Ottawa Is In Money Spending Mood

People of Bristol Tell of Shattering Raids in Past And Expectancy of More Soon

By EVELYN S. TUFTS
 People in Canada who are sitting back and behaving as if peace and plenty would be with us again within the year, would be rudely jarred out of their complacency if they could be in England for a little while, especially in these places which have had such a searing experience from repeated bombings. There is no lightning of tension here, no lapse into even momentary forgetfulness of the terror, which, as the long autumn black-out begins, may again be unloosed upon them without a moment's notice.

GERMANS IN CRIMEA

Say They Forced Way Through Yaila Mountains Between Sebastopol and Kerch.
 BERLIN, Nov. 5: (CP)—The German High Command have claimed that their armies have forced their way through the rugged Yaila Mountains in the Crimea and have reached the south coast of the peninsula between Sebastopol and Kerch. Effect of this manoeuvre was said to have split the defending Russian armies into three parts.

PAYROLL SAVINGS

Importance of Scheme Emphasized By Local Committee—Number of Firms Enrolled
 The Payroll Savings Plan is the most important phase of the entire War Savings Movement and its success is dependent on the continuing co-operation of every organization and every employee in Canada.
 In Prince Rupert the following firms have been enrolled under the plan for some time:
 Burns & Co. Ltd.
 Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co. Ltd.
 City of Prince Rupert.
 Capitol Theatre.
 Georgetown Lumber & Box Co. Ltd.
 Government of British Columbia.
 Dominion Government.
 Kelly, Douglas & Co.
 W. H. Malkin Co.
 Mitchell & Currie.
 Northern B. C. Power Co.
 S. E. Parker Ltd.
 Philpott, Eviatt & Co.
 Prince Rupert Daily News
 Prince Rupert Dry Dock & Shipbuilding Co.
 Ryan Construction Co.
 S. C. Thomson & Son
 Several of the above firms have become eligible for the Gold Honor Roll Certificate award in recognition of 100 percent employee participation. Additional businesses are being enrolled during the current War Weapons Drive. It is confidently expected by the local War Savings Committee that every organization in the city, having five or more employees, will sign up within the next two weeks.
 Just as important is the effort being made by all firms, particularly the larger ones, to raise their employee participation to as high a percentage point as possible. It is generally conceded that the best results under the Payroll Plan can only be obtained by means of the active support and co-operation of both employers and employees.

LONDON, Nov. 5: (CP)—Hitler will order a winter assault on the Caucasus, even though it might engage his war-weary armies with a large wing of General Wavell's Indian command, military observers forecast today.
 They said it was almost certain the Battle of the Empire between Germany and Britain will be fought in or south of the Caucasus with British forces engaged on a common front with the Russians.

in Canada who have stood by us with their gifts to the Queen's Canadian Fund, money, tinned food and clothing, will never know what it has meant in places like this, where we must find shelter and extra food for so many." I was assured over and over again.
 There are children still sleeping out on the downs these cold rainy nights, but now more permanent shelter must be found.

CANADIAN POETRY IN ONE BOOK

Winners of Prizes in Recent Competition by Canadian Authors' Association.

MISS AGNES ASTON HILL Of Calgary
 Winner of the Governor-General's Silver Medal and cash prize in Dominion-wide poetry-contest conducted by the Toronto Poetry Group, Canadian Authors' Association

Mrs. Carol Cassidy, both of Toronto.
 Announcement of the award brings to light a many-sided project with artistic and patriotic aspects. "Voices of Victory," the volume of verse which Macmillans will publish Nov. 6, is the means of distributing the best of the 766 poems entered in the contest. "It is also a collection of the work of our best-known poets, broadly representative of Canadian thought and feeling in this crisis, as well as a practical contribution," the announcement says.
 Not only have distinguished writers contributed their talents, but the Toronto Poetry Group, besides managing the contest, has financed the scheme so that the entire proceeds of the book, and not merely the royalties on it, will later be given as a cash gift to an appropriate cause.
 In addition to the medal given especially for this purpose by the Earl of Athlone, who is patron of the Canadian Authors' Association, Miss Hill will receive a cash first prize of $50 donated by R. Y. Eaton of Toronto. Miss McFadden, named second, will receive $25, the gift of the Toronto Poetry Group, and Mrs. Cassidy the third prize of $10 subscribed by Sir William Mulock, former chief justice of Ontario.
 Honorable Mention
 Twenty other poets, who received honorable mention, will be included in order of merit, as follows:—John E. Nixon, Wauchope, (Continued on Page Four)

 The minister also said that extensive facilities for ship repairs were being provided at an estimated cost of $4,500,000 which will permit naval and merchant vessels operating in the Atlantic to put into Canadian ports for repair when damaged in enemy action or other cause.
 The minister said 77 corvettes had so far been launched and he forecast a monthly tank production of two hundred by next April. Navy Minister Macdonald said that more than one Nazi submarine had been sunk through the vigilance and skill of the Royal Canadian Navy.

JAP AIR LINE TO EAST INDIES

Dangerously Near Australian Defences Is New Route To Portuguese Island of Timor
 CANBERRA, Australia, Nov. 5:—Extension of a Japanese airline to Portuguese Timor, only 560 miles from the Australian defence base of Darwin, Northern Territory, has been discussed by the Australian government. All newspapers are prominently displaying the Portuguese-Japanese agreement by which Japan operates an airline from Palao, East of the Philippines, to Timor. A statement credited to a Japanese source in Tokyo that the move was of "deep significance" aroused wide and unfavorable comment.
 Newspapers point out that the southern part of Timor is Dutch, and the Japanese thus have a foothold in the Netherlands East Indies.
 The Melbourne Herald comments that Japan's Timor move constitutes Australia's introduction to "peaceful penetration."
 The cabinet discussion coincided with an announcement by the Australian Naval Board that all entrances to the Barrier Reef, which fringes the Queensland coast for 1,250 miles, have been mined from Arlington to Papua (Australian New Guinea).

Russian Reinforcements . . .

Three quarters of a million men, well trained in winter warfare, should prove a very substantial aid to the Russian forces and may be the turning effort of the whole battle for Moscow. At any rate it is a strong force and doubtless the men are fresh and all ready for battle.

Next Step for Germany . . .

"The dark shadow sweeping eastward across Russia like the coming of night approaches a priceless valley, defended by a formidable mountain wall. Two of this war's greatest treasures are the oil and manganese hidden south of the line of the Caucasus Mountains—oil to run the engines of war, manganese to harden the steel of war. Hitler wants them both badly. To get them he must either storm the high Caucasus or make a flank attack by sea or by air, after he has conquered the Crimea and the Sea of Azov. The British commander in India, General Wavell, said last week, "They (the Germans) would have to put an end to the Russian Black Sea Fleet, either by taking all its bases or by sending in the Italian fleet to fight. The latter would involve seizing the Dardanelles."

"For control of the Black Sea is also indispensable to get German supply ships across from the mouth of the Danube and up the Dnepr and Don Rivers. The big catch in the German conquest of southern and central Russia is a painful supply problem overland. Water transport would largely solve it. Hence, the most useful spot in the world today for British and U. S. bombers and fighters is probably the Caucasus. One whole wing of the Royal Air Force, with a probable combat strength of about 50 fighters, has already been rushed up into the Caucasus and beyond."

Woodsworth Returns . . .

J. S. Woodsworth, veteran C.C.F. leader who was absent from parliament last year because of illness, arrived in the capital Friday night and was expected to appear in commons early this week.

The appearance of Mr. Woodsworth was important since acting C.C.F. leader M. J. Coldwell is now in Britain with a group of Canadian parliamentarians. Mr. Woodsworth may be unable to speak because of his illness, but will take part in the C.C.F. caucus to determine largely the party's policy.

Spitfire Fund

To All Trappers in B.C., Alberta, Yukon and Northwest Territories: The B.C. Sportsmen's Spitfire Fund is asking your co-operation in the raising of $23,500 to buy a Spitfire fighter airplane for the Empire's fighting forces. This fund is incorporated as part of "Wings for Britain," which is registered under the Department of National War Services.

In order that trappers may assist in this war effort, being conducted by those interested in our great outdoors, we are asking that you donate pelts of fur-bearing animals. Any pelts you donate will automatically include you in a very interesting competition. Furs will be judged as to their quality and the trapper who sent in the winning fur will receive a cash prize of $50.00. This will apply to furs received before January 10, 1942. Furs received after that date and up to June 10, 1942, will be placed in a second competition, the winner of which will receive a $65 cash prize. The winning pelts of the two competitions will then be compared and the trapper who sent in the better of the two will be named champion peltier of western Canada.

Pelts will be judged on their excellence in their particular class. For instance a coyote pelt will stand as good a chance of winning as a silver or cross fox. The value of the pelt in dollars does not enter into the matter as far as the competition is concerned. Points will be given entirely for quality in the fur's particular class and for handling of pelts, such as stretching, etc. Only furs donated to the fund will be eligible for the competition. Here is your chance to show your ability as a trapper and peltier and at the same time assist tremendously in putting the B.C. Sportsmen's Spitfire fund over the top. The winner of the peltier championship will receive wide publicity. Furs donated to the fund by trappers will be sold at public auction by Little Bros. and no expense or commissions will be

All furs for the fund sent to Little Bros. will be under supervision of the Game Commission, who are kindly assisting the Spitfire Fund in every way possible. Timber wolves, squirrels and weasels, will not be eligible for either of the prizes but they would be gladly accepted for the benefit of the fund. Please clearly label any furs you donate or enter for the competition, as follows: B.C. Sportsmen's Spitfire Fund, c/o Little Bros., Vancouver, B.C.

Living Historic Times With Canada

For just one year short of a century-and-a-quarter—124 dramatic, dynamic, historic years—the Bank of Montreal has lived, worked and watched with Canada. The Bank has seen war come and peace go, peace come and war depart; shared Canada's struggle through every night of economic depression since 1817; rejoiced to see Canada always triumph over all adversity. Founded two years after the Battle of Waterloo, the Bank witnessed the Crimean War, the Indian Mutiny, and, with other loyal Canadians, enlisted for the duration in the South African War and World War I, and now marches with the Dominion and the Empire in World War II. Always, Canada has come through stronger, better, triumphant. May she so come through the present fiery trial. To this end we work and dedicate the institution's service, just as our 6000 loyal employees are working and dedicating their personal services.

Legion Met to Lay Plans For Annual Event

Remembrance Day To Be Celebrated As Usual This Year With Poppy Tag Day On Saturday

A special meeting of the Prince Rupert branch of the Canadian Legion of the British Empire Service League was held to complete arrangements for the various activities in connection with the observance of Remembrance Day, Canadian Legion Church Parade and the Armistice Banquet.

Full details of the Remembrance Day arrangements will appear at a later date.

The annual church parade will be held to the Baptist Church this year on Sunday forenoon next.

The Armistice banquet will be held in the Armories on Tuesday evening. This is of course the big event of a social nature when the veterans relive some of the scenes of November 11, 1918 when the last Great War was stopped by the Armistice. The comradeship of the army cemented by experiences of the trenches with their suffering, death, and common sharing of the daily risks and joys will not be forgotten by those who had Arrangements for the Poppy Tag Day and sale of poppies in the schools are also complete. Evidence of the widespread interest in this is indicated by a request from Bella Bella to have poppies forwarded there for sale. They will remember.

BETTER LIGHT FOR BETTER SIGHT

SAYS Reddy Kilowatt

WORK, SEW, READ, STUDY, PLAY, LIVE IN COMFORT—
FREE FROM EYESTRAIN

"That sounds like a big mouthful folks," says Reddy Kilowatt, "but believe me it's full of meaning; there's not an adjective or a wasted word in that entire heading. For what could be more important these indoor days than guarding sight with better light. It's easy to do and it costs so little. Just see that every lamp and fixture has its proper quota of bulbs and keep a carton handy for immediate replacement when one burns out. That's the kind of home comfort everyone appreciates."

Terrace

In connection with the fatal accident which occurred in a logging camp in the Kalum Lake district Nov. 3, when Dan Popp, whose home is in Terrace, was crushed beneath a falling snag, Mr. Popp had during recent months completed the building of his home and he was a man who was well spoken of by all. Although there are some distant relatives in Terrace, Mr. Popp was a single man.

The month of October lived up to its reputation by being very wet and cloudy. There were few sunny days and the rain measured up to nine and a quarter inches. In 1939 there was a similar rainfall and in that year an inch of snow as well.

SONG-DANCE SPECTACLE

"Ziegfeld Girl" Coming As Feature
Presentation To Screen Of
Capitol Theatre

A dramatic story of the lives of the world's most beautiful dancing girls, "Ziegfeld Girl" comes as the feature picture to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. It is a colorful spectacle of music and dancing, as elaborate as any that have yet been offered.

Tracing the lives of three girls, enacted by Lana Turner, Judy Garland and Hedy Lamarr, the film shows how a press agent, Edward Everett Horton, ever on the look-out for beauty, picks the girls from obscurity and sky-rockets them to fame in the Follies. One is an elevator operator, another a young vaudeville performer and the third is the young wife of a former European concert violinist. The three find fame but only two of them happiness.

Other important members of the cast are Ian Hunter, James Stewart, Charles Winninger, Fay Holden, Jackie Cooper and Tony Martin.

"You Stepped Out of a Dream," "Minnie from Trinidad," "We Must Have Music," "I'm Always Chasing Rainbows," "Laugh, I Thought I'd Split My Side," "Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Shean" and "Caribbean Love Song" are among the popular songs which are featured.

Women "Tell Off" Pep-Talk Bishop

Workers Open Fire In Clergyman's
Study And Obtain Explanation

GLOUCESTER, Eng., Nov. 5: (P)—Mrs. A. M. Parrott, bombed-out London mother of six children, sat in her munition worker's dungarees in the study of the Bishop of Gloucester he didn't know what he was talking about when he attacked war workers in a sermon at Gloucester Cathedral.

The Bishop, Rev. Arthur Cayley Headlam, listened to her story and that of six colleagues and agreed there had been some misunderstanding. He had accused war workers of slackness and said they cared only about wages, which he described as "colossal."

"We work for a shilling an hour on day and night shifts, and sometimes we never see daylight," Mrs. Parrott said. "Some of us have seen the horrors of war on the doorstep. That's why we're anxious to work to win the war. But we are not going to be insulted by a bishop."

The bishop, who apologized to the woman and her companions, said he had tried to bring home to all classes of the country "our failure as a nation."

"Those I have no sympathy with are the people who do not work and those who try and get as large a salary as possible for the smallest output of work," he said.
