WHAT TO DO WHEN RAID ON

Official Instructions for Conduct During Black-Out Or Alarm.

Here is what is required of the people of British Columbia in regard to their conduct concerning black-outs and air raid alarms:

A signal, consisting of a series of five blasts, each of the duration of five seconds, with an interval of two seconds between each blast, the series being sounded three times with a pause of one minute between each series of blasts, shall be, and shall be known as, THE WARNING SIGNAL.

A signal, consisting of a series of three blasts, each of a duration of twenty seconds, with an interval of three seconds between each blast, the series being sounded three times with a pause of one minute between each series of blasts, shall be, and shall be known as THE ALL CLEAR SIGNAL.

Upon the sounding of the WARNING SIGNAL the following action is necessary:

In order to insure a complete black-out every person within range of the signal who has control of any light or of anything from which light is emitted, shall immediately do one of two things, either (i) extinguish the light and refrain from causing any other light, or (ii) screen the light or the source of the light so that no light, reflection or glare shall be visible from outside the building or enclosure. The black-out shall be maintained until the sounding of the ALL CLEAR SIGNAL; and during the period of the black-out, that is to say between the sounding of the WARNING SIGNAL, and the sounding of the ALL CLEAR SIGNAL, no person shall permit any light to be visible from the outside.

Every person within range of the signal who has control of any vehicle in motion upon any street or highway, shall draw it to the curb or side of the street or highway and shall bring it to a complete stop, and shall keep the vehicle stationary until the sounding of the ALL CLEAR SIGNAL. These directions shall not be applicable to any person or class of persons who have a permit from the premier of British Columbia or from any person to whom authority to issue permits is delegated by the premier.

During the period of any black-out, no person who is within the range of the signal, shall proceed along any street or highway where there is a sidewalk for the use of pedestrians, except upon the sidewalk; and, in the case of any street or highway where there is no sidewalk, no person shall proceed along that street or highway. This shall not prohibit any person from crossing any street or highway from one side thereof to the other, but no person shall cross diagonally. These directions shall not be applicable to any person or class of persons who have a permit from the premier of British Columbia or from any person to whom authority to issue permits is delegated by the premier.

Upon the sounding of the all clear signal all persons shall be released from these black-out requirements.

MANILA—Widespread raids against the Philippines have been essayed by the Japanese. After having been driven back to the shores on the north of the Island of Luzon yesterday, they endeavoured to effect landings at several points on the southeast. In their attacks yesterday, the Japanese are reported to have lost no less than 113 planes. An airport on the north of Luzon Island is back in American hands. The general situation is unchanged and well in hand, it is officially stated.

WASHINGTON—Many of the Japanese planes being used in the war in the Pacific are believed to carry not only German fighting equipment but to be manned by German pilots.

BUDAPEST—Hungary has broken off diplomatic relations with the United States, but it is said has no intention of declaring war.

BRITISH FORCES PAST TOBRUK

CAIRO—The British forces have now driven forty miles past Tobruk to the west in the Battle of Libya.

ATLANTIC LOSSES DOWN

LONDON—Prime Minister Winston Churchill, in his war review yesterday to parliament, said that shipping losses in the Battle of the Atlantic during the fall were only one-fifth of what they were running in the spring and summer.

RUSSIANS CONTINUE OFFENSIVE

CHI'S DREAM SUBWAY

Mittelstadt said he believed "this execution has some bearing on the present war."

RELIEF IN HONG KONG

New Offensive of Chinese in Kwantung Front Eases Pressure on British.

HONG KONG, Dec. 12:—Unable to make any headway into the defences of Hong Kong, the Japanese invading forces are now hemmed in on two sides as a result of a major offensive being launched by Chinese along the Kwantung front to threaten communications near Hong Kong. This has served to lift the weight of the attack on the British forces, including Canadians, at Hong Kong.

REGIMENT DESTROYED

British Troops Fight Through Sandstorm To Victory In Libya

CAIRO, Dec. 12:—British troops have destroyed the German 361st Africa Regiment and have fought through a two-day sandstorm in a 50-mile advance beyond Tobruk, it was reported officially today. The title to the strip of land on the Red Sea wrested from Italy by the British forces will remain with Great Britain and the administration will continue British but the United States will pour thousands of technicians and workmen into it to erect factories, assembly plants and other establishments to make it a power house behind troops in this part of the world.

TWO MAJOR INDUSTRIES

Local Recruiting Committee Is Meeting With Lack of Co-operation.

While the two heaviest employing concerns in the city and a few smaller ones as well came through with replies to the civilian recruiting committee's request for co-operation in submitting lists of men between 18 and 45 years of age on their payrolls, a number of concerns have so far failed to return the completed questionnaires, it was reported to the committee at a meeting yesterday afternoon. The committee decided to have tracer letters sent out to the employers which had so far failed to make returns on their employees within these age ranges. If this fails, other steps will be taken. The committee already has in its hands the names of companies in the city and the number of the men whom they employ.

Local recruiting committee will again get in touch with the Department of National Defence with a view to having premises more suitable than the present ones for recruiting headquarters.

Provincial Constable J. W. Todd of Smithers, who has been on a brief trip to Vancouver on escort duty, arrived in the city on the Prince George this morning and will proceed to the interior by the evening train.

Yesterday afternoon W. R. Devensh, manager of the western region of the Canadian National Railways, and Fred Siebert, industrial commissioner, both of Winnipeg, returned East by train last evening after a brief visit to the city on official business.

TOOK HIS OWN LIFE

Frank Johnston, Veteran Railway Worker and Tie-Maker, Dies at Decker Lake.

BURNS LAKE, Dec. 12:—Frank Johnston, a Scandinavian tie-maker, well known in railroad construction days from Prince Rupert to Prince George and along the line of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway, is believed to have taken his own life on Tuesday in his cabin near Decker Lake. He had lain down on the floor with a pillow under his head. A bullet wound, undoubtedly self-inflicted and a discharged gun beside the body, bore evidence of the manner of his death. Johnston, who was over seventy years of age, was well known in timber camps as an expert saw-filer. He had a habit of singing Salvation Army hymns in a melodious and powerful bass.

FINEST SILK GOES INTO CANADIAN PARACHUTES

The young lady in the above photograph is an expert seamstress working in one of the largest Canadian plants manufacturing parachutes. She is shown surrounded with yards of the finest silk joining seams with strong thread so they will withstand the pressure when the chute catches the wind. Below three Canadian airmen are learning to control their chutes on the ground.

Loss Is Not So Great . . .

The situation in the Pacific war zone appears improved. At first it seemed as if the officers and men on both the Prince of Wales and the Repulse might have been lost. Now many have been reported as survivors, making the loss much less than it seemed at first.

Japan's Loss . . .

Japan has lost one of her big battleships as well as other naval craft. The battleship Haruna was sunk by United States airplane activity, evidently in a manner similar to that which proved fatal to the two British ships and American ships at Hawaii.

What Is Germany Up To? . . .

The slackening of the pace in connection with the invasion of Russia makes us all suspicious as to what is to be the next move. Is England to be invaded by Germany and Italy with the possible consent of France, or are troops to be diverted to North Africa?

Our Mental Attitude . . .

These are the days that try people to find out the stuff of which they are made. If they are made of the stuff of which great nations are made, they stand up through thick and thin and show no fear, neither do they flinch.

We suggest once again that we are not in a very difficult position but that is no reason why we should not black-out carefully when told to do so.

Another important duty is to be as cheerful as possible under the circumstances. Dolorous Dick does not help anybody and neither does Serious Sam or Unhappy Harry.

As a community we can help each other. Should the worst come to the worst, it might be very helpful if we imitate the good cheer of that inimitable Englishman, Mark Tapley, and come out strong in spite of all the machinations of the enemy.

COWARDS DETESTED BY REDS

Instances and Valor and Treachery Among Fighting Men Are Given Publicity.

MOSCOW, Dec. 12:—If a Russian soldier is a brave man, his heroism is likely to be heralded throughout the length and breadth of this great land.

Instances of desertion, cowardice, sabotage and treachery among the fighting men are given publicity in the press as a warning to others to follow the line of duty.

Here is an anecdote taken from a Moscow newspaper that illustrates their candor:

"During the fighting on the northwestern front the traitor Piroshkov inflicted a wound in his hand. He went to a first aid station, hoping to be sent on to a hospital at the rear. The doctor who treated the wound quickly detected the truth. The traitor was given a military trial in front of his comrades in the forest near the fighting lines. Political Instructor Milakov delivered a speech. He said:

"This man was raised on our Soviet bread. He spat on his fatherland and the Soviet people. He was thinking only about his own hide. Piroshkov sold out his fatherland, his comrades and his family. He brought shams to our ranks, to his children, to his parents."

"The grim silence along the lines of soldiers bespoke flaming hatred against this scoundrel. Every man instinctively pressed the breach of his rifle. But only one now stepped forward. A volley sounded and the traitor received his due."

Second only to a traitor, according to Soviet propaganda, is a soldier who, wounded or not, abandons his equipment on the field of battle and so lets it fall into the hands of the enemy. This is the lesson drilled unceasingly into Soviet fighters, for the situation has reached the stage where the conservation of guns and ammunition is of most vital concern.

Another line of special education among the troops relates to methods of circumventing German encirclement tactics. Units that succeed in fighting their way through German cordons—and such instances are not infrequent—are given much publicity with a detailed description of how they did it.

But this honor is theirs only if they bring their arms with them.

MEETING OF MUSIC CLUB

Lecture By Ronald Bridgett Feature Of Proceedings Wednesday Afternoon

The season's third regular meeting of the Ladies' Music Club was held on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Thomas Dixon, Sixth Avenue East, the feature of the proceedings being a lecture by Ronald Bridgett on "The Development of Music."

Mr. Bridgett traced the influence of the church upon music throughout the years and explained that most of the great composers were "explorers," trying out new ideas in music, these being often at the time considered extreme and revolutionary.

The lecture was illustrated with the following numbers: Vocal solos, "Alleluia" (Mozart), "The Night Wind" (Roland Foreley) and "A Spirit Flower" (Campbell-Tiplow), Mrs. Eric Saville. Piano solo, "Island Spell" (John Ireland), Mrs. Thomas Dixon. Vocal solo, "Ein Ton" (Cornelius), "Good Fellows Be Merry"

BUYING IS HAMPERED

Black-Out Has Tendency of Slowing Sales in Local Stores for Christmas.

Christmas shopping was going along in Prince Rupert at a volume well ahead of last year owing to increased population and increased purchasing power on account of war-time activities until the black-out came along this week to cause a definite falling off. By next week, however, it is believed there will be a setting down with probably a great rush of buying during the final few days before Christmas than has been experienced in years.

All gift lines have been sharing in the increased trade, sellers of the various commodities reporting larger sales until this week's war developments brought the conflict closer to these shores.

WAS ONCE CHIVALROUS

But Nazis Made German Air Ace A Cruel Man

NEW YORK, December 12.—The sudden death of Colonel-General Ernst Udet, Quartermaster General of the German Air Force, cannot stir regret in this sternest of wars. It was planes that Udet helped perfect and direct that bombed Rotterdam after the Netherlands had ceased fighting; machine-gunned refugees on the roads of Belgium and France; laid waste Coventry. If the air chivalry of the First World War is dead, if the Nazi Air Force has reaped its greatest victories in the killing of civilians, Ernst Udet bore part of the blame.

Yet one does feel sorry for what Udet might have been. He had a native enthusiasm for the air. At 13 he was experimenting with a glider. If he shot down 62 Allied planes in the old war, it was in fair battle, and toward fallen enemies at that time he was chivalrous. When he came to this country as a reckless barnstormer ten years ago he was widely welcomed, even by his old enemies.

He had a pleasant and genial manner. Not least among the crimes of Nazism is its practice of corrupting men like this. The clear brain and steady nerves that might have contributed to build up civilization were debauched to destroy it. And for how many wrecked and distorted lives besides this one of Udet's must Nazism pay when the books are finally balanced.

SOME FOLK ARE SCARED

But Exodus of Prince Rupert People to Interior Is Quite Inconsequential.

What discomfort due to shortage of housing and other inconveniences failed to do a terrific job. Sitka bombing rumors appear to be doing in a small way to Prince Rupert. They have caused a slight exodus of local people to interior points such as Terrace, Smithers and Prince George. The movement, according to railway offices has, however, been quite light, probably not amounting to a couple of dozen or so persons. Quite possibly those departing will soon want to be coming back.

Prince George reports to Vancouver papers have told of some families of men in the war industry or armed forces at Prince Rupert being cared for in homes there.

SEA LIONS FOR FOOD

May Be Used To Feed Animals On Fur Farms

Experiments are being undertaken to find a commercial use for sea lions, which range up and down the British Columbia coast stealing fish from fishermen's nets and wrecking fishing nets. Latest experiments are for using sea lion carcasses in the preparation of food for animals on Canadian fur farms.

Sea lion meat is apparently satisfactory for animal food but costs in capturing the sea lions are high. Seeking additional offsets to costs, a check was made of the possibility of selling sea lion oil. According to fishery scientists, however, sea lion blubber oil is very similar to whale blubber oil and not of great value in small quantities. Sea lion liver oil is somewhat more valuable but it is reported doubtful by the Canadian government's fishery department whether any great additional revenue could be obtained from this product at present.

Because sea lions have a predilection for herring and salmon the Canadian government from time to time has to send expeditions out to the sea lion rookeries off the British Columbia coast to kill off enough of these sea mammals to keep their numbers stationary. The rookeries are located mainly off Vancouver Island, and the government hunters go there to kill the sea lions with high power rifles. The hunters leave the government ship in rowboats, clamber the slippery rocks, and try to bag as many sea lions as possible before they leave the rocks for the water.

Not that it is easy to kill hundreds of sea lions. There are dangers to the men who do the hunting. Heavy seas pound on the bare slippery rocks. Spray flies high, waves sometimes sweep over the men. Yet without serious accident to the hunters, the forays on the sea lions have been carried out in recent years. The aim is not to exterminate the herds but merely to control their numbers in the salmon and herring fishing areas, so that they will not ruin the fisheries which bring tens of thousands of dollars to Pacific coast fishermen.

Various experiments have been made seeking a commercial use for these marine lions. Some time ago a British firm tried to manufacture gloves and similar articles from leather made from sea lion skins. The outbreak of war has temporarily halted this scheme.

Troublesome as the sea lions are, careful check is kept on all hunting operations, and permission of the fisheries department is required before commercial hunts can be undertaken so that no threat of extermination of the species from British Columbia waters may be involved.

Air Raid Victim Aided by Queen's Fund

Miss Edith Curry was safe in a public shelter when a bomb came crashing down upon the rooming house in New Cavendish Street, London W.1, in which she lived in a small room. Sixty-three years of age, she lives on a pension of less than five dollars a week, which she supplements by doing dressmaking. Coming out of the shelter on the morning after the raid, she found that the rooming house had been completely destroyed, and she was left with nothing but the clothes she was wearing and the few bedclothes she had taken into the shelter.

Miss Curry was given some help by the Government Assistance Board of her borough, but although the Government aid was sufficient for her to buy a few pieces of furniture for the new living quarters with which she was provided and some new clothes, she was unable to replace her most valued possession — her sewing machine.

But then the Lord Mayor's National Air Raid Distress Fund stepped in and made sure that she would not be without the means of supplementing her meagre pension. From money donated to the Queen's Canadian Fund a brand new machine was bought for Miss Curry, and here she is seen working at it.

When a representative of the Queen's Canadian Fund called on Miss Curry the new machine had just been moved in and she made no attempt to conceal her pride of possession. "I don't know what I'd have done without a machine," she said. "Say thank you to your kind Canadians for me, will you, please?"

TALKING IS OVER

More Hard Thinking And Tolerant Discussion Urged By Rotary Speaker

Rev. J. A. Donnell, pastor of First United Church, in an address to the Prince Rupert Rotary Club yesterday, urged that there be more hard thinking and tolerant discussion, particularly among businessmen. In these busy days there was so little time for real hard thinking. In many cases it was found that the workers did more thinking than the businessmen.

The speaker said it was his business to sell religion. That did not mean the Golden Rule. The Golden Rule was not religion. He explained that his conception of religion was a consciousness of God in the working out of the plan of the universe. The consciousness of God was the important thing. The lack of tolerant discussion was one of the faults of the centuries.

SCOTLAND WAR BUSY

Output of Ships and Munitions at High Level.

OTTAWA, Dec. 12. (C)—In all Scottish industrial districts output of new ships and munitions continues at a high level. G. B. Johnson, Canadian Trade Commissioner at Glasgow, said in a report on business conditions in Scotland to the Department of Trade and Commerce.

Not the least of the factors contributing to this situation, he said, are the enthusiasm of all classes of workers and the managements and the absence of stoppages through labor disputes. Where disputes have arisen work has continued in almost all cases, while settlement by negotiation has proceeded.

The timber trade has been active in recent months, Mr. Johnson reported. All consuming industries are busy on war work and the timber control release timber only for maintenance purposes. Much of the new production of homegrown timber, cut and prepared at army camps in Scotland by the Canadian Forestry Corps and by some Newfoundlanders, is finding its way into work that has in the past used only imported timber.

Supplies of coal were not equal to the demand in the last few months, owing to reduced number of workers at the mines. However, the ministry of labor has lately been directing former coalminers to leave other industries and return to the mines and the position now is improved.

Man in the Moon

Good afternoon. We are still alive and kicking—especially kicking.

Now then, you poor fearful creatures, we are just as happy as we wish to be.

Two weeks from today we shall be celebrating Boxing Day. Let us live up to our reputation.

Forget the Japs until they come. Think of the turkey and the joy of putting something on the Christmas tree for the youngsters.

What we have to be thankful for is that it's not as hot here as it is around Singapore where it's too hot to walk and almost too hot to fight and the bugs make it almost too unpleasant to live.

We were thankful to Boss Little last night for allowing us to get a breath of fresh air in the house and enough light to enable us to read and smile and smoke.

Barney says to tell Jake he may look for a heavy shipment of Japanese oranges by air.

This is vouched for as a true story. A busy little sub-editor was leaving his room with his little bowler hat on, when the telephone bell rang. The journalist picked up the receiver. "Lord Boom speaking," rasped a masterful voice, the voice of his Owner. "Yes, my lord?" said the journalist, hastily removing his hat.

"My word, this tastes good," said the old lady, drinking a glass of beer for the first time. It's just like the medicine my husband has been taking for the last forty years."

During the last war, when the American troops were newly arrived in France, one of their officers thought he would offer a bonus of five dollars for every German captured. The effect was marvelous. Next day the sergeant led in a "string" of nearly a hundred prisoners. "Magnificent!" said the officer although somewhat ruefully, as he handed out the promised reward. "How did you do it?" "Quite easily," said the sergeant. "The locks in the next sector had plenty to spare at a dollar a head."

The concealed screen star was making a nuisance of himself at the party. He never let the conversation touch on any other subject than himself. Finally he turned to the hostess and said: "And how did you like my last picture?" "I was certain," she replied, "that it was."

VANCOUVER BLACK-OUT

Big City And Strange And Eerie In Dark—Mix-up Over Automobile Lights

The city of Vancouver was a strange and eerie sight in the black-out at the first of this week, according to arrivals from the southern metropolis. Evidently, it was a successful black-out.

The street cars, usually shutting back and forth along brightly lighted Granville and Hastings Streets, were all at a standstill. Many automobile drivers tied their cars up, not caring to risk the danger by running without lights or with them partially obscured. Incidentally, there was a mix-up in regard to the car patrol, soldiers and A.R.P. wardens stopping cars which had any lights showing at all while police permitted them to move as long as they were partially reduced in compliance with Defence of Canada regulations.

On the steamers coming up the coast all portholes and windows were batted down to permit the emission of light. Even ship's lights were off and some of the lighthouses and marine lights were out.

BEAUTIFUL MARRIAGE

Miss Anne Boddie Becomes Bride Of Douglas Stevenson

A beautiful wedding was solemnized yesterday afternoon in St. Peter's Church, Seal Cove, amid a lovely setting of pink cyprianthems, when Anne Elizabeth, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Boddie, became the bride of Douglas Coney Stevenson, son of B. C. Stevenson of Vancouver and the late Mrs. Stevenson, Canon W. F. Rushbrook officiating.

The bride was beautiful in a floor length gown of pink net with full skirt and trim of gold braid and flowing veil of pink net fastened to the head with a wreath of orange blossoms. The wreath had been worn by her mother on her wedding day. She carried a shower bouquet of sweetheart roses and entered the church on the arm of her father by whom she was given in marriage. The Wedding March was played by Mrs. C. J. Norrington at the organ.

The matron of honor, Mrs. R. M. Burnett, sister of the bride, was charming in a gown of aqua marine brocaded taffeta, with primrose hat and carried a bouquet of yellow carnations.

George L. Rorie was groomsmen and L. M. Gordon and C. A. Kellett were ushers.

During the signing of the register Mrs. T. Dixon sang "Because I Love You Dear," accompanied by Mrs. Norrington.

Following the wedding ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on Ninth Avenue East. Mrs. Boddie, mother of the bride, in a gown of blue and white flowered chiffon with velvet hat to match and wearing a corsage of pink carnations, received the guests.

L. M. Gordon was toastmaster. Canon Rushbrook proposed the toast to the bride which was responded to by the groom and Col. J. W. Nicholls proposed the toast to the matron of honor to which the groomsmen responded.

The bride duly cut the beautiful three-tier wedding cake, which was centred on a table prettily decorated with lace cloth, pink tapers and pink and white carnations. The rooms were tastefully decorated for the occasion with pink cyprianthems.

Those assisting were Mrs. G. A. Keisey, Mrs. W. Skinner, Mrs. J. Joy, Mrs. J. E. Morris, Mrs. G. R. Keisey, Mrs. G. L. Rorie and Mrs. T. Fraser.

Many beautiful gifts were on display testifying to the popularity of the young couple. Several telegrams of congratulation were received.

Later the happy couple sailed aboard the Prince Rupert for a honeymoon in the south. The bride chose as her going-away costume a dress of brown wool crepe with gold sequin trim with hat and accessories to match and coat of brown muskrat and wore a corsage of pink rose buds.

On their return Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson will take up residence in the city. The groom is identified with Nelson Bros. Fisheries. The bride has been accountant at the Pioneer Laundry. The couple are well known and popular and will have congratulations and best wishes of many friends.

INDUCTION OF PASTOR

Rev. A. F. MacSween Officially Installed At First Presbyterian Church

Rev. Alex F. MacSween was inducted as pastor of First Presbyterian Church on Wednesday night by Rev. A. T. McIntosh of White Rock, acting in the absence of Rev. J. B. Skene of Vancouver, moderator of General Assembly, who was unable to be here. The induction service took place in the church parlors, it being impossible to use the church auditorium owing to the black-out. Mrs. E. J. Smith accompanied the hymns which were "O God of Bethel" and "Sun of My Soul."

Mr. McIntosh returned south on the Prince George this morning after his brief visit here to conduct the induction.
