"SALADA" TEA BAGS

Timely Recipes

CHOCOLATE PEPPERMINT CAKE

2 cups sifted cake flour
 1 teaspoon soda
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1-3 cup butter or other shortening
 1 egg, unbeaten
 3 squares unsweetened chocolate, melted
 1/2 cup thick sour cream
 3/4 cup sweet milk
 1 teaspoon vanilla

Sift flour once, measure, add soda and salt, and sift three times. Cream butter thoroughly, add sugar gradually, and cream well. Beat in egg, then chocolate. Add about 1/4 of flour and beat well; then sour cream. Add remaining flour, alternately with milk, in two greased 9-inch layer pans in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 30 minutes. Spread with peppermint frosting.

Frosting
 2 egg whites, unbeaten
 1 1/2 cups sugar
 5 tablespoons water
 1 1/2 teaspoons light corn syrup
 1 teaspoon vanilla
 3 squares unsweetened chocolate, melted and cooled.

Combine egg whites, sugar, water and corn syrup in top of double boiler, beating with rotary egg beater until thoroughly mixed. Place over rapidly boiling water, beat constantly with rotary egg beater, and cook 7 minutes, or until frosting will stand in peaks. Remove from boiling water; fold in chocolate and vanilla. Do not beat mixture. Spread on cake, sprinkling with coconut while frosting is soft. Makes enough frosting to cover tops and sides of two 9-inch cakes.

Three Shoppers Spend Fortunes

LONDON, April 24: (CP)—Three young women in London spend thousands of pounds weekly buying clothes—but not for themselves.

The trio, Mrs. Evelyn Lawrence, Miss Norah Greenhalgh and Miss Isabel Catto, daughter of Lord Catto, run the purchasing department of the Women's Voluntary Services. Their job is to provide clothes for bomb victims and evacuees.

The office of these mass-purchasers resembles the buying room of a department store. They were trained and are advised by heads of stores and are reputed to be as shrewd buyers as professionals.

Here's what they purchased with $267,000 provided by the Lord Mayor of London's air-raid relief fund: outfits for 7,750 men; 1,550 youths; 1,320 girls; 5,820 women; 970 schoolboys; 970 schoolgirls and 950 infants of less than five.

Since mass buying started last July, the organization has spent $890,000. Mrs. Lawrence found it cost $15.75 to provide a man with overcoat, jacket, trousers, shirt, pullover, shoes, underwear, socks and pyjamas. Similar outfits for a youth cost $13.40.

Women's outfits, consisting of top coat, dress shoes, stockings, underwear, corset and nightdress, were much cheaper at $10.15.

HEROIC ROSTER

One Woman and Nine Men Saved 400 Lives in Air-Raid on Liverpool But Lost Their Own

LIVERPOOL, April 24: (CP)—The name of one woman—Vera Menzies a "part-time" warden—is among nine recorded in the annals of heroic self-sacrifice when a German aerial bomb exploded in this British port.

A bomb, on landing, became wedged in the woodwork of a school and did not explode. Concussion had not been great enough to explode it but if it had slipped it would have struck the stone floor and caused a considerable number of casualties.

Although bombs were still dropping the woman and eight men rushed to the school and within 20 minutes had evacuated 400 inhabitants of neighboring houses. Adults and children ran to safety through the cold and falling shell splinters in their night clothes.

The nine then returned to the school to assure themselves everyone had left. At that moment another bomb landed, its concussion setting off the wedged bomb. There was a terrific explosion and the gallant group were buried under the debris. They all perished.

The names, in addition to Vera Menzies, are: Constable Trevor and Read, part-time wardens, Charles William and George Tye, Fred Barwise, William Flemming, George Dewar and Frederick Smee.

CLOSING ON SATURDAYS

All Stores in City To Cease Business At 6 P. M.—Request Of Delegation Is Met

At the request of a delegation purporting to represent ninety per cent of the retail merchants of the city, City Commissioner B. C. Bracewell, sitting as a city council last night, agreed to the introduction of a bylaw without delay which will call for the closing of retail stores in the city at 6 o'clock Saturday evenings as well as on other evenings of the week. Speaking for the delegation, C. G. Minns said that about a year ago a petition to this end had been presented to the then commissioner, R. S. Gilchrist, and terms of a new bylaw had been settled upon but evidently, the bylaw for some reason had been shelved. It was now requested that it be enacted without delay.

Mr. Bracewell saw no objection to meeting with the request and said that the original petition now in Victoria would be sent back to Prince Rupert without delay after which Acting City Commissioner D. J. Matheson would be able to proceed with the putting through of the bylaw.

The delegation consisted of C. G. Minns, D. C. McRae, W. F. Stone, W. J. Scott, Alex MacKenzie and Miss Beatrice Bates.

KING AND QUEEN VISIT CANADIAN TROOPS

Deeply interested were the King and Queen when they visited units of Canadian soldiers training in England, and their Majesties spent a very busy day with the Dominion's troops. The King went for a rough and uncushioned ride in one of the Bren gun carriers used by the Canucks, and he is shown, top, climbing from the machine with Major-Gen. Victor Odlum, who accompanied him. In the picture below Her Majesty is reviewing troops of a central Ontario regiment drawn up for her inspection. Major-Gen. Odlum is again acting as guide for the Royal visitor.

Strange Address Easy For Postman

Letter From New York to England Is Delivered

FOLKESTONE, England, April 24: (CP)—A letter from New York addressed to "Miss Jane Moore, Southeast coast of England, whose home is nearest enemy—a bit of land that juts out into the sea, England," was delivered to Miss Joan Moore, 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Moore of Capel, near Folkestone.

A picture of Miss Moore feeding chickens in her garden near a crashed German airplane was reproduced in a New York newspaper. Miss Frances Simmonds of New York City saw it and wrote a letter ending "Keep your chin up and fingers crossed."

The picture caption didn't give Miss Moore's address. But the post office eventually traced her from the address on Miss Simmonds' letter.

WINSTON'S WIFE LIKES ACTIVITY

War Brings Clementine Churchill Into Public Life in Various Ways

LONDON, April 24 (CP)—The war has brought Clementine Churchill, a first-rate platform speaker, out of voluntary retirement. The tall curly-haired wife of Britain's wartime prime minister has made two recent broadcasts appealing to the women of India and England to donate woollens for civil defence workers. Daughter of the late Col. Sir H. M. Hozier and Lady Blanche Ogilvy, daughter of the 7th Earl of Airlie, Mrs. Churchill stamped a great deal for her husband in his early political career but stopped in 1922 and did no more public speaking until 13 years later when she helped their son Randolph in a Commons campaign.

Wartime activities of the prime minister's wife have included the opening of Birmingham's war loan week and a recreation club for New Zealand troops in London, and visits to bombed areas.

Outlook on Life Mrs. Churchill finds life in England today "thrilling" and says she is "glad to be alive at this moment of our history." But she hastens to add that "I do not mean for a moment that life is in the least enjoyable. We are quite literally living under the shadow of death." The prime minister's wife is a handsome, graceful, gray-eyed woman, who looks so young that she has been taken for the 66-year-old prime minister's second wife. She's fond of British tweeds and wears them with British nonchalance.

These days she lives in the country away from the thick of bombs, but comes to London every few days for a brief "look in" at 10 Downing Street.

When the prime minister makes a big speech in Commons she takes a seat in the gallery where Churchill, glancing upward as he warms into his oratorical pace, can catch the approving gesture of her uplifted hand.

A "spot" costs you only half a dollar. Try it in the Daily News classified column.

No Relation To Lady Nick

Pep-Producing Nicotinic Vitamin Should Not be Confused With Tobacco

NEW YORK, April 24: (CP)—As an example of the tough job ahead of health defence campaigners, take the case of nicotinic acid. That's a pep-producing vitamin in the B complex. It is present in many foods especially in some fish, vegetables and wheat. But it's been milled out of fine white flour for years.

Recently a newspaper explained how it miraculously cured pellagra, how it built pep, energy and morale. Into the newspaper poured a deluge of letters. The writers suspected they were being told to devour nicotine and fiery acid. Nicotinic acid is not nicotine, nor is it more than mildly acid.

Women Workers Salvage Paper

Are Exclusively Engaged in This Work in London

LONDON, April 24: (CP)—Seven enthusiastic women salvage collectors were invited to tea at the Ministry of Supply. They are employed by the borough of Hampstead and are engaged only for the collection of waste paper.

They enjoy their job, at which they are pioneers, and have acquired the knack of hanging to the backs of salvage trucks even when travelling over bumpy roads at high speed. They work a ten-hour day, earning $10 weekly. They were domestic workers, tea packers, one a factory worker and the other staff cook.

J. Bromfield, refuse collector, said that they did not expect general refuse but that their department became short through call-ups this year.

SOCCER IS EVENED UP

Rocky Mountain Rangers Beat Signals 3 To Nothing

Yesterday afternoon on Acropolis Hill the Rocky Mountain Rangers squared up the scales for the Commodore Cup by defeating the Royal Canadian Corps of Signals 3 to 0. This game was packed with fast-moving plays and showed fine co-operation by both squads. Although the Signals did not score, on many occasions it was sheer bad luck that kept them from doing so, the ball striking the cross bar or side posts.

Cook scored for the Rangers late in the first half when he caught the Signal goalie, Lawford, out of his goal in a scramble close to the penalty spot.

The second half saw the Rangers shooting downhill with the sun and wind at their backs. This was a decided advantage as the halves were forty-five minutes long and the long periods of strenuous action noticeably slowed up the Signals in the latter part of the second period. Lawford, the Signal goalie, although playing a splendid game, making many daring saves, could not keep a powerful shot of Webster from tallying in the second half. The third goal came for the Rangers when Handley scored on a penalty shot late in the second half.

This game ties up the Rangers and Signals with three wins and one loss apiece. If both teams should win their next two games, it looks certain that there will have to be a play-off between them. Jim Wilson of the "Y" refereed yesterday's game.

On Saturday afternoon the Headquarters will play the Air Force.

GOOD FRIDAY IN COVENTRY

On Good Friday evening, in a drizzling rain, a small group of men and women, including policemen and firemen who had not slept for three days, gathered in the ruins of Coventry Cathedral for prayer. It was after a visitation by German bombers. A cross of charred wood stood over the improvised altar in the roofless building. The archdeacon told the bareheaded congregation: "It matters not when we die, only how we die." Coventry, a few months ago, was the object of one of the most merciless air raids of the war.

SPORT CHAT

Mrs. Ethel V. Mars, who, e Gallahadion surprised the turf world and Bimelech, the favorite, in last year's Kentucky Derby (remember, is one of a dozen women who may have a starter in this year's Derby renewal. This year the great Churchill Downs fixture will be run May 3. It's the sixty-seventh. Mrs. Mars, owner of Milky Way Farm in Tennessee, has nominated Supreme Ideal and Man About Town to try to follow Gallahadion's footsteps to Derby glory and gold. Should the Chicago sportswoman again have a championship she would be the first woman owner to win the famed race twice in a row. Only Col. E. R. Bradley, whose horses have won more Derbies than any other owner, has clicked twice straight.

Until 1904, the Derby had been strictly a "mon's" possession. Then, on the 41st running of America's No. 1 turf event, came a tradition-shattering happening. A colt whose owner was a woman and whose breeder was also a woman won the Churchill Downs classic. That was the year Elwood, 15-1 shot, owned by Mrs. G. E. Durnell, same home first. Mrs. J. B. Prather was the breeder. In the 36 Derby renewals since 1904 five women have owned winners and three have been listed as breeders of Derby champions. No woman so far has trained a Derby winner but at least one—Mary Hirsch—has tried.

Two of the champions owned by women established Derby records. Mrs. Payne Whitney's Twenty Grand ran the fastest time for the mile and a quarter—2:01 4-5—in 1931 and Mrs. Mars' Gallahadion was the first to win a $75,000 added Derby. (The stake had been $50,000 added for the three prior winnings.) Other women owning Derby winners are Mrs. R. M. Hoots (Black Gold in 1924), Mrs. J. D. Hertz (Reigh Count in 1928) and Mrs. Dodge Sloane (Cavalcade in 1934).

Four owners of Derby winners of the past decade nominated horses for this year's event and two are women. They are Mrs. Mars and Mrs. Whitney, William Woodward, New York banker, and Herbert Woolf, Kansas City clothier, round out the quartet. Whether any of their thoroughbreds get to the post on May 3 remains to be determined. Mrs. Whitney, a New Yorker who owns a beautiful horse farm in the Bluegrass, has a trio of candidates—Swing and Sway, the Rhymer (he finished third in the Flamingo Stakes) and Monday Lunch.

Other women who possibly may have a starter when the field sets off on its momentous gallop late on a Saturday afternoon in May with their nominees: Mrs. S. T. Baxter (Isalot), Vera S. Bragg (Roman Governor), Ruth W. Collins (Olona), Mrs. Parker Corning (Attention), Mrs. J. L. Furr (Don Orlean), Mrs. Walter M. Jeffords (Sailor King), Mrs. E. Graham Lewis (Magnificent), Mrs. Pelleteri (Bull Reigh) and Mrs. F. J. Navin (Quintilla). The 12th woman nominator is Mrs. H. C. Phipps who is given more than an outside chance in the early size-up of owning a Derby King. Her Bold Irishman is one of the top-ranking prospects. She also nominated Irish Day.

In 1915 a filly—Regret—won the Derby. She was the first of her sex to turn the trick and so far the only one although several top-notch misses have tried. With the failure of fillies to repeat Regret's performance, the passing years have seen fewer fillies nominated. Five were named this year, two less than last. The starting fields have been made up of strictly colts or geldings for several years and it seems unlikely a miss will start this year since none of the five nominated fillies are outstanding. The last filly to run in a Derby was Gold Seeker in 1936. She finished ninth.

PARADE IS VERY FINE

St. George's Day Demonstration Yesterday Afternoon in Fine Weather Draws Thousands to Streets

To join with the rest of the Empire in a special patriotic observance of the Day of St. George, patron saint of England, a memorable parade was held yesterday afternoon in Prince Rupert. It consisted of military and civilian service organizations and was an impressive procession. With ideal sunny spring weather prevailing thousands of people lined the streets. Flags flying from all buildings and special patriotic decorations in the windows of many places of business lent further color to the general setting.

The parade, which mustered at the Court House and moved up McBride Street, along Sixth Avenue, down Fulton Street, onto Third Avenue, down Sixth Street, along Second Avenue, up Fourth Street, and along Third Avenue back to the Court House, where it dispersed included motorcycles, Rocky Mountain Rangers with their bands, Royal Canadian Air Force, Sea Cadets, not for use in the mails but for Boy Scouts, Prince Rupert Pipe

Bath Club Gone—Knew Kings

Swimmers Lost in Trying to Save Well Known Place From Fire

LONDON, April 24: (CP)—Fire of unknown origin has completely destroyed the Bath Club in London's West End, where the King, Elizabeth, and the Princesses Elizabeth and Margaret Rose used to take swimming lessons. The club's air force officer, P. O. W. Airy, his life and a number of firemen were injured. A club employee was killed by sliding down a drain. Valuable books, pictures and paintings were destroyed. Founded in 1894, the club was the first in London to have a swimming pool, Turkish baths and a gymnasium added later. While the Queen eagerly watched, the Princesses won prizes in a children's swimming competition at the club in 1939. Formerly the London residence of the Aberavenny, the Bath Club contained a beautiful ballroom on the site of which the swimming pool was built and some fine Adam columns which were preserved when the building was modernized.

Next Little Theatre Presentation In Capitol Theatre For Queen's Relief Fund

Plan for the presentation of the farce comedy "The Private Secretary" at the Capitol Theatre late in May was announced last night at the general meeting of the Little Theatre in the Canadian Legion Hall. Other items of business included a report on the last two plays and some discussion on future activities. Mrs. N. E. Arnold, president, was in the chair. A social hour ending with refreshments was enjoyed by the members. Mrs. Jarvis McLeod gave several selections accompanied by Len Cripps as pianist.

The choice of "The Private Secretary" met with instant approval by the whole organization. Known to many people and ranking in charm and humor with such plays as "Charley's Aunt," etc., "The Private Secretary" is expected to pack the theatre and to be long remembered afterward. The net proceeds of the production are to be turned over to the Queen's Canadian Fund for relief in bombed areas in Britain.

SEIZED ITALIAN SEAMEN ARRIVE FOR STAY AT ELLIS ISLAND

Between two rows of armed U.S. coast-guard men march the 500 Italian seamen who were taken from the Italian luxury liner Conte Biancamano when the vessel was seized in the Panama Canal zone. Women are among them, stewardesses and maids from the seized liner. They arrived in an army case in Brooklyn aboard the transport Leonard Wood, from the Canal Zone. From there the immigration authorities took them in and transported them to Ellis Island. This photograph was made on their arrival at the island. Though closely guarded, officially they are "not under arrest."

HANSON IS BUSY MAN

Visited Airport and Received Many Delegations While in Prince Rupert

Olof Hanson, who left last evening on his return to Ottawa to continue attendance at the session of Parliament, was a very busy man while here. He received a number of delegations and so busy was he that he was unable to meet many of his friends. Yesterday afternoon he visited the airport at Seal Cove and was surprised at the change which had taken place since he was here last. He was also interested to hear that a number of new homes were going up in different parts of the city.

BURNS LAKE, April 24.—Considerable interest was taken in a provincial police court hearing in Burns Lake this week when W. H. Behnke, district farmer, was charged with perjury. Provincial Controller Fred Brooks-bank sailed yesterday afternoon on the Prince George to make the round trip to Stewart on official duties, returning to the city this evening.

No regular weekly luncheon of the Prince Rupert Rotary Club was held today but instead, there will be a special dinner meeting Saturday evening for the entertainment of a Rotary party which is coming from Ketchikan for a fraternal visit. In addition to exchange of greetings and messages between the Rotarians, there will be a guest speaker in the person of Capt. G. W. Marsden of the Royal Canadian Engineers who recently returned to Canada from the Orient and will speak on Shanghai.

Making her initial voyage of the spring on the Alaska route, C. P. R. steamer Princess Louise, Capt. S. K. Gray, arrived in port at 8 o'clock this morning from Vancouver and sailed at 10 a.m. for Skagway and other Alaska points whence she is due back here next Tuesday afternoon southbound. The vessel will now continue steadily on this run until fall. There were 139 passengers arriving here on the Princess Louise. Two disembarked at Prince Rupert and sixteen boarded her here for the north. The through passengers included mostly White Pass and Yukon Route employees going north for the season. Cargo was heavy including considerable machinery which will be transferred to scows at Wrangell and taken up the Stikine River for air base construction work at Telegraph Creek.

J. V. Rees, who arrived in the city a few days ago from Vancouver, sailed this morning on the Princess Louise for Stikine where he will be stationed for the season as Canadian customs officer.
