German Troops Find Weather Unpleasant

Powerful Offensive Is Developing Before Moscow by Russians

Communications Being Reopened Which May Raise Siege of Leningrad—Berlin Says Weather Is Responsible For Move.

LONDON, Nov. 7: (CP)—A Russian counter-attack on the Volokolamsk sector appears to be developing into a powerful offensive which may completely reopen the Moscow-Leningrad communications and relieve the siege of Leningrad, informed sources said tonight.

LONDON, Nov. 7: (CP)—A German retreat was reported today in the Volokolamsk sector before Moscow today while London observers speculated on the possible British plans for the establishment of a second fighting front. The Red Army has driven German armored units from position after position in an area 65 miles northwest of Moscow said war despatches as a London source said plans for a second front were "ready to be put into effect when the time was considered opportune."

STALIN'S LATEST

Says Germany Must Burst Under Weight of Own Crimes Within Maybe a Year.

MOSCOW, Nov. 7: (CP)—Joseph Stalin today gave Hitler "maybe a year" before Hitlerite Germany must burst under the weight of her own crimes, in an address on the 24th anniversary of the Bolshevik revolution.

Stalin said that all Russia was engaged in a single fighting campaign with inexhaustible supplies of manpower, adding that Germany, counting on the Red Army cracking after the first blow, badly miscalculated. The speech was the second in two days and was made before a military review in Red Square.

RAIDS ON GERMANY

LONDON, Nov. 7: (CP)—Wilhelmshaven and Bremen in northwestern Germany and the docks at Le Havre were bombed last night, the Air Ministry announced. Reuters quoted Oslo radio as saying British planes raided that city early today.

FINLAND MAY STOP

Little Country Suggests Withdrawing Once Aim Has Been Achieved.

HELSINKI, Nov. 7: (CP)—The Finnish radio has circulated abroad important statement of aims as saying Finland's war with Russia will end "as soon as threat of renewed attacks has been removed and frontiers have been made secure." The broadcast implied that Finland would quit fighting once her aim was achieved leaving to the peace conference of dominant powers in the indefinite future the final determination of her new boundaries.

Fighting For Bare Existence

BERLIN, Nov. 7: (CP)—Propaganda Minister Goebbels writes in the weekly Das Reich "Axis powers are really fighting for bare existence and the worries and distress that we all must bear in war would be pale in the face of the inferno awaiting us if we were to lose."

TROOPS FOR CAUCASUS

German Forces to Be Met With Powerful Force If They Reach That Far.

ANKARA, Turkey, Nov. 7: (CP)—Britain was reported today to be steadily augmenting military power in Iran bordering the Russian Caucasus with a stream of fresh troops drawn from the Empire and also with American-made tanks and planes. Two United States military missions are expected to bolster up transportation organization and manage repair and supply for American planes.

SKIS FOR RUMANIANS

Shipment Arrived at Montreal for Open Port on Coast.

MONTREAL, Nov. 7: (CP)—Almost on a par with the old saw about sending coals to Newcastle is the fact that skis made in America are now being shipped to Russia. The "Maple Leaf" Canadian National Railways Limited from Chicago to Montreal arrived today at the express station with an additional express car containing skis made in Minnesota and shipped from St. Paul. They are being handled by the Canadian National Express and were transferred to the "Maritime Express" to leave later for an eastern Canadian port for trans-shipment overseas. The consignment contained approximately four thousand pair of skis.

QUOTAS AIRMEN LEAVING

Regular Contingents of Training Plan Graduates Leaving for Service Overseas.

By FRANK FLAHERTY Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA, Nov. 7: (CP)—Men in air force blue crowd the trains leading to eastern Canadian ports as the schools of the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan graduate increasing numbers of pilots observers and wireless operators-air gunners for service overseas.

A little more than a year ago the first class trained under the plan received their wings at No. 1 Service Flying Training School, Camp Borden. Shortly after that the first classes of observers and wireless operator-air gunners received the single winged badges indicating proficiency in their trades.

Now, a year after the plan schools reached small-scale production, wing presentations are almost a daily occurrence somewhere in the nation-wide system of air training schools operated by the Royal Canadian Air Force. As each school discharges its monthly quota of trained men they find their way, after a brief embarkation leave, to the trains leading to the eastern Canadian ports where they take ship for the scenes of battles across the Atlantic.

Operate 90 Units

Where 34 schools and units of the plan operated a year ago, 90 operate now. In the fall of 1939, when the war started, the Royal Canadian Air Force was stepping up its peace-time training program and in December of that year the governments of Australia, New Zealand, Great Britain and Canada joined in the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan agreement.

The first of the network of schools called for by the plan opened at the end of April, 1940. Schools operating now, with two number a year ago in brackets, are as follows:

26 elementary flying training schools (12); 16 service flying training schools (3); 10 air observer schools (3); eight bombing and gunnery schools (1); four wireless schools (2); two air navigation schools (1); six initial training schools (2); 15 manning depots (3); and 13 miscellaneous units (7).

In addition to the schools operated under the plan an increasing number of purely British schools are establishing in Canada. This movement was just getting under way in the fall of 1941 after the fall of France made it desirable to move France made it desirable to move as much as possible of British air training activity out of range of enemy bombers. At first only advanced units came to Canada to occupy schools and airbases prepared for them by the R.C.A.F. Now British schools of all types are settling here.

Strength of 80,000

The air personnel engaged in the B.C.A.T.P. numbers more than 80,000 officers and men as compared with 22,863 a year ago. Both figures include aircrew in training and instructional, mechanical and administrative staffs of the various schools. They do not include air force personnel of the home war establishment guarding Canadian coasts or Canadians serving overseas either in Canadian formations or with the Royal Air Force, graduates of the plan to date.

The number of trainees at any given time, the number finishing month by month and the number

Body of William Hayner Arrived Last Night's Train

Funeral of Well Known Undertaker to Be Held on Sunday Afternoon.

The body of the late William Hayner arrived on the train last night and is at the chapel of the B. C. Undertakers. The funeral will be on Sunday from the Eagles' Hall, and members of the Moose and Eagles Lodges are asked to attend.

Mr. Hayner is well known in the city as one of the old timers and a well known character. For a number of years he carried on a taxi business as auxiliary to that of undertaking. He was well advanced in years and had been ill for some time. He was born in the United States. He died at the Hazelton Hospital.

BETTER SIGHT — MORE SPECS

LONDON, Nov. 7: (CP)—More spectacles are being manufactured in Britain than ever before, though the nation's eyesight has never been better, reason being that glasses now are worn for precision work by persons who went without them before.

of recruits entering training are strict official secrets. A year ago when the first class received their wings at Camp Borden, air force authorities made no secret of the fact that it numbered 35.

Silent on Numbers

Now, however, with Canadian-trained airmen a growing factor in the balance of air power in the war numbers are a matter of keen interest to the enemy and silence is the rule. Some indication of the volume is provided by the fact it has been found necessary to set up special embarkation depots to handle airmen awaiting transport overseas.

Co-incident with the training of aircrew men for fighting duties the training of staff and ground crew personnel goes on. That program upon which, in the first days of the plan, the whole scheme depended was expected to slacken off as the flying training schools came into operation with complete staffs.

The recent decision to staff the 25 squadrons into which Canadian aircrews serving with the Royal Air Force are being organized with Canadian ground crews, called for a continuance of the ground crew program, much of which is carried on at the technical training centre at St. Thomas, Ont.

LOCAL LADY CALLING OUT MORE MEN FOR FOUR MONTHS

British Columbia will provide 151 men who have not yet been called out and 89 who have already undergone 30 days' training.

Salamander Is Picked Up On City Sidewalk

Will Be Cured and Added to Museum Collection Here.

Yesterday, N. M. Campbell of the Summit Apartments, picked up a salamander on the sidewalk outside the Royal Bank on Third Avenue. He thinks it must have come down with the rain, but there seem to be many doubters of the theory. It was a dark colored creature about eight inches long, half of which is tail. The little chap was very drowsy, seemingly about to hibernate for the winter. He is now to become a specimen at the museum by the help of the staff of the Fisheries Experimental station and the courtesy of Dr. Neal Carter and E. R. Siddaway.

Touring Canada . . .

It was announced from Ottawa recently that a delegate from Cairo was to make a tour of Canada. The places to be visited included Toronto, Ottawa, Kingston, Hamilton, Welland, Brantford, Guelph, Galt, London, Montreal and Quebec City. All these cities are in Ontario except Quebec City. Evidently that is the conception some people have of what constitutes Canada. There are only seven provinces not mentioned as to be visited. But that is just a trifle.

Expert Opinion . . .

When President Roosevelt and Winston Churchill met last summer at their rendezvous in the Atlantic, they began discussing the campaign being waged by the Russian army . . . "Tell me, Winston," asked the president, "how long did your generals tell you the Russian army would last?" "Three weeks," answered the prime minister. "And what did your generals tell you?" "They said two weeks," replied the president, "but please don't mention it to them. They're very sensitive about it."

Glad to enlist in the forces
And do his full share

Local Car Dealer Reports Extent Of Ford War Work

Bob Parker Returns From Important Meeting At Vancouver And Is Enthused Over New Models

Bob Parker of S. E. Parker Ltd. returned from Vancouver this week where he attended a general meeting of Ford dealers of British Columbia on Thursday, October 30.

Bob is enthusiastic about the 1942 Ford and Mercury cars which he claims are the finest this company has ever produced.

"Of course, with the company's manufacturing plant so extensively engaged in war work, the supply of new cars will be drastically curtailed. However, the new models are designed, built and styled for long life and economical service," said Bob.

In addition to having a preview of the new cars, Bob heard addresses by R. M. Sale and E. F. Millard, company executives from Windsor, Ontario, and saw a motion picture showing the extent of war production in the great Ford plant at Windsor. Nearly 13,000 workers are busy day and night producing equipment for Empire armies.

"The Ford company in Canada is the largest single source of military automotive equipment in the British Empire and has already supplied our fighting men with more than 100,000 fighting machines.

"Ford in the United States is now producing 1,850 and 2,000 horsepower engines for war planes. There is also a mammoth bomber plant nearing completion for the production of B-24D bombers, and plans are underway for the production of medium and heavy tanks in Ford's immense Rouge plant in Detroit," Bob reports.

Legion Auxiliary Fancy Work Shower

Letter Telling That Recent Shipment Is on Its Way to Relieve Suffering.

Last evening at the Legion Hall the regular monthly meeting of the Women's Auxiliary Canadian Legion was held with a very satisfactory attendance of members in spite of the weather. Mrs. William Rothwell, the president, was in the chair and routine business occupied the first part of the evening.

Concluding arrangements for Poppy Day, church parade, Armistice Day and the annual fall bazaar were made. A shower of fancy work for the bazaar resulted in several handsome donations. A letter was received and read from the president of provincial command, Mrs. Beth Curry, which said in part: "You will be pleased to hear that your shipment of goods for bombed areas in Britain is on the way. I received them on September 19 and am pleased to say that they are in perfect condition. Our prayers go with them for their safe arrival and hope that they will help in many ways of relieving a little of the suffering of the people who are taking the brunt of the battle for freedom."

Article in Chronicle Says Price Reached 30½ Cents Wednesday

How much is dogfish liver worth? The November 5 edition of the Ketchikan Chronicle has the following article in regard to the demand there:

How much was dogfish liver worth? That was the question local fishermen gleefully speculated upon today as bidding on the rapid's approximate 2100 pounds, which started Monday, sun continued. By early afternoon the latest bid was 30½ cents a pound. Gilmore Rolie, representing Lawes Products, made the bid, the one-buyer, C. L. Cloudy, representing Washington laboratories, was waiting a wire from George Burchar, director of the firm, advising him whether or not to raise the bid.

More than a week ago Mr. Burchar, in announcing establishment of a vitamin oil plant here in partnership with Salmon By Products corporation, gave an opening price of 12 cents a pound. This summer buyers were paying 5 and 6 cents a pound.

But when the Rapid showed up Monday with its liver, Lawes Products, represented by Mr. Rolie, also was in the field. His concern has machinery for Ketchikan on the way, with which to start production of vitamin oils in the near future.

Since Monday, Pete Baade, skipper of the Rapid, has watched with pleasure the value of his trip steadily rise. When it reached 20 cents Monday afternoon Rolie would his firm as to whether or not he should go higher.

With pauses to await wires from their respective firms, the buyers have been bidding off and on ever since.

Whether or not the end is near was not even known by the buyers this afternoon. In Seattle dogfish liver over the week-end was bringing as much as 40 cents. Alaskan dogfish, however, are not supposed to be worth as much, since it is believed their livers do not yield oil with as high a vitamin potency as oil from dogfish caught in the south.

The local buyers may be trying to find out just how much their firms are willing to pay, it is believed.

Captain Baade and Hans Olsen, who fished with him on the Rapid are not the only local fishermen watching their catch rise in value. The Sentinel, skippered by L. P. Sunderland, delivered about 650 pounds of dogfish liver Monday to Alaska Fish Products with the understanding that the Sentinel will receive the market price—when-ever that is determined.

The Rapid is unloading its dogfish trip this afternoon so it can be kept in cold storage, although the ultimate buyer is still undetermined.

Two black cod trips sold yesterday afternoon. The Delight sold 10,000 pounds to the New England Fish Company and the Balder sold 14,000 to Alaska Fish Products, both at 7 cents a pound.

Sawmill Plant at Smithers Sold to Fowler & Collison

SMITHERS, Nov. 7.—Fowler & Collison have purchased the sawmill plant known as the Hickenbotham mill on Seymour Lake near Smithers. R. J. Collison will be in full charge of mill operations and it is the intention to cut lumber for the eastern market. They have a good outfit and a good stand of timber, chiefly spruce and some hemlock. House Warming For John Smith At Hazelton

HAZELTON, November 7.—An event of interest in Hazelton recently was the house warming in the new home of John Smith. When a large crowd of friends gathered to bring good wishes and congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Smith.

The tables very very tastefully laid for an enjoyable supper, after which several speeches were made. Among those speaking were several chiefs, including Stephen Morgan of Kitsegukla, Robert Wilson of Kispiox, Moses Jones of Kitsegukla, and Tom Campbell and John Smith of Hazelton. Peter Wale and Major A. F. Parkinson of Glen Vowell also spoke and Mr. Woods and Mr. Wale sang a duet.

One very interesting aspect of the evening was the relating of several of the old Indian legends and a number of the old native customs and ceremonies. In closing Major Parkinson prayed God's blessing upon the new home.
