sense."

The result is that artists and sculptors now have to rely more on her creative ability than ever before. As Frank Brangwyn points out, it is still possible to get models who are perfectly developed, but the supply is running short.

A far more serious objection to the growing athleticism of woman comes from physicians and women presidents of girls' colleges. "Hockey is neither healthy nor graceful," said the head of a great London girls' school. "A growing girl who plays this game for an hour, four or five days a week, is almost bound to show curvature of the spine after a year or so."

One of the best medical experts also declares that "the tendency at hockey is to put strain on the muscles that ought not to be trained in young girls and women." But such games as cricket, lacrosse, and tennis are favored by most authorities when played in moderation.

The outcry in England is not against physical exercise for women, but against the undue indulgence in it. Keen observers of present-day tendencies interpret woman's too hearty indulgence in manly sports as tending to produce a sexless girl, flat footed, and ungraceful. This, say the critics, is due to the craving of "the gentler sex" for complete equality with men, and accounts for the growing indifference to household duties noticeable in certain sections of modern Englishwomen.

SUGGESTION FOR MOTORISTS IN BIG EUROPEAN CITIES

Stop Turning Corner or Backing Look Out Danger Ahead TRAINING LESS STRENUOUS So Says Lawson Robertson, Famous Trainer and Coach

At a recent gathering of certain members of the athletic fraternity of New York, Lawson Robertson, trainer and coach of the Irish-American Club, started the gathering by making the statement that sprinters do not have to train as diligently for indoor running as they do when they are preparing to compete in the open. "There is a very logical reason for making this statement," he said, "but first it must be understood that when I say sprinters I do not include any who run more than 150 yards. Above that distance it is largely a test of endurance as well as speed, and therefore those runners must train just as diligently for running on the board floors as if they were conditioning themselves for races on cinder paths. "In the first place, one of the most serious things sprinters have to contend with is the wind. Indoors, of course, there is no wind, and, since speed is not impaired by any outside force, so much energy is not required. Then, too, there is more elasticity to board floors than there is to cinder paths. Another reason is the fact that the runner does not have to take into consideration weather conditions. While preparing for dashes in the pen an athlete is compelled to be ready to use every ounce of energy that he can gather at any time, for he can never tell when the track may be heavy."

$125,000 FOR A HORSE

Mr. August Belmont's Flint Rock the winner of the Dominion Handicap at Fort Erie last summer, will be sent to France to breed his breeding establishment in Normandy. Flint Rock is a son of the Two Thousand, Derby and St. Leger winner Rock Sand. For this horse Mr. Belmont paid $125,000, and English breeders were very anxious for his return to that country to take the place of Isinglass.

ILLNESS AGAIN TO BE FACED

Mrs. J. S. Cowper, Formerly of Prince Rupert, Has to Undergo Another Operation in Hospital at Vancouver.

It is learned with regret by those who remember the serious illness successfully overcome last summer by Mrs. J. S. Cowper, that a renewal of the same complaint has necessitated her removal to a hospital in Vancouver to undergo another operation. Since the family left for Vancouver, where Mr. Cowper occupies a desk with the Vancouver Province, all the young members have enjoyed better than usual health, but Mrs. Cowper, whose health has never been of the most robust since her arrival on the Pacific coast, has been particularly unfortunate in having twice to face the same operation.

The best assortment of men's shoes ever seen in Prince Rupert is Scott, Froud & Co. 21.

He was prominent in Conservative circles and at one time was member of the provincial legislature.

POLITICS IN ALASKA

Four Candidates for Position of Delegate to Washington.

Valdez, Alaska, April 8.—In a private letter received here Delegate James Wickersham announced that he has decided to stand for re-election as delegate to Congress from Alaska. He was elected in 1910 on an independent Republican ticket over Ed. S. Orr of Fairbanks, who was the regular Republican nominee. Delegate Wickersham will be the fourth candidate in the field, the others being William A. Gilmore, mayor of Nome, Republican; Robert W. Jennings of Juneau, Democratic, and Martin Harris of Fairbanks, independent Democrat.

Fixing Responsibility.

It is proposed that the New York authorities be empowered by law to mark the ownership of houses by fixing on the front door jamb a little plate bearing the name of the person in whom the title rests. The idea is, of course, that outwardly respectable people who derive rents from mean tenements and from houses used for questionable purposes will by this means be exposed to public criticism and put to shame.
