Hitler's Idea of Peace - - -

Replying to Colonel Lindbergh's suggestion of a negotiated peace, Dr. Otto Strasser, former organizer for the Nazi Party in Berlin, tells in a recent number of "Liberty" one reason why such a peace would be impossible. He tells of a conversation he once had with Hitler in which the Fuehrer said he thought the British and French were too lenient after the former war. In the course of the argument Hitler fell into a passionate rage saying:

"For me there is no such thing as a negotiated peace. For me there is only the physical and psychological extermination of the enemy. If you leave the enemy so much as the breath of life, he will dream of revenge and, at the very first opportunity when you are in difficulties, he will attack you. Man is a beast that cannot be trained but today science puts at our disposal the means to destroy a people physically and psychologically and we have the technical equipment to scatter whole peoples throughout the world and thereby disintegrate them. Negotiated peace is one of the lies of liberalism and history has proven it to be an impossibility.

"We don't need peace in Europe. What we need is German domination over Europe. That is the true road to peace! There must be only one armed nation and we are that nation. Then the other peoples can go about their business under the protection of the German sword. If you compel a people for fifty years to stick at humble tasks and remove every possibility and every memory of self-defense and the use of arms, then it acquires the habits and the way of thought of a slave. Germans are the warrior caste of Europe. The other peoples are Europe's worker caste."

Dr. Strasser is now in Canada heading a free German movement.

Really Busy Place - - -

The cannery managers arriving. The trolling and halibut fishing is getting into full swing. The dry dock is operating. The military activities all tend to make Prince Rupert one of the busiest places on the coast. This means that some people will have income taxes to pay, a pleasure they have not enjoyed for some years past.

Election Tomorrow - - -

Premier Bracken's union government in Manitoba is sure to be elected tomorrow. Already they have sixteen members chosen by acclamation and for the remaining thirty-nine seats only nineteen are opposed by candidates not in accord with the government's policy. The main platform of the government is successful prosecution of the war and the adoption of the Sirois report. Manitoba stands to gain more than any other province from legislation based on the report, it is natural that it should be favored by that province.

Man in the Moon

Once more it seems as if the British Navy will be needed. It will be necessary to pick up the British army now in Greece and take it to some other point where it may be useful in killing Germans and all the time it must be watching that Germans do not get across to Tripoli.

Well, the city looks cleaner this morning and by the end of the week should be doubly clean.

Out with the rake
Out with the shovel
Clean up the mansion
Clean up the hotel.
Dig up the garden
Plant and hoe it
That is the way that
The busy men do it.

Sorry that verse does not rhyme but it is like some other faulty things. It looks all right.

Once upon a time Victoria had a citizen who, finding himself with little to do and plenty of time in which to do it, decided to ask the city to elect him to the city council. They did that and Alderman Andre did pretty good work there. Then, finding himself without a seat at the council board, he took to writing verse. Here is one of his latest:

If Hitler knew how he was hated,
He would not crow or be elated.
He would prepare to meet his fate,
For even now he may be late.
When he decides to visit the Isle
Which we all love, each, inch, each mille,

A million men from there will rise
And give von Hitler a surprise,
And thus will end a madman's dream.

It's not so strange as it may seem,
For better men have tried this game,
But the result is always the same.

Ken Dakin Is Given Party

Pleasant Surprise On Occasion of Birthday Saturday Evening

On Saturday evening Ken Dakin was very pleasantly surprised when a number of friends gathered at the home of Miss Kay Wason, Fifth Avenue East, to help him celebrate his twenty-first birthday. Games, contests and community singing were enjoyed and a novel feature was the taking of indoor pictures.

After delicious refreshments were served at midnight by the hostess, Capt. R. C. H. Durnford proposed a toast to the guest of honor and on behalf of those in attendance presented him with a beautiful fountain pen. In humorous vein the Captain wished the guest of honor continued success and happiness.

The appearance of a lighted birthday cake, contributed by Mrs. E. P. Jenner, climaxed a succession of surprises.

Those present were the Misses Margaret Armstrong, Isabelle Connerly, Yvonne Hincks, Eileen Hamilton, Phyllis Hamblin and Kay Wason, and Ernie Brown, Capt. R. C. H. Durnford, Art De Yaeger, Ronnie Clavering, Harold Ivarson, Gordon Crane and Ken Harding.

Dividends In Sweden

Maintained By Banks For 1940, Despite Reduced Profits

STOCKHOLM, April 21: (CP)—Dividends of neutral Sweden's Commercial banks have been maintained though net profits generally have been somewhat reduced owing to increased taxation in Sweden's effort to stiffen its bulwarks against possible aggression from warring neighbors.

An organization representing 99 percent of the turnover of Sweden's commercial banking companies reports a total net profit for 1940 of 39,000,000 kr. ($10,335,000) as against 42,400,000 kr. ($11,024,000) for 1939, and according to the proposals of the directors, altogether 36,200,000 kr. ($9,312,000) will be used for dividend payments, or the same amount as for 1939.

Seventeen banking companies report total tax reservations of 24,300,000 kr. ($6,318,000) as against 17,500,000 kr. ($2,550,000) for the preceding year, an increase of about 40 percent.

The report of the Swedish Riksbank at the end of February showed the gold holdings of the bank further increased by 22,000,000 kr. to 716,000,000 kr. ($186,160,000) during the month in question, while the foreign exchange holdings showed a corresponding reduction to 747,000,000 kr. ($194,220,000). The gold and foreign exchange reserves of the Swedish Riksbank thus showed an unchanged combined value of 1,463,000,000 kr. ($380,380,000).

Kitwanga Holds Easter Services

Good Friday And Easter Sunday Are Suitably Celebrated In Interior Village

KITWANGA, April 21:—Special services on Good Friday and Sunday were held to mark the Easter festival in Kitwanga, there being numerous visitors in the village to take part in the proceedings.

On Good Friday a brief service was held in St. Paul's Anglican Church under the direction of J. Hayhurst, the missionary in charge, who preached an interesting sermon on the subject of the Crucifixion. In the evening a service at the Church Army Hall was in charge of Harold Sinclair, the sermon being by James Ryan. The choir of St. Paul's Church rendered the anthem "Alas and Did My Saviour Bleed?" conducted by the choir leader, Edward Taft with Eddie Benson as organist. The testimony service was conducted by Edward Taft. The hall was crowded.

On Easter morning at daybreak the Church Army Sisters paraded throughout the village singing "He Arose from the Grave." A beautiful morning service was conducted by Mr. Hayhurst, the church having been decorated by the Woman's Auxiliary. The choir, conducted by Edward Taft, sang "Christ Our

The women of Klemtu, under leadership of Louisa Hall, arranged a basket social recently to raise money for payments on the new piano. A total of $45 was realized. After the sale of baskets, games and dancing brought the evening to an enjoyable close.

Passover. In the evening the Church Hall, decorated by the Church Army Sisters, was the scene of the service under the direction of Capt. George H. Moore. The choir rendered beautiful anthems and Harold and Albert Sinclair sang an acceptable chorus accompanied by guitar.

RECORD FOR TIE MAKING

Oscar Engman of Smithers Has Hewn Over 100,000 Pieces Since Starting Work

SMITHERS, April 21.—Oscar Engman of Smithers has just finished his tie-making for the season and, in doing so, thinks he has established some kind of a record for all of Canada for when he finished his season's work he had made a total 100,000 ties since he first started this work a good many years ago.

Engman made his first ties in Alberta before coming to British Columbia to live and every winter since he has been in this province he has made his quota of ties—sometimes quite a lot, sometimes not so many but he has kept count of all of them and he doubts if there is any man in Canada that has exceeded his total count.

Fifty ties a day used to be his regular day's work but, with less demand for hewn ties and with the passing of time, he finds that he can get his usual winter's work done quite easily by turning out just half that number.

The hand made ties that Oscar has turned out would lay quite a few miles of railway track.

KLEMTU IS IMPROVED

Annual Seasonal Work in Village Down Coast Carried Out Under Direction of Council

KLEMTU, April 21.—The Klemtu village council has just completed the annual job of cleaning up the town and making necessary seasonal improvements. Each man of the village put in three days' free labor to repair sidewalks and floats and clear away brush. The women of the village served all the workers with dinners and suppers at the home of Peter Starr with Louisa Hall in charge. Lemonade and cake were also served to the men while they worked. The total value of the work done, computed on the basis of $3 per day for each man, was $290. The council expended $22 for tools, nails and equipment. Donations were received from the people of the village to the amount of $37 to provide for meals, these donations including groceries, flour, potatoes, fish eggs, saltfish and home cooking as well as cash.

The Klemtu council for the year consists of Philip Brown, chief councillor; Andrew Robinson, assistant chief councillor; Arthur Neasloss, chairman of council; Thomas Brown, secretary; James W. Robinson, treasurer, and Stuart Sandy, chief constable.

SMITHERS

The local fire department was called but at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon for a small blaze at the office building of Len Evans. A grass fire that had been burning around the place got under the building and it was necessary to cut a hole through the floor before it could be put out.

A small aeroplane travelling from the north to Edmonton for overhauling developed engine trouble enroute and came down Thursday afternoon on the local landing field. After making temporary repairs the plane took off again Friday morning to resume the journey.

Mr. George Orchard, who has been a resident of Smithers for many years, recently sold his house here and has gone to California to live. Mr. Orchard carried on his trade as house painter here for many years but for the past few years has been janitor at the Smithers High School. Mrs. Orchard has been in California for the past few months and has been seriously ill.

A new $4000 x-ray arrived in Smithers last week and will soon be installed in the Bulkley Valley District Hospital which will bring this institution right up to date in this work. The x-ray which has been in use here for the past ten years was a good machine when it was purchased at that time but the new machine is an improved and up to date x-ray and should give good service for many years to come.

Claude Dohler of Smithers, who has spent the winter mining at Atlin, arrived home from the north Thursday morning. He expects to resume his farming operations here.

NEW HAZELTON

J. R. Wookey of Klipox is making satisfactory progress in the Wrinch Memorial Hospital where an operation was performed at the first of last week.

Sergeant and Mrs. Brunson of the Salvation Army at Hazelton have been advised that they are to be moved to another field on May 1.

A successful tea and sale of home cooking, candy and flowers was held by the Ladies' Aid of the New Hazelton United Church.

E. T. Kenney of Terrace, M. L. A. for Skeena, was a recent visitor to his constituents here. He found the roads in none too good shape.

H. A. Dodd of Usk is a patient in the Wrinch Memorial Hospital.

De Luxe Shelter

Wealthy Widow Buils Home Out For $106,000 Built Used It

TORQUAY, Eng., April 21.—This Devonshire woman, popular peace-time housewife, claims it has "the finest" shelter in Britain. It was a cost of $106,800 in the mansions for Mrs. Elizabeth Rowcroft, 81-year-old widow. But Mrs. Rowcroft died ever using it. It will prove to be a home in grounds given by the town of Torquay to the town.

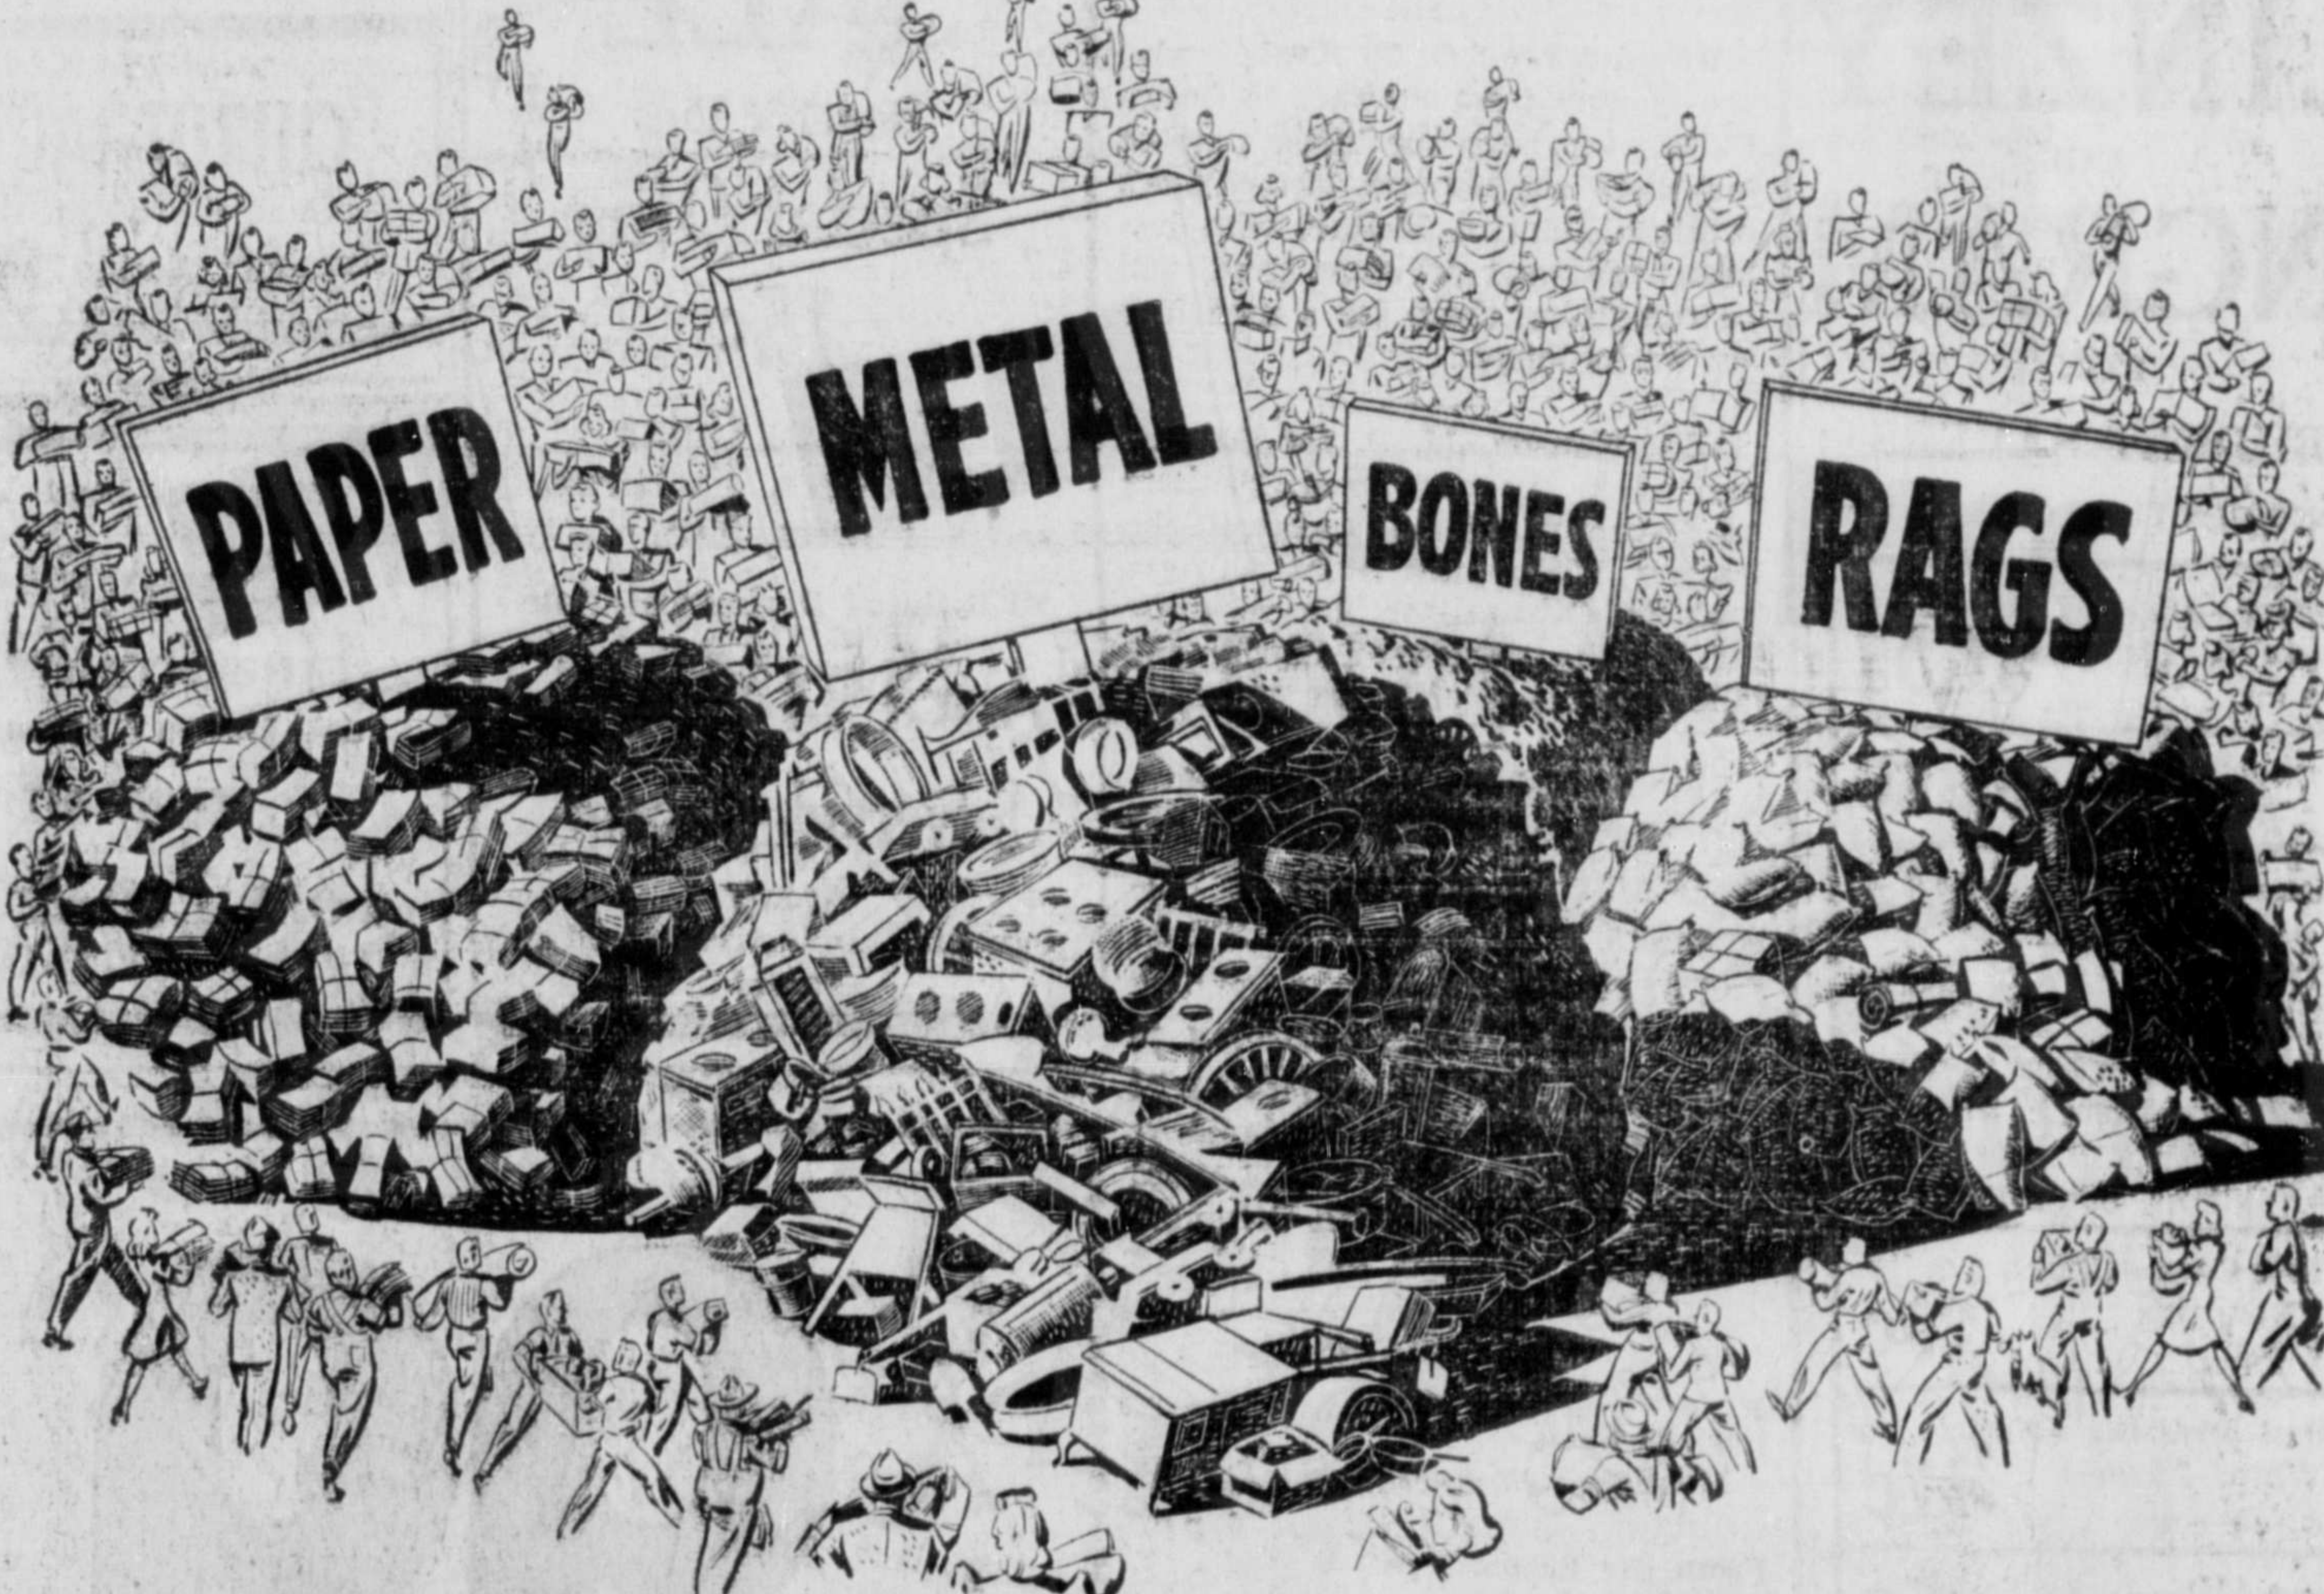

When Torquay had a maning the invalid owner her house with a Bible in her hand. She told her servants: "I'm afraid, I won't go down. She ordered a bomb-proof shelter built in 1932 before war broke out. It was more than 30 feet below the ground level, made of steel, concrete and bags of sand and layer of earth.

It is reached by a tunnel which gives access to a corridor with rooms on both sides. Shaded lights and brass make it look like part of a hotel.

A comfortable furnished room, made to Mrs. Rowcroft's sign, has a plaque above the door: "Angels are welcome overhead. Sleep sweetly. Goodnight."

Adjoining the bedroom is a furnished sitting room and a room. Across the corridor are two rooms and a kitchen. The owner has a private electric supply, own telephone and an electric fan for the air supply.

HOUSEHOLDERS! THESE ARE YOUR WAR WEAPONS

Save them, Give them, and help WIN THIS WAR

We cannot all march into battle—but we can march into the attics, the cellars and store-away places in our homes.

There are war weapons in these places—and in your household waste, which can be turned into a valuable contribution to Canada's war production and into funds for war auxiliary services.

Many local volunteer organizations have already completed plans for a Salvage Campaign in their districts. More will follow. Quickly, we hope, all Canada will be organized to "clean out and clean up on Hitler!"

Every day of every week until this war is won, every scrap of material which can be profitably salvaged in the area in which you live must be saved, collected and turned into war production material and money.

A careful study and survey is being made throughout Canada by this Department as to the type and class of salvage which will realize the greatest return in your community. If this information is not now in the hands of your local Salvage Committee or your Municipal Council, have them communicate with the Supervisor, National Salvage Campaign, New Supreme Court Building, Ottawa.

EVERY SCRAP COUNTS

- Put Them Out Carefully
- They Will Be Collected
- They Will Be Used

The complete facilities of the Department are at the disposal of local community organizations to aid in making their Salvage Campaigns a success.

When the Campaign starts in your community, we ask that you give it your unqualified support.

NAZIS ARE KEPT HIGH IN WALES

Casualties at Cardiff Low Through Careful Planning and Strong Defences

By DOUGLAS AMARON (Canadian Press Staff Writer)

CARDIFF, Wales, April 19: (C) —Greatest coal exporting port in the world and since the war a major supplier of Britain's importing gate to the western hemisphere, Cardiff is a natural target for German bombers.

Enemy planes first crossed the Bristol Channel to attack the Welsh city in June, 1940, and since then the presence of raiders has been signalled hundreds of times. Bombs were not allowed to drop on Cardiff shares place with other British ports in the front line of air warfare.

It was not until this year, however, that Cardiff entered the category of "blitzed" cities. Such a thing as there was last year when a comparatively minor raid and damage was insignificant compared with what some other British cities suffered.

The first intense raid came in January and up to the present has caused more casualties than any other single attack. Although damage was less than in the fire attack March 3.

Deaths from all Cardiff's bombings, however, have been fewer than one night's toll in some of the early raids on London. Lessons learned from other towns, caution and luck combined to keep the casualty list low.

The novelty of air raids has worn off and people keep under cover, said a Royal Air Force command in Cardiff through all its attacks. "At first there used to be a crowd in the streets watching shells burst in the sky but people aren't so curious now."

Shelters at Home
Surface shelters are conveniently placed throughout the city but many residents prefer to stay at home among them Mayor Charles McKele who believes a "helmet" under the stairs as safe a place as any. To support his belief he held a direct hit on an Anderson shelter that killed eight occupants while the same number of people sheltering under the stairway of their homes were unscathed when a bomb landed on the house.

Cardiff in many ways resembles parts of London after the first few nights of heavy bombing there. It is possible to walk for blocks without seeing more than a shattered window and houses flattened to the ground are still a magnet for sight-seers.

Such heaps of debris can be found in every district but the nearest thing I saw to mangled destruction was a street of workman's little houses, many shattered beyond repair and scores more with windows and roofs blasted open.

Superficial damage is repaired quickly for Cardiff officials try to get people back to their homes as soon as possible. Services of construction companies are pooled and it is sometimes only a matter of hours before windows are boarded up and roofs patched.

Anti-Aircraft Effective
Effective anti-aircraft defence is one reason why damage has not been more extensive. Cardiff's guns, which put up a better show than any I heard in seven months in London, are credited with keeping planes well above 20,000 feet and many that ventured lower crashed into Bristol Channel, victims of deadly accurate fire.

If damage to military objectives has been slight and damage to civilian property great it is partly because of the great ground defences. Germans, Mayor McKele said, cannot find their targets from such a height but drop bombs none the less and civilians have to pay the price.

I arrived here the evening after the fiercest fire raid any city outside London has experienced. Officials said 140 blazes started but there were no flames to guide raiders when they returned the next night. Despite the intensity of the attack, services functioned almost normally. I travelled in trains from Cardiff's two main stations, rode buses and trams, passed stores, theatres and hotels crowded with people, drank water from a tap and read newspapers by electric light in front of a lighted gas fire.

There naturally were inconveniences. A main street was roped off because of delayed action bombs but Royal Engineers were removing them, cheered by shop owners who soon got back to their premises. In other places direct hits by high explosive bombs or danger from debris falling from burned-out buildings kept streets closed but diversion signs guided pedestrian and motorists around the areas.

The people of Cardiff stood up to their ordeal with courage typical of Britain's civilians. "I don't think the people of London or anywhere else are taking it better than we," said Mayor McKele.

RANGERS WINNERS

Defeated Headquarters By Score Of Five To One In Game Saturday Afternoon

Saturday afternoon on Acropolis Hill the Rocky Mountain Rangers came up from behind to defeat the Defence Headquarters squad in a soccer match 5 to 1.

In the first half Headquarters held the Rangers scoreless, scoring one goal themselves when Davies put a powerful kick past goalie Scott.

For a time during the second half the Headquarters boys still managed to hold off the Rangers but the latter had the advantage of a favorable wind, downhill slope and the sun at their backs. Finally, the Headquarters defence broke down under the consistent smashing attack of the Ranger's forward line and the Rangers then had little difficulty in piling up five goals. The scorers were fast-moving Lieut. Heskett, who, playing centre forward, made three goals, Lawley, one goal, and Handley one goal.

From the look of the score sheet it seems that the Signals have the best chance to take the Commadore Cafe Cup. However, the deciding game will be next Wednesday when the Signals again meet the Rangers. On their first meeting the Signals defeated the Rangers 3-1 but, according to the Rangers, this will not happen on Wednesday.

The standing to date:

Signals 3 0 0 15
Rangers 2 1 0 11 more.

Velvets of the City Senior League defeated Rocky Mountain Rangers by a score of 4 to nothing in an exhibition football game yesterday afternoon at Acropolis Hill grounds. On behalf of the Rangers, it was said that they did not field their first string team which is being conserved for a crucial army league game this week. However, it was a well contested game which proved very interesting for quite a good-sized crowd of soccer fans. It was the first appearance of the season of a city league team. Half time score was three to nothing for Velvets. Jim Wilson refereed.

WHEN BOMBS BURST

—in Britain, when they blast Germany's invasion ports and hammer at Berlin, The Canadian Press brings the story to its member newspaper readers through an eight-man staff living and working in the heart of war-torn London.

Through their personal experiences, through the eyes of returning R.A.F. bomber pilots, and with the aid of reports of The CP's great ally, The Associated Press, these young Canadians paint for their countrymen a daily picture of the havoc that war is bringing to Europe and the heroism of a nation "on guard and in the line."

Bombed from their homes and their office, they have carried on a service since the war's start that was not halted even when The CP London office was destroyed by fire last Dec. 29. Here you meet three of them.

D. E. BURRITT.
Who heard bombs thud and Nazi planes roar overhead as he lay helpless in a London hospital. Recovered, he was bounced out of bed a few days later when bombs damaged his London apartment. A veteran at 33, Burritt has been with CP 17 years, has worked in half a dozen Canadian cities.

LOUIS V. HUNTER, recently returned to London after spending two weeks aboard a Canadian destroyer to write of the part Canadian sailors are playing in the Battle of the Atlantic. Hunter, 27, has had several narrow escapes in bombing raids, one when he was caught in the third-floor CP office as bombs straddled the building.

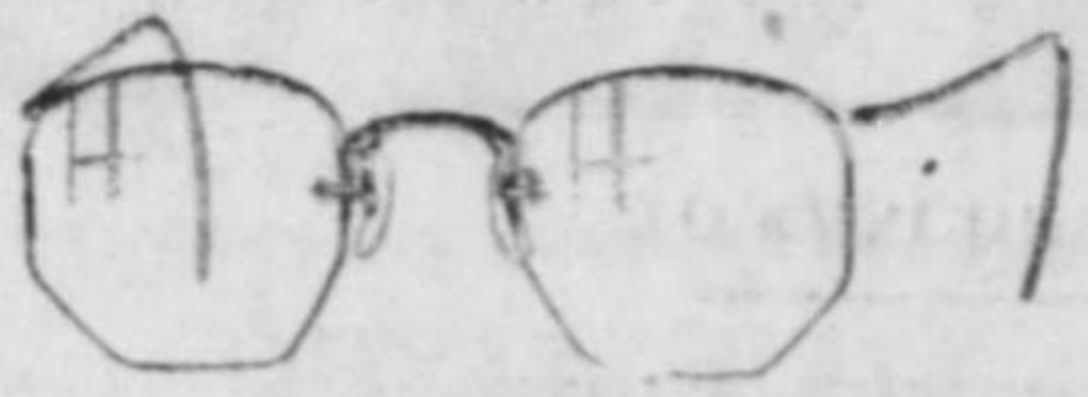

DOUGLAS AMARON.
Who will move into action as an additional War Correspondent with the Canadian Corps should Hitler invade England. Amaron, 26, arrived in England as the Nazi bombing attacks were beginning last summer, has visited several hard-hit British cities to survey the damage and cable factual reports.

These and five other Canadians — Sam Robertson, Harold Fair, Pat Usher, Ross Munro and Foster Barclay — combine their efforts to bring CP member newspapers in Canada a vivid, accurate report of life in Britain today. A direct London-New York leased cable speeds their spot news stories to Canadian newspapers in a matter of minutes; trans-Atlantic airplanes bring their background articles to complete the most comprehensive coverage of Britain ever provided by a Canadian news service.

UNITED IN MARRIAGE

Miss Elsie Murvold Becomes Bride Of Bombardier Robert Houston

A beautiful marriage of much local interest, the contracting couple being among the best known and most popular young folk of Prince Rupert, took place last Friday evening at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Rev. J. H. Myrwang officiating, when Miss Elsie Murvold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Murvold, became the bride of Bombardier Robert Houston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Houston.

The church was handsomely decorated for the occasion and presented an attractive setting for the nuptial rites which were performed before a congregation consisting of many friends of the bride and groom and their families.

The bride's dress was of heavy white satin with three-quarter length veil trimmed with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of Easter lilies.

The bridesmaids were Miss Edith Murvold, in pale blue silk net and shoulder length veil, and Miss Violet Wick, in pale pink silk net. Both bridesmaids carried bouquets of carnations.

Arthur Murray was groomsman. During the signing of the register, Mrs. Myrwang sang a beautiful wedding hymn. Peter Lien was organist and accompanist.

Mrs. Murvold, mother of the bride, wore a gown of blue with white accessories. Mr. Houston wore black with white accessories. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Boston Cafe where, under an arch of wedding bells, the happy couple received the congratulations and best wishes of 150 guests.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. J. H. Myrwang with the groom responding, Victor Houston proposed the toast to the bridesmaids with Arthur Murray responding.

Lieut. Walter Johnson brought greetings from the 102nd Battery, Mrs. O. Wick sang "I Love You Truly."

The toastmaster and master of ceremonies was Lance Bombardier Pat Kings who also entertained with comic monologues.

A handsome wedding cake was duly cut by the bride and buffet refreshments were served.

Dancing was enjoyed with music by Mike Colussi's Orchestra. Many beautiful gifts testified to the esteem and popularity in which the bride and groom are held by numerous friends.

Bombardier and Mrs. Houston have resided in Prince Rupert since very early childhood. The groom, serving with the 102nd Heavy Battery, Royal Canadian Artillery, is prominent in athletic circles as star guard for the champion Savoy basketball team.

'GONE WITH WIND' BACK AT CAPITOL

Those who missed the spectacular and much-discussed picture "Gone With the Wind" in the original showing last year will now have another opportunity of seeing the complete full-length version which is coming back to the Capitol Theatre here for four days commencing today. There will be two showings daily—one in the afternoon and one in the evening.

No fictional characterization of modern times has attracted so much interest either in book or on screen as has "Gone With the Wind" and there is every reason to believe that the interest in the second showing will be quite as keen as was that in the first. The local theatre management has made its plans with that end in view.

The film is, of course, entirely in technicolor and is replete with thrills and drama, the horrors of war and bloodshed being depicted as well as violent and poignant love scenes.

The cast is so well known to all those following pictures that it scarcely seems necessary to repeat the galaxy of great names including Clark Gable, Vivien Leigh, Leslie Howard, Olivia de Havilland, Thomas Mitchell, Hattie McDaniel, Ann Rutherford, Barbara O'Neil, Opa Munson, Laura Hope Crews, Harry Davenport, Carroll Nye and Allie Rhett.

FULL LENGTH - NOTHING CUT BUT THE PRICE!

To you—with every surging thrill intact—roars the spectacular romance that has been voted the greatest picture ever made! For those who haven't seen it! For those who want to see it again! This is your opportunity—see it now!

PASSING OF LOCAL GIRL

Mrs. Ernest Fontaine, Former Miss Annie Kach, Dies In Vancouver

Many friends will learn with regret of the death which occurred at the Vancouver General Hospital on Saturday at noon of Mrs. Ernest Fontaine, the former Miss Annie Kach and a well known Prince Rupert-born girl. Mrs. Fontaine, who had been seriously ill a few years ago and went to Tranquille Sanitarium at that time, had returned here and seemed to be quite well again but last fall she fell ill again and left here December 26 for Vancouver. Her condition became gradually worse and two weeks ago her husband, father, John Kach and sister, Mrs. Peter Gamula, were called south. The funeral is taking place in Vancouver today. Mrs. Fontaine was born in Prince Rupert twenty-nine years ago. For some years she was a popular member of the Boston Cafe staff. She was a member of St. Andrew's American Church.
