Premier King Suggests How Roosevelt Might Shorten Up Conflict

Pledge Made to Canada Three Years Ago Might be Extended to United Kingdom—Churchill Pays Tribute to Dominion

LONDON, September 4: (CP)—Prime Minister William Lyon Mackenzie King of Canada, in his first public pronouncement since his arrival from Canada two weeks ago, suggested today that an offer to Great Britain by President Franklin D. Roosevelt of the guarantee he gave to Canada three years ago would serve to "shorten this perilous conflict." That guarantee, he told a distinguished audience at a luncheon tendered him by the Lord Mayor of London, was that "the United States would not stand idly by if Dominion of Canada soil were threatened by any other Empire." By inference, Mr. Mackenzie King said it could now be applied to Great Britain which has become the bridgehead of the Western Hemisphere. "We are witnessing the birth of still wider arrangements for joint defence among the British Empire and the United States," the Canadian Prime Minister said.

Ready and Determined - - -

A magazine comment suggests that President Roosevelt is worried over the apparent apathy of the people of the United States toward the war. Yet a recent visitor from the Pacific coast states as his opinion that the people in his part of the country are not the least excited but are ready and determined in case it becomes necessary for that country to take an active part in the war.

The west may not be a sign of what the middle east attitude may be. It is possible there are parts of the United States that are not favorable to active participation by that country. Judging from information that comes here, Americans generally are well informed and keen over the war and would be ready to answer any call that might come for them to join hands with Britain and Russia in suppression of the Nazi forces.

Comedies Badly Needed - - -

In view of the war strain and the need of relaxation comedies are badly needed. The local theatre is doing a good deal to fill the need but it is doubtful if that is enough. Humor is badly needed. We do not laugh anything like enough.

Word comes from Hollywood that this need is being recognized by the movie magnate and that comedies are on the way. We hope they do not arrive too late to benefit the people.

Canadians Moving Over - - -

In spite of the criticism we sometimes hear of the Federal government in connection with the war work, it will be noted that Canadian troops are still moving overseas in considerable numbers. It is announced that the third division of the Canadian army overseas is now almost complete. This seems like a fairly good record when the air force, the navy and other parts of the Canadian forces overseas are considered.

Gambling At Circus - - -

A correspondent draws attention to the gambling at the circus. She is undoubtedly right when she says that young children should not be allowed to play the gambling games. For the carnival we are inclined to wink at such lapses because the proceeds go to a good cause but we see no good reason why we should allow an outside concern to come to the city and break the laws which local people are supposed to observe.

It's interesting to know when reading the Daily News that the people of the whole district are doing the same.

PRESIDENT'S SON IN LONDON

St. Louis and Brooklyn. Actually Tied Now in National League Baseball Race

NEW YORK, Sept. 4: (C)—The margin of St. Louis Cardinals over Brooklyn Dodgers in the hectic National League pennant race is now only mathematical. On games won and lost the two teams are actually tied, the Cardinals having a slight lead on percentage points because they have played four less games. Yesterday the dodgers split a double-header with the Phillies at Philadelphia, the score being four to one in each game. The Cardinals were unable to play the Cubs at Chicago owing to wet grounds. In the only other National League game yesterday was a close affair between Cincinnati Reds and the Pirates at Pittsburgh, the latter winning three to two.

In the American League the New York Yankees took a close two to one victory from the Boston Red Sox who are now in a tie with the Chicago White Sox for the runner-up position. Washington Senators, playing at home, defeated the Philadelphia Athletics nine to eight.

Yesterday's Big League scores:
National League
Brooklyn 4-1, Philadelphia 1-4, Cincinnati 2, Pittsburgh 3.

TRAVEL IS ADVOCATED

See the Country and Get Out of the Local Rut, Urges Masonic Grand Master in Club Talk

The value of travel to various parts of the province as a means of getting people out of their own local views and interests and shaking off the feeling that everything centres about their own particular community was emphasized by B. A. Stimmel of Trail, provincial Grand Master of the Masonic Lodge and superintendent of the great zinc plant of the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Co., in speaking before the Prince Rupert Gyo Club at its regular weekly luncheon yesterday. Mr. Stimmel told how refreshing a trip he was now making through the province was proving to him. It had been most interesting to find out what people were doing and thinking in other places. He had observed great stretches of fine country, seemingly with great potentialities, of which little use was being made.

Mr. Stimmel described a motor trip which started ten days ago from Trail and which had included visits to a number of provincial towns, each with its own particular interest. First there had been the old ghost mining town of Greenwood, green and fresh again after having for years been the scene of an important copper smelting operation. Penticton had its orchards and its fruits and was now found to be producing marachino cherries and a new melon known as the zucchini melon, ten inches in diameter and as long as six feet. Kelowna and Vernon were packing enormous quantities of apples. Salmon Arm was a dairy centre which felt somewhat resentful at the necessity of having to ship its product of cream and milk to be made into butter and cheese at Armstrong. Williams Lake claimed to be the greatest stock shipping centre in the whole of Canada and there was certainly plenty of cattle in evidence thereabouts. Barkerville was steeped in mining history, dating back nearly to the days of '49. Prince George, bustling and busy, claiming to be the industrial centre of that part of the province. At Pinchi Lake near Stuart Lake a visit had been paid to the world's third most important mercury mine. Smithers was a town the importance and activity of which had proven surprising. Everywhere great hospitality had been extended. After Prince Rupert, a visit to Terrace was being anticipated. It was an informal impromptu talk that Mr. Stimmel gave and proved interesting to his listeners.

President W. F. Stone was in the chair. Other guests, besides Mr. Stimmel, were W. C. McKenzie, Consolidated paymaster at Trail;

W. A. Curran, publisher of the Trail Times; E. T. Kenney, M.L.A. for Skeena from Terrace, and Magistrate W. D. Vance.

Attention was drawn to the Gyo picnic which will be held next Sunday with Dr. R. G. Large providing the transportation with his fine new power yacht Soogwills.

KISS YOUR TIRED FEELING GOODBYE!

Peppless Many Suffer Low Blood Count—And Don't Know It.
The baffling thing about low blood count is that you can weigh about as much as you ever did—even look healthy and strong, yet you can feel as if you had lead in your legs, dizzy, tired and peevish.
Low blood count means you haven't got enough red blood corpuscles. It is their vital job to carry life-giving oxygen from your lungs throughout your body. And just as it takes oxygen to explode gasoline in your car and make the power to turn the wheels, so you must have plenty of oxygen to explode the energy in your body and give you living power.
Get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills today. They are world-noted for the help they give in increasing the number and strength of red corpuscles. Then with your blood count up, you'll feel like bounding up the stairs as if you were floating on air. Ask your druggist for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills today.

Fishing Areas Reopening After Drought—Routine Business At Research Board Executive Meet.

After having been closed for a couple of weeks on account of low water conditions which have been rectified by the rains of the past few days, Butedale area has been reopened to salmon seining and gill-netting. Bella Bella will be re-opened on the coming Sunday night. Gill-netting for cohoes in the Skeena and Nass Rivers has fallen off to an average of ten fish per boat per day. Light catches of chums are reported on the Queen Charlotte Islands. In order to permit of escapement of fish, Skidegate Inlet will be closed to fishing at the end of this week. Canneries still operating in the Skeena River area are Cassiar, Inverness, Claxton, Carlisle and Prince Rupert (Nelson Bros.) Sunnyside on the Skeena River and Wales Island and Arrandale on the Nass River are already closed. North Pacific on the Skeena will close this week-end.

It was with considerable regret that many friends, particularly along the waterfront, read in the Daily News yesterday of Mrs. A. Williamson of Vancouver having received word that her daughter, Lieut. Florence Williamson McPherson, a member of the Women's Royal Naval Service, had been presumed lost at sea. Lieut. Florence McPherson was as well known as her husband, Lieut. Martin Hugh McPherson R. N., who was lost in action at sea two years ago. They had both been actively engaged in fishing and also with the marine and fisheries patrol service out of here a few years ago, having made their abode on board the boat C. N.

Sessions of the Pacific sub-executive of the Fisheries Research Board of Canada, held here at the end of last week with several members of the board and executive in attend-

LINK WITH OLD DAYS

Hon. Archer Martin Played His Part in Growth Of West

When the late Hon. Archer Martin, who is dead in Victoria, retired May 6, 1940, as Chief Justice of the British Columbia Court of Appeal, he told a banquet in his honor: "It seems that I am looked upon as an institution—as a link with the past."

For 42 years he was a member of the British Columbia bench. He retired on his 75th birthday in accordance with his oft-expressed belief that all judges should give up their duties when they reached that age.

One of the men who played an active part in the growth of the Canadian West, Archer Martin was born in Hamilton, Ont., May 6, 1865. He was called to the bar of Manitoba in 1887 and to the bar of British Columbia in 1894.

In the growing Pacific Coast province he rapidly made his mark. He was appointed a puisne judge of the Supreme Court of British Columbia when he was 33 years old—one of the youngest men ever elevated to the bench in Canada.

The following year Mr. Martin was made deputy judge in Admiralty for British Columbia and three years later judge in Admiralty. As head of the latter he preserved the traditional wig that was one of the symbols of office abolished in other Western Canada courts many years previously.

Upon the creation of the appellate division of the British Columbia Supreme Court in 1909 he was appointed to serve under Chief Justice J. A. Macdonald, whom he succeeded as chief justice in 1937.

Archer Martin was educated at Trinity College School, Port Hope, Ontario, and at Ghent, Belgium. In 1889 he married Emily Mary, daughter of John Breakenridge Read, barrister-at-law of Toronto. They had two sons, Carlew, a Victoria barrister, and D'Arcy, an employee of the British Columbia government.

Earlier Days

The chief justice's estate, "Ballinahinch," near Victoria, was named after the residence in Galway County, Ireland, of his famous great-grandfather, Colonel Richard (Humanity) Martin, one of the founders of the Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

Mr. Martin's earliest days in British Columbia were spent on Vancouver Island, where before his appointment to the supreme court he acted as counsel for the Dominion government and representative of the minister of justice.

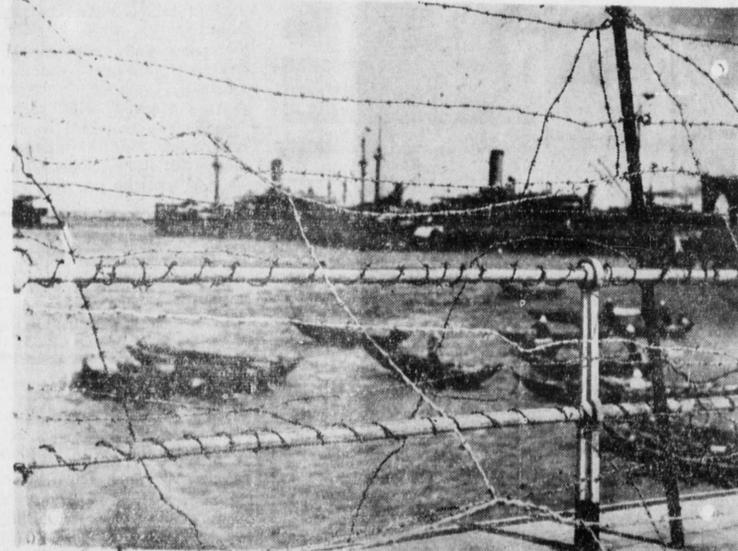

Subsequently his duties took him to nearly every part of the province. He was acquainted intimately with the mining and ranching Cariboo district and in 1900 acted as a special commissioner to settle mining disputes in the Porcupine district of British Columbia arising out of the British-United States treaty on the Canadian-Alaskan boundary.

When he retired as chief justice of the appeal court he promised friends to write a book of reminiscences dealing with early days in the province. He had previously written several books, most of them dealing with legal matters, including "The Hudson's Bay Company's Land Tenures," "Chart of the Judges of Vancouver Island and British Columbia," and "Martin's Mining and Water Cases." He also published "The Genealogy of Martin of Ballinahinch Castle."

In his 42 years on the British Columbia bench Mr. Martin never missed a day from court with the exception of one week when he was confined to his home with a sprained ankle. His perpetual good health enabled him to enjoy swimming and golf and to take an active interest in gardening.

SINGAPORE'S HARBOR PRESENTS WAR-LIKE APPEARANCE

With the strategic naval base of Singapore bristling with fighting men being poured in daily from Australia, the famous Malayan city presents this warlike appearance on the waterfront. Barbed wire frames the busy harbor in the background. Britain seems prepared for any danger from Japanese forces now entrenched in Indo-China.
