Getting Ready For Political Fight

CHURCHILL NOT FEARFUL; REICH NOT SUCH STRONG ENEMY AS IN LAST WAR

First Lord of Admiralty Warns Britons, However, to be Ready for Anything—Confident of Real and Lasting Victory

MANCHESTER, England, January 27: (CP)—Speaking here today, Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill, First Lord of the Admiralty, termed Germany a stronger enemy than the present Nazi Germany. He said that he doubted the ability of Germany to withstand reverses as she did in the last war. Mr. Churchill had no idea how much the war would cost but he believed that France and England, in man power, could and would outlast the enemy. The British must bear in mind, Mr. Churchill said, that "we shall have to pay a relentless toll for sea mastery."

S. AFRICA IS LOYAL

Resolution of General Hertzog Thrown Out by Vote of 81 to 59

CAPETOWN, January 27 (Canadian Press)—The South African House of Assembly today rejected by a vote of 81 to 59 the resolution of Former Premier J. B. M. Hertzog demanding a separate peace between South Africa and Germany.

A Labor Party speaker declared that the proposal was intended as propaganda to suggest the disintegration of the British Commonwealth and that Oswald Pirow, who was Hertzog's defence minister, "inherited every German characteristic except the ability to organize an army."

Hertzog was succeeded as premier by General Jan Christian Smuts on September 6 after the outbreak of war.

Canadian Airways Plane In Forced Landing—Fatality

EDMONTON, Jan. 27: (CP)—William A. Donahue of Port Radium was killed when a Canadian Airways plane made a forced landing near McMurray on Thursday.

Two Ships Perish And One In Difficulty In Orient Storm; Crew Of Norway Ship Missing

TOKYO, January 27: (CP)—One member of the crew of the Philippine liner President Quezon was reported lost overboard from a lifeboat after the 8,341-ton ship ran aground and sank off Tanegashima Island in southern Japan yesterday. All others aboard are safe, said the Japanese steamship Ukishima Maru which answered the "S.O.S." call. The Quezon sank eight hours after the stranding. There was a severe storm and raging sea at the time of the stranding and throughout the carrying out of rescue operations. Fortunately, the stranding occurred on a sand bank. The engine room soon filled and there was believed for a time to be no immediate danger but, in the storm, she shifted and sank. She grounded stern first.

BIG ORDERS FOR TIMBER

Great Britain Contracts for $17,000,000 Worth of Lumber

LONDON, Jan. 27: (CP)—Great Britain is depending heavily upon Canada and other Dominions to meet war-swollen timber demands. A. J. Harris, controller of timber, said. The government has contracted for overseas timber at $17,000,000, Harris said.

Weather Forecast

General Synopsis—A deep depression is centered west of the Queen Charlotte Islands and has caused strong winds with rain on the coast. It is unsettled and mild over the interior of British Columbia.

West Coast of Vancouver Island—Strong southeast to south winds or moderate gales, unsettled and mild with rain.

AIR STILL UNSETTLED

Japan Says British Reply to Protest Over Asama Incident Unsatisfactory

TOKYO, January 27: (CP)—The Foreign Office indicates that it does not consider the British reply to the Japanese protest against the seizure of twenty-one Germans from the Japanese liner Asama Maru as satisfactory. Foreign Minister Arita demands reconsideration of "legalistic expositions" in the reply. No agreement has been reached but the conversations will be continued.

The controversy reached new bitterness with an official describing the incident as "very serious." A Japanese Foreign Office spokesman said, "National feelings are rising very high."

Earlier it had been suggested that, as a result of negotiations between Foreign Minister Arita and British Ambassador Sir Robert Craigie, the two countries appeared to be moving toward a compromise over the Asama incident.

The British not in reply defended the incident but added that Great Britain had no desire to interfere with Japanese shipping.

Hong Kong dispatches said that the British coastal steamship Wingsang had been stopped by two blank shots from a Japanese warship as a Japanese retaliatory measure.

Bulletins

KILLED IN AIR CRASH
LONDON—Hon. Drogo Montagu, Royal Air Force instructor and son-in-law of Lord Beaverbrook, was killed in an airplane accident over Great Britain.

TREATY HAS EXPIRED
WASHINGTON—The Japanese-American commercial treaty expired at midnight last night, placing commercial relations between the two countries on a day-to-day basis and opening the way for an embargo on raw material shipments to Japan. Japan is hopeful of some sort of a renewal but the United States appears to be none too anxious.

LANCASHIRE EXPLOSION
LONDON—A terrific explosion at the power station at Irlam, Lancashire, caused power to be shut off in the townships of Irlam and Cadishead and stopped operations in Lancashire Steel Corporation plant. There is no suspicion of sabotage.

DAYLIGHT SAVING
LONDON—Daylight saving will come into effect in England two months earlier than usual this year on February 25, Sir John Anderson, Home Secretary, announces. Shopping hours are also being extended for the benefit of workers.

HEPBURN CRISIS
TORONTO—A crisis in the Hepburn government, arising out of the attitude towards the federal administration, is foreseen by political observers. Some go so far as to suggest it may lead to the ousting of Premier Mitchell Hepburn.

TORONTO—Most Rev. J. C. Wilbur, 81, former Bishop of Columbia at Victoria before 1915 when he was made Archbishop of Ottawa, since retiring, is dead here.

WESTMINSTER HALL BURNS
NEW WESTMINSTER—St. Patrick's Hall here was destroyed by fire last night while a card party was in progress. Fifty guests escaped safely. Damage is estimated at $12,000.

Russians Sustain Another Crushing Defeat; Hundreds Of Dead Left; Arms As Well

HELSINGFORS, January 27: (CP)—A crushing Russian defeat northeast of Lake Ladoga with capture of huge quantities of tanks and other war materials by the Finns is reported by unofficial Finnish sources. Reports said that the Russians had abandoned one hundred tanks as well as armored cars, motorized equipment, anti-aircraft guns and other artillery.

Company after company of the Red Army were cut to pieces, hundreds of dead being left in the field. In the Salla sector to the north the Russians also continue in retreat.

Dominion's War Needs For Power Factor in Progress of Discussions Initiated Nearly 40 Years Ago

By R. K. CARNEGIE

OTTAWA, Ont. Jan. 27: (CP)—Since almost the beginning of the century governments at Ottawa and Washington have been moving in the general direction of a St. Lawrence development which would enable ocean-going ships to steam to the head of Lake Superior and provide for development of enormous additional electrical power to report on the feasibility of making the St. Lawrence from Montreal to Lake Ontario navigable for ocean-going traffic and to apportion the cost of such a project as between the United States and Canada.

In 1921 Col. W. P. Wooten for the United States and W. A. Bowden for Canada made a report on the project to the Commission. The same year the Commission recommended the United States and Canada enter into a treaty combining the St. Lawrence development and the new Welland Canal.

In 1923 United States secretary of state notified Canada of his country's readiness to enter into negotiations for a treaty based on the report. Canada replied, agreeing to start the negotiations by having a more thorough study made of the

ATTACK ON TRUCK LINE

German Plane Aims at French Transport Machines for First Time in War

PARIS, Jan. 27: (CP)—A German plane attacked a column of French trucks for the first time in the war, militarists said today, adding that no damage had been done.

Cold weather today limited action on the Western Front largely to artillery fire in the vicinity of the Vosges Mountains and the Moselle River.

Heavy Nazi troop movements and feverish work on erection of new fortifications indicate that the Reich plans a major offensive as soon as weather is more favorable. "Nothing of importance to report," said a French communique.

Final Say As To Date Depends On Report Chief Polling Officer

Local Situation is Centre of Interest—Olof Hanson Expected to Run—Weaver, C.C.F., Due Soon—No Word From Conservatives

Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King, at Ottawa this afternoon, definitely announced March 26 as election day. March 11 will be nomination day. A military vote will be taken overseas and in Canada.

OTTAWA, January 27: (CP)—The major political parties are rapidly girding themselves for the coming federal election contest. Yesterday the Liberal caucus approved the action of Prime Minister William Lyon Mackenzie King in calling the early election. The Conservative caucus just as emphatically condemned it.

War News

DESTROYER CASUALTIES
LONDON—The Admiralty now places at 68 the number of those who lost their lives in the sinking of the destroyer Grenville. In the loss of the Exmouth, another destroyer, 188 perished.

THIRD DIVISION
OTTAWA—Organization of a third Canadian division for overseas service is expected to commence shortly.

LOSSES AT SEA
PARIS—French shipping circles today said that the 2769-ton French freighter Torony was torpedoed off the Spanish coast by a German submarine after she refused to admit that she was carrying contraband to England. Survivors, after five days drifting, reached the south Ireland coast. Thirteen are believed lost. One Finnish and one Danish ship are also listed as lost since yesterday.

SWEDES EVACUATING
STOCKHOLM—Wholesale evacuation of some Swedish frontier cities to the country is being prepared for in event of an emergency arising suddenly.

SUBS IN CARIBBEAN
NEW YORK—Three or four German submarines are reported to have reached Caribbean waters close to British Trinidad Island, either to raid shipping or to protect German vessels.

CONTINUE PROPAGANDA
LONDON—British and French planes are continuing very effective propaganda activity over all parts of Germany, dropping large numbers of leaflets critical of Chancellor Hitler and his inconsistencies.

DEUTSCHLAND DAMAGED
LONDON—A News-Chronicle dispatch from Oslo says the reason for the Deutschland returning to Germany is that she was badly damaged when attacked by the British submarine Salmon and had to go home for repairs. Survivors of a Norwegian ship landed on the west coast after their ship was torpedoed declare that they saw the attacking submarine later sunk by a British destroyer.

HALF OF TANKS LOST
HELSINGFORS—Of 1000 tanks sent by Russia to Finland since the start of the war half have been either destroyed or captured by the Finns, it is claimed.

TURKEY'S WARNING
LONDON—The Premier of Tur-

The Conservative leader, Hon. Dr. R. J. Manion, is expected to conduct a transCanada campaign but Prime Minister King will stay close to Ottawa in view of war duties.

Premier King said that, while it was likely the election would be held March 26, the date would not be definitely set until there was a final report from the chief electoral officer.

If his government was returned to power, Mr. King said there would be a session early in April. The people would know before they voted, he said, who would be his ministers in carrying on the war.

The local federal political situation is, naturally, being much discussed. The Liberals have not yet formally nominated but there appears to be no reason to suppose but that Olof Hanson, the sitting member, will be renominated and will accept. The C.C.F. have as their candidate George Weaver of Vancouver and, if they mean to go through with the fight, it is to be expected that Mr. Weaver will soon be here for the campaign. What, if anything, the Conservatives intend to do is uncertain. Up to this morning, there had been no move toward calling a convention.

G. W. Nickerson has been much discussed in connection with the political situation. Asked this morning as to his intentions, if any, he replied: "I have nothing to say at this time."

YOUTH SHOT BY POLICE

One Lad in Vancouver in Hospital—Another Under Arrest

VANCOUVER, Jan. 27: (CP)—A twenty-two-year-old youth sustained minor injuries Thursday night from police bullets in a chase following a $30 drug store hold-up. An alleged companion, Frank Cavanaugh, aged 21, was arrested and charged with robbery with violence.

key gave a blunt warning today to Germany to keep her hands off the Balkans, a dispatch from Bucharest to the Daily Express says. This was in reply to threats of the Reich against Roumania if she fails to make required oil available.

MEASLES EPIDEMIC
VANCOUVER—There is an epidemic of measles in Vancouver and the medical health officer has issued special warning.

BORAH'S SUCCESSOR
WASHINGTON—John Thomas, Idaho banker, has been appointed to succeed the late Senator W. E. Borah. Like Borah, he is a conservative Republican and an isolationist.

EDITORIAL

FRENCH CANADIAN ATTITUDE

The French language newspaper "Le Jour," published in Montreal, has been publishing articles dealing with the result of the recent provincial election and, in summing up, the editor of that paper says: "What I assert is the entire province of Quebec is profoundly disgusted with the policies of Germany and Russia and that they will rejoice to the limit at the success of the democratic nations."

In summing up the vote, French Canadian authorities say that there is very little imperialist sentiment in Quebec. The people of Quebec favor a united Canada and, in order to preserve unity, they are willing to take an active part in the war and also they agree with Cardinal Villeneuve that, in the present European conflict, the fate of Christianity is at stake. What they are opposed to is conscription. If they had thought that Mr. Duplessis was right when he asked for their vote in order to evade conscription they would have voted for him. However, they believed Right Hon. Ernest Lapointe when he told them that the way to avoid conscription was to vote against Duplessis because, if the present government resigned, it would probably be followed by a union administration pledged to conscription.

At the present time there is no need for a conscription law. There are more men offering than are needed. A good many French Canadians are offering their services and for the sake of a united Canada it is very desirable that conscription be avoided.

PLAIN SPEAKING

Sometimes plain speaking is far preferable to pussy-footing. Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill annoyed some of the neutral powers recently by telling them they would before long have to fight against a common enemy in self-defence instead of remaining neutral. He meant of course that circumstances would compel them. It was an unpleasant thing to tell them but it was probably true and it may do good. Many of us do not like to be told unpleasant facts but it is often good for us to hear them.

REAL FIGHTING SOON

Evidently there is to be some real fighting soon in Europe. So far the war has been very largely a sea fight with Germany sinking all ships on sight, whether enemy or neutral, with the result that neutral shipping has suffered almost as much as British and French. As Britain is doing most of the policing of the seas and has had every available ship, great or small, out looking for mines or submarines, she has naturally borne the brunt of the fighting and has had the largest number of losses. Compared with the number of ships carrying supplies the losses have not been very large.

Now, the enemy seems to be gathering in force and, if the Russians should break through Poland, the Germans may join them in a united attack on the Scandinavians, or at any rate on Holland and Belgium. It seems evident that a big effort will be made soon.

BEATEN AT HONOR FOR KETCHIKAN MR. TOBEY

Prince Rupert Basketball Team Sustains Third Reverse On Northern Tour—36 to 34 Score

After sustaining two defeats at noon the employees of the Canadian National Railways gathered in the waiting room of the depot to do honor to their departing superintendent, W. H. Tobey, recently appointed to the position of general manager, Pacific Great Eastern Railway.

Peter Lakin acted as spokesman for the employees and, in presenting the gift, a purse of gold, he explained that it was from the employees of all ranks and departments over the division as a symbol of the esteem and affection in which Mr. Tobey was held by those with whom he worked, being an indication that his acts of kindness and sympathy which he had demonstrated on many occasions to employees, had not gone unnoticed or unappreciated. He further pointed out that Mr. Tobey's sportsmanlike and comradely bearing toward his fellow workers had much to do in bringing about that loyalty to the company which went far towards producing effective results. He said it was not "Good-bye" but rather "au revoir" and hoped that their ways would cross in the days to come.

Mr. Tobey, in a fitting response, stated he was hardly able to find suitable words in which to acknowledge his personal indebtedness to the employees on the division. He freely pointed out that he felt it was the splendid co-operation and loyalty of the employees to the railway, as well as the conscientiousness and efficiency with which they carried out their work that made it possible during the past several difficult years of the depression to make as good a showing as had been done. He desired to thank one and all, in every department, from the top to the bottom, for the co-operation that he had been given and to wish each one God-speed for the future.

Scoring (fouls in parenthesis): Prince Rupert—Morgan, 5 (1); Beyon, 7 (2); MacPhee, 9 (4); Dominato, 4 (1); Stiles, 6 (2); Campbell, Holkestad 3 (0); total 34.

Ketchikan—Hinkleman, 11 (2); Harris, 2 (2); Elliott, 6 (3); Northrup, 14 (1); Phillips, 3 (1).

The second Ketchikan game will be played tonight.

GIVING OUT WAR ORDERS

Two Million Dollars Worth Awarded Last Week, Minister of Transport Announces

OTTAWA, January 27 (Canadian Press)—Hon. Clarence D. Howe, minister of transport, announces that the War Supply Board has placed 433 orders totalling almost $2,000,000, this during the week ended January 20. Construction work on the Atlantic and Pacific coasts necessitates an outlay of $250,000.

NO MONEY IF WEDS

Eccentric Terms of Bank President Will Affect Son in British Columbia

OKANAGAN FALLS, Jan. 27: (CP)—Major Hugh N. Fraser, rancher, whose father left him $1,500,000 in trust until he marries, said yesterday that he hopes to remain single. The father, John Burns Fraser, formerly Bank of Nova Scotia president, died November 2, leaving $3,000,000 to Fraser and his brother. Fraser receives the interest and, if he dies unmarried, the principal goes to the brother, Lieut. Col John D. Fraser.

Struck By Car; Barbara Teng Hurt Last Eve

Barbara Teng, six-year old daughter of Sergeant and Mrs. J. A. Teng, 613 Eighth Avenue East, sustained slight concussion and bruises and is today in the Prince Rupert General Hospital after having been struck last night by an automobile on Sixth Avenue East near Eberts Street.

Barbara and two other girls, Julia Field, aged 3, and Ruth Jerstad, 8, were walking home about 7:30 p.m. from the Baptist Church, where they had been to see a wedding, and were about to turn off Sixth Avenue into Eberts Street when a car driven by Emil Jensen came up from behind travelling eastward. Barbara was evidently struck and thrown to the side of the road, being rendered unconscious, while the two other girls ran home to tell Mrs. Teng, the driver stopped his car, picked up Barbara and took her to the hospital, then immediately reporting the incident to the police.

The injured girl was reported this morning to be resting comfortably and was not believed to have been seriously injured.

PREPARE FOR VOTE

Returning Officer Was Busy Yesterday Getting Out Instructions for Queen Charlottes

T. W. Brown, federal election returning officer, had to get quick action yesterday to mail instructions for the holding of ten polls on Queen Charlotte Islands. The necessary documents had to be prepared in a few hours in time for the sailing of the Prince John last night. The ten enumerators are appointed by Mr. Brown.

The returning officer also had the appointment to make of enumerators for all the polling stations in the constituency except Prince Rupert. For this city the two leading political parties, which in this case are the Liberal and C. C.F. based on the result of the last election, each nominated fourteen men to handle the work. A new list of voters has to be prepared by these appointees who will call at every house and make up the list. Arthur Brooksbank, secretary of the Liberal Association, and James Black, secretary of the C.C.F., have been notified to prepare the list of enumerators within five days and it is understood that work on the list will then commence.

The returning officer also has to arrange for polling places in every district with the proper officers in charge. Ballots must be prepared and sent out and ballot boxes also forwarded. Everything must be done strictly according to regulations. This means that Mr. Brown will be a very busy man for the next five or six weeks.

NEW LINE OF ATTACK
Great Britain Speculates on Next Move of Nazis

LONDON, Jan. 27: (CP)—German claims that submarine production has reached a one-a-day level together with reports that the Reich had launched the new plane carriers stirred speculation on the chance of a new Nazi campaign against merchant shipping.

Meantime, the Royal Air Force continues the development of extensive protective measures including new long range fighter planes, which have already been successfully demonstrated and the extension of balloon barrages, which already cover 700 miles of British coast.

Former Kaiser 81 Years Old
DOORN, Holland, January 27 (Canadian Press)—A lonely old man, disappointed that not a single member of his family had been allowed to leave Germany to visit him, former Emperor William Hohenzollern of Germany quietly observed his eighty-first birthday here today.

BURNS IS HONORED

Fine Banquet by Eagles' Lodge on Thursday Night With Robert McKay Giving Principal Address

Thursday night the Fraternal Order of Eagles celebrated the 181st anniversary of the birth of Robert Burns when sixty members sat down to a fine supper of real Scottish fare after which there was a program appropriate to the occasion.

A feature of the evening was a splendid address by Robert McKay on "The Immortal Memory". The speaker gave the audience a brief but interesting talk on the manner in which Burns lived, declaring that he was a good living man and not the drunken libertine as some pictured him.

Another excellent address was that by Peter Gamula in reply to the toast of "The Town We Live In." He told of early day incidents, including the spectacular real estate prices, and wound up by declaring that Prince Rupert was still a good place to stay in.

Lee Dell responded to the toast "The Land We Live In," saying that he was a real Canadian and proud of it. If anyone could show him a better country to live in than this, he would like to move to it.

B. J. Bacon replied to the toast to "Kindred Societies." He felt that there were not enough functions such as the one he was attending. Robert McKay was toastmaker and the program was as follows:
"The King."
"The Immortal Memory," Robert McKay.
Solo, "The Star o' Rabble Burns," A. McLeod.
Address to the Haggis, William Robb.
Selkirk Grace, William Robb.
"The Royal Navy" and "The Forces," Petty Officer J. Goldsmith.
Singing of "Rule Britannia" and "The Siegfried Line."
"The Land We Live In," Lee Dell.
"O Canada."
"The City We Live In," Peter Gamula.
"The Lassies," Harry Astori.
Song, Frank Ellison.
"Kindred Societies," B. J. Bacon.
"Toastmaster and Committees," J. A. Dennis.
Songs, A. McLeod, W. Murray and William Robb.
Duets, Alex McLeod and William Robb.
Recitations, Harry Astori, Alex McLeod, J. Fitzpatrick, J. Goldsmith, B. J. Bacon and Robert McKay.
Accordian selections, Robert Townsend.
Mouth Organ solos, Harry Astori and Gene Fitzpatrick.
Bagpipe selections, T. G. Gunn.
Norman Davidson acted as pianist for the evening.

The committee in charge consisted of William Robb, chairman, Robert McKay, W. Hutson, J. Duff, J. A. Dennis, Peter Romanik and H. Smith.

Queen Charlotte Troller Has Harrowing Storm Experience—Fine Job on New Mission Boat Western Hope

Captain Penney of the trolling boat Talisman had a harrowing adventure recently. Accompanied by a native fisherman he set out for Pacofi. When near the mouth of Cumshewa Inlet he ran into difficulties and was blown helplessly backwards for fourteen hours. Finally they were washed ashore near Lawn Hill on the east coast. Luckily the beach there is sandy and the boat escaped serious damage. Outside of being exhausted from exposure no harm was suffered by the men.

Rev. A. Abraham, who left last night on the Prince John on his return to Massett, made an inspection while in the city of the new Anglican mission boat Western Hope being built for work on Queen Charlotte Islands by Ed Wahl at Dodge Cove. The boat is making good progress and should be ready for use in the spring. Mr. Abraham says that this is the most pretentious job Mr. Wahl has handled at Digby Island. He is putting in first class workmanship and the boat should be very well adapted for the purpose for which it is designed. It is a 48-foot boat powered by a 50-80 h.p. Acadia Canadian engine.

C.P.R. steamer Princess Adelaide, Capt. Henry Anderson, arrived in port at 3:45 yesterday afternoon from the south and sailed at 10 p.m. on her return to Vancouver and waypoints.

A three-way shuffle of chief engineers affects the two C.P.R. boats plying into Prince Rupert. Alex Gordon, chief engineer of the Princess Adelaide, has transferred to the Princess Alice. Donald McCraird, from the Norah, is now chief on the Princess Adelaide and Fred McGraw has taken over duty as chief on the Norah.

February is nearly here now and there has been no material run of herring as yet either in Prince Rupert or anywhere in the vicinity. There are some who believe now that it may not materialize at all. The belief is that the unusually mild winter is responsible for the lack of Officials of the Canadian Fishing Company Ltd. announce they have placed orders with the West Coast Salvage Company Ltd. in Vancouver for construction of two 60-foot seine boats. The vessels will each have a beam of 15.5 feet and will be powered with 120 horsepower diesel engines giving a speed of about 10 knots. They are expected to be completed and in commission by the end of May.

SEAWAY LIVES AGAIN

engineering difficulties of the undertaking by an enlarged engineering board. The engineering board was organized in 1924.

The same year Canada appointed a national advisory committee consisting of Hon. George P. Graham, Thomas Ahearn, Hon. W. E. Foster, E. D. Martin, V. L. McDougald, Sir Clifford Sifton, Maj.-Gen. J. W. Stewart and Hon. Adelard Turgeon to aid the government in reaching a decision.

It was another year before the terms of reference to the joint board of engineers was agreed to and the board reported back to their respective governments on November 16, 1926. Hon. Herbert Hoover was chairman of the United States advisory committee which passed the report on to President Coolidge.

The United States government in 1927 intimated its acceptance of the report but in Canada a delay occurred because of the uncertainty as to whether the Dominion or the provinces owned power rights in navigable waters and particularly in international boundary waters.

Power Ownership

The matter of power ownership was referred in 1928 to the Supreme Court of Canada which the following year gave a judgment that the general questions submitted to it, involving provincial rights, could not be definitely answered except through test cases.

No definite answer has ever been obtained as to the ownership of waterpower on the St. Lawrence although, after a Dominion-provincial conference discussed the question in 1929, the Dominion has not disputed the claim of the provinces to waterpower ownership.

The report of the joint board of engineers, confined to the international section between Prescott and Cornwall, was not unanimous, and Cornwall, was not unanimous, the United States engineers recommending a single dam near Cornwall whereas the Canadian engineers, while agreeing a single dam would be more economical, contended it would endanger Canadian communities along the river shore above Cornwall and recommended two dams, one at Crysler Island below Morrisburg and the second below Cornwall.

During the session of 1928 a committee of the Canadian Senate made an exhaustive study of the engineers' report but had not completed the hearings when Parliament prorogued. The inquiry was not continued the following year.

Decision to go ahead with the project remained in abeyance until President Herbert Hoover and Prime Minister R. B. Bennett went to work on it in 1931.

In 1932 the Welland ship canal, a part of the seaway project started in 1913, was completed. The cost, approximately $132,000,000, was borne entirely by Canada.

In the same year Canada completed its share of deepening the channels in the Thousand Islands and United States completed its share the year following. This completed a 27-foot channel from Prescott to the head of the lakes with certain works to be done at Sault Ste. Marie.

About the same time the Beauharnois Power Canal, so constructed as to be used as a navigation canal between Lake St. Francis and Lake St. Louis, was completed but no navigation facilities have been installed. This will be part of the new work.

An agreement was signed on July 11, 1932, between the Dominion and the province of Ontario, setting out the terms under which the Canadian portion of the power development in the inter-section rapids section at the dams at Crysler Island near Morrisburg and Barnhart Island below Cornwall—approximately 1,000,000 horsepower—would be turned over to Ontario. The Dominion was to bear the costs chargeable to navigation and Ontario the costs incidental to power development. Ontario's payments were estimated at $27,115,700 for the Crysler Island development and $35,846,800 for the development at Barnhart Island. Premier George Henry signed for Ontario.

On July 18, 1932, the treaty to carry out the project was signed for Canada and the United States in Washington.

Ratified and Vetoes

On two or more previous occasions treaties signed by Canada and the United States were ratified by the Canadian Parliament and turned down by the United States Senate so the understanding was that the St. Lawrence treaty should not be presented to the Canadian Parliament until it had been ratified at Washington.

On March 14, 1934, the United States Senate rejected the treaty. The same year the Heppburn government came into power in Ontario and soon expressed opposition to the treaty and to the Dominion-Ontario agreement. It contended Ontario did not need the additional power and Canada did not need the additional transportation facilities the seaway would provide so the expenditures could not be justified.

On February 28, 1933, Prime Minister King tabled in the Commons correspondence with Premier Heppburn in which Mr. Heppburn asked the Dominion to propose to Washington that a treaty between the two countries be entered into to provide for diversion of water from Long Lake to Lake Superior, the diverted water to remain the property of the province for power purposes and also to provide for exporting electrical energy in greater quantities from Ontario to the United States. On March 17, 1933, the United States rejected Ontario's proposal.

On May 31, 1933, the United States submitted the draft of a new St. Lawrence waterways treaty which would make provision for diversion

WEEK-END BILL GOOD

"Way Down South," Bobby Breen Picture, and "Saint in London," Mystery-Thriller, at Capitol

"Way Down South," a thrilling comedy-drama of life on a southern plantation, starring Bobby Breen, and "The Saint in London," a mystery-thriller based on the activities of a band of international crooks and their rounding up, are featured on a double bill picture program at the Capitol Theatre tonight.

"Way Down South" deals with the efforts of a crooked executor who attempts to obtain vast properties for himself when his father's former friend, entrusted with administering the plantation, is about to sell the slaves and use the profits for his personal ends, the young southerner takes action astoundingly acute for one of his years. The bayous of Louisiana and the gay life of New Orleans provide the backgrounds for the picture. There is plenty of music with the presentation of a traditional sugarcane festival. Bobby sings many tuneful spirituals. The supporting cast includes such well known players as
