CURLING IS

Trophy Play Is Centre of Interest At Smithers

SMITHERS. January 24-Play in the Hanson Cup curling tournament is drawing to a close and will be completed by the end of this week. It appears that several teams may be tied for first place and may have to play off for the cup. These are the rinks skipped by A. Evitt, Ward Carey and Frank Johnson. The Evitt rink got away to a poor start, losing the first three games played, but, in a fine reversal of form, won the next seven games straight and was well away for the cup. However, in the final game of the series played on Wednesday night, the rink skipped by Len Evans set Evitt's back with a loss of 4 to 15 which will probably put the rink into a tie with one or two other rinks that still have some games to play. A mixed bonspiel with two men and two ladies to each rink will get under way over the week-end after which the tournament for the shield and other bonspiels will be played.

A fine cup has been presented by se Home Oil Distributors for the Ladies' Curling Club and will be played for this winter. This is the first winter that the ladies have ARMY IN trophy previous to this to spurthem on.

The weather has been ideal for curling all through the winter, excepting for a few days when it was too mild for the sport.

It is expected that three rinks! will go from Smithers to Prince; George for the bonspiel there on 25 February 10. RED CROSS

Annual Meeting Hears Reports of Good Work Done

TERRACE, Jan. 24.—The annual meeting of Terrace Red Cross Association was held in the Oddfellow's Hall on Wednesday evening with a representative number of Terrace people in attendance.

The president, E. T. Kenney, occupied the chair and, in his address he reviewed the work of the year just past. He also gave a great deal of detail concerning the Red Cross work throughout Canada. He thought it a matter to be congratulated upon that Terrace and district had raised more than $1300; in revenue from various sources during the year. Although contributions had come from points along the railway between such widely separated places as Woodcock and Kwinitsa, it should be remembered that most of these points had been combed for funds by the railway officials and such contributions' were not shown in the Terrace re-

Mrs. George Dover gave her report of the work committee. This recorded the immense quantities of goods that were knitted and worked up by the ladies of her committee.

After other routine business was disposed of, the meeting proceeded to the election of officers for the coming year. All the officers were re-elected, except the executive committee, which were chosen by
