An Immortal Paragraph - - -

The immortal Tom Paine, a man who was branded periodically as an athiest, a patriot, a crank and a traitor by different groups of people at different times, fought for the independence of the United States and, during a period when everything looked blue for Washington's forces, he penned the following:

"These are the times that try men's souls. The summer soldier and the sunshine patriot will in this crisis shrink from the service of their country but he that stands it now deserves the love and thanks of man and woman. Tyranny, like hell, is not easily conquered. Yet, we have this consolation with us that, the harder the conflict, the more glorious the triumph. What we obtain too cheaply, we esteem too lightly. It is dearness only that gives every thing its value. Heaven knows how to set a proper price upon its goods and it would be strange indeed if so celestial an article as freedom should not be highly rated."

Fight Is Ours - - -

We of the British Empire can today share the sentiment penned so ably by Tom Paine. We are putting up j a great fight for liberty against tyranny. Those who are committee which organized the as the evening progressed. young and fit are giving their services in the army, the "Klondyke Night" for Smithers first All of the various side shows for quotation "Breathes there a man navy or the air force. It is our fight. We Canadians are carrying on the war under the mos favorable conditions. Our homes are not being desecrated and pillaged. We still retain liberty of movement and choice of occupation. Only in a small way have we suffered any disability as a result! of the war. We have to pay more taxes and the cost of burden on to someone else but the intention of the govliving is a little higher. Some have been able to pass the ernment is that each shall bear his own burden, cutting the cost of living to meet the situation.

Time To Buy - . .

Just now all who have money are being asked to buy government bonds for the purpose of raising money to WRIGLEY'S earry on our own war for liberty. Local committees have been formed for the purpose of trying to enthuse everyone with the idea of buying to the full extent of their ability. It is an easy way to help because the government will pay three per cent on the bonds whereas the banks pay only half of that amount. Also the bonds are just as safe as the banks. If the Germans win Canadian money will have no value and neither will government bonds. The banks! will be rifled and people will be paid in bogus German! money for whatever the invaders wish to take.

A united effort in the service of the country is what we need on this Empire Day. Those who can fight are asked to go overseas and take part in the actual fighting. Those who cannot fight but can work are asked to carry on with the shipbuilding and munitions program. Those! who can pay are asked to do so and do it now. Figure, not how little can we get by with, but how much can we invest so that the fight for freedom continues.

CANADA MUST BORROW $600,000,000

A Statement by the Minister of Finance

In money alone, this war is costing Canada in round figures, $4,000,000 a day. That is three and one-quarter times the daily cost of the last year of the last war. This conflict costs so much more because it is a battle of giant, swift machines . . . as well as of men. And to build other than the very best machines would be futile. They must be worthy of our men.

Canada dare not . . . and will not . . . sacrifice men for lack in quality or quantity of fighting machines. Hence we must produce them on a scale hitherto undreamed of.

To do this, Canada needs now to borrow from her citizens at least $600,000,000 in addition to the revenue raised by taxes. To obtain this money Canada will on June 2nd offer Victory Bonds.

Fortunately, Canadians have the money to buy these Victory Bonds.

This is shown by a greatly expanded national income and by record savings deposits.

If every person who has savings or who can make payments out of wages or income will invest in Victory Bonds, the Loan will be quickly subscribed. But the wholehearted support of every citizen is necessary.

What Canadians have done before, Canadians can and will do again. Our population was less than nine millions in 1918 and 1919. Yet in November, 1918, our people invested $616,000,000 in Victory Bonds. Eleven months later, in October 1919, they invested $572,000,000. The total subscribed for Victory Bonds in those two loans was $1,188,000,000. This year, with our population increased to more than twelve millions, the nation that did it before can do it again—and in greater measure.

The terms of the Loan will be announced May 31st. Get ready to buy every Bond that you can.

> NIPPON ON BLACKLIST LOS ANGELES- The British consulate, through an advertisement in a shipping newspaper, today warned that "the British government will impose all disabilities" on eleven large Japanese tankers and eighty-one smaller vessels operating in the Pacific. Shipping men interpreted all disabilities to include possible seizure of vessels and speculated the action was in reprisal for reported refuelling of Nazi raiders in mid-Pacific by Japanese oil tankers.
