Shipbuilding Program - - -

The plan of the federal government to arrange for the construction of two large steel freighters at the Prince Found Purse. Owner may have casions." Rupert shipyard is one that will please most local people. Evidently the ministers, and particularly the minister of supply, are fully conversant with the possibility of the [. shipyard but the drawbacks seems to be the lack of skilled men here and the difficulties in the matter of housing.] Also there is the danger of creating a boom town that would not be in the interests of the city or the country. FOUND Set of false teeth on The minister was very clear in stating that any radical; dislocation of population such as the building up of one city at the expense of others was something to be discouraged as not being in line with government policy. At the same time, it is recognized that ships are badly needed and the local shipyard will be utilized to the fullest possible extent consistent with government policy.

The freighters are expected to be of approximately! ten thousand tons each. It is understood that a number of these are to be built and how many are built here will largely depend upon the manner in which the work is handled. So far there has been no complaint in this re- FOR SALE- Dining room gard, it is understood.

Change Over Of Radio - . .

While the change of the location of stations on the radio dial will undoubtedly cause confusion at first it should prove very beneficial to Prince Rupert radio fans. There is one Vancouver station on the 49 metre band that should prove very useful to the north but that, owing to interference of other stations, is of no value in the evenings. It is to be hoped that this interference will be rectified. Other stations may well be improved. Under the new plan Canada is to have fourteen clear channels instead of six formerly allotted to this country. The total number of clear channels on this continent is 106. The change over takes place early Sunday morning.

Of Advantage To Rupert . . .

While Prince Rupert as a whole will benefit from the FOR SALE Rug and a tew other distribution of war work and we are all anxious to have our city prosperous we must beware against asking for anything which might not be in the national interest. The! first thing for every man, woman and child should be the FOR RENT-Room. Centre of city winning of the war. Personal interests must be curbed. Blue 909. President, H. T. Lock. Vice-President, C. P. Balagno.

Secretary, C. G. Ham. Executive-Theo Collart, Frank Warne, P. C. Miller, Leonard Cripps, Mrs. R. M. Winslow, Mrs. T. Priest, Mrs. J. B. Gillett, Mrs. C. J. Norrington and H. F. Pullen. In taking over the duties of president Mr. Lock promised to do his best to carry on the activities of the Society and asked for full co-operation.

The secretary reported that durthe past year a successful flower show had been held. A spring plant sale helped to finance the show. A useful weed burner had been purchased for the use of members and the general public. Those who had contributed prizes were thanked. Votes of thanks were passed to the retiring presi-

DEMOCRACY IN ACTION

By H. F. PULLEN

When I was in Ottawa recently one of Canada's elder statesmen dropped into my room rather late in the evening for a chat. I had retired and was just getting into bed when he arrived so we sat and smoked and talked for an hour. I told him all the interesting things about Prince Rupert and we gradually drifted away on to many subjects, including affairs political.

He expressed the opinion that, when the Pattullo government decided to appeal to the country, it would be returned again by a good a natural death. Both of us demajority. Set against these we find the success of our own member, Olof - Hensen, who quietly drops into the office of each minister in turn, talks over the proboms, argues and persuades and eventually brings home the bacon.

What the government of the day wants is facts, not fireworks. What the House of Commons wants is quiet reasoning rather than oratory. What the country needs i action rather than criticism inspired by personal ambition. There must be a desire to serve the nation rather than party or selfinterest.

Halibut Fleet To Start Leaving Next Sunday-Regulations Announced-Reduction Plants Are Closed.

Official notification was received this morning by James Boyd, supervisor of fisheries, from headquarters of the International Fisheries Commission in Seattle to permit fishing of halibut on April 1. Regulations, similar to those of last year, will limit clearances to one area on any one trip. Possession of halibut under five pounds in weight will be prohibited. The first proup of local halibut boats-with names starting M to R-will leave next Sunday. The fleet is divided into four alphabetical groups, the second group leaving three days after the first, the third four days after that and the fourth another three days later.
