Most Outstanding Accomplishment Is Reduction of Debt, Hon. John Hart Tells Victoria Convention.

VICTORIA, Sept. 26.—Reduction of the provincial gross debt by more than $2,000,000 since the government assumed office in 1933; a $5,500,000 reduction in the net debt during the past twelve months; retirement of approximately $29,600,000 of debt since Oct. 1, 1940; creation of $29,060,320 in operating surpluses over a period of eight years; constant reduction and ultimate cessation of borrowing on account of unemployment relief; a reduction of $1,647,155 in interest charges and sinking fund requirements on the public debt since Dec. 30, 1940; a downward revision in the average interest rate paid on the public debt from 4.332 percent in 1933 to 4.17 percent in 1941, and a phenomenal increase in the credit standing of British Columbia since 1933 are some of the new financial achievements of the government as outlined by Hon. John Hart, minister of finance, at the Liberal nominating convention held in Victoria last night. Mr. Hart was personally nominated.

Prince Rupert Mentioned Again Labor Congress

CALGARY, Sept. 26.—John Bruce of Toronto, international organizer for plumbers and pipefitters, told the Canadian Congress of Labor convention today: "We would be justified in asking for a royal commission to investigate conditions at Prince Rupert shipyards. He declared that munitions Minister Howe announced shipbuilding was ahead of schedule. But, Bruce charged, there are at least eight ships in Prince Rupert yards not yet completed that are a "year behind schedule." He said it was "a tragic situation when we can not build ships because there is no co-operation between government departments and organized labor" and charged he found "entire opposition on the part of the management" at Prince Rupert dry dock to negotiate a union agreement.

IS UNABLE TO AGREE

First Jury in Behnke Case Unable to Reach Verdict—Trial in Progress Today.

After deliberating for nearly six hours, the jury in the case of William Frederick Behnke of Colleymount, Francois Lake, charged with perjury arising out of a civil action at Burns Lake last spring over a sale of hay in the stack, returned to the courtroom at the Supreme Court Assizes at midnight last night, the foreman, W. R. McAfee, reporting to Mr. Justice A. M. Manson that it was in disagreement and unable to reach a verdict. Accordingly, His Lordship discharged this jury and a second trial will have to be held.

The final witness yesterday afternoon following accused himself was Lloyd Roberts, another farmer of that district, who gave evidence as to the measurement of hay in the stack and requirements of winter feeding of stock in that district.

C. P. MacLean, Smithers barrister, acting as defence counsel, contended that the whole case hinged on the word of one man against another—Herman Johnson, the star witness for the crown, against the accused Behnke. Johnson, defence counsel maintained, had been inaccurate, contradictory and forgetful, his evidence of such character that a jury could not rightfully convict on its basis. Johnson even admitted that he "never looked at it very good," referring to the receipt he had signed for Behnke, and did not know what was written on it. In view of the nature of Johnson's evidence, defence counsel felt confident in asking for a verdict of acquittal.

W. O. Fulton, crown counsel, suggested that Behnke might be convicted on the strength of the altered receipt together with his own evidence not only of perjury but of forgery as well. The receipt in itself was sufficient to warrant a conviction without the evidence of Johnson at all. It was mysterious how a first receipt, binding the hay deal had disappeared. Mr. Fulton suggested that alterations had been made after Johnson had signed it with different ink. The evidence of Johnson and the receipt gave the lie completely to Behnke's story.

His Lordship

Mr. Justice A. M. Manson gave a thorough summing up in his address to the jury. He defined the law in respect to the charge and discussed types of evidence and the matter of reasonable doubt. Referring to the fact that higher courts had criticized him for not making it clear that comments on evidence were his own views and not meant to actuate juries, His Lordship said that he did not wish the jury to misunderstand that it was his duty to clarify the evidence and not to influence the judgment of the jury in respect to the facts. It was unfortunate that the first receipt which had been in the custody of Behnke should not have been produced. His Lordship spoke in regard to the receipt which Johnson suggested had been tampered with. This receipt was very material evidence. The judge observed that it was "unfortunate how untruthfulness seemed to be prevalent and shocking how so many witnesses go into the box and flatly contradict each other." It was up to the jury to weigh the evidence and decide accordingly, but it was strange that accused should pay $12 per ton for hay when he had bargained to pay $7.

The jury retired a few minutes after 6 o'clock to consider its verdict, returning to the courtroom shortly after 9 o'clock to seek further review of the evidence of Johnson and Behnke. His Lordship, in answer to a question, said

It is expected to hand down a new list of condemnations soon.

PROBLEMS FROM WAR DISCUSSED

Mr. Justice Manson Speaks To Rotary Club, Chiding For Indifference

The complacency of the people of Canada, of Great Britain and of the United States in the face of a very grave danger is one of the striking features of the present situation, according to Mr. Justice A. M. Manson, speaker at the Prince Rupert Rotary Club at its luncheon yesterday. He warned against the possible fallacy that Great Britain always won the last battle. People did not seem to care yet. In fact, in Canada they were not caring about anything. Great Britain had usually won because she was more powerful. She was more powerful today because she, to a small extent at any rate, believed in eternal justice. Germany was a pagan country. Canada, Great Britain and United States were not quite so pagan as Germany.

At the same time these three countries and the other parts of the British Empire could not be said to be Christian when they had slums where people existed in dire poverty. Yet nobody worried. This country was not without sin. There were some things not yet to its credit. Yet people were wonderfully complacent. They were not sure they were going to win this war. Yet they did not care. What was Britain going to do if Russia were beaten and it was not sure yet that she could hold the Germans?

Russia was showing amazing strength, much greater than expected. Yet Germany might beat Russia and, if she did she would then turn her strength against Great Britain. Judge Manson took exception to Beverley Baxter coming to Toronto and telling the people of Canada what to do. He should remain at home. Canadians did not want British backbenchers coming to Canada and giving advice.

MAJOR REBELLION

ROME—Italian sources admit that the rebellion against Nazi and Fascist influence in Jugoslavia has reached major proportions.

Mrs. John Currie of Second Avenue, who has not been well of late, sailed last night on the Prince George for Vancouver.

Big Battle Is Developing in Crimea—Soviet Claims Whole Battalions of Nazi Troops Destroyed By Mines.

LONDON, Sept. 26: (CP)—A DNB dispatch today from Berlin admitted German expectation that war on the eastern front would continue into the winter, and hinted at new German offensives. "It is generally recognized now that one cannot figure on pressure of German troops on Soviet armies letting up during the winter months," the agency said.

TRIAL IS GOING ON

Hearing of Robert Phillips Charged With Shooting at Kitsumkalum Lake—Woman on Jury.

A jury consisting of eleven men and one woman is today hearing the case at the Supreme Court Assizes before Mr. Justice A. M. Manson in which Robert Henry Phillips is charged with having shot Eugene Llewellyn at Kitsumkalum Lake on May 26 last with intent to do grievous bodily injury. The shooting, in which Llewellyn is alleged to have received a bullet wound in the left leg from a rifle in the hands of accused, was the sequel to an incident in a Chinese restaurant at Terrace the night previous when Eric Lawrence Linnie lost a wallet containing $37 in cash and travellers' cheques to the amount of $50. W. O. Fulton is acting as crown counsel. Phillips is conducting his own defence. The jury consists of William J. Kennedy, John Rennie, O. A. Johnson, Roderick McRae, James Duffitt, Albert G. Bartlett, W. R. McAfee, John Cretien, Robert Webster, George R. Cristoff, S. A. Deschamps and Alice Blain.

Witnesses heard this morning were Eric Lawrence Linnie and Gene Llewellyn, both of whom testified in regard to the incident on the night previous in the restaurant when Linnie lost his purse and the trip to Kitsumkalum Lake next day. There had been conversations prior to the shooting incident in regard to the loss of the purse. Phillips had said that when he went into the restaurant and leaned over behind Linnie and picked something up it was a file. There was talk during the evidence of "ganging up" and such like. Witnesses alleged that Phillips had come to the door of his cabin with a rifle and had raised the weapon to his shoulder and fired at Llewellyn as he lay on his back on the ground after having stumbled and fell. There had been considerable drinking going on among crown witnesses.

Speaking of an incident at Terrace on the street in the morning prior to the shooting at Kitsumkalum Lake, Phillips, while conducting his own cross-examination of Linnie, asked witness if he had heard him (Phillips) being asked to "go for a ride" like might be heard among gangsters in Chicago. At this time, Mr. Justice Manson reminded Phillips that this was "not an American movie show but a British court of justice," and he had better confine himself to asking questions without making comments.

Brooklyn Is Flag Winner

BOSTON, Sept. 26: (CP)—Brooklyn Dodgers yesterday won the National League pennant and the right to meet New York Yankees in the World Series next week by defeating Boston Braves 6-0 behind Whitlow Wyatt's five-hit pitching. The St. Louis Cardinals, who had been the Bums' only threat, were defeated 3-1 by the Pittsburgh Pirates.

War News

LENINGRAD HOLDS OUT
LONDON—Leningrad still holds out in the face of fierce Nazi attack. However, there is no real front there but a seething mass of fighting men and equipment in which there is terrific death and destruction. A typical German report says the Nazi forces are advancing house by house and block by block in the industrial outskirts of the Soviet's second greatest city. Berlin admits that Red forces are making advances in the Gomel sector of the central front. The Germans are, however, continuing their advance to Kharkov, principal centre of the great Donetz industrial area.

GERMANY CLAIMS CONVOY HIT
BERLIN—A German claim last night was that eleven ships out of a British convoy of twelve had been sunk in an Axis attack off the west coast of Africa.

Quietly Wedded Here Last Eve

Miss Palma Lovstad Becomes Bride of Bruce Love at Ceremony in Lutheran Church.

A quiet but interesting wedding was solemnized by Rev. J. H. Myrwing at St. Paul's Lutheran Church last evening when Miss Palma Eldora Ovedia Lovstad, second daughter of Mrs. O. Lovstad, became the bride of Albert Bruce Love, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Love of this city. Only a few immediate friends of the couple were present.

The bride was charming in a dusky rose dress with matching accessories. The bridesmaid, Miss Lillian Skogmo, chose navy blue velvet.

Evan Love, brother of the groom, was groomsmen.

Following the ceremony, there was a reception at the home of the groom's parents on Eighth Avenue East. Later the couple sailed on the Prince George for Victoria, where the groom is returning to his naval duties after spending his leave here.

had been reduced by $1,225,525 and sinking fund requirements $421,630, thus instituting a saving in debt charges amounting to $1,647,155.

During each of the eight years of the present government's administration, operating surpluses had been secured. Mr. Hart declared. These surpluses started with $211,775 in 1933-34 and rose to $7,377,194 during the year 1940-41. Thus during that period, operating surpluses totalled $29,069,320. This money, he reported, was used as follows: debt redemption $12,734,747 and unemployment relief $12,520,177, leaving a balance of $3,805,393 for further debt redemption which will occur before November 1.

Helping In War

Mr. Hart concluded his address by outlining the manner in which financial aid had been given the Dominion government in respect to the nation's war effort. By assuming the Dominion's share of unemployment relief costs, the province had relieved the federal government of a $1,000,000 burden. It also was the first province to vacate the income tax field for the duration of the war. By retiring more than $29,000,000 of debt the province had released that sum for re-investment in Canada's and Great Britain's war effort. Every department of public service, said Mr. Hart, was making a very definite contribution to the nation's war program and this, he added, was in conformity with the policy immediately enunciated at the outbreak of hostilities when the provincial government lost no time in reassuring the Dominion of its steadfast loyalty and its determination to give all-out cooperation in Canada's emergency.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Wilding, who have been on a trip to Vancouver and Winnipeg, returned to the city on the Prince Rupert this morning.

Mrs. McLeod Is Honored

"When Jack comes back they'll help furnish our home"

Jane: Well, Helen, I've solved one problem today.

Helen: You have! What?

Jane: The problem of furnishing a home.

Helen: You mean that home you've planned when Jack comes back from the war?

Jane: Right! And I'm doing it by buying War Savings Certificates. When Jack comes back they'll help furnish our home.

Helen: What a grand idea.

Jane: Isn't it? And it's so easy too. The office just takes it off my pay cheque. And I'm really doing two things.

Helen: How's that?

Jane: Well by buying War Savings Certificates now I'm helping Canada win the war and helping furnish our home later on.

The help of every Canadian is needed for Victory. In these days of war the thoughtless selfish spender is a traitor to our war effort. A reduction in personal spending is now a vital necessity to relieve the pressure for goods, to enable more and more labour and materials to be diverted to winning the war. The all-out effort, which Canada must make, demands this self-denial of each of us.
