Derna and Mekili Have Been Entered Now and British Are Within One Hundred Miles of Bengasi.

New Stand In Malaya

In Philippines Japanese Effect Landing on Island of Mindanao.

LONDON, Dec. 20: — After a day's silence, a message came through today from Sir Mark Young, governor and commander-in-chief at Hong Kong, stating that "operations on the island are proceeding."

Tokyo admitted that the defenders of Hong Kong were continuing to offer resistance although the attackers were still advancing.

The principal defence of the British forces appears to be of Victoria city.

In the endeavour to relieve the siege of Hong Kong, Chinese forces were reported to have entered Shumchun, destroying Japanese defence works, blowing up the railway station and an ammunition dump.

In British Malaya the British are making a new stand three hundred miles north of Singapore after bringing the Japanese to a standstill forty miles south of Penang to which point the invaders had advanced up to yesterday.

The Japanese launched a new invasion thrust against the Philippine Islands today when four Nipponese transports landed troops on Mindanao, the second largest island of the group, picking a port where there is a predominance of Japanese residents.

There was a new enemy bombing attack today on vital points in the Manila area.

Major-General Douglas MacArthur, United States commander-in-chief in the Philippines, reported to Washington that there had been increased patrol activity by the Japanese on the beachheads of Luzon Island where previously they had effected a landing.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 20: —The Department of the Navy reported today that United States submarines had sunk "additional enemy transports."

From Batavia came word that Netherlands fliers had scored direct hits on four more Japanese ships — two cruisers, a transport and another warship believed used as a plane carrier—in fierce attacks on naval concentrations of Miri, Borneo, this being announced today.

KETCHIKAN IS COMING

High School Basketball Team to Play Series Here.

Word has been received from Clarence Henning, principal and coach of Ketchikan's Kayhi High School, that he and his team will arrive here on December 28 to play the local high school in an inter-high school basketball series December 29 and 30.

When Kayhi disembarks here for their series they will have Johnny Ellis, all-Alaska forward and high scorer; Howie Mathieson, all-Alaska guard, to pace them against the Bo-Me-Hi squad. The members of the Kayhi Polar Bears are Clarence Henning, coach; John Ellis, Kead Hannah, Joe Lianos, Don Farstad, forwards; Salvador del Ferra, Cliff Homan, centres; Howard Mathieson, Al Ludwigsen, Stuart Adams, guards.

Though this year the Ketchikan High School boasts of a powerful team, the local high school is going to be hard to beat on their spacious home floor, the Exhibition Hall. The local quintet has an offensive powerhouse in its high-scoring and hard-working forwards, Teddy Arney, Oliver Santurbane, Don MacDonald and Bob Long. While Sidney Alexander and Boyo Gurvich at guards are the stalwarts of their defence, Bob Vuckovich, substitute centre, is also outstanding for the locals.

SIGNAL PRACTICE

Sub. Lieut. G. E. Fenwick of Montreal, acknowledges the receipt of a message sent to his ship. Sub. Lieut. L. F. Johnson of Ottawa, records the message. The student officers are from a west coast training school and are shown during one of the frequent cruises taken by naval students to acquaint them fully with the tasks of the men who will some day serve under them.

LONDON—A Royal Canadian Air Force plane, manned by Sergeant M. S. Schneider of Brandon, Sergeant B. L. Brice of Chilliwack and Sergeant G. Savage of Toronto, scored a direct hit on a German warship at Brest.

WITHDRAWAL DEMANDED

LONDON—The Portuguese government demands that British forces be withdrawn from the Island of Timor northeast of Australia. "We will not budge" is the authoritative answer here. All consequences were carefully considered before the step of occupation was taken, it is stated.

AXIS IN LATIN AMERICA

WASHINGTON—There has been dangerous Axis infiltration in Latin America, says a special committee in its report. Some of the republics are honeycombed with air bases, secret radio stations and war supplies. There are five Axis-controlled air bases in Guatemala alone, it is declared. Also in Brazil and Chili there has been infiltration.

ANGOTT IS NOW CHAMP

Issue of World's Lightweight Championship Settled Without Doubt

NEW YORK, Dec. 20: —Sammy Angott won the undisputed world's lightweight boxing title at Madison Square Garden last night by winning a fifteen-round decision over Lew Jenkins. Angott had been recognized as the champion by the National Boxing Association while elsewhere Jenkins was called the champion.

There was no doubt of the issue. The rugged Angott was always fresher than Jenkins who did not seem to have his old-time zip. He hit Jenkins hard with flailing rights and lefts and had the Sweetwater, Texas, boy in real distress in the latter rounds. Jenkins lost the fourteenth round on account of low blows. There were no knock-downs.

The Soviet counter-offensive is continuing westward without let-up.

MARITIMES KEEP BUSY

In Employment Nova Scotia Led All Canada in September.

By GORDON MCKEAN Canadian Press Staff Writer

HALIFAX, Dec. 20: —Business is good in Canada's Maritime Provinces. Indices for September show the Maritimes at 183.9 is only .6 behind Quebec, which tops the Canadian provinces. Ontario stood at 173.6, prairie provinces at 156.1, and British Columbia at 152.9. These indices, from the Financial Post, are based on 1926 equals 100.

The Maritimes index stood at 147.9 in September, 1940, and has climbed an average of three points a month. Construction shows a gain of 122.7 percent; employment 31.9 percent and building permits and life insurance also show small increases.

In employment, Dominion Bureau of Statistics figures show Nova Scotia led all Canada in September, with 181.9 against the Dominion figure of 162.7. New Brunswick was sixth with 143.7 and Prince Edward Island ninth with 130.2. The Maritime figure was 164.0 (1926 equals 100).

Seasonal Decrease

But even with these high figures there was a seasonal decrease from August in Prince Edward Island and Nova Scotia, while New Brunswick showed an increase.

The bureau reports a decided improvement in manufacturing, particularly in iron and steel, with smaller increases in pulp, paper and edible plant products. Logging, transportation, highway construction and maintenance services and trade all showed curtailment.

Various retail lines also showed increases and the Maritimes led all Canada in several of them. Department store sales, for example, gained 31.2 percent over September, 1940, while the Dominion increase was 21.8 percent.

Business turnover has naturally increased to the greatest extent in and around military or industrial centres, but smaller communities are receiving indirect benefit from the expansion in many instances.

In other districts enlistments in the armed forces and demands for workers in defence industries have caused a decided increase in population with consequently lessened business activity.

Good As a Unit

But, as a unit, business is good in the Maritimes. While the last figures available are for September, R. M. Hattie, editor of the Maritime Merchant, only trade journal in the three seaside provinces, says that a further increase will take place with the closing of navigation on the St. Lawrence.

LIFEBOATS DEFY SEA

Dunkerque Their Great Achievement But They Still Do Big Things.

LONDON, Dec. 20: —Night and day around Britain's wind-lashed coasts the men of the lifeboats are ready to carry out their work of mercy and rescue. Their greatest achievement was during the evacuation of the British Expeditionary Force from Dunkerque in the spring of 1940. Nineteen small boats, none longer than 51 feet or weighing more than 27 tons with crew and gear aboard, rescued nearly 50,000 men from the beaches.

Since the war began, more than 4,000 sailors and airmen have been saved from sinking ships and airplanes, an average of more than 35 a week.

Into the making of lifeboats—sturdy little craft able to live in seas which have crippled big ships—goes wood from many parts of the British Empire. English oak is used for the stem and stern. Canadian rock elm provides the framework, white deal and red cedar from the Dominion the vital air cases and Honduras mahogany the decks.

Rights Itself

Thanks to the ingenuity of a singing teacher, William Woodhave, the lifeboat of today is self-righting. Woodhave was awarded a guinea ($4.75 these days) for his design a century-and-a-half ago. As a result, a fully-manned and equipped boat, even if it goes completely over, will come right way up and empty itself of water in 25 seconds.

A heavy keel—it may weigh as much as one-third of the craft's entire weight—is the main factor in the self-righting principles. The keel is made of teak from the forests of upper Burma.

"There's no magic about a lifeboat," said a skilled boat-builder. "Her vital qualities are the power to empty out water as fast as she ships it, great buoyancy, the ability to go on with her work when she has been badly damaged and enormous strength in every part."

ilities will benefit particularly from the St. Lawrence closing. Regarding business in general, Mr. Hattie writes, "Without confirmatory statistics we think it is safe to say that... all the fundamental conditions in the Maritimes (are) in a still further improved state."

Another Creed . . .

An interesting document is a creed for Americans recently issued by the "Council for Democracy" written by the poet Stephen Vincent Benet, winner of a Pulitzer prize in 1928. The Creed follows:

We believe in the dignity of man and the worth and value of every living soul, no matter in what body housed, no matter whether born in comfort or born in poverty, no matter to what stock he belongs, what creed he professes, what job he holds.

We believe that every man should have a free and equal chance to develop his own best abilities under a free system of government, where the people themselves choose those who are to rule them and where no one man can set himself up as a tyrant or oppress the many for the benefit of the few.

We believe that free speech, free assembly, free elections, free practice of religion are the cornerstones of such a government. We believe that the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution and the Bill of Rights of the United States of America offer the best and most workable framework yet devised for such a government.

We believe in justice and law. We do not believe in curing an evil by substituting for it another and opposite evil. We are unalterably opposed to class hatred, race hatred, religious hatred, however manifested, by whomsoever instilled.

We believe that political freedom implies and acknowledges economic responsibility. We do not believe that any state is an admirable state that lets its people go hungry when they might be fed, ragged when they might be clothed, sick when they might be well, workless when they might have work. We believe that it is the duty of all of us, the whole people, working through our democratic system, to see that such conditions are remedied, whenever and wherever they exist in our country.

We believe that political freedom implies and acknowledges personal responsibility. We believe that we have a great and priceless heritage as a nation—not only a heritage of material resources but of liberties, dreams, ideals, ways of going forward. We believe it is our business, our right and our inescapable duty to maintain and expand that heritage. We believe that such a heritage cannot be maintained by the lacklustre, the selfish, the bitterly partisan or the amiably doubtful. We believe it is something bigger than party, bigger than our own small ambitions. We believe it is worth the sacrifice of ease, the long toil of years, the expense of our heart's blood.

We know that our democratic system is not perfect. We know that it permits injustices and wrongs. But with our whole hearts we believe in its continuous power of self remedy. That power is not a theory—it has been proven. Through the years, democracy has given more people freedom, less persecution and a higher standard of living than any other system we know. Under it, evils have been abolished, injustices remedied, old wounds healed, not by terror and revolution but by the slow revolution of consent in the minds of all the people. While we maintain democracy, we maintain the greatest power a people can possess—the power of gradual, efficient and lawful change.

Most of all, we believe in democracy itself—in its past, its present and its future—in democracy as a political system to live by—in democracy as the great hope in the minds of the free. We believe it so deeply rooted in the earth of this country that neither assault from without nor dissension from within can ever wipe it entirely from that earth. But, because it was established for us by the free-minded and the daring, it is our duty now, in danger as in security, to uphold and sustain it with all that we have and are. We believe that its future shall and must be even greater than its past. And to the future—as to the past of our forebears and the present of our hard-won freedom—we pledge all we have to give.

NEWS ITEMS FROM NORWAY

Commissar Terboven has issued an order providing that "persons who show laziness, carelessness or indifference and who do not perform satisfactorily work will only be allowed food in proportion to the amount of work performed." There will be special officials to regulate the distribution of articles of food on the basis of "work performed." This order took effect November 29. The Germans have by this step decided to starve the nation into the "New Order." Anyone now opposing the Nazi order will be punished in a very simple and typical way, namely by not being able to obtain enough to eat.

Three additional Norwegians—engineer Johan Mittun, medical student Andreas Bertnes and policeman Olvind Ask, all of Sandefjord, have been sentenced to death and executed.

Chief of police in Oslo, Kalltenborn, has been "fired" because he protested against the uncalculated arrest of the manager of Voienvoid Home for Boys.

Norwegians who do not show the "right spirit" as against the Quisling regime will lose their ration cards—another step in the starvation process.

The German protection occupation of Norway costs that country about $2,500,000 per day.

Norwegians will soon be prosecuted for "sabotage," consisting of declining to accept positions offered them by the Nazis.

The Germans have now completed construction of a large fish filleting plant at Hammerfest. The production is to be entirely for Germany. They have no laborers to operate the plant and it is now proposed to conscript Norwegians for this purpose, particularly women.

At Spjelkavik, near Aalesund, the body of a young local man was found in the bush beside the road. He had been killed by a bayonet stab through the back. The Germans issued strong warning to the people not to mention anything about this.

The standard of living in Norway, according to the Germans must come down and they have succeeded fairly well in this effort. Wages have been reduced to a minimum while the prices of all goods and necessities are steadily going up.

TO THE WOMEN OF CANADA

Here is One Big War Job which You Alone Can Do

"Ceiling Prices" Must Be Maintained

This is an appeal to the women of Canada. There is one vital part of our war effort which depends on you. Your government has placed a "ceiling" on retail prices. You are the buyers of four out of every five dollars worth of all the goods sold in this country. Your whole-hearted help is needed in this price control plan. If every woman does her part, it cannot fail.

Its success will be a big step on the road to victory. Its failure would be a serious blow to our war effort. You can tip the balance towards success. Will you, then, undertake to make the successful control of commodity prices an established fact? We know you will. And we know that when you undertake this task it is as good as done.

This is the work you are asked to do

- 1. Make a list of commodities
We want you to sit down today and make a list of the things you buy from week to week and from month to month. Write down food and clothing items in particular, because these account for the biggest share of your expenditures. But we want you to list those articles you buy at the drug store, hardware store, and other stores, too.
- 2. Make notes about quality
Now go over your list again and mark down the necessary details about quality, type, grade and size. Then when making future purchases you will be able to compare values as well as prices.
- 3. Write down prices
After each item we want you to write down, if you can, the highest price charged at your store during the period September 15 to October 11, 1941. If you cannot remember the prices charged during that period, fill in your list with today's prices. Our survey shows that retailers, with few exceptions, are keeping prices well within the "ceiling" levels. As exceptions are being discovered they are being quickly brought into line.
- 4. Keep this list—use it when you buy!
Make up this price list neatly and accurately. You will not be able to get all the items at once. Keep adding to your list from day to day. Make it your permanent check list—your personal safeguard against any further rise in prices.

Prices May be Different in Different Stores
There has always been a difference in prices in different stores—even stores in the same locality. This may depend on the kind of service the store gives, or the way it operates. Some stores, for instance, have delivery service, give credit, or provide other extra services.
Under the new Price Ceiling Order there will still be differences in prices at different stores. The new price regulations will not do away with competition. The highest prices in any particular store must not be higher than the highest prices in force in that store during the period September 15 to October 11. They may be a little lower or a little higher than the prices in other stores.
The prices you will mark down will be the highest prices charged at the store where you shop.

A Few Points to Remember

1. The ceiling price is not necessarily the price you paid. It is the highest price at which the store sold the particular item between September 15 and October 11.
2. A merchant may reduce his prices for sales or other reasons—he may also raise them provided they do not go above the ceiling price.
3. Variations in seasonal prices on fresh fruits and vegetables are permitted. Rulings on seasonal markets will be announced from time to time by the Wartime Prices and Trade Board in newspapers and over the radio.
4. Fill out your price list without bothering your merchant. In many cases he is making a financial sacrifice to sell under the price ceiling. The war has left him short-staffed and the Christmas rush is on.

Items most frequently bought

This is not intended as a complete list. It is simply offered as a guide. Add to it the other items you buy or expect to buy.

Item	Description (Size, Quality, etc.)	Store	Price	Item	Description (Size, Quality, etc.)	Store	Price

Why you must do your part

To ensure the success of this price control plan, every woman in Canada should make a list. Retailers are showing a splendid spirit of co-operation. The great majority of them are determined to make this plan work, but if you do not co-operate the whole plan might fail—prices might start to skyrocket. So keep your list handy. Check the prices you pay against it.

If a price seems higher than the ceiling, ask your merchant about it. If further information is necessary, report the full details in writing. Address your letter to the Prices and Supply Representative, Wartime Prices and Trade Board, at any of the following: Vancouver, Edmonton, Regina, Winnipeg, North Bay, London, Toronto, Rockville, Montreal, Quebec City, Saint John, Halifax, Charlottetown.

What I should not like in the army would be those seven o'clock route marches.

What I should like would be having nothing to do after supper but go to the show or dance with the pretty girls at one of the free parties.

"Just mind, Jeannie," he said, "to put the sugar-tongs in the basin, an' not a spoon."

"We've only granulated."

"I was mindin' that!" said McPherson.

Dwight Morrow, the financier, was very absent minded. Once, while traveling on a train, he could not remember where he had placed his ticket. The conductor told him not to bother; he would take the financier's word that he had paid his fare.

"It isn't that," said Morrow, puzzled. "If I don't find that ticket, I won't know where to go to deliver my speech tonight."

AN APPEAL TO CANADIAN INDUSTRY FOR SCRAP

THIS is a direct appeal to Canadian Industry—directors, owners, managers, plant superintendents and workers, requesting your immediate attention to the task of increasing the tonnage of scrap steel and iron in Canada; read the following carefully and seriously consider the gravity of the situation, especially in view of recent developments on newly formed fronts.

1. Our War Programme demands more and more steel and iron scrap to permit the production of ships, tanks, bombs and other munitions.
2. Apart from war needs industrial and civil requirements in steel will be difficult and almost impossible to produce unless the necessary scrap is brought into market.
3. In Canadian plants, such as yours, is an excess of 500,000 tons of scrap lying unused or being retained for some contemplated need which never arises. FROM CANADA'S STANDPOINT IT IS FALSE ECONOMY TO SACRIFICE 100 TONS OF VITAL RAW MATERIALS FOR THE SAKE OF ONE TON OF RECLAIMED OR SPARE PARTS.
4. WE NEED EVERY POUND OF YOUR SCRAP MATERIALS; check all obsolescent machinery, broken equipment and worn out tools. Arrange to have this material centralized in your plant and make immediate disposition. If you lack the organization or necessary labour to wreck or dismantle, contact your closest dealer or write this department for information, but in any event act immediately.
5. We stress this vital point. Today, it is not the value of the material in dollars and cents that should motivate the movement of your scrap; PRICES ON SCRAP ARE FIXED AT ALL POINTS IN CANADA BUT UNFORTUNATELY FEW PEOPLE UNDERSTAND THAT THESE PRICES ARE FOR SCRAP SORTED, PREPARED AND DELIVERED TO THE STEEL MILL, AND THAT WHEN TRANSPORTATION AND PREPARATION COSTS ARE DEDUCTED, THE VALUE OF THE SCRAP MAY BE ANYWHERE FROM $3.00 TO $8.00 LESS THAN THE FIXED PRICE. WHETHER YOU SECURE $5.00 OR $10.00 PER TON OR WHETHER YOU DONATE YOUR SCRAP TO THE SALVAGE ORGANIZATIONS IT REMAINS YOUR SERIOUS OBLIGATION TO SPEED THE FLOW OF THIS MATERIAL INTO WAR INDUSTRY PRODUCTION.
6. Many industries in Canada have equipment and steel structures located on their property and under their control, withheld from the scrap market however, because of logical depreciation reasons. This department is vitally interested in the possibility of bringing this material to market immediately and should you have or know of any industry which might have any such equipment, structures or plants, report this information to the Director of Salvage, Ottawa: This survey is essential, since without this knowledge no sound method of immediate depreciation can be advocated or adopted.

★ A message of vital importance to Canadian Industry and Canada itself, will be delivered by Mr. F. B. Kilbourn, the Steel Controller, on the 18th of December, 1941, at 9:00 p.m. on the C.B.C. network; your attention is particularly requested.

YOUR WHOLEHEARTED CO-OPERATION AND IMMEDIATE ACTION IS REQUIRED AT THIS CRITICAL PERIOD IN OUR WAR PRODUCTION.

SPORT CHAT

Joe DiMaggio of New York snatched one highly respected hitting honor away from Ted Williams of Boston in the 1941 American League pennant race. DiMaggio came out five ahead of his Hub rival in the genuine honor of driving in runs. Final statistics found DiMaggio with 125 runs batted in. His margin, however, was mighty slim, as Geoffrey Heath of Cleveland was only two behind him with 123. However, DiMaggio drove in his runs in 139 games, while Heath had a shot at it in 151 encounters. Hank Greenberg set the pace in 1940 with 150.

Charlie Keller of the Yankees was just a step behind Heath with 122 runs driven home in 140 contests. Then came Williams with 120 in 143 games. Williams had 145 in '39, and 113 in '40. Others who passed the hundred mark in this very important phase of the game were: Rudy York of Detroit with 111 in 155 games, Bob Johnson of the Athletics with 107 in 149 games, Sam Chapman of the "A's" with 106 in 143 games, Jimmy Foxx of the Red Sox with 105 in 135 games, and Jim Tabor, Boston, and Cecil Travis, Washington, with 101 each in 126 and 152 games respectively.

Foxx's total of 105 runs batted in during the season of 1941 made it the 13th consecutive season he has driven in 100 or more runs, which ties the major league record of the late Lou Gehrig. At the same time Foxx also tied the major league record for the most years with 100 or more runs batted in with 13, which is held jointly by Gehrig and Babe Ruth. By striking out 103 times during the race, Foxx added another year to his record of most years leading the league in breezes. This was his seventh, which is a major league record. In 1940 Rudy York of Detroit fanned 88 times, and Foxx 87.

Harland Clift of the Browns was second in strikeouts with 13, followed by Rudy York of Detroit, another long-ball-hitter, with 88. Joe Gordon, the Yankee World Series hero, struck out 86 times for third. There were 302 fewer strikeouts in the league in '41 than in '40.

Williams of the Red Sox was far out in front in drawing walks, with 145 in 143 games, followed by Roy Cullenbine of the Browns with 121 in 149 games. Others to draw over 100 strolls were Harland Clift of the Browns with 113 in 154 games and Charlie Keller of New York with 102 in 140 games. That the pitchers were a little wilder, or more cautious, in 1941 than in 1940 is indicated by the fact that Keller was high man in 1940 with 106 passes, and the league as a whole showed 245 more passes in 1941 than in 1940. Williams, the 1941 leader, drew 96 passes in 144 games in 1940, as compared to his 145 walks in one less game in '41.

Although there were more passes in the league in 1941 than in 1940, there were fewer hit batsmen, the totals showing 151 men plunked with the pellet in 1940 and 143 in 1941. Frank Crosetti of the Yankees had led the league for five straight years in taking it somewhere on the body until 1941 when Dominic DiMaggio of the Red Sox was rocked seven times. Taft Wright of the White Sox and Roger Cramer of Washington failed to get out of the way of 6 wayward pitches. In 50 games in '41 Crosetti was hit 3 times.

Grounding into infield double-plays picked up in 1941. In that season there were 943 instances of this play, as compared to 923 in 1940. Peter Suder and Frank Hayes of the Athletics each hit into 23 double-plays, equalling the league record set by Louis Boudreau of the Indians in 1940. The other end of the league record in this feature also was equalled by two players in 1941 when George Case of Philadelphia and Geoffrey Heath of Cleveland each hit into only five double-plays in the full season.

The Athletics hit into 141 double-plays in 1941, while in '40, the "A's" were just one behind Boston with 126. Cleveland, which hit into 112 double-plays, had the best record in the league in 1941 with only 94, which replaced the record of 110 made by Washington in 1940.

Pasting Your Own? Lots Of Folks Are

It's Fun—And a Bit of Work—To Make Your Xmas Cards Yourself

Making your own Christmas Cards is more fun and more work and gets more appreciation than you realize when you start out. Here are some of the things folks are doing this year. (And it's time to get going.)

Glazed chintz (using the chintz left over from the new upholstery in the den) is being pasted on bright pasteboard squares in family silhouettes. It's sort of a calico cat and gingham dog effect.

Then there's the lazy bones who is buying Christmas seals and bright wrapping paper and putting the two together for clever paste-on cards. You could do the same thing with magazine cut-outs. It's an easy trick if your children are eager to make cards.

Family photos might be more up-to-date on cards if they seem to be framed.

And don't ignore the boy or girl who suggests that you use linoleum blocks in homemade card printing.

FIELDS IN "BANK DICK"

Great Comedy Coming to Capitol Theatre at First of Next Week.

W. C. Fields' latest picture, "The Bank Dick," is coming as the feature offering to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here on Monday and Tuesday of next week. It is said to be the most typically Fieldian picture that has ever been made. Fields appears as a special guard in a bank and his droll adventures as such provide a great line of acceptable comedy entertainment. The comedian has plenty of opportunity to play his own particular type of ad lib comedy acting and has made the most of the opportunities to indulge himself.

KEEP LEFT IS RIGHT

KETTERING, Eng., Dec. 20:—This Northampton town, safest blackout town in Britain, has been named "Keep Left" because inhabitants walk left on the pavements so they will face oncoming traffic and no pedestrian has been killed in the blackout during the last two years.

the compliments of the season and a very merry Christmas. What with wars and rumors of war, these are strenuous and uncertain days for us out here along the Pacific Coast which, conceivably indeed, might soon become part of the far-flung battle lines. There is much reason, however, to be of good cheer and, compatible with carrying out the duties which the crisis demands of us, to enjoy ourselves this Yuletide season. There is nothing subversive about being happy. To be glum, indeed, only helps our enemy.

CHRISTMAS SPECIAL

Send a 10 lb. box of
"Rupert Brand"
SMOKED BLACK COD
$2.00 Delivered.

To our many customers who usually send a box of Kippers to their friends or relations at this time of the year, we express our regrets we have not yet been able to secure any Herring suitable for kipping. For $2.00 we will deliver a 10 lb. box of Smoked Black Cod to any express point in B. C. or any Canadian National Express point in Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba.
