SOCIALISM ADVOCATED BY MEMBER

Laura Jamieson M. L. A. Sees Development Of Internal Markets As Canada's Future Salvation

Laura Jamieson, C. C. F. member of the legislature for Vancouver Centre, does not subscribe to the theory that Canada has to perish. In fact, she believes that Canada must find its own economy, particularly after the war is over and the wartime economy is gone, in the expansion of the domestic market. She does not believe that this can be brought about by a continuation of the system of private production and profit. It can only be done by a system of controlled production and distribution whereby the goods of the Dominion are capable of production and distribution among the people who need and can use them. Such a plan, she says, would remove malnutrition and disease and would be a country to be proud of instead of being ashamed of. She said that this was a plan which she had carried out elsewhere and it could be done here. She said that the conclusion which she reached in an address last night to the Junior Section of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce was that the government should be one of the largest dinner parties in the Junior Chamber has had President G. T. German in the chair and, in addition to the numerous members, there was a goodly attendance of guests, many of whom were prospective members.

So far, Mrs. Jamieson said, Canada had found it necessary to export some forty percent of her products. With nations abroad which had been importers of Canadian products becoming producers unto themselves, the foreign markets had been shrinking. These markets could not be expected to continue and the demand of war purposes of destruction, while the industrial capacity of the country could not be expected to last. There was also the technological aspect in which fewer and fewer people were required to produce more and more.

Today, Mrs. Jamieson declared, the people of Canada did not have the purchasing power to buy goods which this country was capable of producing and which they needed. Under the existing system, the great industries of the country exploited the people of their own country by demanding prices from them as high as the traffic would stand and dumping the surplus production abroad at whatever it would bring or destroying it altogether. It had been shown for the agricultural industry, for instance, that if all the population of Canada did not have the agricultural production it required there would be no surplus of anything with the possible production of the Dominion and not be overfed. No, Canada did not have to export to survive but was capable of expanding its internal market with benefit to all. But the system whereby a thing—building was an example—could not be done because it did not pay private interests must go. This country had come to a point where there were a number of things which would have to become community rather than private undertakings. There must be social rather than individual effort. New Zealand was today showing the way. There, by a system of socialization, which it was planned some day should be nationally complete, the purchasing power had been raised and not only was unemployment eliminated but there was

NAZIS FAIL AT TOBRUK

Are Unable So Far To Budge British—Axis Loses 1235 Prisoners At Salum

CAIRO, May 3: (CP)—Axis assaults on Tobruk, failing at heavy cost to budge the beleaguered defenders, have tapered off and British forces across the border in Salum area of Egypt have taken 1235 prisoners in a surprise foray on Axis lines, the British command announced. In Ethiopia hundreds of additional Italian and colonial troops have been captured. Another point north of Dessie has been captured by the British.

REGINA IS WINNER OF ALLAN CUP

Last Hockey Trophy Of Year In Canada Settled In Eighty Degree Above Weather

REGINA, May 3: (CP)—Rangers won the Allan Cup for world's senior hockey championship by defeating Sydney Millionaires three to nothing in the sixth game of the scheduled best of five series. Six games were necessary as one game had ended in a tie.

Seven thousand fans watched the game which was played on rough and slushy ice after a day during which the thermometer ascended to eighty above.

It is twenty-seven years since Regina has had the Allan Cup.

EVACUATION OF GREECE

Two British Destroyers And Four Transports Were Lost, It Is Announced

LONDON, May 3: (CP)—An announcement by the Admiralty today stated that the British withdrawal from Greece was accomplished with the loss of two destroyers and four transports.

The communique said that only one transport which sank had troops on board and seven hundred were rescued by the destroyers Diamond and Wryneck which had later been sunk by German dive bombers off the coast of Greece with heavy casualties.

The withdrawal from Greece was completed on the night of April 30. Greek refugees as well as Imperial forces were removed.

U.S. HELP FOR SUEZ

VICHY, May 3: (CP)—Diplomatic circles in Vichy reported tonight the arrival in Suez Canal of twenty-six United States merchant ships loaded to the gunnels with arms and munitions. The report was without other confirmation, however.

now, indeed, a scarcity of men. There must be socialization, not by private industry. Thereby could be brought a fuller and more complete economy to Canada without markets abroad which were dwindling anyway with a tendency to disappear altogether.

FINAL BULLETINS

DARLAN TO PARIS
VICHY—The regular Saturday afternoon cabinet meeting of the French government was cancelled suddenly today after the unexpected departure of Vice-Premier Darlan for Paris. Diplomatic circles believed developments in Iraq and Spain were involved in changed plans.

ATTACKS DEMOCRACIES
LISBON—Foreign Minister Sunkar attacks the democracies who, he says, "have denied Spain everything."

OBJECT TO REGULATIONS
OTTAWA—Fishing boat owners of the British Columbia coast have sent representations to departmental headquarters here protesting at new seining regulations for this season.

GERMAN INTERCEPTED
NEW YORK—The 3,200-ton German freighter Lex, which left Rio de Janeiro, is reported to have been intercepted by a British auxiliary cruiser off Bahia and sunk.

Great Britain And United States Planning Express Convoys Across Atlantic

LONDON, May 3: (CP)—Britain and the United States were said reliably today to be easing the pressure on Eire for bases and are concentrating on a new plan of express convoys to win the Battle of Britain.

An authoritative American source described the British position at the moment as "pretty grim" and added that the need for quick aid is so urgent that, even if Eire decided to turn over bases, the machinery might be so cumbersome they would be of little immediate advantage.

The greatest need is the swift institution of a new convoy system under close co-operation of the British and United States navies.

FIGHT ON SCHEDULE BEAR DOWN UPON JEWS

Czech Pilot In R. A. F. Pays Little Attention To Nazi Defences

LONDON, May 3: (CP)—A Czechoslovak pilot who has made many flights over Berlin as captain of a Royal Air Force bomber was a civil pilot before the war and he causes some amusement to his colleagues by his refusal to recognize any change in his flying duties now that he is delivering bombs instead of peacetime loads.

When his destination is Berlin he sets a course for that city, and flies without paying the slightest attention to searchlights, "flak" or other opposition. He was known as a good timekeeper when a civil pilot. His one thought now appears to be to keep the schedule, deliver the goods and return.

The other members of the crew are regarded almost in the light of passengers by this pilot. His job is to carry them to the target area and back again—with some assistance from the navigator, bomb aimer and air gunner. The second pilot officer often finds too little to do. If he offers to take over the controls the captain usually waves him away with the word "pump."

The other night a squadron leader decided to take part in a flight acting as second pilot. But when he endeavoured to take the controls he met with no better success than the regular second pilot. "Pump," commanded the captain, "Pump."

JUNIOR CHAMBER—ACTION ON CENTRE IS ADVOCATED

Various Matters Discussed at Meeting Last Night of City's Young Business Men

The civic centre project and another carnival to be held this year in aid of the undertaking were among matters taken up at the regular monthly dinner meeting last night of the Junior Section of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce. Both were brought forward by Norton Youngs, one of the new and active members of the chamber who directed last year's carnival and will be in charge this year. There was reason to believe, Mr. Youngs felt, that, by the end of this year, $12,000 might be available for the civic centre. With this much money in hand he felt that it might be possible to finance the project which should have revenue producing possibilities. A contractor might take it on or those furnishing materials might assist in the financing. Mr. Youngs believed that accomplishment of the civic centre project was now in sight providing all would pull together in putting it over. As for this year's carnival, Mr. Youngs suggested that it might run for five nights instead of three. Thus an increased income would be derived with a minimum of additional overhead. The importance of early planning and general help was stressed by Mr. Youngs who thought it might be possible to raise $3500.

Ed Southby reported to the meeting on the "clean-up and paint-up" campaign which had met with good response and, he believed, had made the city more conscious of tidiness and beautification. Mr. Southby acknowledged co-operation which had been extended the campaign in various quarters. The president, G. T. German, congratulated the committee on the success of its work.

L. M. Felsenthal reported on the revival of the local Tourist Bureau, the first activity of which had been to make arrangements for new and more effective tourist direction signboards on the Canadian National and government wharves. Permission had been granted to put up such signs.

CITY ADMINISTRATION

The president, G. T. German, brought up the idea of forming study groups of the Junior Chamber and stated that any suggestions of members along this line would be welcome. Evidently, Mr. German had primarily in mind the study of the present municipal government situation with a view to ascertaining the merits of establishing a city manager, reverting to the mayor and council or continuing with a commissioner.

A communication was received from the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce in regard to the constitution of the Junior Chamber with relation to the senior body. This question has now been disposed of with agreement on certain constitutional changes which had been previously discussed.

There was correspondence in regard to the forthcoming convention in Chilliwack on May 23-24 of the Junior Chambers of Commerce of British Columbia. Any members who happen to be in the south at that time will be asked to attend as local delegates.

Fire prevention week, war savings and aiding the establishment of mobile canteens for the military forces in England were other matters taken up in correspondence, the chamber expressing its willingness to co-operate to the best of its ability in each case.

The executive reported new members passed upon in the persons of Bruce Stevens, Charles F. Schwoss, Colin McCarthy and William S. Noble with a number of further ap-

AIR WAR IS HARD

Luftwaffe Strikes Heavily At Liverpool And Royal Air Force At Hamburg

LONDON, May 3: (CP)—Liverpool and Hamburg bore the brunt last night of respective air raids of the German Luftwaffe and the Royal Air Force. Besides Hamburg, other targets in Germany and Nazi-occupied territory were successfully raided by the Royal Air Force.

The German raid on Liverpool and other parts of Merseyside was the most severe in months. Thousands of bombs were dropped and factories, business houses and residences were damaged. Casualties were feared heavy. Points in east and northeast England were also attacked by the Germans. Four Nazi planes were brought down during the night.

Churchill To Poland

LONDON, May 3: (CP)—In a radio address tonight, Prime Minister Winston Churchill saluted the people of Poland which he said would rise and become a nation once again. The Prime Minister sent a message of hope and encouragement to the people of Poland and who he was confident, would never despair and would remain unconquerable in the war against mechanized barbarians. He paid tribute to the Poles for having borne the brunt of the attack already. The war might be long and hard but right would prevail and there would be ultimate victory. The Prime Minister described how Poles were playing a part in the Battle of Britain on land, at sea and in the air.

NAVAL VICTORY—TOLL BY BRITISH BOMBERS

Sank Enemy Destroyer and Merchant Ship in Mediterranean—Destruction of Enemy Convoy Confirmed

CAIRO, May 3: (CP)—British bombers sank a destroyer and a merchant ship in the Mediterranean, a Royal Air Force communique said tonight.

At the same time the destroyer Jervis has arrived in Alexandria to describe how four British destroyers turned an Axis convoy into a mass of flames and wiped five merchantmen and three Italian warships from the sea in half an hour. This action had been reported previously by the Admiralty in announcing the loss of the destroyer Mohawk.

The Admiralty announced today that the armed merchant cruiser Valtaire was overdue and must be considered lost.

Applications for membership since received and to be considered at the next meeting of the executive.

A large attendance at last night's meeting included guests in the persons of Melvin Forbes, A. C. K. Sloan, James Alexander, Flying Officer J. C. Macdonald, Len Griffiths, James Wilson, R. A. Creach, Frank Glass, Victor Melneuzuk and W. R. McAfee.

NEAR EAST SITUATION IS SERIOUS

Appeal Sent To Berlin For Aid And How Hitler Will Give It Is Now Subject Of Speculation

Conflict Over Air Bases On

Position Of Turkey And Russia In Connection With Latest Crisis Matter Of Interest

LONDON, May 3: (CP)—An official announcement today said that fighting between British and Iraq forces at Habbaniyah airdrome had entered the second day. Yesterday Iraq artillery had started bombarding the airdrome but some of the guns were silenced by British counter-action although fighting continued. Sir Kinahan Cornwallis, British ambassador to Iraq, reported to London that all is quiet in Bagdad.

The Premier of Iraq has urgently applied to Berlin for assistance, it was reliably reported here tonight. How Germany would get help to Iraq without violating some nation's neutrality appeared to be the question. Meantime some 20,000 British troops now in Iraq should be able to cope with the Iraq army of 30,000.

In addition to the heavy fighting around the Habbaniyah airdromes, there were outbreaks in other parts of Iraq.

Berne, Switzerland, reported that twenty-six British planes had been destroyed by the Iraq attack on the Habbaniyah airdrome. British military detachments, it was also said in Berne, had failed in the endeavour to occupy other air fields in Iraq. An authoritative statement in London tonight said that a number of British aircraft had been destroyed on the ground and some casualties suffered in a British clash with Iraq troops.

However, adequate plans it was said, had been made to safeguard the British oil pipe lines between Iraq and the Mediterranean.

There are reported to be five thousand British troops at the Habbaniyah airdrome with others at Basra.

Unless Nazi aid is forthcoming, the British should be able to handle any situation in Iraq.

The appeal of the Premier of Iraq to Berlin for aid was his second, and came after a day long battle with the British garrison at Habbaniyah.

With Germany confronted with the problem of figuring some way of getting forces into Iraq, there were reports that Nazi troops were already moving into French Syria.

The position of Turkey and Russia, who are being put on the spot, is still a matter of speculation. Reports are conflicting as to the position of Turkey, one which was current being that she was about to join the tri-partite alliance.

Eight Dollars Still Needed

The sum of eight dollars is still needed to bring the local contributions to the Queen's London Air Raid Fund to the hundred dollars. Following is the present standing:

Tells Of U.S. Spy . . .

Walter Winchell has the following in regard to the grounding of the liner Manhattan:

"A short time ago we suspected the reason for the grounding of the liner Manhattan sabotage. That was pooh-poohed in some newspapers. Last week the F.B.I. collared a Nazi spy who admitted his guilt and was sent to prison within three hours. The spy's name is Paul Fehse, who had been working as a cook on the Manhattan. There have been many reports of Nazis and Communists holding key positions in our merchant marine. Yet some unions have been doing everything possible to protect them . . . But the jailing of this spy is another step the F.B.I. has taken to smash an espionage ring divulging maritime information to the Nazis."

The Whipped Jackal . . .

Mr. Churchill's allusion to the ersatz Caesar in Rome will go down on the record as an epic judgment on the man who thought he saw an easy way to a greater empire when he jumped on the back of a bleeding and prostrate neighbor last June 10—"a little light relief" in which the Prime Minister did well to indulge, says the Victoria Times. A part of the reference is worth repeating:

"I dare say you read in the newspapers that by special proclamation the Italian dictator has congratulated the Italian army in Albania on the glorious laurels they gained by the victory over the Greeks. Here surely is a world's record in the domain of the ridiculous and contemptible. This whipped jackal, Mussolini, who to save his own skin made all Italy a vassal state to Hitler, comes frisking up at the side of the German tiger with yelps not only of appetite—that could be understood—but even of triumph. Different things strike different people in different ways, but I am sure there are a great many millions in the British Empire and the United States who will find a new object in life in making sure that when we come to final reckoning this absurd impostor shall be abandoned to public justice and universal scorn."

"If this 'whipped jackal' should survive the present conflict, if the Italian people in the days before the final reckoning do not discover some means of removing him from the scene, as they would remove the lowest microbial element, those who summon him to the peace conference table will do well to send him into obscurity with a framed copy of the foregoing for leisurely contemplation."

JASPER TO OPEN SOON

JASPER, May 3.—Official announcement is made today of the opening of Jasper Park Lodge in the Canadian Rockies, on June 15. The lodge will remain open until September 15. With the appointment of Robert Sommerville, former manager of the lodge, to the post of manager of the Bessborough Hotel, Saskatoon, the new manager of Jasper Park Lodge will be R. E. Cuhney, formerly of the Chateau Laurier, according to Joseph Van Wyck, general manager of the Canadian National Railway hotel system.

"Bookings for the summer season at the lodge will be very heavy," said Mr. Van Wyck today. "July and August will see the lodge almost at capacity with the latter part of June filling up very rapidly."

"A most interesting feature, so far" in advance, is that more than 150 entries already have been received for the Totem Pole Golf Tournament next September. As our limit this year must definitely be 200 competitors, it looks as if this number will be reached even before the lodge opens for the season. The popularity of this event had grown in leaps and bounds with more than 50 golfers registered from Seattle. Everything points to our greatest year at Jasper, declared the hotel official.

ALIENS ARE RULED OUT

Fishing By Foreigners Barred In Alaska After June 25

JUNEAU, May 3.—Aliens will not be allowed to engage in fishing operations in Alaska after June 25 this year under terms of an act passed by congress in 1938, as interpreted by George Folta, Alaska counsel at large for the department of the interior, it was disclosed yesterday.

The interpretation by Folta has been approved by the solicitor general for the department of the interior, also the attorney general of the United States.

The prohibition extends to anything construed as fishing operations. For instance, aliens will not be eligible as cooks on fishing vessels. Aliens ineligible to fish may, however, still be employed as laborers in the fisheries.

United Church Tea And Sale

Successful Affair Held on Thursday Afternoon by Ladies' Aid

The spring tea and sale of the Ladies' Aid of First United Church held Thursday afternoon in the church parlors drew a good crowd of ladies and was a very successful event. Spring flowers and daffodils were used to good effect in decorating the hall. The guests were received by Mrs. Andrew Thompson, president of the Ladies' Aid, and Mrs. J. C. Jackson, wife of the pastor.

Mrs. M. F. Nickerson, Mrs. J. H. Engelke and Mrs. Webber were convener for the tea room. Mrs. R. G. Macaulay, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. H. E. Alton and Mrs. Aitchison poured and serviteurs were Mrs. D. Ciccone, Mrs. Calvert, Miss Kay Nickerson and Mrs. O. C. Young. Cashier was Mrs. Claving.

Other departments of the sale were in charge as follows:

Home Cooking—Mrs. J. S. Irvine and Miss D. Sharp.

Plain sewing and Fancy work—Mrs. E. J. Clapp, Mrs. Petroff and Mrs. D. Santerbane.

Aprons—Mrs. G. T. German.

Candy—Miss Dorothy Stiles.

Novelties—Mrs. Clarke McLean and Mrs. T. Fraser.

French Program On Jubilee Of Beloved Bishop

The French Canadians of Rupert added to the program of the Day of Golden Jubilee of the Most Rev. Bishop E. M. Buno O.M.I. a delightful program in French.

Mrs. J. L. Blain recited "A Mass During the French Revolution," with much feeling. The recitation was very much appreciated by all the French-speaking parishoners of the Catholic Church of Rupert and also by the French Missionaries of different missions of the Diocese.

Mrs. Loisele in "Ave Maria" by Gounod and Miss Yvonne Riffou in "The Old Plaid shawl," which was composed especially for the occasion by Rev. Sister Frederica of St. Joseph Convent.

Miss Frances Moore was at the piano.

Censors Foster Wartime Romance

LEEDS, Eng., May 3: (CP)—By permission of the British and German censors, Joan Pogson, 19-year old cotton heiress, has become engaged to a British prisoner of war in Germany. Every love letter exchanged between the two bears the censor's stamp and the censors refrained from cutting bits out of the lover's letters.

Miss Pogson's fiancée is her childhood friend, Capt. William Lawton, 20, who went out to France soon after the outbreak of war and was captured after France's capitulation.

Their letters started off in merely a friendly way but eventually Joan received a letter of proposal and they became engaged. Now she is eagerly awaiting his return.

CANADIAN TROOPS IN ENGLAND STUDY HOW TO COMBAT BLITZ TACTICS

Specially selected officers from all Canadian units in England are touring the eastern command in "The Danger Zone" and preparing plans for operation of a counter-offensive against the Nazis if the Nazis ever succeed in getting a foothold on English soil. The officers split up into small groups each touring a section of the zone, and meeting at end of the day's tour to discuss ways and means of blitz busting. This group at a cross roads is probably planning something nasty for the Nazis.

American Halibut Landings Here Showing Marked Falling Off—Local Cannery to Pack Salmon

American landings of halibut at the port of Prince Rupert for the 1941 season continue to show a marked falling off from last year with the result that the total landings for the present season up to and including yesterday totalled 2,283,700 pounds as compared with 2,850,669 pounds at a corresponding date in 1940. The American total for the present season is 1,140,200 pounds in comparison with 1,631,800 pounds a year ago. The Canadian aggregate is 1,143,500 pounds as against 1,218,869 pounds. Landings for the week ending yesterday amounted to 439,300 pounds made up of 290,500 pounds American and 148,800 pounds Canadian fish. The week was marked by somewhat higher prices, the market being firm under good demand for fresh fish. For American fish the high price of the week was 11.1c and 8c paid the Yukon for 19,000 pounds while the low American price was 8.9c and 7c paid the Western and Jane for catches of 30,000 and 7,500 pounds respectively. The high price of the week for Canadian fish was 10.8c and 7.3c paid the Oslo for 17,000 pounds and the low 8.9c and 7c paid the Reward I and Peerless for 12,000 and 8,000 pounds respectively.

On business in connection with the preparation of the local salmon cannery for the forthcoming season's packing operations, Norman Nelson of Nelson Bros. Fisheries Ltd. arrived in the city on the Princess Adelaide yesterday afternoon from the south. He expects to be here for some time. Mr. Nelson says that the output of the cannery this year will be limited only by amount of fish available. The most of the pack will be taken by the government for the army.

Capt. Hugh MacKenzie of Vancouver arrived in the city on the Princess Adelaide yesterday afternoon from the south to assume command of the T. A. Kelley Logging Co.'s service boat Nora Jane which has been in port for the past ten days. Capt. Walter Dass, veteran coast mariner and former skipper of the Nora Jane, came north with Capt. Mackenzie to install him in his new duties. The Nora Jane left last evening for the Queen Charlotte Islands.

Increasing Service With heavy traffic developing much earlier this year the steamers Prince Rupert and Prince George of Canadian National Steamships will be operated in twice-weekly service between Prince Rupert and coast ports, north to Ketchikan and south to Vancouver, effective May 15. On and after that date, instead of the present weekly service each Thursday at 11:30 p.m. there will be sailings to the south Thursday and Saturdays at the same time. North-bound sailings to Ketchikan and Stewart will leave Prince Rupert at 3 p.m., Wednesdays and Fridays. Ports of call on the double schedule will be Ocean Falls, Powell River and Vancouver southbound and to Ketchikan and Stewart, northbound. This schedule will be maintained until the opening of the summer tourist service, first sailing of which commences from Vancouver Monday, June 16, for Alaska ports north to Skagway, including calls at Prince Rupert both north and southbound.

The first yachts of the season arrived in Ketchikan this week when the Westward and Caroline, Campbell Church craft, tied up at the city float in Newton with Seattle tourists. Both the Westward and Caroline are well known as Prince Rupert visitors each year.

The Westward, skippered by Captain J. E. McDonald, brought to Ketchikan R. J. Brown, Seattle business man, Mrs. Brown, their daughter, Jola, and friend Gordon Hayes. They left on the steamer Mount McKinley to return to Seattle. The Caroline, skippered by Captain Jim Sande, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sande of Ketchikan, brought north Dr. and Mrs. M. Buckley, Seattle newlyweds. The couple left for the south Wednesday night on the Prince George. They were married the morning they left Seattle, April 24. Thursday two fishing and hunting parties arrived at Ketchikan on the Denali, to be guided by a group of guides now in Ketchikan. The Caroline's party includes Dr. Harlen MacMullen of Manistee, Michigan; Dr. H. F. Closz of Muskegon, Michigan; Charles E. Johnson of North Muskegon, Michigan, and Russel Attkin of New York City, Guides Edward Jahneke of Juneau, James Lovett of Wrangell and Lee Considine of Wrangell and R. Wooton of Petersburg will lead them in search for brown bear. For the Westward came Richard E. Bishop of Philadelphia and Edgar M. Queenie and wife of St. Louis, Missouri. They will be guided by Oscar Oberg of Juneau and Wes Myers of Ketchikan.

Henry Fonda, Barbara Stanwyck in

deals with troupers—Shirley Oskie and Charlotte Greenwood who decide to retire from the stage and retire on a farm in New England. Their life in the small town is depicted as the film moves on to a stirring conclusion. The picture is paced by five new and catchy tunes—"Fifth Avenue Wouldn't Take a Million," "La-la," "The Mason-Dixon Line" and "Young People."

The odd theme of "The Man Who Wouldn't Talk" is that of a man with no family, no friends, no personal connections, no money, position and no past who is charged with murder but refuses to talk in his own defence. The story is told in a new and surprising and unexpected twists provide emotional punch after another. Lloyd Nolan has the title role. Jean Rogers, Richard Clarke, slow Stevens and Eric Blore are principal supporting parts.
