Fighting Is Still As Fierce As Ever

YACHT IS BLOWN UP

Power Cruiser Kavema Badly Damaged by Explosion and Fire At Yacht Club

The well known power cruiser Kavema, recently purchased by Dr. W. S. Kergin of Ocean Falls from W. P. Eve of this city, was badly damaged in a heavy explosion and fire at the floats of the Prince Rupert Rowing & Yacht Club at 8 o'clock Sunday morning. The sides of the vessel were blown out, the top lifted and the upperworks almost entirely destroyed. Partial sinking after the explosion may have saved some damage to hull and the engine may be salvageable. It was fortunate that Percy Hudson, who was in the engine room at the time, suffered no injuries. James Martin, caretaker of the Prince Rupert Rowing & Yacht Club, sustained burns about the hands in fighting the fire in connection with which Tommy Wilford, who recently arrived from Vancouver with the power boat Elizabeth M, gave valuable assistance.

Hudson had been engaged to take the Kavema to Ocean Falls and was just preparing to pull out when the explosion occurred. He was at the engine and it was just as he turned on the ignition switch that the blast occurred. Hudson, in some miraculous manner, escaped the force of the explosion and was thrown clear, reaching safety on the landing plank. Immediately after the explosion, the whole vessel burst into flames and commenced to sink. Caretaker Martin called the fire department and proceeded himself to do what was possible to prevent adjoining boats from being damaged. Dr. R. G. Large's Soogwillis and M. M. Stephens' Vera S. Frye, in adjoining stalls, were scorched but not badly damaged.

The Kavema was 34 feet long and was built in 1933 at the Boeing plant for Mr. Eve. She was at Anox for some years before Mr. Eve moved to Prince Rupert and brought the vessel here. She was equipped with a Ford engine. A gas leak is believed to have been the cause of the blast.

The commander has reported that he was attacked by a German U-boat, that some damage was done and that eleven of his crew are missing with ten injured.

BERLIN IS SUSPICIOUS

Suggests U. S. Itself Responsible For Attack On Kearney

BERLIN, October 20.—The German press suggests that the attack on the United States destroyer Kearney was deliberately planned by the United States government to arouse public opinion in that country against Germany. There were no German naval units in the vicinity of Ireland at the time, it is declared.

POLITICAL ACTIVITY

Committee Rooms Busy As Provincial Campaign Draws To Close

Activity is increasing at the committee rooms of both the Liberals and the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation as the provincial election campaign in Prince Rupert draws to a close. On the surface, the campaign has been one of the quietest that Prince Rupert has had. However, there has been a good deal of quiet activity by the workers of both parties and the expectation is that a large vote will be polled.

There will be the usual gatherings at committee headquarters on Tuesday night, both the Liberals and C. C. F. campaign committees having arranged for the telegraphic transmission of results. Confidence as to the outcome is expressed by both Liberals and C. C. F.'s.

There are no new developments in connection with the police investigation of the taking of $2300 in cash from the safe of the Royal Hotel. The safe is believed to have been left open. Some one familiar with the surroundings is believed to have taken the money.

GENERAL PEGGING

Drastic Price-Fixing Order Is Announced By Premier King

OTTAWA, October 20.—Prices, wages, rents and public utility rates are pegged as from November 17 at the highest points recorded between September 15 and October 11 under federal order announced on Saturday afternoon by Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King.

The object of the order is to fix a ceiling on rising prices and curbing inflation by fair and equitable means, the Premier declared.

New and complicated machinery will have to be set up to carry out the order. Business would be interfered with and restrictions would at first seem irksome.

If rising prices were permitted to continue unchecked, said the Premier, they would but spread confusion and hardship and would hinder war production. The cost of living would continue to rise in excess of wages. There would be hardship on nearly everyone and in particular unequal measure to some.

Personal anxiety was a danger to the war effort. People could not do their best work when beset with fears and anxieties. There would be an undesirable effect upon the maximum war effort.

The government had decided that prices must be controlled more vigorously than had been the case in the first two years of the war.

The desire of the government was that inflation and undesirable war practices should be curbed and that the ultimate beneficial effects would last into the post-war period by eliminating deflation and curbing unemployment.

MOSTLY FARMERS

Ranch And Farm Provides 21 Candidates For B. C. Voting

VICTORIA, October 20: Agriculture ranks fourth among British Columbia's primary industries but a provincial election can always be counted on to draw more candidates from the farm than from any other source.

Twenty-one farmers and ranchers are seeking seats in the British Columbia election tomorrow. In the province's last general election in 1937 there were 25 farmer-candidates of whom six were elected to the 48-seat House.

The largest group next to farmers in this month's election are barristers and solicitors, who number 13, followed by eight insurance and real estate agents and seven merchants.

Only four candidates have been drawn from British Columbia's huge logging industry, three from her mines and one from the fishing industry. There are three doctors, two dentists, a druggist, two clergymen, three railwaymen and six candidates who list themselves as retired. Six others are journalists.

A variety of occupations ranging from bricklaying to steelworking is represented by other candidates.

In addition two candidates who list themselves as retired have seen active service in this war. Cmdr. C. T. Beard, who commanded the Canadian auxiliary cruiser which captured the German freighter Weser off the coast of Mexico, is running on the Liberal ticket in Esquimalt against FO. Finland. Lt. Col. Macgregor Macintosh, one-armed veteran of the First Great War who saw service as an instructor in this war, is Conservative candidate in Saanich.

INVASION DEMANDED

British People Again Seeking More Aggressive Attack Upon Nazis

LONDON, Oct. 20.—Demands for an invasion of the continent by a British expeditionary force are again being made. Five hundred thousand factory workers, in demanding the government to institute an invasion, promised, if this was done, to work harder and harder in support of an army of the continent and the Red Army of Russia in its resistance of the Nazi invasion.

WOMEN IN ELECTION

Some Are Veterans of the Legislature and Most Are Named in Cities

By STUART UNDERHILL, Canadian Press Staff Writer VICTORIA, Oct. 20: Twelve women—three of whom sat in the last British Columbia legislature—appear as candidates in the general provincial election tomorrow.

Veteran of the trio is Mrs. Helen Douglas Smith, Liberal, who was elected in Vancouver-Burrard in the general election in 1933 and again in 1937. Mrs. Dorothy Steeves, C.C.F., entered the house after a bye-election in North Vancouver in 1934 and Mrs. Laura Jamieson, C.C.F., won a seat in a Vancouver Centre by-election in 1939.

The C.C.F. has four other women representatives running. They are Mrs. Clare McAllister in Victoria City, Mrs. Felicia Snowsell in South Okanagan, Miss Helena Guttridge in Vancouver-Point Grey, and Mrs. Grace MacInnis in Vancouver-Burrard. Mrs. MacInnis is the wife of Angus MacInnis, member of the House of Commons for Vancouver East since 1930.

One-third of the women contestants are concentrated in the three-seat riding of Vancouver-Point Grey. While Mrs. Guttridge, a former Vancouver alderman, represents the C.C.F., the Liberal candidate is Miss M. L. Bollert, former dean of women at the University of British Columbia, and the conservatives are running Mrs. F. J. Rolston, a prominent clubwoman. The fourth entry is Miss Catherine Ling, an independent.

Mrs. Nancy Hodges, unsuccessful Liberal candidate in Victoria City in the 1937 election, is again trying to win one of the riding's three seats. In New Westminster Miss M. C. McBride, sister of Sir Richard McBride, former premier of British Columbia, is carrying the Conservative banner.

SEATS NOT INCREASED

Two New Electoral Districts But Same Number Of M. L. A.'s

VICTORIA, October 20: Despite the creation of two new electoral districts in British Columbia there is no increase in the number of seats at stake in the provincial general election Tuesday.

The new ridings are Alberni and Oak Bay. Alberni, which takes in Western Vancouver Island, formerly was Alberni-Nanaimo. Its creation as a separate constituency has been offset by the disappearance of The Islands, which has been incorporated with Nanaimo to form Nanaimo and The Islands electoral district.

Creation of Oak Bay riding does not increase membership of the legislature since it is formed by reducing Victoria City from four-seat to three-seat representation. Oak Bay is a suburb of Victoria.

The changes were affected under the Redistribution Act. British Columbia has 41 electoral districts returning 48 members. Victoria City and Vancouver-Point Grey have the largest representation—three each. Vancouver Centre, Vancouver-Burrard and Vancouver East each elect two members.

Herbert Ansbach, elected as Conservative in Victoria in the 1937 election, is one of three candidates in Oak Bay. The former member for The Islands, Lt. Col. Macgregor Macintosh, Conservative, is seeking election in Saanich, last represented by N. W. Whittaker, Liberal, who is running again.

Native Resident Of Teikwa Met With Fatal Injury In Smithers Hotel

SMITHERS, October 20: A well known Indian resident of Telkwa, David Holland, who had been employed at work on the local airport, was recently found at the foot of the stairs in a local rooming house with his head very badly injured and unconscious. He was taken to the Smithers Hospital but failed to regain consciousness and died Saturday morning at 4 o'clock.

It is not known how he received his injury as no one seemed to know anything about his accident until he was found.

BOLSTERING RECRUITING

Civilian Committee Being Organized Locally Like Elsewhere In Province

Civilian advisory committees to assist in connection with recruiting, more particularly for the army which is in real need of reinforcement material, are being formed in various centres of the province including Prince Rupert. Capt. W. H. Crocker, local recruiting officer, was engaged at the week-end in organizing the local committee, personnel of which it was expected might be ready for announcement today.

Members of the local committee will make a trip to Victoria to attend a conference at Pacific Command military headquarters November 2 and 3 when information will be presented at first hand in regard to army life and benefits and also in regard to the serious need for reinforcements of the services which will eventually go overseas.

The government is calling in civilians for co-operation in another effort to make a success of the policy of voluntary enlistment without having to resort to conscription.

Fierce As Ever—NAZI-RUSS BATTLE IS CONTINUING

Germany Advance Appears To Be Going On In Face Of Fierce Resistance

MOSCOW UNDER SIEGE

MOSCOW, Oct. 20:—State of total siege for Moscow and surrounding district was declared by Premier Joseph Stalin today and the People's Army has pledged itself to fight to the death in defence of the capital. On the central sector the invaders are fifty-five miles from Moscow and on the northwest and southwest about 100 miles distant.

LONDON, October 20:—Particularly fierce fighting continues on the central sector of the Russo-German front with the Germans reported to be continuing mopping up operations around Briansk and Vyasma against sustained and stubborn Soviet resistance. Capture of the important Sea of Azov port of Tagenrod is claimed by the Germans, giving them complete control of the north shore of the Sea of Azov in the drive towards Rostov on the Don River.

The Russians claim that their planes have destroyed six battalions of Nazi soldiers together with large quantities of arms and equipment during the past three weeks.

The German High Command at Berlin claimed today that Axis armies are sweeping eastward anew toward the Russian industry centres of Donets basin and stand within thirty miles of Rostov, gateway to the oil-rich Caucasus.

CAMPAIGN WOUND UP

SMITHERS, October 20:—J. S. Cowper of Vancouver will address a Liberal meeting in Smithers this evening to wind up the campaign for the Liberals in this district.

E. T. Kenney, the Liberal candidate, will finish up in his home town of Terrace on the same evening, thus bringing the campaign to a close.

It is generally felt throughout this district that there will be no change in either the government or the local representative as it seems to be a consensus of opinion that the record of the Liberal government for the past eight years is far and away ahead of anything that this province has experienced in the past while the unfavorable memory of the last Conservative Government, which the present conservative leader was a member, still exists very strongly.

DAILY EDITION

MONDAY, OCT. 20, 1941.

Credit of the City . . .

For the credit of the city do not ever let it be bruited around that Prince Rupert turned down one of Canada's outstanding statesmen in favor of a man whom few know and whose chief plea for election is that he is able to repeat some of the shibboleths of the Socialist party.

That is the last time we shall have an opportunity to suggest how local people may vote. We know a great many Prince Rupert people and cannot believe that they will do such a thing. We have so much faith in their good judgment that we feel sure a majority of them will take the sensible view of the situation and that Premier Pattullo will be returned by a large majority.

The difficulty today is that there does not seem to be any great interest taken in the election and that, through failure of some to vote their opinions may be wrongly interpreted. We make a plea to Prince Rupert citizens not to be indifferent. We hope every man will vote, no matter what his or her political faith. We have no quarrel with the C.C.F. supporters. Many of them are fine people and should their man be elected we do not suggest that the province will go to the dogs. He will undoubtedly do his best, but we cannot think his best will be anything like Premier Pattullo is in a position to do.

The Last Chance . . .

Just two or three more days and the Civic Centre campaign will be over and those who wish to support the building fund will have to act quickly. The more money is obtained the better building can be erected and the better it can be furnished.

Perhaps it may be in order now to suggest that the civic centre building is badly needed. It will contain an auditorium suitable for large gatherings, concerts, dramatic entertainments and dances, taking the place to a large extent of the Moose Hall which was taken over by the Y.M.C.A. There will be various recreational facilities. The city needs such a building and the only way to get it is to put up the money ourselves with which to erect it.

Railway Attitude . . .

The story about the president of the railway as it came to us was not quite the same as the one that was delivered in the south last week. The mention of the line not paying was only incidental to a suggestion that there would be great developments in central British Columbia in the near future, developments that would mean a great deal to the whole province and would at the same time benefit the railway, something that was badly needed at this time.

Under Cover Newspaper . . .

France has a secret newspaper. Its place of publication is secret but it deals boldly with French public affairs. "News from France" says of the paper: "Liberation" is anti-Vichy, anti-Nazi, and, of course, pro-de Gaulle and pro-British. Its place of printing is unknown, how it is circulated is a mystery, but it is to be found everywhere, especially in empty railway carriages. It is tucked between bales of goods, pushed under doorways, and more than once has been slipped into the pocket of a German officer!

"Who writes the articles for Liberation no one knows. Apparently it is not always printed in the same place, as changes of type seem to indicate.

"The brave producers of Liberation claim that sufficient copies are printed to keep every Frenchman informed. It is estimated that every copy passes into the hands of at least 20 readers."

CONCLUDES CAMPAIGN

C.C.F. Confident of Outcome of Election Here and Throughout the Province.

George Weaver closed his campaign as Co-operative Commonwealth Federation candidate for Prince Rupert in tomorrow's provincial election with an address before a public meeting in the Odd-Fellows' Hall last night. With about one hundred persons in the audience, he spoke for roughly an hour and a half. The discourse was largely a dissertation on economic theories with brief reference towards the end to the provincial platform of the C.C.F. The Socialist candidate indulged in frequent sallies of sarcastic humor directed against the Liberal government, thereby keeping the audience in good humor. Alex Sinclair acted as chairman.

Mr. Weaver closed with an exhortation to the audience not only to talk and wish about things they wanted but on this occasion to vote for them. "It is up to you," he said, "to put into office a government which does what you want and does not tell you what to do. This time see that it is a C.C.F. government in control. Even if it is inexperienced it will be a delightful change from what you have been getting from experienced governments. Put into office a government which will not only win the war but win the peace." Mr. Weaver asserted that all signs pointed to the fact that the Pattullo government was done. The premier's personal defeat was a foregone conclusion.

The C.C.F. candidate paid his respects to The Daily News by calling its political editorials bedtime stories. The C.C.F. was accused of having only "vague theories," but the present government did not even have "vague theories." He wondered what was meant by the "spirit of the north." Personally, he had been around a bit and did not see much difference between the north and the south.

Mr. Weaver made some comments in regard to 85 voters having been left off the list at Allford Bay when the registrar of voters was called away on the appointed day. Of course, that was just a regrettable accident.

Votes Not Wasted
Those who voted Socialist did not need to feel that their votes were wasted. Even the premier admitted that the government had been forced to enact certain legislation for fear the country might go Socialist.

Mr. Weaver claimed that the establishment of a road commission, which the Conservatives had adopted as a plank, had been one of the C.C.F. ideas from the very beginning as a means of carrying out roadwork on an intelligent and systematic basis. Discussing the Pattullo government's road program, he asserted that work on the Port Clements-Tiell road had been shut down and was now abandoned. The only equipment he had seen on that road was a bulldozer—a bull belonging to a Port Clements man which was being used to pull stumps—just some more "bull." The Pattullo government's road program had become a joke—another "vague theory."

There was talk of a steel mill which would use half the site with a pulp mill.

The international situation of today was but a logical development of the present types of government whether under democratic, dictatorship of bureaucratic conditions. Socialists stood not for unprogressive reaction but for practical policies based on knowledge and experience. The Socialists did not depend upon "something supposed to be sitting up in the sky" but on realistic conditions of environment and reactions.

Mr. Weaver spoke of rumors of inefficiency and suspicion in the war effort—contracts with no limit on profits. Sabotage was not all by the working class. Profiteering, he suggested, was hampering the war effort. Every defeat of retreat so far had been due to lack of equipment. The C.C.F. would insist on mobilization of intellect, industry, finance and resources under a central authority in the war effort. If the machinery of industry was carried on efficiently, there would be no necessity to conscript a single man. It was not good enough to defeat Fascism and Nazism and then return to depression, unemployment and relief. In the present war an old system was in its death throes. It was necessary to fight for not only "against" something but "for" something. Today there was to be found retrogression not only in Germany but even in Canada.

The C.C.F. was the only party which insisted on realism. The practical man of the future should be a social engineer, not a politician.

The Platform
Mr. Weaver enumerated the five principal planks of the C.C.F. platform in the provincial election as having to do with provincial planning, socialization and finance, social insurance, agriculture and labor.

Provincial planning would handle production and distribution of food and natural resources on broad and efficient basis.

Speaking on socialization and finance, Mr. Weaver contended that, if the province could take over control of the liquor industry, it could do the same with other industries.

As for social insurance, he saw no reason why the government could not increase the old age pensions from $20 to $30. It would only cost the province $1,500,000 more a year to do so.

In the agricultural industry, the C.C.F. would remedy outworn conditions and would produce on an industrial basis.

As for labor, present legislation would be enforced to the hilt against employers. Minimum wage laws for domestic servants and seasonal women workers would be enforced.

In answer to a question, Mr. Weaver indicated that he was in favor of permitting chiropractic treatment under the Workmen's Compensation Act.

The chairman, in brief remarks, said that a political, economic and industrial crisis was approaching. The result of this election would have an important bearing on the conduct of the war and the period of reconstruction. The people no longer wanted poverty in the midst of plenty either in province or Dominion. "Do your duty to British Columbia, Canada and the Empire by electing the speaker (Mr. Weaver) on Tuesday," Mr. Sinclair exhorted.

Visit of Provincial Architect Marks Another Advance in Project—Canvass Continuing

Following the visit here at the week-end of L. W. Estimates of cost will also be furnished.

Details of the project were discussed between Mr. Hargreaves and the civic centre central committee at luncheon on Saturday. As a result of the conference it became known that $28,000 and more would be required to proceed upon.

The Liberal Party has had a history of progressive legislation for the wage earners since 1916. The C.C.F. have crowded out the Labor candidate in Vancouver and complained that Labor should never run its own candidate, but should let the C.C.F. represent them, though they have no voice as such in the councils of the party.

Prince Rupert's Choice?

T. D. PATTULLO, LIBERAL

GEORGE WEAVER, C.C.F.

Only One Choice—

LIBERAL BENEFIT GREATER

Difficult To See How Electors Could Choose C. C. F. Over Proven Government

From the point of view of the elector, it is difficult to see what other party offers him practical benefits equal to those he is likely to get from a continuance of the Liberal regime. Certainly its policies bear comparison with either of the other parties; it is undoubtedly superior in administrative and executive talent and experience of governing. Its patriotism cannot successfully be challenged and neither of the other organizations cling so closely to the principles of democratic rule.

In the line of concrete accomplishments, of course, no comparison is possible. The Liberal party has a solid and imposing record of accomplishment to point to, while, through the force of circumstances, the opposing parties have nothing but their platforms to fall back on.

Having considered the men and the parties between which they must choose next Tuesday, the electors should not find it hard to make a choice.

The C.C.F. is supported by an organization that believes it can fool the electors by distorting the truth, shouting "Lie!" whenever it is faced by the uncomfortable facts of its own past record, and serving up a warmed-over mulligan of discredited Marxianism and George Bernard Shaw Socialism that neither Socialist, Communist nor any other type of radical economist could honestly endorse.

C.C.F. Discredited
The C.C.F. bases its appeal on economic theory, patriotic utterances and criticism of the present government.

The economic theory of the C.C.F. is an odd one. Professedly socialistic, it has declared for the socialization of beer, but not bread or milk, which seems to be in direct contradiction of the Socialist doctrine that the necessities of life are the first commodities which should be nationalized. It advocates benefits for farmers and co-operative marketing of farm products, yet declares that the government will (if it becomes C.C.F.) take over complete ownership of farm products and (according to the latest prophet to appear here, who emphasized the point) EVERY means of production, which certainly would include farms. And, of course, it regards government ownership as the complete solution of all ills, though it fails to state how it proposes to overcome those specific ills which experience has shown are almost inseparable from government ownership of industrial and commercial enterprises.

The patriotic appeal of the C.C.F. is, of course, one which it is at liberty to make, but which it finds rather difficult to support in face of the facts.

Electors' memories are by no means as short as the C.C.F. wishes they were, and it is hard to convince people who recollect that Mrs. Steeves said, "There is nothing to choose between Britain and Germany," who remember the C.C.F. campaign against sending any men overseas, and who recall some of its representatives in the legislature who refused to assist the War Savings Drive—it is difficult to convince them that the patriotism of the C.C.F. leaders is of much longer standing than the present election campaign. In some cases, however, it must be allowed that this sudden upsurge of flag-waving dates from Russia's entry into the war, a coincidence which the party declares is quite incidental.—Prince George Citizen.

THREE-CORNERED FIGHTS ARE GENERAL ALTHOUGH ONLY TWO RUNNING HERE

With three major political groups in the field to obtain control of the government of British Columbia during the next four or five years which will probably see the conclusion of the war and the opening of the post-war period with all its problems of re-establishment and reconstruction, British Columbia's provincial election campaign comes to a close tonight with the polling throughout the province tomorrow. In the majority of seats, there are three candidates in the field—Liberal, Conservative and Co-operative Commonwealth Federation. This is the case in northern seats of Port George and Omineca. In Skeena, however, it is a straight fight between the Liberals and the Conservatives. In Atlin the fight is between Liberals and an Independent candidate who claims both Conservative and Labor support. Here in Prince Rupert, Premier Pattullo is opposed by one candidate, George Weaver, the C.C.F.

The complete list of candidates for the province is as follows, figures bracketed after constituency name, indicating the party majority in the last election or by-election:
(Legend: C, Conservative; CCF, Co-operative Commonwealth Federation; Ind, Independent; Lab, Labor; L, Liberal; Soc-Lab, Socialist-Labor; *, member of last house).

VOTE FOR Premier T. D. Pattullo and Maximum War Effort

What Is The Record?---

This is what Premier T. D. Pattullo said at the Sirois Conference (page 81) official record:

"I would rather have the Dominion Government take any action, AND I INVITE THEM TO DO SO, FOR THE PROSECUTION OF THIS WAR, than to have them take away those rights which we have in perpetuity."

Mrs. Steeves of the C.C.F. stated that she hoped that there would be no British Empire after the war; that she could see no difference between the British and the Germans.

Now the C.C.F., with Mrs. Steeves still running for them in this election, say "Victory Abroad."

Can The Leopard Change Its Spots?

On the record which party and which candidate represents Maximum War Effort?

Gerry McGeer In Prince Rupert

To conclude the provincial election campaign on behalf of Premier T. D. Pattullo who has found it impossible to be here personally, G. G. McGeer, K.C., M.P., of Vancouver, arrived in the city on the Catala this morning from the south and will be the principal speaker at a meeting in the Capitol Theatre tonight. The grinning, fighting "Gerry" is known as one of British Columbia's most colorful and appealing campaigners and expectations are that he will face a capacity audience at this meeting as he usually does wherever he speaks.

To the Electors of Skeena:

On the eve of Election I take this last opportunity of asking you for your support at the polls.

Owing to great expense and lack of time I have found it impossible to visit all points in the riding and meet you all.

If elected as your member I promise faithful service, no vicious patronage and favoritism, and to keep from doing business with the government myself.

I promise to work for the district as a whole on a basis of equality.

I am signing this as I am best known in the district where I have resided for 35 years.

Yours truly,
W. J. O'NEILL.

TORY MEET AT TERRACE

Wiggs O'Neill Suggests Prince Rupert-Terrace Road As Post-War Project

TERRACE, October 20.—Wiggs O'Neill, the Conservative party candidate for Skeena, held his first campaign meeting at Terrace Friday evening under the chairmanship of James Nelson and with Frank Dockrill of Telkwa speaking in support. There was a fair-sized crowd present, including not only the Conservative element but a good many who belong to politics of a different complexion.

Among the several election promises the most outstanding was that, if elected, Mr. O'Neill would try to get the highway completed between Usk and Hazelton by a single contract. He would also be in favor of the government bonusing the railway to transport cars between Terrace and the coast at Prince Rupert.

Visualizing an inevitable post-war depression, Mr. O'Neill would keep the Terrace-Prince Rupert highway in reserve as a fine chance to give employment to demobilized soldiers.

ORGANIZING OF CADETS

Officer Of Military District Confers With Local And Stewart Authorities

In the course of a northern tour for the purpose of organizing cadet training among High School boys, Major W. B. Critchley of Victoria, cadet officer for Military District No. 11, spent the week-end in the city, sailing this morning on the Catala to make the round trip to Stewart and return south. On the steamer at Stewart tonight Major Critchley will have a conference with a view to a cadet corps being formed there.

During the week-end in Prince Rupert Major Critchley conferred with local educational authorities on the matter of cadet organization. Whether or not the corps here will be of naval, army or air cadets is a matter to be decided by local choice. Major Critchley also conferred yesterday afternoon with the local branch of the Navy League of Canada which sponsors the Prince Rupert Sea Cadet Corps.

Through Valley To Better Days

Christian Hope And Belief Firm Foundation For Surmounting Trial And Despair

Through the valley of deep trial and tribulation may well lead to the highway to brighter and better days, suggested Rev. A. F. MacSween in the morning sermon to his congregation of First Presbyterian Church yesterday. The effect of suffering and hardship, heavy personal affliction, on one person might be soul-searing cynicism and embitterment in which case he might be entirely sunk. To another the same suffering might lead to a greater sympathy and understanding in which case he emerged a better person. Much depended upon the root and if the foundation was Christian faith, there was no obstacle, no hardship, to be feared, if they were faced squarely and honestly. Such thoughts as these, the pastor suggested, were appropriate in these dark and dangerous days.

A free people must INVEST in its own FREEDOM

A Message FROM THE WAR SAVINGS COMMITTEE, OTTAWA

The people of Canada are the most fortunate in the world.
Fortunate in the great sweep of space that is ours from ocean to ocean.
Fortunate in the vast yield and immense resources of our forests, fields and mines.
Fortunate, too, in our democratic institutions.
In a word, fortunate in our freedom. This freedom is threatened today as it has never been threatened before.

The help of every Canadian is needed for Victory.
In these days of war the thoughtless, selfish spender is a traitor to our war effort.
A reduction in personal spending is now a vital necessity to relieve the pressure for goods, to enable more and more labour and materials to be diverted to winning the war. The all-out effort, which Canada must make, demands this self-denial of each of us.
Invest in War Savings Certificates the dollars you don't need to spend. After Victory, they come back to you with interest. Spend less NOW so that you can spend more THEN, when labour and materials will be available for the things you need. There is no price too high for freedom.

The fall of the British Empire would mean complete dislocation of our unfettered way of life.
Everyone wants this way of life defended—this freedom saved—for our own future and for posterity. The response to every appeal for our defence has been magnificent—heartening to the whole Empire—alarming to Hitler.
But the need for weapons of war grows ever more urgent, as the Nazi threat spreads wider over the world.

CATHEDRAL MARRIAGE

Miss Creddie Morgan Becomes Bride of Len Cripps at Beautiful Ceremony.

St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral was the scene of a beautiful choral wedding Saturday evening when Miss Creddie Morgan, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Morgan, became the bride of George Leonard Cripps, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Cripps, Very Rev. J. B. Gibson officiating.

The bride, beautiful in a gown of white silk jersey cut on Princess lines with long train and flowing veil gathered to the head with orange blossoms and carrying a shower bouquet of Rapture roses, entered the church on the arm of her father, by whom she was given in marriage, preceded by the choir singing "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden," Peter Len at the console.

The bridesmaid, Miss Muriel Vance, was charming in a gown of turquoise blue crepe-de-chine with shirred bodice in Chartreuse. She had turban and gloves to match and carried a bouquet of Maytime carnations.

Tommy Fraser was groomsmen. During the signing of the register the choir sang "O Perfect Love."

Ushers were Stan Saville and George L. Rorie.

Following the marriage ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on Fourth Avenue West. Mrs. Morgan, mother of the bride, in a gown of black triple sheer crepe with gold and turquoise trim and long bishop sleeves with hat to match and wearing a corsage of cream rosebuds, and Mrs. Cripps, mother of the groom, wearing a gown of moss green triple sheer with gold sequin trim and Strathmore model hat and corsage of pink carnations, received the guests.

Congratulations and best wishes were tendered the bridal couple who stood with their attendants before the fireplace, banked with green salal and white chrysanthemums with tall white tapers on the mantle.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Dr. L. W. Kergin and responded to by the groom, while George L. Rorie proposed the toast to the bridesmaid to which the groomsmen responded and also read telegrams of congratulations to the bridal couple.

Mrs. L. W. Kergin and Mrs. D. McD. Hunter presided at the urns while Mrs. Arthur Brooksbank cut the ices. Mrs. Alex Mitchell was in charge of the tea table.

Those assisting were Mrs. Jack Weise, sister of the bride; Mrs. Earl Norris, Mrs. Walter Cross, Mrs. George L. Rorie, Mrs. Tommy Fraser and the Misses Dorothy Macdonald, Evelyn Macdonald, Joan Cross, Frances Cross, Frances Thomson, Coral Rogers, Isobel Brennan and Vivian Wrathall.

A beautiful three-tier wedding cake was duly cut by the bride and served by Mrs. Stan Saville. Many beautiful gifts, testifying to the popularity of the young couple, were displayed.

Later in the evening the happy couple sailed aboard the Prince Rupert for the south, the bride wearing a dress of beige Dovetyn with brown and beige plaid coat and brown accessories and wearing a corsage of pink and cream rosebuds.

Mr. and Mrs. Cripps plan to reside in Vancouver.

PASSES IN VANCOUVER

Death has removed another of Prince Rupert's well known pioneers in the person of James Postulo who passed away on Saturday in Vancouver where, after having spent a month in hospital here, he had been taken a few weeks ago for further treatment. Suffering from gangrene, a leg had been removed but even that proved ineffectual in the effort to save his life.

Mr. Postulo came to Prince Rupert in 1908 and was engaged in the hotel and restaurant business for years. Among the hotels which at various times he owned and operated were the Grandview, Royal and St. Paul.

Sixty-four years of age and a native of Greece, Mr. Postulo is survived by his widow, four daughters, Miss Martha Postulo in Vancouver, Mrs. H. A. (Dolly) Nelson, Miss Nora Postulo and Mrs. Severino (Ann) Dominato in Prince Rupert; three sons, William in Winnipeg, Spro in Premier and Paul in Prince Rupert, and two grandchildren, Eugene and Carl Ann Nelson of Prince Rupert. To the bereaved will go the sympathy of many friends.

The remains are being brought back to Prince Rupert for interment, the funeral to take place Saturday.

MEETING AT ESSINGTON

Olof Hanson and Robert Gordon
Are Speakers in Support of
E. T. Kenney

Olof Hanson, M. P. for Skeena, and Robert Gordon returned yesterday from Port Essington where on Saturday night they addressed a campaign meeting in support of E. T. Kenney, Liberal candidate for Skeena in the provincial election. It was a representative and enthusiastic gathering and gave ample evidence of strong support for Mr. Kenney at Port Essington. Issues of the day, particularly those of local interest, were discussed by Mr. Hanson and Mr. Gordon.

Robert Frizzell presided and Mrs. S. R. Donaldson presided at the piano to accompany "O Canada" and "God Save the King."

EVENING OF MUSIC

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. S. Blackaby Entertain Delightfully.

A most enjoyable and unusual musical event took place on Friday evening when some thirty-five or forty music-lovers were guests for the evening with Mr. and Mrs. G. R. S. Blackaby for another "Evening with the Masters."

From his extensive library of recorded music Mr. Blackaby presented a well selected and varied program to the manifest enjoyment of the hearers. His brief, well-chosen remarks and introductions before each selection were greatly appreciated and helped to add new facets of beauty to the lustre of many old favorite numbers.

At the close of the program Mrs. Blackaby served a very dainty lunch. Presiding at the urns were Mrs. Sheldford Darton and Mrs. Arnold Flaten. Serviteurs were Mesdames Gordon German and Gavin Hume, assisted by Misses Kay Watson, Ellen and Frances Moore.

DR. KILDARE
HERE AGAIN

Poignant Drama, One Of Popular
Series, Featured At Capitol
Today And Tomorrow

"Dr. Kildare's Wedding Day," another of the popular series starring Lew Ayres and Lionel Barrymore, is the feature picture for today and tomorrow at the Capitol Theatre. The last complete show today starts at 5 p.m. after which the theatre will be cleared in readiness for the Liberal election campaign meeting at which the principal speaker will be G. G. McGeer M. P.

The story of "Dr. Kildare's Wedding Day" deals with a famous symphony conductor who discovers himself gradually growing deaf and the work of the two doctors (Ayres and Barrymore) in dealing with his case. In the course of this, the early romance of the older doctor is disclosed, how he loved a musician who composed a symphony before she died in her youth. In a dramatic climax this symphony is played by a great orchestra with Nils Asther, guest star, as conductor. The music of "Tableau Russe" was composed by Barrymore who also plays parts of his own music on the piano in the course of the picture.

The counterplot deals with Ayres losing his own sweetheart and being saved from mental disaster by Barrymore. Laraine Day plays the romantic lead with the cast also including Red Skelton, Alma Kruger, Samuel S. Hinds and Walter Kingsford.
