BATTLE FOR VICTORY

NEW YORK-"We have won the battle for survival. Now it the battle for victory," declared Lord Halifax, British ambassafor to the United States, at a dinner in his honor here last night. The battle for victory could only be won by assuming the offensive. The Battle of Russia is as much yours and ours as is the Battle of Britain or the Battle of the Atlantic," a serted Lord Halifax to his American audience. Wendell Willkie, also a speaker, advocated outright repeal of the Neutrality Act so that fullest possible aid night be given to the Allies.

SOME SECRETS DISCLOSED

LONDON-A Royal Air Force booklet, issued today, declared hat Great Britain had been prevented by her ally France, before he collapse, from bombing Germany and Italy. The booklet tells f how a great Nazi flotilla intended to invade Britain had been mashed on the French coast. It declared that Berlin traffic had been demoralized by Royal Air Force raiding and that the German city was a Nazi "Coventry" so great had been the bomb damage done there. Great damage at many other points was also referred Another Delay in Connection With British-German Repatriation Move.

LONDON, Oct. 7:-The hospital ships St. Julien and Dynard had their German passengers on board and even had their sailing lights on early this morning when orders were received not to sail with German repatriates under the arrangement which had supposedly been made between Great Britain and Germany. Now it is possible the transfer may be off altogether.

The order calling off the movement was based on a statement made by the German radio saying that arrangements had been definitely made for the exchange of only 133 prisoners of war and not for 1500 as had been announced in this country.

Junior Chamber . . .

The Daily News wishes to congratulate the Junior Chamber of Commerce on its activities during the past A year. It is not necessary to agree with the chamber in J its findings in order to appreciate the value of full and free discussion of public questions, especially at a time when there is no city council where local questions can r be aired. To see twenty to thirty young men sitting of down to dinner together and spending an evening dis- s cussing such questions as civic health, inter-provincial relations, traffic regulations, tourist attractions and promoting such movements as the civic centre, a five-day carnival, providing a cigarette fund for soldiers, is a tribute to the intelligence and ambitions of the young men of the city.
