Russo-German War Is Still Raging

PERVERSE POLES INSPIRE WONDER OF NAZI EDITOR

Faith Withstands Progress of War He Writes As Country's Nationals Go Heavy on Sabotage.

By HAROLD J. FAIR Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Sept. 25: (CP)—Polish resistance to the Nazi conquerors flares despite torture, ruthless repression and the horrors of the concentration camp, according to tell-tale despatches in German newspapers. Long before the Russian war could have inspired hope in the Poles and in the face of Allied set-backs in the Balkans, the people behaved in such a "perverse" manner that the Ostdeutscher Beobachter was forced to comment last May 11 that "their faith withstands even the facts of the progress of the war so far."

HAROLD FAIR

Despatches from Stockholm asserted that German officials in the puppet "General Government" of Poland received strict orders to suppress all news of strikes, sabotage and underground warfare on the part of the Poles. Other neutral sources reported invoices are constantly made out incorrectly by Polish clerks to create confusion. For instance a whole consignment of machinery for Gdynia turned up in Breslau.

Firebug Patriots Cases of incendiarism have been reported in storage centres for Polish grain awaiting transport to Germany. Moreover, the number of unexplained fires on former Polish territory and reported in such Nazi papers as the Ostdeutscher Beobachter and the Thorneer, Erenheit is "quite extraordinary." The Beobachter referred May 12 to a big trial of Polish saboteurs who caused 53 railway carriages to be put out of action. Two of the "culprits" were sentenced to death for stealing window straps.

The same paper reported a week later a Pole received a six-year prison term for sawing through a military telephone post. In June, Roosevelt's personal ambassador it said a special court at Poznan condemned three Poles to sentences varying from eight to 15 years for removing the driving belts from a cement and lime factory plant causing a tie-up of several days.

Sporadic guerilla warfare apparently has not ceased because the press abounds in references to clashes with "armed bandits." The Kitzmannstadter Zeitung of May 17 reported two people were sentenced to death for murdering a constable and "a man of violence and a wrecker" was captured at Grudziadz.

Militant Resistance The most remarkable case of active resistance was revealed at the court martial of 24 Poles at Poznan for forming what the papers described as "a secret military organization as early as the end of 1939." A number of sudden deaths of storm troopers due to "enemy action" were also reported.

Meanwhile, there is good reason to believe the existence of bootleg Polish papers, many of them existing largely to spread British Broadcasting Corporation news. Occasionally the Gestapo finds a printing press or radio hidden in the woods. The Ostdeutscher Beobachter reported in July that three Poles were sentenced to seven years imprisonment for organizing listening to enemy broadcasts with a hidden receiver and for distributing news sheets.

U. S. Neutrality— WILL GIVE PRESIDENT AUTHORITY

Congress Expected To Fail In Line With Administration Policy In Regard To Arming Ships

CALLS FOR REPEAL WASHINGTON, D.C., Sept. 25: (CP)—Senator McKellar of Tennessee, introduced in the Senate today a resolution to repeal the Neutrality Act which as it now stands bars arming of United States merchants and prevents them from entering combat zones. The idea of the repeal is to remove these restrictions.

Democratic leaders expect that prompt congressional approval will be given any request that may be made by President Franklin D. Roosevelt for authority to arm United States ships carrying war supplies to the fighting democracies. Within ten or fourteen days it is expected the President will transmit a message to Congress with a request along these lines. It is believed that the administration favors revision if not outright repeal of the neutrality act whereby not only would the arming of United States merchant vessels be permitted but they would also be allowed to enter actual combat zones.

Secretary of the Navy Frank Knox and Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson are in favor of outright repeal of the neutrality act. Secretary of State Cordell Hull favors giving President Roosevelt full authority to send United States merchant vessels anywhere he deems advisable.

RESTRICT GASOLINE

Thousands of Autos Laid Up As Result of Gas Restrictions in Southern Commonwealth.

OTTAWA, Sept. 25: (CP)— Stringent gasoline rationing in Australia has reduced the value of automobiles to their owners and "many have decided to refrain from taking out registration for the coming year." R. P. Bower, assistant Canadian trade commissioner in Sydney, reported to Ottawa.

It is estimated that 82,000 vehicles in New South Wales alone will be laid up for this season, resulting in the loss of approximately $4,000,000 in state revenue, partly from decreased registration fees and partly from smaller returns from the petrol tax," Mr. Bower said.

In addition, owners still driving motor cars are demanding reduced insurance premiums because of the smaller number of vehicles on the road.

Effective July 1, private users of motor cars in Australia were restricted to 1,000 miles of driving a year. No gasoline is available now for "drive-yourself" cars or private pleasure boats.

Licences for commercial vehicles and industrial and farm machinery were reduced by 10 per cent at the same time. Further restrictions went into effect Aug. 1. Licences for farm vehicles were reduced by half and commercial vehicles by two-fifths. Gasoline ration for taxis and private-hire vehicles was set at 40 per cent and for tourist vehicles at 25 per cent of their original ration. Buses and service cars were allowed 85 per cent and farm and industrial machinery 50 per cent of their previous allowances.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25:— According to a Reuter's dispatch from Shanghai, 9 school teachers have arrived there from Turkey over the trans-Siberian railway reporting that they saw trainload after trainload of Russian soldiers being rushed to the Mongolian and Manchoukuan borders, evidently to reinforce large troop concentrations already there.

Twenty Russian warships are reported to have arrived at Vladivostok to reinforce the Soviet fleet already at that important Pacific port.

CONTEST IN PR. RUPERT

Acclamation for Premier T. D. Pattullo Now Appears to Be Unlikely.

There had been suggestions that Premier T. D. Pattullo might have been given an acclamation in his home riding of Prince Rupert at the forthcoming provincial election, but the fact that nomination papers have been taken out by the Commonwealth Co-operation Federation would indicate that this is not to be the case. Papers have been taken out both by the Liberals and the C.C.F., whose candidate is expected to be George Weaver of Vancouver. The papers have not yet been filed in either case. So far no interest appears to be taken by the Conservatives in the contest here.

NEW VOICE IN SOVIET

"Old Revolutionist" Emerges to Talk for Vast Union of Republics.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25: (CP)— A new voice in Soviet affairs now sounds in Moscow as the official spokesman of Socialist Soviet Republics.

S. A. Lozovsky, vice commissar for foreign affairs, hitherto almost unknown to the rest of the world, now acts for the Soviets in relaying official communiques and information on the daily developments in the war between Nazi and Soviet armies.

Lozovsky's emergence reveals him as one of the "old revolutionists" who, for 40 years, has played an important if behind-the-scenes role in Russia, chiefly in the revolutionary labor movement. For years he has been a writer and speaker on international and revolutionary movements, with particular emphasis on labor problems in South America, the Far East and Spain.

Observers here consider it significant that he is the first important official of the commissariat of foreign affairs who has openly played a leading role in international revolutionary organizations abroad as well as in Russia. From time to time he has been heard of in the United States, China, Peru or Spain.

He was born Solomon Abranovich Dridzo in 1878, the son of poor Jewish parents, and in his youth worked in a meat market. Several times he underwent arrest and exile.

After the throne of the Czars tumbled in the World War, Lozovsky followed Lenin back to Russia, helped actively in the revolution, and became a prominent figure in the organization of workers in t oblaoru CP-de-I 1/4 lers into labor unions.

CLAIMS ARE DIVERGENT

Moscow Declares Soviet Forces Are Counter-Attacking Effectively—Nazis Threaten Dire Things.

Tide Swinging

Reds Declare Battle of Leningrad in Their Favor Today—London Not Quite So Optimistic.

LONDON, Sept. 25:—While Moscow reports Russian forces counter-attacking heavily and effectively with fierce fighting all along the entire front from Murmansk on the Arctic Ocean to Odessa on the Black Sea, important advances being made at some points, the Nazis in Berlin are forecasting that the greatest military disaster of all history will soon befall Soviet forces east of Kiev.

A Moscow statement last night asserted that Leningrad's defenders had recaptured three villages and a railway yard as a titanic battle went on.

German bombers hurled themselves against Moscow's outer defences last night but none got through. Berlin threatened that Leningrad was about to be subjected to the same ordeal as Warsaw suffered. It said that fighting was already under way from house to house in the streets of the city.

Another German claim was that eighteen Soviet ammunition trains had been destroyed by Nazi bombers near Kharkov, the next objective after Kiev.

The Germans were reported today to have launched their attack on the Crimean Peninsula with use of four divisions of crack mechanized forces.

The Red Army declared from Moscow today that the tide of the fierce Battle of Leningrad has begun to swing in its favor and reported counter-attacks against the German besiegers in great number and strength on several sectors. German reinforcements are constantly arriving, declared the army newspaper Red Star, but Red army fighters and armed Leningrad citizens are dealing blows in various directions.

British aid for the Russian armies is being rushed to the eastern front in a rapidly increasing tide, it was authoritatively reported today as dispatches painted a darkening outlook for the Red forces both at Leningrad and in the Crimea.

Reports in authoritative circles said the German attack on Crimea was developing by a force which may be anything up to four divisions.

With the Royal Air Force disclosed to be flying on the eastern front, a reliable source said British tanks may soon be in action with the Russians against the Germans.

ITALIANS TAKING IT

Transport Fleet Is Being Gradually Wiped Out by British Navy in the Mediterranean.

LONDON, Sept. 25: (CP)—British naval authorities declare that one out of every 5 Axis vessels endeavoring to cross the Mediterranean Sea from European side to North Africa is being sunk.

Fifty percent of the merchant fleet of Italy has been either sunk or damaged since Italy went into the war. So far this month alone 150,000 tons of Italian shipping has been sunk.

Fighting Side by Side . . .

For the past day or two Royal Air Force has been fighting with the Russians, all previous help to Russia being in the form of extra pressure on Germany from the west. Already a number of German planes have been shot down and, when a few more squadrons reach the Russian lines and get accustomed to the conditions, the topography and all the differences between flying there and on the British side, they should be a very great help to the Soviets.

Oil Controller Answers Critics . . .

The Canadian oil controller has answered his critics in an address before the Purchasing Agents' Association at Montreal who said in part: "Much has been said in the press during recent months concerning the temporary shutting of four Turner Valley wells. These wells were required to be shut in by the Petroleum and Natural Gas Conservation Board commencing early in June, the board claiming that their past production had considerably exceeded the allowables set by the board. This was an act absolutely of the Conservation Board and had nothing whatsoever to do with the oil control. At no time has the oil controller endeavored to interfere with the function of the Conservation Board except to ask the board to add quotas to the conservation allowables set by it in order that we can get the maximum of oil from the field without undue waste. Every barrel of oil that we can get from this field we will take and we can use."

Tax Sale Almost Disappearing . . .

An indication of what the condition of the city is like is seen in the almost total disappearance of the annual autumn tax sale this year. So far there are thirty lots remaining on the list but presumably the payment of the taxes would withdraw these or at any rate the owners might buy in the lots at the sale. Most people will want to keep their properties on a rising market. Yesterday while announcing that thirty lots were to be put up at tax sale next week we also told of more than thirty lots already reverted being acquired from the city for building purposes.

British Cost of Living . . .

Evidently due to the success in fighting the Battle of the Atlantic, the cost of living in Britain is decreasing. It is announced that the price of bread has been reduced a half penny a loaf and that the cost of fish is down. Quantities of bacon and canned fish have recently arrived there from Canada.

Naturally the British are reluctant about boasting of the winning of the Battle of the Atlantic, but there is no doubt now that they have decreased to a very large extent the risk of shipping goods from this continent to Britain.

Letter Box

Editor, Daily News:

I am a stranger in your city and do not know what makes the wheels go round. However, I always take an interest in my country or town, wherever I may be.

In regard to the Dominion situation and the street gossip, I have only to say I have not forgotten the last war and the Union government of that day. I admire King for having the "guts" to stand on his own feet and take the blame or credit of his actions instead of forming a union government for an alibi. I do not think everything he does is the best, but it is a big job and he has to depend on his assistants who are also human. I doubt if the "graft" if any, is equal to the last war, but there is certainly a large amount of inefficiency and waste. What can be expected of inexperienced men on a new job? I know of plenty of inefficiency in all our regular government departments which have been carrying on since Confederation and should be experienced by now. So what can one expect in a new department such as war, which is nothing but waste? Human nature being such as it is, it does not matter who is running things. It will be the same under any democratic form of government—and I fear under any other as well. One surely does not think that Hitler and his fellow bandits are not "getting theirs."

I was forcibly struck by some of the remarks by Mr. Pattullo Saturday night. One idea was—too bad for R. B. Bennett that he had not tried some of the things the B. C. government has done. Doubtless the Conservative party would not be on the outside looking in, as they are now and will likely remain there until they wake up to what it was that put Bennett out. The strange fact of it is, they tell you what a smart man Bennett was. I think he was rather dumb, getting by on inherited money. Besides, Canada certainly paid dearly for both the union and Bennett regime.

Three Killed By One Bomb

Friend of Local Man Gets Home From Honeymoon to Find Whole Family Wiped Out.

Arthur Brooksbank is in receipt of a letter from a friend in Belfast which tells that recently he arrived home from his honeymoon to find that, while he was away, the home had received a direct hit from a German bomb killing his mother, father and younger brother. Death was evidently instantaneous and they never knew what struck them.

The writer of the letter says that everybody there is very brave and "there is no doubt that Hitler has bitten off more than he can chew if he thinks he can beat us by bombing."

The letter states that in Belfast they have been short of nothing in the way of food. The only scarce thing just at the time is eggs. They are able to get about one a week. Otherwise there is no shortage of food.

Museum Association Elects Officers and Decides To Remove To New Site Soon

N. Mussallem Chosen President for the Year and Other Officers Elected—Fine Donation of Animal Heads Are Received.

The Prince Rupert Museum Association, at its annual meeting last night, elected officers for the year and decided to renovate the inside of the building recently given for the purpose by the Provincial Government and move into the building just as soon as it is ready. It also made an appeal to any and all who might have Indian curios, stuffed bird or animals or any articles of a similar nature that should be preserved to donate them to the museum so as to make the collection as complete as possible. Especially the board is anxious to obtain one or two totems to decorate the outside of the building and, if small enough, for interior decoration. Any so donating will have their names attached as a perpetual record of their munificence.

Another outstanding feature was the receipt of a gift from the Provincial Museum at Victoria of mounted heads of Bighorn sheep, mule deer, black tailed deer, caribou and wolf through the acting curator, Dr. G. Clifford Carl, who wrote to Dr. Neal Carter, saying also that a coast deer was available.

The officers for the year elected last night were:

Honorary president, Hon. T. D. Pattullo.

Honorary vice-president, Olof Hanson, M.P.

President, N. Mussallem.

Vice-president, Dr. Neal Carter.

Secretary, J. C. Gilker. Treasurer, Dr. J. T. Mandy.

Executive, W. E. Collison, R. C. St. Clair, Canon Rushbrook, E. P. Sidaway and H. F. Pullen.

Of these Mr. Collison, Mr. St. Clair and Dr. Carter were appointed a building committee to look after the renovating of the building.

Canon Rushbrook suggested that an effort be made to secure spec-

A proposal in regard to provision for the custodian to live at the back of the new hall was discussed and left for the custodian to make a more definite proposal and for the House committee to make a report.

It was reported that the big game heads coming from Victoria were already in the city and Dr. Mandy was deputed to have them removed to the new museum building.

It was reported that, after moving, there would be great need of showcases in which to care for the small and valuable collections. An appeal is made for any who have such cases to donate or lend them to the museum.

Twenty-Two Administrations.

Division on party lines was introduced in the provincial legislature of British Columbia in 1903. The province entered Confederation in 1871 and provincial administrations from that date to the present regime of Hon. T. D. Pattullo, who has announced a general election Oct. 21, follows:

Before party politics was introduced in 1903:

1. Hon. F. J. McCreight, Dec. 1871 to Dec. 23, 1872.
2. Hon. A. DeCosmos, Dec. 23, 1872 to Feb. 11, 1874.

KISS YOUR TIRED FEELING GOODBYE!

Peppless Many Suffer Low Blood Count—And Don't Know It.

The baffling thing about low blood count is that you can weigh about as much as you ever did—even look healthy and strong, yet—you can feel as if you had lead in your legs, dopey, tired and peppless. Low blood count means you haven't got enough red blood corpuscles. It is their vital job to carry life-giving oxygen from your lungs throughout your body. And just as it takes oxygen to explode gasoline in your car and make the power to turn the wheels, so you must have plenty of oxygen to explode the energy in your body and give you going power. Get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills today. They are world-noted for the help they give in increasing the number and strength of red corpuscles. Then with your blood count up, you'll feel like bounding up the stairs as if you were floating on air. Ask your druggist for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills today.

Some Liar

(A Series by Charlie Durham)

"Dat time I was superintendent of all telephone and telegraph in Washington and Oregon . . ."

There were six or eight of us foregathered in a little rustic store somewhere along the Skeena and the speaker was an old French-Canadian prospector, famous far and near for his fabrications. Of course, we all took his statements with large quantities of salt but, nevertheless, knowing him to be quite illiterate and without the slightest idea of the value of figures, we were flabbergasted to hear his claiming to have occupied such an important position. However, before we were quite recovered from our amazement, he, needing no encouragement, went on:

"I had nice girl down in some little town, I forget the name. We work late that night. I think I go to town after knock off to see my girl. So I go up on pole. High up I climb like cat. Dat time many years ago."

"How many do you think?"

"Well, I'm old man now. Maybe forty, fifty years ago. I go up pole. I speak on wire."

The storekeeper was inquisitive again and wanted to know how he could speak on the wire and did he carry an instrument up the pole.

"No, I don't need instrument. I'm superintendent. Everybody knows me. I speak into town to my girl. Send out car for me right away, I say."

The storekeeper breaks in again: "Hey, there were ho cars at that time. Not until many years afterwards if this happened, as you say, forty or fifty years ago."

"O yes, maybe no cars up here in the Skeena but lots in the States. I know the man who made them. Big officer in the war. General his name. General Motors. I know him well. Suppose you shut up. I kill time. Well,

CARLISLE, Eng., Sept. 25: (C)—Government taverns here are rationing customers to one pint of beer a night with an extra glass to regular customers—if surplus permits.

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Prince Rupert Hospital was held in the board rooms, with Mrs. E. S. Walton in the chair and a fair attendance of members. The president reported the purchase of two gatch beds, six bedside tables and four over-bed trays for the wards. An invitation from the American Hospital Association to attend a conference of hospital auxiliaries was declined with regret but it is hoped that at some future time the Prince Rupert auxiliary may be able to send a delegate to a conference.

"CHANGING" CHAMPION

Young, Father, Out Where Men Are Men. Quickly Makes Baby Comfortable.

THERMOPOLIS, Wyo., Sept. 25: (P) — Jim Satterfield can change a diaper in 22½ seconds, measured from the time his feet hit the cold floor at 2 a.m. of a cold and frosty morn until he leaps back into bed. Before dodging that as a commonplace of every-day living consider:

1. Jim has been a father only a couple of months, acquiring all his diaper-changing skill in that time.
2. He lives in Wyoming cow country where the chamber of commerce swears one-half of all male infants arrive wrapped in leather chaps.
3. Jim is six feet six inches tall, weighs 190 pounds and is a former football star whom you wouldn't expect to have the delicate touch necessary to accomplish this household chore in fast time.
4. Thermopolis townsfolk, eager to see that Jim gets recognition they believe is due him, claim he's the world champion diaper changer, men's division.

"If this isn't a world record it must be awfully close to one," says Mayor Frank M. Milek. "Jim's getting better all the time. If he can do this well in six weeks, just think how good he will be in a couple or more months. We're willing to back him against all comers, confident nobody can beat him."

It's Civic Pride

"As for me," says Satterfield who is a youthful public utilities executive, "I was raised in the cattle country where men don't usually boast of such housewifely accomplishments and so personally I'm not making any claims. "But my friends sort of appealed to my civic pride and so, for good old Thermopolis, I'm willing to meet all comers.

"On an average day and night I change about 15 diapers. Unless there is a special emergency I can do a neat job in not more than 45 seconds, using the four-square system that has become quite standard except among some ultra-modern parents. Late at night, when the room is cold, I occasionally cut this time in two. Satterfield is thinking of inventing some sort of an automatic diaper closure; a method that would do away with pins.

"No matter how good you are the baby is bound to kick at times and occasionally you will get stuck even though they do call them "safety pins," he says. "Also I think some sort of a zipper arrangement might reduce the changing time a few seconds."

SPORT CHAT

This is the story of a girl and a horse—a tiny 22-year old Washington, D. C. beauty named Margaret Cotter and a big bay hunter named Rocksie. At a recent horse show in Virginia, a girl and horse leaped six feet six inches into the air and, for the third time, set a new American record for women jumpers. In a trophy room at home, Peg Cotter and Rocksie keep the mementoes of their friendship—250 blue ribbons and enough silver trophies to back a $5,000 bill. Peg Cotter didn't want to be a horsewoman. She wanted to be a swimmer—an Olympic fancy diving champion. But her father horse-lover Joseph J. Cotter, prominent Washington lawyer, was determined that at least one of his four pretty daughters should be a horsewoman. Peg was the logical one but she didn't take to horses. Not until Mr. Cotter had a bright idea. He gave Peg a horse of her very own.

When 11-year old Peg climbed up on the back of that first pony, Smiling Thru, she gave up for all time those dreams of diving championships. Within a year the pair won their first trophy, a first prize for horsemanship. After that they piled up more than a hundred firsts until Smiling Thru went away to wherever stout ponies go when the last jump is over. Then Peg got another horse, Rocksie, a bay hunter. Hunters aren't meant to jump but you couldn't hold Rocksie on the ground. He had the spirit of Peg—asus and the heart of Traveller and the strength of Man-of-War. And Peg Cotter could ride him.

They met most of the best horses in the country and never had a defeat. In 1938, in the proudest moment of her life, Peg carried Rocksie over a six foot leap and broke the American women's record, then they upped the

The doctors said positively no more jumping—not ever. But one day last January Peg sneaked out and saddled Rocksie. Three days later they went to the President's Horse Show at Fort Myer, Virginia. They came home with three firsts and the championship. The old partnership was working better than ever. Now they have set a new record, Peg and Rocksie have only one idea—to break it.

PERJURY ALLEGED

Farmer From Francois Lake Undergoing Trial Here—Altered Receipt Alleged.

ACCUSED ON STAND
When Assize Court rose for the noon adjournment today the case of Rex vs. Behnke of Francois Lake, charged with perjury, was still proceeding. Accused himself was on the stand and was under cross-examination by W. O. Fulton, defence counsel. Behnke denied that any alterations had been made in a receipt after it had been signed by Herman Johnson, principal crown witness. Ralph Johnson and Sergeant Fred Bowd, provincial police, were also witnesses this morning.

Evidence in the case at the Supreme Court Assizes here in which William Frederick Behnke, Francois Lake farmer, is charged with perjury centred yesterday around an allegedly altered receipt covering a transaction in connection with the sale of a stack of hay. The principal witness for the crown was another Francois Lake farmer, Herman Johnson, who testified that he gave Behnke a receipt, written by Behnke but signed by himself (Johnson), for $64. This receipt turning up later with the amount, according to Johnson, raised to $154 without his knowledge.

This is the first criminal case to be heard at the Assize session which opened yesterday afternoon with Mr. Justice A. M. Manson officiating. W. O. Fulton is acting as crown counsel and C. F. McLean of Smithers is counsel for the defendant. The jury consists of W. R. McAfee, foreman, William Roy Sawyer (Ocean Falls), William J. Kennedy (Ocean Falls), Fred Riffow, Alfred Amred (New Hazelton), A. G. Bartlett, Roderick McRae, John Rennie (Stewart), Alex Russwurm (Stewart), Robert Webster (Premier), Ernest Norman Bree (Quick) and George R. Shenton.

According to the indictment, the perjury was committed by Behnke in swearing first that he, William Frederick Behnke, had purchased thirteen tons of hay at 500 cubic feet per ton of one Herman Johnson about the middle of February, 1941 whereas in truth and in fact he purchased only about 9 1/4 tons of hay from Johnson and, second, that he paid Johnson for the hay at the rate of $12 or $11.90 per ton and a total of $154 whereas in truth and fact Behnke paid for the said hay at $7 per ton for a total of $64 knowing such testimony to be false and intending to mislead the court.

D. 1941, I was appointed Administrator of the Estate of Severin O'Quinn, deceased, and all parties having claims against the said estate are hereby required to furnish me with the 22nd day of October, A. D. 1941, and all parties indebted to the estate are required to pay the amount of their indebtedness to me forthwith.

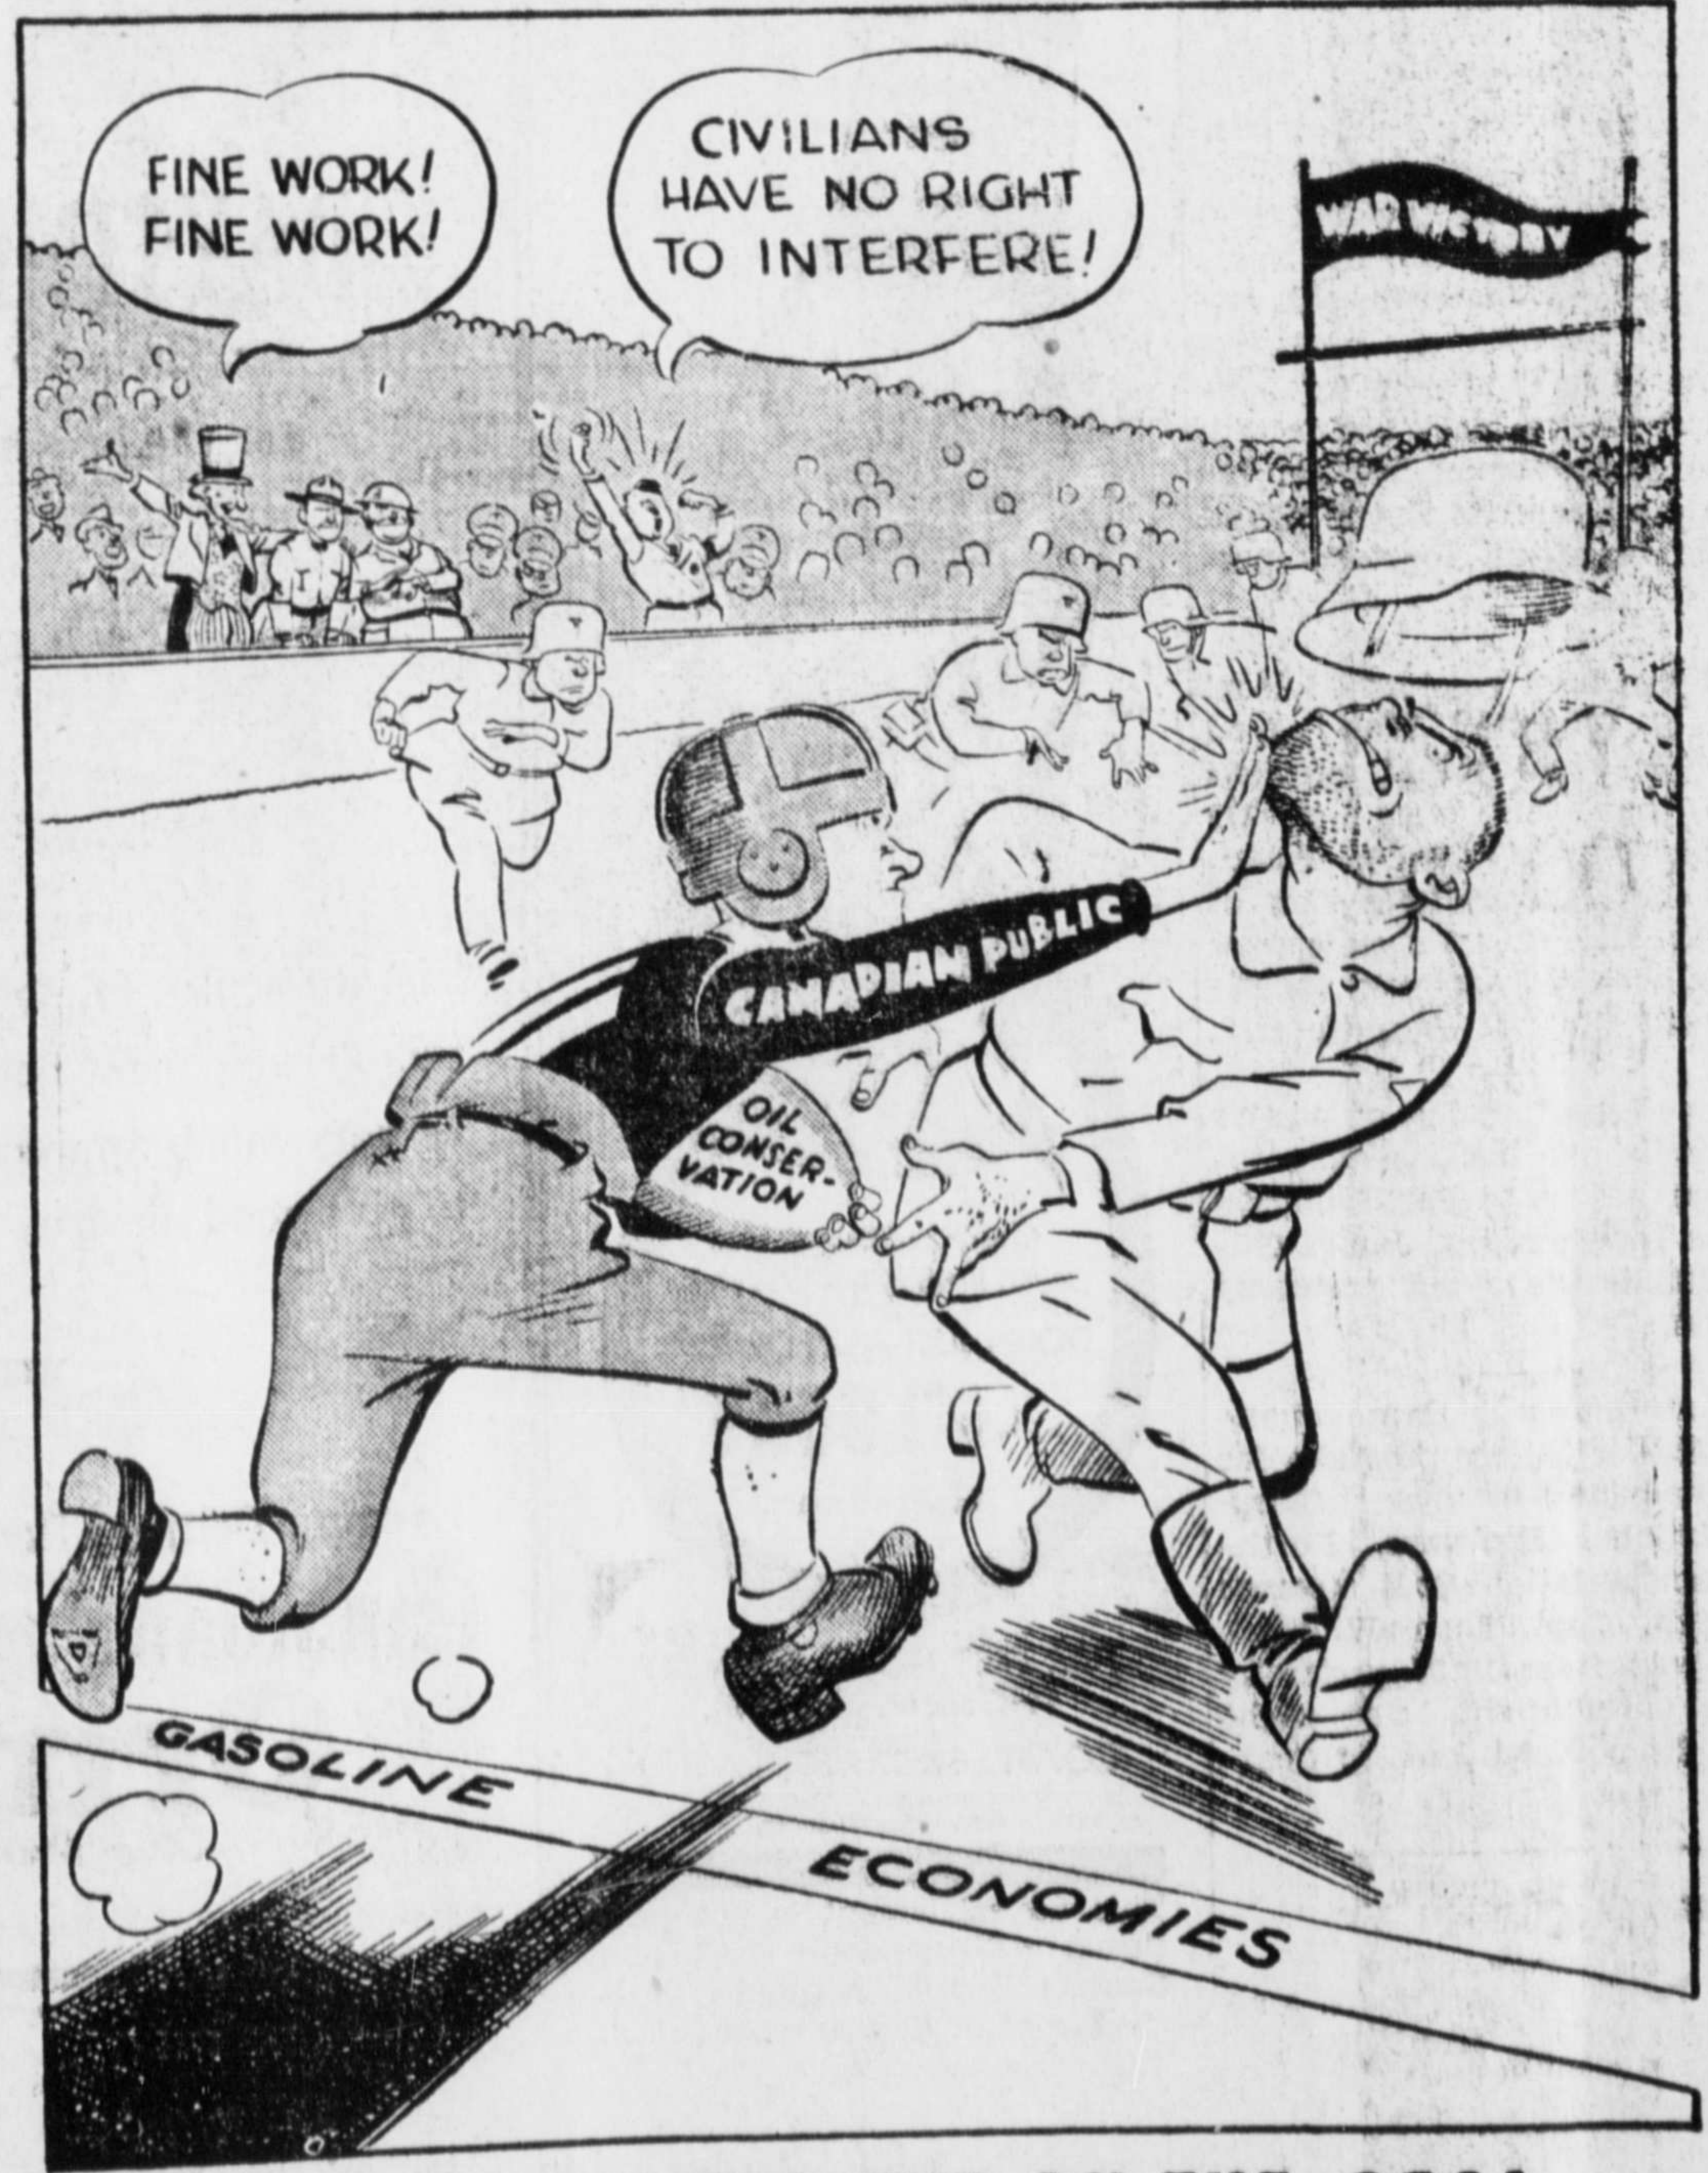

DATED at Prince Rupert, B. C. this 22nd day of September, A. D. 1941.
NORMAN A. WATT
Official Administrator
Prince Rupert, B. C.

rose yesterday afternoon to reconvene this morning, told of making the deal with Behnke for the sale of the stack on his (Johnson's) farm, $10 being paid down and the balance to be paid when the hay was measured. A week later witness went to the Behnke place where he received the check for $54 and signed a receipt written by Behnke for $64. The receipt was produced in court and witness declared that it was different than when he signed it. The amount was for $154 instead of $64 and another change had been made to make it read two stacks instead of one. Witness said he had not made the alterations. Behnke had paid him no money other than the first $10 to bind the deal and the check for $54.

Under cross-examination, Johnson denied that Behnke had paid him $90 in cash as well. When adjournment took place, Johnson was being asked if he had not said at the civil action that "I never looked at it very good," referring to the receipt.
David Lindsay Murray, another farmer witness, told of being present at the time when Behnke and Johnson had made the deal for the stack of hay this being when the $10 had been paid over. The price was to be $7 per ton. This witness was quite sure although he could not swear to it, was embodied in the first receipt for $10. In any case, it was a verbal, if not actually written, understanding. Only one stack of hay was involved in the deal.

Hubert Bronson Campbell, court registrar at Smithers, was a witness in regard to filing of documents. Behnke was released overnight on his own recognizance.

INDUSTRY ON COAST

Canadian Trade Agent Reports Situation in Pacific States.

OTTAWA, Sept. 25: (CP) — Aircraft, shipbuilding and other defence industries on the United States west coast face a serious shortage of skilled and semi-skilled labor despite a westward migration of workers during recent years. B. C. Butler, Canadian trade commissioner at Los Angeles, reported to Ottawa.
"Training facilities already established or to be established by the federal, state and local governments, and by the industries themselves, are not expected to relieve the shortage for a long period of time as the demand for increased production far outdistances the 35 per cent capacity of present labor forces," Mr. Butler said.

During the first half of this year Pacific coast industry continued to expand "at an unprecedented rate." National defence contracts awarded in the area amounted to $2,500,000,000 at the end of June with prospects of another $2,000,000,000 by the end of 1941.

Payrolls in the three Pacific coast states—Washington, Oregon and California—were 58 per cent higher to June 30 than in the corresponding period of 1940.

Industries Hit
In brief, here is the situation on the west coast as presented by Mr. Butler in his report to the Trade and Commerce department: Metals—"The west is becoming an increasingly important supplier of metals." Four new aluminum plants are being planned with a capacity of 240,000,000 pounds a year, raising the area total to 430,000,000 pounds or 30 per cent of the combined Canada-United States output. Steel production will be increased by 1,500,000 tons annually. The west already produces 95 per cent of the United States' copper and expansion is likely.
Shipbuilding—A $500,000,000 shipbuilding program is already under way on the Pacific coast and "this will probably be increased."
Aircraft—"The expansion of the west coast aircraft industry has been spectacular." Enormous plant expansions accounted for a production valued at $200,000,000 to June 30 and current production is $50,000,000 worth of planes monthly, "and this rate is expected to be doubled by the end of this year."
Lumber—"The industry is operating at almost full capacity with production at the end of June averaging 158,000,000 board feet a week.
Construction—"Privately financed residential building undertaken during the first half of the year, set new records. Federal government construction of permanent defence housing and barracks continues on a vast scale."
Gas Shortage
Mr. Butler said that a gasoline shortage might be threatening on the west coast, "an area where oil is in such abundance."
Inventory of Pacific coast crude oil and oil products in storage was reduced to June 30 by five per cent or more than 7,000,000 barrels.
"The cessation of commercial dealings with Japan cut exports of California oil by 62,000 barrels a day," he said. "But the greatest problem facing the oil industry is to find a means of transporting crudes to the refineries, and finished products to consuming markets."

Nova Scotia Dairymen Give $5,000 To Queen's Fund For Air Raid Victims

The milk and cream producers and creamery employees of Nova Scotia have raised more than $5,000 for the Queen's Canadian Fund for air raid victims. In co-operation with the creameries, each dairymen permitted one dollar to be deducted from his cream cheque.

In an editorial on what it describes as "one of the finest and most widespread movements of its kind in the history of the province," the Halifax Herald writes:

"Never before has response been so swift and universal as on this occasion when the needs of British men and women, boys and girls, bombed from their homes, were made plain to the residents of rural Nova Scotia.

"The results did not surprise W. J. Bird, dairy superintendent who originated the plan, and those farmers who organized the movement. They knew that, despite past years of depressed prices and high costs, farmers were prepared to bear their share of this as of other wartime campaigns. They knew that, though cash usually is the scarcest commodity in most farm homes, the dollars would be forthcoming.

"Here at once is a lesson in unified effort, a demonstration of what a concentration of small gifts can do and an example to those who may be fortunately placed but who have not yet contributed.

"The Queen's Canadian Fund in this province now exceeds $130,000. The great bulk of it has been given by citizens of no great means but who have realized that courage alone will not suffice the British people in this emergency that aid must be forthcoming from overseas. They have seen their opportunity and their obligations and, like those in the dairy industry whose gift is acknowledged today, they have assisted most generously."

The Queen's Canadian Fund operates in all parts of the United Kingdom through the Lord Mayor's National Air Raid Distress Fund.

Send contributions to Prince Rupert Daily News or the Royal Trust Company, 105 St. James St., Montreal or any of its branches. Every dollar subscribed goes forward without deduction.

That's the difficulty these days. There's no loose change going around at election time.

"Mebbe he's a few tablets behind, but he's a month ahead with his whisky!"

Two charwomen were discussing their husbands: neither seemed quite satisfied with her match.

"Anyway," said one, resignedly, "I say this much for my man: He's a gentleman at heart. He hates work."

Hobby: "Which one of these bottles of medicine is for me and which one for the dog?"

Wife: "It doesn't matter. Neither of them would hurt the dog."

"Yes."

"And how many models have you had before me?"

"Four. An apple, two oranges, and a vase of flowers."

Salmon Spawning Streams Filled With Water—Newington Back in Port—Halibut Convictions

James Boyd, district supervisor of fisheries, made an inspection trip of the northern part of the area, including the Naas River, just recently and found that streams, as a result of recent rains, are now quite high with a fairly good escapement of salmon to the spawning grounds. The fish, to a large extent, have now moved upstream. Mr. Boyd made the trip on the departmental cruiser Rividis.

For the first time in the four or five years since she left Prince Rupert, the Newington, operating out of here as a light-house tender, was back in port last Saturday. The Newington, now operated as a tugboat by the Pacific Coyle Navigation Co., is engaged in towing logs from the Queen Charlotte Islands to the mainland. She came in here from Captain's Cove. Except for some minor changes in order to accommodate her towing gear and the removal of her after mast, the Newington is little changed from when she was a lighthouse tender.

Hearings in connection with the prosecution of the local halibut boats Rose Spit, Capt. Hugh Miller and Mother III, Capt. A. Antonsen, charged with violation of the International Fisheries Commission regulations by fishing halibut in Area No. 2 during close season, were heard last week by Stipendiary Magistrate Andrew Thompson. T. W. Brown acted as counsel for the department. The Rose Spit was fined $200 for a first offence and the Mother III $400, confiscation of fish in each case being ordered.

The run of chum salmon on the east coast of the Queen Charlotte Islands at the south end is rather light and it was said at the Dominion Fisheries office this morning that there was a possibility the area would have to be closed at the end of this week for a period until some of the fish are able to get into the creeks. Except for Belia Bella and Smith's Inlet areas, all the mainland will be closed to fishing at the end of this week.

Adjournment has been made until Friday of the appeal in County Court of J. H. McLeod, in his capacity as collector of customs, against a decision of Magistrate W. D. Vance in city police court dismissing a charge against L. M. Asemissen of removing goods from the United States Army transport Kviechok without at first being cleared through the customs. C. F. McLean of Smith's is acting as counsel for the crown in this case while T. W. Brown is appearing for the respondent.

While the halibut fishing season ended on Sept. 14, some catches of this fish incidental to black cod fishing, in which a number of the local boats are still engaged, are expected to be arriving here. The final date for halibut incidental to black cod is Oct. 4. The allowance of halibut incidental to black cod is one pound to seven or about fourteen percent.

Word has been received at local offices of Canadian National Steamships confirming previous reports that the twice-weekly steamship service between Prince Rupert and Vancouver, in view of increased freight and passenger business, will be continued indefinitely into the fall and winter.

Indian Department's cruiser Naskeena is due back in port today from a trip to Port Simpson with the Indian agent, James Gillett. The Naskeena left yesterday afternoon.

With an unusually large quantity of Alaska fishery products for trans-shipment east over Canadian National Railways, Northland Transportation Co.'s steamer North Sea, Capt. Len Williams, was in port from 10:30 yesterday morning to midnight last night enroute from Ketchikan to Seattle.

ARE TEAMED IN ROMANCE

Irene Dunne and Cary Grant Head Cast of "Penny Serenade" at Capitol Theatre.

Irene Dunne and Cary Grant are happily reunited in a tender romantic drama, "Penny Serenade," which is the feature offering this week-end at the Capitol Theatre. It is a vivid, absorbing story of an errant newspaperman and his wife.

The young reporter and the music store salesgirl are married on a New Year's Eve half an hour before he must leave for Tokyo on a new assignment. Three months later the girl joins her husband. Grant's casual attitude towards responsibilities invites a barrier between the two. An earthquake, the loss of a baby they had been expecting and the knowledge that they can never have a child of their own create further problems. They return to America where Grant settles down as the editor of a small country newspaper. He succeeds in making his wife happy when they adopt a baby girl. Several years later the newspaperman reverts to his former irresponsibility following the death of the child. The marriage verges on divorce, but a happy climax comes with a combination of tears and laughter.

The supporting cast includes Seulah Bondi, Edgar Buchanan and Ann Doran.
