Roosevelt Says— SHOOTING STARTED FOR U.S.

America Attacked, Time Has Come to Clear Decks and Take Stations—Statement of Policy.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28: (CP)—"Damn the torpedoes. Full speed ahead." These words of Admiral Farragut were repeated by President Franklin D. Roosevelt in a Navy Day address which was broadcast to the world last night.

The "shooting war" has started, the president declared. America had been attacked and the nation stood ready. The time had come to clear the decks and take the stations.

British authorities refused to make direct comment but made no effort to hide smiles of satisfaction at the president's expressions. His declaration that "shooting has started" was spread in headlines.

In an important statement of policy, Mr. Roosevelt announced that congress would be asked for authority to arm merchant ships and permit them to carry goods to "all our friends" with naval protection. Mr. Roosevelt, referring to a secret map, charged that Chancellor Adolf Hitler's plan was to dismember Latin America and, among other things, abolish all religions.

In London President Roosevelt's speech was hailed with enthusiasm. The Evening Star declared that United States was moving slowly but inexorably toward war.

Berlin said that the speech would be ludicrous if it did not imply such tragedy. The secret map of South America was referred to as a "swindle."

Mrs. Roosevelt criticized John L. Lewis by implication.

TELLS WHY THEY QUIT

Belgian Army Not Beaten, Says Minister, But Trapped by French Retreat.

LONDON, Oct. 28: (CP)—The battle of Belgium in the spring of 1940 was lost in France, said Camille Gutt, Belgian minister of defence, speaking at a League of National Defence luncheon here. He declared the battle was lost on May 15, one day after the Nazi break-through at Sedan, when Gen. Gamelin, Allied generalissimo, ordered a general retreat behind the Scheldt.

The Belgian army was not beaten, it was trapped, he asserted. "It was encircled, because the Germans, through the gap made at Sedan, had reached the French coast and made any retreat impossible for us."

Mr. Gutt said the Belgian army bore the full pressure of the German war machine from May 22 until May 27. At the end of that time munitions were lacking and 3,000,000 people were packed into an area of less than 1,000 square miles, without food, drinking water, gas, electricity or shelter. That was why it was decided to surrender.

Back From West— RAIL CHIEF RETURNS TO HIS OFFICE

President of Canadian National Gives Impressions of Dominion at War.

MONTREAL, Oct. 28:—R. C. Vaughan, president of the Canadian National Railways, having completed a thorough inspection of all the system properties, east and west, yesterday returned to headquarters on the termination of his western tour. On his tour he was accompanied by officers of the company and members of the board of directors.

Mr. Vaughan said, "We have made an inspection of the physical properties of the system, its roadbed, its equipment, its shops, its hotels, steamships, telegraph and express facilities. We have conferred with supervisory staffs and have met the employees in all grades of service.

"Meetings have been held with business men in the various cities and with leaders in agriculture, lumbering, mining and other forms of production. The objective has been to determine by personal contact that everything possible is being done by the railway to ensure continuity of prompt and efficient transport service to the nation in this period of crisis.

"The railways carry more than two-thirds of the total production of the Dominion and the maintenance of their efficiency is absolutely vital," said Mr. Vaughan. "Canada's productivity has risen to new heights in very many lines of effort. In general the volume of business is greater than at any other period in the history of our country although the western Canadian grain crop of 1941 was disappointing.

"It has been a matter of pride to railwaymen that in the first two years of the war they have carried the troops, the munitions, the supplies and the products of farm and factory along with vast quantities of material for construction, without a tie-up of any kind due to shortage of facilities to labor disagreements or any other cause.

"I feel certain after this lengthy inspection trip that this fine record of the railways will continue. They have not yet reached the maximum of service which they can give in spite of the largely increased traffic they are handling.

Economy Transformed

"The outstanding impression one obtains on a ten thousand mile journey through the nine provinces of Canada is the amazing transformation which the war has brought to our national economy. The huge new factories which have had to be created for chemical and other munitions of war have passed from the construction and organizing stage into output. In the shipyards on the Atlantic and the Pacific, and on the Great Lakes, keels for new freighters and the war vessels have been laid. When we were at Vancouver this month the first of the new freighters was launched. Farther north, at Prince Rupert, the Canadian National Shipbuilding plant and dry dock are also busy on the creation of freighters and minesweepers. "Other plants of the Canadian

Germans Throwing Fresh Reserves Continually Into Battle—Soviet Reserve Armies Being Trained Far to Rear in Eastern Siberia.

LONDON, Oct. 28: (CP)—The Red Army launched counter-attacks on all sections of the Moscow front today and made headway in a number of places, according to a correspondent of the Red Star quoted in Moscow despatch to Reuters. The report came as an authoritative source said that German armies were ten to fifteen miles from Rostov-on-the-Don but still about forty miles from Moscow at the nearest point. The sources said that heavy fighting continued in both sections but "there has not been very much movement anywhere." He added that lack of movement was a "very good sign."

Informed sources said that Russians defending Moscow had been strengthened by reserves from Siberia and had thrown the Germans back as much as ten miles in some sectors.

Late despatches said that bad weather was slowing up the Germans with rain and light falls of snow turning ground of some regions into quagmires. The Germans were said to be throwing fresh reserves continually into battle, concentrating main forces on right and left wings.

From Kulibyshev came word that the Russians, while battling to hold Moscow, Leningrad and Rostov, are preparing for the future by training a reserve army far to the rear in eastern Siberia. This was reported today.

In Berlin the German High Command claimed today that its troops had entered Kramatorsk, Soviet tank manufacturing city 100 miles southeast of Kharkov, while military quarters said that German artillery for the past twenty-four hours had pounded Leningrad, apparently to soften up the city's defences preliminary to infantry and tank assault.

Angus Walters Tries Politics

Doughty Skipper Of Fishing Boat Queen Runs In N. S. Election

HALIFAX, October 28: (CP)—In the Nova Scotia general election today Conservative candidate in the riding of Lunenburg is Captain Angus Walters, internationally-known skipper of the stately Bluenose when she was queen of the fishing schooners in the North Atlantic. Now a business man ashore, Walters is making his debut in the political world.

ETERNAL LONDON

The London fire of 1666 brought building structures of stone and brick in place of wood.

National are busy on war work.

"I have had an opportunity of talking to many hundreds of Canadians through the east and through the west—people from the pioneer stocks which have made North America what it is today—and nowhere did I find that resolution to win the war had given way to pessimism. Even the war moved with such dramatic rapidity and the theatre of war has expanded so quickly that there comes occasionally a dense of unreality. But the essence of the Canadian spirit at this time, as I have found it, is that the demands and burdens arising out of the crisis affect everyone of our people and will be met willingly by everyone."

Battle of Soviet—

NAZIS ARE HELD UP IN RUSSIA NOW

Unfavorable Weather And Strong Red Resistance Are Factors—Berlin Expects Winter Campaign

LONDON, October 28: (CP)—The Russian lines southwest and west of Moscow are said in war despatches today to have withstood Nazi attempts to blast an opening toward the Soviet capital but in the south the Germans are apparently pushing steadily toward Rostov, Russia's important pipeline terminus and rail junction at the gateway to the Caucasus.

Bad weather and stubborn resistance are combining to make it difficult for the Nazi panzer forces on the northern and central sectors of the long front. German spearheads directed towards Moscow have been driven out of some villages and the Germans are on the defensive in many places. The Nazis have suffered heavy losses around Leningrad where old style trench warfare has been resorted to with opposing forces only 50 yards apart in some places.

The Soviet high command said that the Germans had been halted in the drive towards Moscow at one point 57 miles to the west and 65 miles to the southwest and that there has also been a slowing up between Kharkov and Rostov to the south.

A blitz bombing attack against Moscow was beaten off with the loss of eight Nazi planes.

Berlin now admits the likelihood of a winter campaign in Russia and warns the people that victory cannot be expected until spring although it will be certain then.

Fierce Russian counter-attacks launched in an attempt to halt the German advance into the rich Donets Basin were claimed failures yesterday by the German High Command.

There has been a marked deterioration in physical condition and morale of German forces during the last twenty days, Moscow asserts.

C.C.F. Total Vote . . .

In spite of the fact that the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation comes second in the number of members elected to the legislature, it is pointed out by newspapers in the south that the Conservatives came second in the number of votes cast. One reliable journal gives the figures as follows:

Liberals	133,315
Conservatives	131,565
C.C.F.	128,878
Others	7,530
Total vote	400,288

It must be clear that these figures are only approximate as they were made up on Thursday of last week and there have been slight changes since that time.

A Great Gulf . . .

According to C.C.F. leaders, there is between them and the other parties in British Columbia a great gulf. They stand for the total abolition of the present system whereas the Liberals and Conservatives both stand for a continuation of or modification of the present system. The C.C.F. is Socialism complete and each member who is elected under the C.C.F. banner is pledged to work for the abolition of the present system and the introduction of Socialism. That is the gulf and, with the C.C.F. policy as it is today, we realize the gulf.

Hon. John Hart is today being touted for the premiership of the province and yet he is less socialistic in his views than is Premier Pattullo. Let us remember that it was the premier who strongly advocated the borrowing of possibly one hundred million dollars at the time of the depression to put people to work. That was a socialistic move.

Why the Fuss? . . .

There seem to be a number of people who do not like the out and out fearlessness of Premier Pattullo and would like to see him removed. They are trying to rush the premier into a coalition without consideration of terms or future plans. T. D. is not that kind of a man. When the question of coalition is considered it must follow a conference in which all phases must be discussed. The Liberals, as the predominant partners with only three members short of a majority, must have first consideration and the policy of the Conservatives must be only secondary.

By the time Mr. Pattullo and Mr. Hart return from Ottawa they will have had time to consider well the situation and will be in a position to make definite recommendations to the legislature. There is nothing to be excited about. Whatever is done will be for the best interests of the province and to suit the interests of the terests of the province and not to suit the interests of the

THE SILENT ROOTERS

OLD BOYS HAVE BAD BALL YEAR

Axe Of The Diamonds Took Heavy Toll Of Big League Veterans During Past Season

NEW YORK, October 28: (C)—Twenty-two baseball greats of yesterday felt the axe in the season just closed, to mark one of the greatest major league housecleanings in many years.

Youth had to be served, but the records these players leave behind will fuel the Hot Stove League for many long winters to come.

The housecleaning was strongly hinted at before the season began. An unusual number of veterans, battered and aged by the baseball wars, were just hanging on. And one by one they dropped off.

Biggest shakeup by any one club was engineered by the Chicago Cubs. Down and out went Jerome (Dizzy) Dean, Clay Bryant, Billy Myers, Zeke Bonura, Al Tood and, at the season's end, doughty old Charley Root. And to Brooklyn went Billy Herman and Augie Galan.

Others Out

Paul Dean and Lou Chiozza departed from the Giants, and Earl Averill finished his distinguished career with the Boston Braves. Brooklyn gave up Van Bungo and set down Tex (no hit) Carleton, Joe Vosmik, Mace Brown and Vito Tamulis. Cincinnati cut loose Jim Ripple, the ternal rookie, and Monte Pearson. Leo (Gabby) Hartnett got his release from the Giants, but may return next spring.

It was a bad season for the Waner boys and perhaps their last. Pittsburgh released them. Paul caught on with Boston and Lloyd with Cincinnati, but Lloyd was released after the season ended.

In the American League, Manager Jimmy Dykes of the Chicago White Sox decided Third Baseman Jimmy Dykes was all washed up, and retired amidst fanfare, Ossie Bluzge of Washington and Earl Brucker of the Athletics turned coaches. Charles (Buddy) Myer got his walking papers from Washington when the season ended.

Reading Their Obits

More such drama is to be enacted, perhaps quickly. Connie Mack says Al Simmons probably will not play again. The Duke of Milwaukee was a coach much of last season. Charley Gehringer, Detroit's mechanical second baseman, and Robert Moses Grove, one of the all-time great southpaws, are getting used to reading their obits.

Hal Trosky and Mel Harder, Cleveland veterans, were disabled and off the scene when the 1941 season ended. Chuck Klein warmed the bench in Philadelphia. Sam West in Washington, Dick Bartell, Ben Chapman, Erick McNair and Larry Rosenthal had to scramble for jobs. Babe Phelps was forgotten by Brooklyn. Fat Freddy Fitzsimmons was battered in the World Series.

SPORT CHAT

Panama Al Brown defeated Eugene Huat of France in a 15 round bout at Montreal 10 years ago yesterday for the world's bantamweight boxing title. They clashed in Paris a year later, with Brown the winner again.

Cleveland Indians of the American Baseball League closed one of the most bizarre chapters in baseball history a year ago today by "firing" the team's manager, Oscar Vitt. His ouster had been demanded by 12 players in an unprecedented rebellion in June.

VOTING IS ON TODAY

By DOUGLAS HOW Canadian Press Staff Writer

HALIFAX, Oct. 28: (C)—Drug-gists and railwaymen, miners and lawyers, are in the field for votes in the Nova Scotia general election today, but once again it is the legal profession that has put up the strongest bloc of candidates.

Twenty-one of the entries—11 of the 29 Conservatives and 10 of the 30 Liberals—are barristers. Business in one form or another ranging from five merchants to a manager of a Halifax clothing firm claims 20 of the candidates and the farming and lumbering industries produced another five.

Three—one Liberal and two of the six Co-operative Commonwealth Federation nominees—are miners. Two are active and one is a retired railwayman. One is a salesman and another a commercial agent.

Mrs. M. R. Lownds, Conservative standard bearer in Halifax North, is the single woman candidate. The contracting business claims two names, including Premier A. S. MacMillan.

Three of the men are retired. The insurance world has given another.

Angus Walters, Conservative candidate in Lunenburg, and Lieut. J. R. Fraser, Conservative in Victoria, were sea captains before they went into business and the army respectively.

Hon. H. J. Connolly, minister of publicity and industry in the MacMillan cabinet, left his job as a Halifax newspaper editor to take the post. J. W. Wallis, Digby's Conservative, is editor of a weekly paper.

Barristers include L. W. Fraser, opposition leader; Attorney-General J. H. MacQuarrie; Hanson T. Dowell, second vice-president of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, and Mines and Labor Minister L. H. Currie.

Other Operations

Highways Minister John McKenzie is a creamery operator; Minister without Portfolio J. W. Comeau is a fish dealer, and Agriculture Minister J. A. McDonald is a farmer.

F. M. Blois, Conservative from Colechester, is superintendent of a clothing-manufacturing firm in Truro. A. S. Mason, Liberal in Cumberland, is a theatre man and has long been prominent in Maritime baseball.

INTERESTS OF YOUTH

Head of Labor Union Stresses Value of Organization.

The Canadian Youth Congress is meeting the needs of young people who during the past twelve years have found themselves faced with a society that had no place and no use for them. So stated Alex. McAuslane, vice-president of the Canadian Congress of Labor, in a speech to the Youth Committee of Prince Rupert at its second meeting in the Commodore Cafe Sunday night. To the Canadian Youth Congress, even more than the labor unions, should go the credit for the measure of unemployment insurance which has been achieved in this country, said Mr. McAuslane.

"To speak of peace is impossible under present conditions," the speaker said, "but we still believe it can be achieved on a permanent basis. However, in order to beat back Fascism, labor must retain its inalienable rights, including the right to collective bargaining with the employer, and the right to withdraw labor if necessary. A war for the rights of labor, cannot be won by taking away those rights." The passing of wages at hopelessly inadequate levels was cited as an action which could not fail to hinder the war effort. Instances were cited of workers laboring more than 70 hours a week at nine or ten dollar wages.

Mr. McAuslane expressed hopes that Prince Rupert labor unions would send delegates to the local youth council when it was set up, that the youth council would send speakers to the local labor council and that, when he might return, he would find the youth council playing a role befitting those who tomorrow would be guiding the destinies of the nation.

Plans for a dance to raise funds for cigarettes for Prince Rupert boys overseas were referred to the executive. A whist drive, open to the public, will be held on Saturday in the Commercial Hotel. This will be preceded by a brief general meeting.

The community centre project was strongly endorsed and the committee offered its co-operation to those in charge of the present campaign.

Delegates were chosen in answer to a request from the United Church Young People's Society to tell it about the youth committee.

John Seluk and Charlie McLeod were chosen sports conveners. The youth committee will try to enter teams in the local basketball league. An actors' and writers' group is being formed, also a number of discussion groups.

LUSTY SEA FILM HERE

Sweeping Action Of Up-to-Date Character Seen In "Long Voyage Home" At Capitol Theatre

A lusty, drama-filled sea tale of stout-hearted men whose heroism and bravery often goes unrecognized but is nevertheless sometimes startling and sensational. "The Long Voyage Home" comes to the screen of the Capitol Theatre as the feature picture for the middle of this week on Wednesday and Thursday. Most of the thrilling action unfolds upon a British tramp steamer enroute to England after a long voyage with calls at Caribbean and American ports. As the individual life dramas of motley persons are developed, the action of the story swings into high gear and one of the big scenes involves Ian Hunter, a Britisher of obviously superior breeding and intelligence, who tries to drown his memories in drink. Personal stories are forgotten when a fierce bombing raid strikes terror aboard the ship which is loaded with T. N. T. A raging storm sequence is another feature and a colorful setting is that of London's famous Limehouse section where sailors gather for fun and excitement after the long voyage home.

John Wayne, Thomas Mitchell and Ian Hunter appear in principal starring roles while the featured cast includes Wilfrid Lawson, Barry Fitzgerald, Arthur Shields, Mildred Natwick, Carmen Morales, Ward Bond, John Qualen and J. M. Kerrigan.
