NEW GOV'T IS FORMED

Faced With Serious Internal Conditions, King Carol Moves Further Towards Nazis

BUCHAREST, July 4: (CP)—King Carol of Roumania named a new pro-German government amid unconfirmed reports that Russia had made new demands on Roumania. The demands are said to call for more Soviet control of all bridges along the Prut and Danube Rivers where they formed a new Soviet-Roumanian frontier. The new cabinet, under leadership of Iron Gligurtu, includes ten former members of the Pro-Nazis Iron Guards. It is an anti-Semitic and anti-British administration.

Widespread rioting occurred in Bucharest today as students staged pro-Nazi demonstrations and engaged in Jew baiting. In other parts of Roumania workers and peasants engaged in pro-Soviet demonstrations and there were clashes as attempts of the poorer people to flee to Soviet-occupied Bessarabia were prevented by soldiers and police.

Meantime official circles at Sofia, Bulgaria, were reported to have received German-Italian assurances that her (Bulgaria's) claim for annexing Dobruja from Roumania would be supported in a "future peace settlement."

Appointments Are Approved

New Secretaries of Navy and Army From Republican Ranks To Be Endorsed

WASHINGTON, July 4: (CP)—The Senate naval affairs committee yesterday by vote of 9 to 5 approved the nomination by President Franklin D. Roosevelt of Col. Frank Knox, Chicago, Republican to be Secretary of the Navy. This action cleared the way for Senate consideration and conceded approval, probably next Monday, of the Knox appointment as well as that of Henry L. Stimson, also a Republican, to be war secretary. Isolationists in the Senate, led by Senator Burton K. Wheeler of Montana, bitterly opposed the appointments but the administration strength is expected to ensure approval. The isolationists claim that Rooseveltian policies are leading the country down the road to war and that the formation of a coalition cabinet, with the inclusion of Stimson and Knox, is a move in this direction.

DROWNS ON LIFE LINE

Tragic Details Of Fatality Which Took Life Of Well Known Local Ex-Service Man

The body of the late William Wilson, well known local ex-service man and fisheries patrol officer, was brought to the city this morning from Mary Cove, Klemtu Channel, where he was drowned. An inquiry is being held by Deputy Coroner A. J. Lancaster. Information obtained by the police in connection with the tragic fatality is to the effect that Wilson and his wife were on a float at Mary Cove when a dinghy became unfastened and started drifting away. In order to recover it, Wilson jumped in to the water after a rope had been tied around him. Mrs. Wilson playing out the line. He went under and had been drowned by the time his wife could pull him in.

METHOD OF PARACHUTE

Department Of Public Information Details Style, Equipment And Objectives Of New Nazi Air Troops

OTTAWA, July 4: (CP)—An announcement by the Office of the Director of Public Information says "it has become a matter of the first importance to study the methods adopted by German parachute troops, and to consider how they are dropped, how they are equipped and clothed and what their objectives are." The parachute troops are dropped to organize local "fifth columnists" and to arm them, to create panic and confusion and spread false news among civilians, to harass communication lines, to damage bridges, power stations, wireless and telephone exchanges, stores and dumps, and to give information to aircraft by means of signals.

The parachutists are said to be able to jump safely from a height as little as 150 feet from planes travelling about 75 miles an hour. The planes often are about 1,600 feet apart, the aim apparently being to land a company within a space 650 by 1,300 feet and to get it assembled within 15 minutes.

The uniform consists of a close-fitting steel helmet resembling somewhat a motorcyclist's crash helmet, a double-breasted tunic, and trousers of the plus-four type. The helmet is narrower than the normal German steel helmet and has neither neck shield nor peak. The blue-grey tunic is cut loose with the collar turned down and open at the neck, with no buttons showing. The trousers are tucked in over boots half-knees high and laced at the side. Each man wears gauntlet gloves. The light equipment carried by each man includes hand grenades

TERRIBLE DISASTER

Germans And Italians Fought With Each Other To Escape From Torpedoed Prison Ship

LONDON, July 4:—German prisoners fought madly with Italians as they sought to escape from the British liner Arandora Star which was torpedoed and sunk off the Irish Coast while carrying prisoners of war from the British Isles to Canada. There were scenes of wild panic and disorder as the vessel went down so rapidly that many of those on board had to plunge into the sea where British, Germans and Italians struggled among each other to keep afloat.

There were some two thousand on board and some 1000 of these were still unaccounted for last night. The captain and officers as well as many members of the crew went down with the ship. All on board were men.

NINE NAZIS COME DOWN

Raids on Britain Are Proving Costly to Enemy—Naval Vessels Set Afire

LONDON, July 4: (CP)—Anti-aircraft batteries went into action in southeast England this morning as three German raiders crossed the coast and flew in unannounced. This raid was at Portland, an island naval station off the southeast coast of England.

A naval auxiliary vessel was set afire and a small tug and lighter sunk by enemy aircraft attacking the Channel coast today, it was announced. Two great detonations were heard. After the Air Ministry announced yesterday raids at other points, it was found that seven German bombers had been destroyed and six others badly damaged. Today two German planes were shot down by British fighters.

Much of this money will be used, it is planned, for expansion of industry in order to handle war production. This latest figure will bring the defence budget up to $14,000,000,000.

Germans Claim To Have Struck War Objectives

Sudden Move Taken In Order To Prevent Mortal Blow—Prime Minister Makes Report To Parliament On Matter

LONDON, July 4: (CP)—French and British warships clashed in the Mediterranean off the North African coast, the Ministry of Information announced today, as a result of Great Britain's efforts to keep the French Navy, by force or agreement, from falling into German-Italian hands. The statement, elaborated upon by Prime Minister Winston Churchill in Parliament, said that a sudden move to place all French warships in British ports under Royal Navy control had been successful with only two casualties. Elsewhere there were difficulties and, near Oran, Algeria, a fight took place, the result of which was the sinking of one French battleship of the Bretagne class by striking a mine and the heavy damaging through fire of two others—Dunkerque and Provence. Thus by gunfire afloat and occupational moves ashore, Great Britain assumed control of most important parts of the French fleet which had sought to surrender to the Nazis under the terms of the armistice with Germany and Italy.

AIRCRAFT CARRIER IS HIT?

LONDON, July 4.—The Admiralty has no statement to make today on a German claim that the modern 23,000-ton British aircraft carrier Illustrious had been struck direct by a torpedo shot from a German submarine. It was not stated in the German report whether or not the Illustrious had been sunk.

Volunteers For Finland Home

NEW YORK, July 4.—One hundred American and Canadian volunteers, who went to fight for Finland in the war against Russia, returned to New York yesterday aboard a Finnish ship. They claim that they were ill-treated on the ship. Few if any of them saw actual fighting.

Churchill's Report

Speaking to Parliament today as he announced these and other naval losses inflicted, Prime Minister Winston Churchill stated that the cabinet had decided it was necessary for the British Navy to go into action against the French to "prevent a mortal blow" against Great Britain. As a result, strong units of French forces had been taken over. It was with sorrow that Great Britain had been forced to take such action to secure the French fleet, the Prime Minister said, and prevent it from falling into enemy hands to take a major part in the war against this country.

At Portsmouth, Plymouth and Sheerness two French battleships, two light cruisers, some submarines, eight destroyers and 200 small minesweepers and anti-submarine craft had been taken over.

In a clash, due to a misunderstanding over taking one big submarine in one of the British harbors two were killed—one a British seaman and one a French officer, two British officers and one seaman being wounded.

Commenting on the battle raging off Oran and the naval base of Mers el-Kebir, Mr. Churchill said: "I fear the loss of life among the French and in the harbor must have been heavy as we were compelled to use very severe measures and immense explosions were observed."

The action at Oran had been taken after the French admiral refused to accept the choice of sinking the warships or joining the British.

The French vessels had entered British ports ten days ago when

No Statement Available From British Admiralty as to Claim Of Germans

They were unable to reach Africa. The Prime Minister also advised the House that two French battleships, four cruisers and other French naval vessels were safe in the hands of the British at Alexandria. They had joined the British in beating off an Italian air raid today.

Many of the French naval men had welcomed the opportunity to join up with the British, the Prime Minister said. Those who did not wish to do so, however, would be repatriated to France providing arrangements could be made with the Bordeaux government, Mr. Churchill said. This would also be done in the case of French troops, many of whom, however, had chosen to stay on and fight at the side of the Allies.

Excoriated Bordeaux Mr. Churchill excoriated the Bordeaux government for its "callous and malevolent" treatment of Great Britain in turning over some of its aircraft and pilots to the Nazis to fight against France's former ally.

The British Prime Minister, however, predicted that the traditional national spirit of France would remain.

The French national committee in London announced today that no capital ship of the French navy had fallen into German or Italian hands.

UNEXPECTED STRIKE

When the German or Italian torpedo struck the British steamer Arandora Star it is hardly likely the commander of the attacking vessel knew his own countrymen were aboard. Evidently the ship was not being convoyed as the attack would not have been expected. While the sinking of the ship relieves Canada of keeping the interned, it is not the kind of war that anyone likes to wage.

BEING ABLE TO SWIM

Recurring drowning fatalities due to the inability of the victims to take care of themselves in the water draw attention to the importance of children being taught to swim—not only that they may be able to enjoy a pleasant and healthful form of exercise but so that, under an emergency, they may be in a position to save their own lives or to assist in the saving of lives of others.

In the past there has been too little in Prince Rupert in the way of organized swimming instruction, either free or otherwise. This year, it has been announced, free swimming instruction will be one of the features of the Gyro Club's supervised playground activities here. For the younger children there will be classes at the McClymont Park pool and for more advanced pupils at Morse Creek with competent instructors in charge in each case.

The expectation is that there will be a large measure of response to the opportunity thus being offered the children to learn the very important accomplishment of being able to swim.

AIDING THE RED CROSS

Official moving pictures of the Royal Visit to Canada last year are being shown at the Capitol Theatre here tonight and tomorrow. In this connection, it is announced that all the net proceeds from this picture—that is the profits of both producers and exhibitors—are being turned over to the Red Cross for war work. In addition, the Red Cross will benefit through the government having not assessed its costs in connection with the production. Further, these donated proceeds are paid direct to the local Red Cross Societies in the cities where the film is shown.

By going to the showing of the Royal Visit pictures, therefore, one not only sees a highly interesting film display but also part of the admission he pays goes to what is regarded as one of the most important phases of work in connection with the caring of the victims of war and alleviating suffering in connection therewith.

In the American League the Cleveland Indians went back on top when they defeated the St. Louis Browns, largely through the fine pitching of Bob Feller. ## KISS YOUR TIRED FEELING GOODBYE!

Peoples Many Suffer Low Blood Count—And Don't Know It.
The troubling thing about low blood count is that you can weigh about as much as you ever did—even look healthy and strong, yet you can feel as if you had lead in your legs, doped, tired and peppyless.
Low blood count means you haven't got enough red blood corpuscles. It is their vital job to carry life-giving oxygen from your lungs throughout your body. And just as it takes oxygen to explode gasoline in your car and make the power to turn the wheels, so you must have plenty of oxygen to explode the energy in your body and give you going power.
Get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills today. They are world-famous for the help they give in increasing the number and strength of red corpuscles. Then with your blood count up, you'll feel like bounding up the stairs as if you were floating on air. Ask your druggist for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills today.

Trained research-workers asked housewives from coast to coast: "What ready-to-eat cereal is the favourite in your family?" More than five times as many said "Kellogg's" as mentioned any other brand of corn flakes! Men whose living depends on their palate—such as Roland Riendeau, Coffee Blender for the famous London House Coffee—check with housewives. After tasting all four brands of corn flakes in an impartial test, Mr. Riendeau said: "This taste-test definitely proved to me that Kellogg's Corn Flakes win on flavour."

•Saves money! Kellogg's Corn Flakes make a family breakfast or supper for just a few cents. Have you asked your grocer for the new family-size package?

Moving Pictures For Gyro Club

Moving pictures of recreational and physical instruction demonstrations in Vancouver and of hiking and skiing in the Lynn Creek country at North Vancouver were displayed and described by Neil Ross, director of the Gyro Club's supervised playgrounds, at yesterday's regular weekly luncheon of the Prince Rupert Gyro Club. They proved interesting and informative and Mrs. Ross was duly thanked at the close by President G. A. Hunter.

In addition to a good attendance of members, there was one guest in the person of Jack Hall of Vancouver.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. Ruby Weir and family wish to express their deepest gratitude to the many kind friends, who,
through words and deeds of kindness, assisted in relieving the terrible grief sustained through the untimely loss of the dear boy, George Moodie Weir and especially they appreciate the unrestricted effort of Rev. Canon Rushbrook in his capacity of clergyman and friend.

MOISTURE IS NEEDED

Bulkley Valley Crops Suffering Now Because of Too Much Dry Weather—Houston Celebration

Bulkley Valley crops are suffering at the present time from lack of moisture, says W. J. Davies of the Canadian National Telegraphs staff, who returned to the city on Tuesday night's train from a visit to his ranch on the Nadina River south of Houston. Some rain commenced to fall over the week-end, however, and the general hope was that it would continue at this time when the ground needs it badly. Mr. Davies reports that Houston was the scene of a fine Dominion Day celebration on Monday with some three or four hundred visitors from all parts of the Bulkley Valley including such points as Smithers and Burns Lake.

"I feel moo-ved to talk about KLIM", says ELSIE, the Borden Cow. "Klim is whole milk with all the cream left in—turned into a fine soft powder by taking out all the natural moisture. Simply add KLIM to cold water—whisk with a beater—and you have a foaming bowlful of delicious natural-tasting milk. The ideal milk supply for every occasion. Stock up with KLIM at your grocer's or drug store."

ROYAL FILM IS SHOWING

Visit of King and Queen Being Screened at Capitol Theatre Here Tonight and Tomorrow

The long-awaited moving picture record of the tour of the King and Queen in Canada last year, will be shown at the Capitol Theatre here tonight and tomorrow. It is not merely a formal chronicle, however, but a pulsating and dramatic pictorial unfolding of a royal progress through the heart of a nation with the people themselves the actors. The King and Queen are, of course, seen in almost every scene but the spell of the picture is the tremendously human drama of the response of the subjects to the ruler. Every city touched at is given its place in the film with climax after climax in the welling up of the nation's love and loyalty. Incidentally, the proceeds from the production, presentation and distribution of "The Royal Visit" are being turned over to the Red Cross.

With "The Royal Visit" on the current program at the Capitol is being shown "Five Little Peppers and How They Grew" which brings to the screen one of the favorite fiction families of America. The filmization of a great childhood classic is said to have been carefully and faithfully carried out. The program also includes the ever-interesting weekly news reel showing war pictures and other subjects of current interest.

Whifflets From The Waterfront

In port from 10 o'clock yesterday morning until 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon while northbound from Vancouver to Alaska, C.N.R. steamer Prince Rupert, Capt. Neil McLean, had a near capacity list of passengers, most of whom are round trip tourists. Southbound, the vessel is due back here next Monday.

On her way back to Vancouver after a specially arranged cruise to Alaska which included calls at Sitka and certain other points not ordinarily called at, C.P.R. steamer Princess Charlotte, Capt. W. Q. Palmer, was in port from 9 o'clock yesterday morning until noon. The vessel had on board 202 passengers of whom two disembarked at this port. Among the passengers were Albert C. Goward, manager of the British Columbia Electric Co. at Victoria, and Mrs. Goward.

Another week-end fishing party was one consisting of W. D. Vance, H. A. Ereen and Don Brown which visited Falls River and had good success, returning with well-laden creels.

Dr. Frank Aldrich and Mrs. Aldrich of Fort Yukon disembarked here from the steamer Princess Charlotte yesterday morning and proceeded by the evening train on a trip to Fargo, North Dakota.
