JAPS DAMAGE U.S. GUNBOAT

WASHINGTON-The Navy announced today that the United States gunboat Tutuila had been damaged by Japanese hombs in a Japanese raid on Chungking but no casualties were reported. The United States lodged immediate representations with the Japanese government over the bombing of the Tutuila.

RUSSIANS AND POLES

LONDON-The Russians and the Polish have made up. General Sikorski, Premier of the Polish government in exile, announced today that an agreement has been reached with Russia to end their technical state of war. Sikorski said the pact is based on honorable conditions and is expected to be signed shortly.

LITTLE ACTION IN WEST

LONDON-There was little action on the western European front during the night. The air ministry reports that small German forces caused slight damage and some casualties at three points in eastern England. No British attacks seem to have been made apparently because of continued bad weather over the continent.

BRITAIN AND FINLAND

LONDON-Great Britain soon may be at war with its old friend Finland. The British are understood to be considering whether a state of war exists in view of the Finnish declaration that Finland and Germany are co-allies. Finland yesterday broke relations with Britain, a move that probably will be followed by the freezing of Finnish credits in Britain.

RUSSIA AND TURKEY

ANKARA-Turkey soon will be assured that Russia has no designs on the Dardanelles. Authoritative sources say the Soviet now is preparing the note to Turkey. In London, diplomatic sources report that Britain informally raised the question of Russo-Turkish relations during conversations with Soviet officials. The British are said to have suggested that all concerned would benefit if Russia were to reassure the Turks.

NAVAL ENGAGEMENT

ROME-Another Mediterranean naval engagement is reported in today's Italian high command communique. The Fascist command says Italian torpedo boats on theirway back from Friday night's attack on Malta ran into a light British naval formation. The communique claims one British destroyer was sunk against a loss of two Italian torpedo boats.

UNITED STATES NEAR WAR LONDON-Prime Minister Winston Churchill says the United States is moving resolutely to the very verge of war.

RUSSO-GERMAN ROUND-UP

The Russians still seem to be holding the German army at bay along most of the 1800-mile front. At some points, according to Soviet reports, the Red troops are on the offensive. The afternoon Moscow communique reports fighting continued throughout the night in the same sectors around Nevel, Smolensk and Zhitomir. There is only one near victory claimed from Germany. The German high command says that the greater part of the Soviet forces trapped by the German break near Smolensk now have been smashed. Informed German quarters claim that Rumanian troops on the Bessarabian front have captured Akkerman, 28 miles southwest of the Soviet Black Sea port of Odessa. However, most German military spokesmen are expelling recent high command statements and dwelling on the difficulties of the weather and the terrain and they again pay tribute to the tenacious Russian resistance.

Churchill's Praise - - -

When Prime Minister Churchill speaks of "the magnificent strength and courage of Russia," it means a great Edmonton Chamber of Commerce deal. Canada's War Effort Not Good Enough, Says Canadian Legion Head in Discussing Conscription

Speaking on the subject of conscription at Monday night's Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce meeting, H. A. Breen, president of the Canadian Legion, saw nothing to be gained by voluntary appeals. This had been illustrated in the Victory Loan, recruiting, pork products, gasoline appeals. Voluntary enlistment was not fair. It meant that some men served, giving everything they had, their bodies and their lives, while others held back and drew big wages. All the while Britons were in blood, sweat and tears. It was not good enough. Canada's war effort, Mr. Breen contended, should be on a parity with that of Great Britain. When there were benefits going, such as those under Empire preference, Canada had been all for them. Now there had been apathy even in the purchase of Victory Bonds.

Theo Collart, himself in favor of thought the government should be asked for a referendum. He did Enjoyable Event elected on a non-conscription mandate would adopt conscription withlout a referendum.

Hazelton Man Lost His Life

Chris Fox Dies-Breaks Neck And Fractures Skull

SMITHERS, July 30:- A fatal accident occurred at New Hazelton last week when Chris Fox of Hazelton, who was employed loading cedar poles on a flat car, fell off the car only a distance of about four feet and landing on his head, fractured his skull and broke his neck, dying instantly.

Other workmen around the car witnessed the accident but there was nothing that could be done for the unfortunate man.

H. B. Campbell, Government Agent at Smithers proceeded to New Hazelton immediately and a coroner's inquest was held.

Mr. Fox was a long time resident t Hazelton where he had been ferryman across the Skeena River there for many years and gave up tied the score at 8-all and with two this work only a few weeks ago. He is survived by two daughters, high estimate of man to the teachings of Christianity that man was in the image of God, it omitted | the qualifying teaching of the sinfulness of man that Christianity had held in juxtaposition to man's nobility. Therefore, modern culture; erred in its simplicity of analysis. Christianity emphasized man's creativeness and did not overlook his sinfulness but found hope and redemption in a God not only of justice and mercy, that man, by his contrition for his unrighteousness; and a proper humility commensurate with creatureliness. God was glorified as the Creator and likewise received as the only saviour of man.
