Berlin Is Subjected To Its Largest Raid By Royal Air Force

Extensive Damage Done to German Capital During Night in Systematic and Accurate Attack—Four Nazi Naval Ships Sunk Off Boulogne

LONDON, Sept. 24: (CP)—The Royal Air Force did "extensive damage" last night in a raid on Berlin which was "on much larger scale than any yet carried out," the Air Ministry announced. Targets were the Rangsdorf Station, freight yards, power stations, gas works and factories. A number of persons were reported killed in Berlin which had its longest air raid of the war with an alarm of three hours and forty-seven minutes. It was the second straight night on which the Reich capital had been bombed. Despite heavy anti-aircraft fire, the Royal Air Force planes, continuously circling over the city, kept up systematically with their accurate dropping of high explosive and incendiary bombs on carefully selected military objectives. Fire visible from the centre of the city glowed in the northwestern suburban factory district. The bombing was also carried out upon the industrial areas of central, north and east Berlin. No Royal Air Force planes were brought down over Berlin.

CAIRO, Sept. 24: (CP)—Admiral Jean Darlan, Vichy government Navy Minister, said today that France had made "preparations" for the attack upon Gibraltar, which he said was the nature of the attack but it was reported that planes had bombed Gibraltar. He said that thirty French planes, recently from Morocco, raided the Rock. Also from La Linea, the unconfirmed reports that the naval forces were preparing to strike at French Morocco ports in answer to the British air attack on Gibraltar. It was thought at Vichy that the battle was continuing.

Japan Will Resist U.S.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24: (CP)—Japan will resist with all its might any attempt by the United States to make Singapore a base for naval forces in the Pacific. Domei News Agency today quoted the newspaper Kokumin as saying:

ATTACK IS DELIBERATE

Passengers On Empress Of Asia Tell Of Bombing Of Ship Off Japanese Coast

AT A WESTERN CANADIAN PORT, Sept. 24: (CP)—Travelers aboard the steamer Empress of Asia said here last night that when the vessel was struck by a Japanese bomb recently off the coast of Japan, the bombing was deliberate. All agreed that the Japanese naval plane deliberately dropped bombs at the ship, presumably attempting to strike the wireless. Only four Chinese members of the crew were injured. The Japanese apologized, saying it was a test bombing mistake.

Meanwhile from Shanghai comes word that British authorities are demanding a full explanation from Japan of the shelling last week by a Japanese warship of the steamer Marie Moller in the Yangtze River.

AIR FIGHT IS FIERCE

Large Formations Of German Bombers Over London But Are Broken Up—Fierce Coast Battle—Last Night's Action

LONDON, Sept. 24: (CP)—Large formations of German bombers and battle planes sped over Great Britain twice today, interrupting London morning business activity. The rattle of machine guns above the clouds indicated that the Royal Air Force was on tireless patrol. Anti-aircraft guns pelted the sky. No bombs were heard in the central city on the second raid and the German formation was scattered after a brief battle.

Aircraft battles which experienced observers said were the fiercest ever seen over a south-east coast town were fought this afternoon when fifty German planes in waves were engaged by hurricane fighters. During the darkness last night German planes relays made their seventeenth consecutive night attack on London and raids in other sections. The suburbs were bombed more intensely than central London and the attacks were regarded as somewhat lighter than recently.

AND STILL AIR RAIDS CONTINUING

Homeward Bound Londoners Again Duck To Shelters Late Yesterday—Tempo Of Attack Increases

LONG BERLIN RAID
LONDON, Sept. 24:—The Royal Air Force staged the longest air raid of the war so far on Berlin last night, causing considerable damage to the industrial section of the Reich capital. The raid lasted four hours. The Royal Air Force continued its attacks on northern and western Germany and Channel coast bases.

LONDON, Sept. 24: (CP)—Homeward bound Londoners ducked into shelters late yesterday as German raiders were reported approaching in the third raid since dawn. Apparently, the Royal Air Force drove the attackers away and London soon resumed normal. Later the enemy returned for the seventeenth consecutive night raid.

While Britain launched new counter blows along the "invasion coast," Nazi raiders, yesterday paced by a new "monster" four motor-d bomber, roared over the English coast, some reaching London, and sent millions of citizens underground twice after dawn, scattering the western part of the city with bombs. Vigorous anti-aircraft fire, however, quickly cleared the skies and most of the invaders were believed to have been turned back before they reached the capital. Early reports said that five German aircraft had been brought down.

Air fighting had increased in tempo during Sunday night, the sixteenth in succession in which the Germans have bombed London. The raids on London were reported to be more intense than the attacks on Friday and Saturday.

To large extent the anti-aircraft guns and British fighter planes had success over the week-end in turning back and holding the enemy off central London and diffusing the attack to the outskirts and elsewhere in the country. There had been less large scale bombing. On Saturday evening about dusk a first thrust of enemy aircraft from the east was driven off but was soon after followed by the appearance of planes from the west, some of these getting through in spite of heavy anti-aircraft fire. One of the enemy planes exploded with its deadly freight in mid-air and the blast could be heard throughout the city. One flight of fifty Messerschmitts, on meeting opposition, turned back and fled homewards. The Saturday night raids were attended with less damage and fewer casualties than usual.

Both daylight and nocturnal raids of the enemy are becoming increasingly lighter, single and small groups of planes—many of them dive bombers—being used. However, bombs have been dropped from such machines during the past couple of days in widespread parts of the country—southeast, northeast, southwest, northwest and Wales, as well as central areas. Surrey, Sussex, Essex and Kent have been receiving their share of attention. Casualties and damage were reported from a particularly fierce thrust in the northwest coast.

By night the raids continue to be concentrated upon London. Fine service is being maintained by the fire and protective services. In one incident in the central London area twenty cart horses were caught in the basement of a blazing building and were got out by way of an underground tunnel.

There has been no disclosure as yet of the extent of damage done as a result of two bombs falling recently on the British Museum. These attacks on the famous museum were learned of today.

DeGaulle Withdraws From Dakar After His Mission Of Peace Is Fired Upon

TODAY'S DEVELOPMENTS
LONDON, Sept. 24: (CP)—General Charles DeGaulle has decided to invade Dakar with Free French forces in view of evidence that Germans and Italians have assumed control of aerial bases there. A communique said that British naval forces were present off Dakar to assure "supplementary protection against any attack carried out with German participation."

LONDON, Sept. 24: (CP)—General Charles DeGaulle, leader of the Free French forces fighting with the British, has withdrawn from Dakar, French West Africa. DeGaulle's withdrawal came, it is stated, after a British warship, approaching Dakar on a peace mission with the white flag flying, was fired upon. Rather than fight against his own countrymen, DeGaulle ordered withdrawal, it is explained.

No Respect For Hitler - - -

Geography and climate and the British spirit have no more regard for Adolf Hitler's ambitions than they had for Napoleon's. In the most peaceful times, with everybody wishing them well and hoping them a safe journey, steamers from the Hook of Holland to Harwich, from Calais to Dover, from Boulogne to Folkestone, from Dieppe to Newhaven, often docked at their island ports and discharged their passengers looking anything but happy. What might happen to thousands of Nazi troops as they try to cross these turbulent waters at any time after, or even during, the latter part of this month—in flat-bottomed boats or in 500-ton Rhine barges—is best left to the imagination.

England! - - -

Shatter her beauteous breast ye may,
The spirit of England none can slay.
Dash the bomb on the dome of St. Paul's
Deem ye the fame of Nelson falls?
Pry the stones from the chancel-floor,
Dream ye that Shakespeare shall live no more?

Where is the giant shot that kills
Wordsworth walking the old green hills?
Trample the red rose on the ground,
Keats is beauty while earth spins round;
Bind her, grind her, burn her with fire,
She shall escape, she shall aspire.

Cast her ashes into the sea,
She shall arise to make men free;
She shall arise in sacred scorn,
Lighting the lives that are yet unborn;
Spirit supernal, splendor eternal, ENGLAND.

(From a poem by H. G. Cone in the Atlantic Monthly, 1915)

French Indo-China - - -

With France facing the spectre of starvation, Vichy attributing it to crop failure and disease among animals but not mentioning that France has to feed the Germans before she gets anything for herself, the Vichy government appears to be stiffening its back a bit. Taking them for what they may be worth, week-end dispatches said that the Vichy-controlled French Indo-China government was refusing Japanese demands for naval and air bases. There must be some good reason for this resistance. Certainly it is not due to any ability of Indo-China to defend itself independently from Japanese invasion in the event of which she would undoubtedly become a battleground between Japan and China. Possibly it is some assurance on the part of United States that she will act if Japan disturbs the status quo of Indo-China. Indeed, United States is already on the spot on this question, at least as far as her prestige is concerned. Meantime the Indo-China situation still seems somewhat obscure with latest information that the Japanese invasion is to some extent still being resisted.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 24: — Speaking here Saturday night in the course of his western tour, Wendell Willkie, Republican candidate for President of the United States, advocated that this country should continue its assistance to Great Britain on as large a scale as possible. No formal speeches were made on Sunday by the candidate.

Last night Willkie was in Seattle, dealing with unemployment in an address in Rancier Baseball Park. He charged the administration with failure to solve unemployment. Large crowds gathered in Seattle streets to greet Willkie.

Why the Red Cross is in urgent need of funds

Here are a few tasks the Canadian Red Cross must tackle at once:

- 1 At the request of the British Red Cross, it has undertaken to provide 10,000 parcels of food each week from Canada for British prisoners of war in Germany. Canadians can thus help to lessen the strain on Britain's food supplies.
- 2 The Canadian Red Cross will provide, equip and co-operate with the Department of National Defence in maintaining a number of convalescent hospitals in various parts of Canada for use by Canadian soldiers, here and from overseas, who are sick or wounded.
- 3 The Canadian Red Cross will help to supply clothing and other necessities to the more than 100,000 evacuee children in Britain, and the 100,000 refugees from invaded countries who have sought shelter under the Union Jack. Many articles of relief clothing have been supplied, but another half million articles will be needed from Canadian Red Cross workrooms.
- 4 The Canadian Red Cross is sending an increasing flow of supplies for the alleviation of civilian suffering caused by enemy bombing of Britain.
- 5 As Canada's own armed forces grow, on land, on sea and in the air, the need for Red Cross services increases.
- 6 The Red Cross must be ready and fully equipped to meet any emergency at the moment it arises.

These are tasks you must not leave undone. Support the Red Cross with all your heart.

Pearson, provincial minister of labor, and Tom Moore, the president, the annual convention of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada opened in Vancouver yesterday. Hon. Norman McLarty, federal minister of labor, sent regrets at being unable to attend the convention.

R. E. C. IN SESSION

Miss Kay Watson Elected President Of Local Council

A general meeting of the Religious Education Council was held at First Baptist Church last evening with a goodly number present. The principal business of the meeting was to elect new officers, the result being as follows:

President, Kay Watson.
Vice-President, Ken Harding.
Secretary, Miss Eileen Peasby.
Chairmen of Boards—Miss Eileen Hamblin, Miss Margaret Armstrong, Miss Phyllis Hamblin, Ken Dakin and P. H. Linzey.

Reports of the results of the efforts of the society during the last year were given by the president, secretary and treasurer and plans for the coming winter were discussed. The possibility of renting the old Rupert East Gymnasium as an office and badminton hall was considered.

Mrs. W. Noble, representing the Women's Christian Temperance Union, urged the Council to aid in helping with the teaching of temperance in local Sunday Schools.

A new-comer to the city was W. Edkin, who introduced the idea of organizing a drama club in Prince Rupert and hoped the Religious Education Council would co-operate in this effort.

Refreshments were served after the meeting.

Need of Spiritual Awakening Urged

"The Christian War Within" Is Subject Of Presbyterian Pastor At Morning Service

"The Christian War Within," the combat of the individual against complete submission to God, was the subject of Rev. H. G. Funston at morning service in First Presbyterian Church on Sunday. How many, asked the pastor, were content to go on just as average men? Who were willing to sacrifice as greatly for the spiritual King as for the earthly King? How many preferred peaceful slumber to meeting the challenge of the troubled conscience? Mr. Funston was continuing his sermons along the general line of the necessity of spiritual reawakening in these days of crisis.

FOOTBALL BANQUET

Four Trophies Of Season Received
By Velvet Saturday Night

On Saturday night the Prince Rupert Football Association held its annual banquet with representatives from the various teams present and also numerous guests. President Ted Smith acted as chairman of the proceedings.

After the meal the season's cups were presented by J. S. Wilson, secretary treasurer of the Canadian Legion, presented the Dominion Day Cup. In his presentation speech Mr. Wilson emphasized the necessity of clean hard sport. D. C. Stuart presented the Stuart Shield which he donated to the league many years ago. The object of this trophy was to create an injured player's fund. President Ted Smith presented the Mobley Cup and congratulated the Velvet team on its fine play throughout the season. The Gilhuly Cup, the fourth and last, was presented by Herbie Morgan, secretary treasurer of the Football Association, who briefly reviewed the season's activities. All four cups were won by the Velvet football team and were received by Henry Dickens, the team's captain.

The presentations were interspersed with several musical selections—songs by J. A. Teng and Lieutenant William Mathews and accordion solos by Mike Colussi. Community singing with J. S. Wilson leading and Private Townsend on the piano, was greatly enjoyed.

Other speakers during the evening were Lieutenant Bill Matthews, on behalf of the Irish Fusiliers, and Mr. George from Vancouver who was responsible.

The evening's entertainment was suitably brought to a close with the singing of "God Save The King."

TEAM IN ROMANCE

One of the tenderest romances ever to be shown on the screen, "Waterloo Bridge," co-starring Vivian Leigh and Robert Taylor, shows at the Capitol Theatre as the feature offering for the first half of this week.

The story is woven around a whirlwind courtship and love affair between a ballet dancer and a handsome young officer. They meet on Waterloo Bridge during an air raid, are engaged in twenty-four hours and are separated on their wedding day when he is suddenly called back to the front. She reads he has been killed in action but a year later they are brought together again at Waterloo Station when he returns after having been held in a prison camp. Thus the romance is brought to a dramatic climax.

As an outstanding romantic team, Miss Leigh and Robert Taylor are supported by such well known featured players as Lucille Watson, Virginia Field, Maria Ouspenskaya and C. Aubrey Smith.
